THE CATHOLIC GAZETTE

is the official monthly journal of The Catholic Missionary Society and The Catholic Enquiry Centre. It is primarily concerned with the return of these islands to their ancient Faith. Its motto is "To Bring Back the Faith of Our Fathers." It gives the Catholic view on current topics about which Christian people seek guidance. It describes the progress and work of The Catholic Missionary Society, which specialises in preaching Missions to non-Catholics, and The Catholic Enquiry Centre, which advertises the Faith in the secular press and is providing thousands of non-Catholics with a Correspondence Course on the teaching of Christ's Church. It provides an answer to moral and religious problems sent in by Catholics and non-Catholics. It reviews all the latest Catholic books. No thinking Catholic should be without THE CATHOLIC GAZETTE. Enquiries or orders should be sent to:

III.—THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals, as the advisers and assistants of the Sovereign Pontiff, are the Supreme council or senate of the Church. On the death of the Pontiff, they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Bishops, Priests and Deacons. These orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy; with very few exceptions, the Cardinal Priests are archbishops and bishops; and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests.

The Sacred College, when complete, consists of 70 members; 6 Cardinal Bishops, whose Dioceses are the six "Suburban Sees," near Rome; 50 Cardinal Priests, who take their title from the "Titular Churches," to which they are appointed, with jurisdiction and right to a throne, etc., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to other churches called "Deaconries."

The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean, the first of the Priests is First Priest, and the first of the Deacons is First Deacon, of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning, a new Pope.

On the death of the Pontiff the Cardinal Camerlengo has the administration of the public affairs of the Holy See.

The "creation" of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, its "publication" or proclamation. The Cardinal is then said to be "reserved in petto," and, when proclaimed, he takes precedence according to date of creation.

He was ordained for the Diocese of Paisley on the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul, 1954, in the Cathedral, Paisley, by the Right Rev. Bishop Black, and he is now stationed at St. Peter's, Partick.

Rev. Thomas Nolan, who was born at Outrath, Kilkenny, on the 26th May, 1929, was educated at St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny. He was ordained for the Diocese of Paisley on 6th June, 1954, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kilkenny, by the Right Rev. Patrick Collier, Bishop of Ossory, and is now stationed at St. Joseph's, Clarkston.

Rev. James Quinn was born on the 7th November, 1929, at Dromline, Bunratty, Cratloe, Co. Clare. He was educated at St. Flannan's College, Ennis, and at St. Patrick's College, Thurles. He was ordained for the Diocese of Paisley on the 6th June, 1954, at the Cathedral, Thurles, by the Most Rev. Jeremiah Kinane, Archbishop of Cashel, and is now stationed at St. Margaret Mary's, Edinburgh.

Rev. Joseph Quinn, born on the 8th January, 1928, at Cloughlea, Sixmilebridge, Co. Clare, was educated at St. Patrick's College, Thurles. He was ordained for Paisley Diocese on the 6th June, 1954, in the Cathedral, Thurles, by the Most Rev. Jeremiah Kinane, Archbishop of Cashel, and is now stationed at St. Vincent de Paul's, Thornliebank, Glasgow.

SECTION III.

OBITUARIES—1954

Rev. Patrick Casey—5th February, 1954

On Friday, 5th February, 1954, the Archdiocese of Glasgow sustained a great loss when Father Patrick Casey died. He was fifty years of age and had been a priest for almost twenty-six years.

A native of Killarney, Co. Kerry, he received his secondary education in St. Brendan's Diocesan Seminary and studied for the priesthood in St. Kieran's Ecclesiastical College, Kilkenny. On the 10th June, 1928, he was ordained by the Most Rev. Dr. Roche, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kilkenny, and he began his priestly work in the Archdiocese of Glasgow in August of that year. After spending a short time as temporary assistant in St. Patrick's, Dumbarton, and St. Mary's, Longriggend, he was appointed to St. John the Baptist's, Port-Glasgow. Four years later he came to St. Alphonsus', a densely populated parish in the east end of Glasgow, where he laboured diligently and faithfully until the year 1949.

