

*Scottish Catholic Historical Association &
Scottish Catholic Archives
Seminar Series 2008-09*

Scottish Catholic Archives Reading Room
Columba House, 16 Drummond Place, Edinburgh, EH3 6PL
5:30pm

This new and innovative series of talks features a range of scholars and postgraduate students from respected universities and colleges. Our hope is that the seminars will stimulate and promote new research in the field of Catholic and religious history in Scotland. These monthly meetings will take place in the Reading Room of Columba House and everyone is welcome. The talks will be followed by questions and refreshments.

Speakers

14 October: Dr. S. Karly Kehoe (University of Guelph), "Associational Culture, Gender and Catholicism in nineteenth-century Scotland."

25 November: Prof. John Stewart (Glasgow Caledonian University), "The Catholic Church and Child Guidance in Central Scotland, 1930-1950."

27 January: Postgraduate Progress Session: Andrew Smith (University of Glasgow) and Sally Tuckett (University of Edinburgh)

24 February: Dr. Annie Tindley (Glasgow Caledonian University), "The Crofter's War, 1880-1895: Land reform and the Clearances."

24 March: Dr. Matthew Hammond (University of Edinburgh) "'Who would deny that the Scots are barbarians?': English views of the Scots in the twelfth century."

28 April: Dr. Andrew Newby (University of Aberdeen), "'The Approaching Consolidation of the Aurora Borealis': Scotland and the Roman Catholic Polar Mission, 1855-1870."

Feel free to contact the archives for more information: 0131 556 3661 or archivists@scottishcatholicarchives.org.uk