In June of that year he was appointed by His Grace Archbishop Campbell as the first parish priest of the newly-established parish of Our Lady and St. George, Penilee. In June, 1953, he celebrated with joy and gratitude the silver jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood, and almost immediately was struck by an illness that was to prove fatal.

For seven months he suffered with patience and resignation until God called him on the 5th February, 1954.

Father Casey was priestly in every sense of the word. He was priestly in manner; priestly in bearing; priestly in his outlook on life. He was quiet, gentle and reserved; had an extremely sensitive nature and shunned publicity of every kind. When he was still very young his parents died, and this would account for a certain sadness that sometimes seemed to surround him.

Yet he was a sincere and helpful friend, and though very retiring in disposition he yearned for the company of others, especially his fellow priests, and he was deeply grateful to those who called to see him during the months prior to his death.

As parish priest of Our Lady and St. George's, he was intensely happy. He was very proud of his new parish and very devoted to his people. It was a painful trial to him that during the months previous to his death he was unable to be amongst these people and children whom he loved and cherished so much. But his thoughts were constantly turned towards them. Forgetting his own sorrows, he was ever praising their loyalty and their goodness and looking forward to brighter days and the accomplishment of great things for the Church and the parish.

But these things were not to be. The end came suddenly, and yet one felt that he knew it was approaching, and he accepted it with full resignation to the Will of God. He died on Friday, 5th February, 1954, and amid scenes of great sorrow his remains were removed to the church on Sunday evening.

On Monday, 8th February, about two hundred priests, not only from the Archdiocese of Glasgow, but from the dioceses of Motherwell, Paisley, Edinburgh and Galloway, were present at the Solemn Requiem Mass celebrated by the Very Rev. George Canon Galbraith of Our Lady of Lourdes, Cardonald, and presided over by His Grace Archbishop Campbell.

At the end of Mass the Archbishop spoke with deep feeling as he paid a last tribute to this good and faithful priest.

The funeral took place to St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth, where Canon Galbraith officiated at the graveside. May he rest in peace.

Walter Canon Welsh—12th March, 1954

Walter Canon Welsh, member of the Chapter of the Archdiocese of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, and parish priest of St. Francis Xavier's, Falkirk, died on 12th March, 1954.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by His Grace the Archbishop, in the presence of the members of the Chapter and a large gathering of the clergy from every diocese in the country. The church was crowded with people of all walks in life, including representatives of the local civic dignitaries. After Mass, the mile-long route to the cemetery was lined with the school children and thronged with the many thousands who had been unable to gain admission to the church, but who were eager to pay this last token of respect to their beloved Canon.

These universal marks of esteem and affection were a true reflection of the genius for friendship possessed by this great little priest. He was never happier than when his house was full of his brother priests. Every priest, from the youngest to the most venerable, was sure of a warm welcome at the presbytery in Falkirk.

The Canon's great charity was well known to every waif and stray in the countryside, and, although he knew that he was often imposed upon, he saw in them all the image of his beloved Master, and no one was ever turned away empty-handed.

In years to come, many men and women will cherish vivid memories of happy childhood events, devised by Canon Welsh, to give them pleasure. It would be difficult to say who derived the greater enjoyment from frequent outings to the seaside, a visiting circus or a special cinema show—the Canon or the happy bands of children who accompanied him on these occasions. If he singled out any of his children for special attention, it was those in whom he discerned signs of a vocation to the priesthood. The large number of distinguished priests whose thoughts were first turned towards the altar by Canon Welsh in this way is a tribute to his perspicacity and devotedness.

It will be difficult to imagine a diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes without him, and there are many whose memories of the Rue du Bac will be coloured by the presence of the Canon.

Walter Welsh was born at Stirling on 18th January, 1886. He entered Blairs in September, 1900. He proceeded to Valladolid in 1903, and was transferred to Propaganda College, Rome, where, after seven years' residence, he was ordained priest on 23rd April, 1912. Before returning home, during the same year, he graduated as Doctor of Divinity. On his arrival in Scotland he served at St. Patrick's, Edinburgh, where he remained until he was appointed parish priest at Grangemouth in 1917. The steady progress in the spiritual life of the parish during the twenty-one years of his tenure of office was crowned by the building of the magnificent new church which now serves the needs of this thriving parish.

From 1938 until his death, he was in charge of the important parish of St. Francis Xavier, Falkirk. During these years he was elevated to the dignity of Canon of the Chapter.

Walter Canon Welsh was a learned theologian and a man of shrewd judgment. These qualifications brought him many onerous duties in the wider field of administration in the affairs of the Archdiocese. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Joseph Francis Cassidy—4th July, 1954.

Pray for the soul of the Reverend Joseph Francis Cassidy of the Diocese of Dunkeld who died at Largs on Sunday, July 4th., 1954.

Fr. Cassidy was born at Lochee (Dundee) on December 20th, 1894. He entered Blairs College, Aberdeen, on the 11th of August, 1910, and in November, 1914, proceeded to the Urban College of Propaganda in Rome to pursue his studies of Philosophy, Theology and allied subjects. He was ordained Priest on the 3rd of April, 1920, by His Eminence Cardinal Pompili in the Basilica of St. John Lateran.

On his return to Scotland in the summer of the same year, he was appointed to the Church of St. John the Baptist, Perth. This was his only appointment. He served there till the spring of 1933.

Of fine physical appearance, he was a noted singer and an eloquent speaker.

His Obsequies took place at Dundee in the Cathedral of St. Andrew on Wednesday, July 7th. Monsignor Canon Foylan, V.G., sang the Solemn Requiem Mass, gave the Absolutions and officiated at the interment in Balgay Cemetery. May he rest in peace. Amen.

Rev. Henry Corr—20th July, 1954

Rev. Henry Corr was born in Aughamullin, Co. Tyrone, on the 24th March, 1883.

As a young boy he came to Motherwell, and in the year 1898 he entered Blairs College. On completion of his five years in Blairs he was sent to Scots College, Rome, where, in the year 1908 he was ordained a priest by Archbishop Ceppetelli. In June, 1909, he took up his first appointment as a curate in St. Anthony's, Govan, where he remained until appointed priest in charge of St. Athanasius', Carluke. Four years later he was appointed to St. James', Renfrew, and in 1931 he was promoted to the charge of All Saints', Coatdyke. In the year 1936 he was appointed to St. Stephen's, Dalmuir, and remained there until the horrible blitz of March, 1941, when the church and house were destroyed by enemy action. In the month of April of the same year he was appointed successor to the Rev. Dr. McEwan at Our Holy Redeemer's, Clydebank, but, six weeks later, he had a nervous breakdown. However, the next year he was appointed parish priest of St. Brigid's, Kilbirnie, where he remained for three years, at the end of which he was appointed to the city parish of St. John's Portugal Street. Unfortunately, he had a recurrence of his illness and he retired to St. Mary's Hospital, Lanark. After a while, he was resident with Canon Ashe in St. Joseph's, Blantyre, where he remained until 1951, when he returned to Lanark for two years, at the end of which he went to Musselburgh, where he died on the 20th July, 1954, having received the last rites of the Church from the Rev. Charles Burns.

Solemn Requiem Mass was offered in St. John's, Portugal Street, by the Very Rev. George Canon Galbraith, assisted by the Rev. C. O'Leary as Deacon and Rev. Nicholas Rowan as Sub-Deacon.

The Right Rev. Bishop Black was present in the Sanctuary. His Grace the Archbishop was unavoidably absent, being at the time in Lourdes with the Glasgow Marian Year Pilgrimage.

Father Corr, from the time of his ordination until his health broke down, was an extraordinarily hard worker. Most priests who were his contemporaries bear witness to his zeal for the sick and the dying in Merryflats—the hospital now known as the Southern General. He was by nature determined and forthright, and one may make bold to say that he had a stubborn nature. But, while this may not be a pleasing disposition in most men, it led to his sanctification. He was determined that nothing would disturb his way of life. He was punctual for every duty. In church at least three-quarters of an hour before his Mass each morning. His long thanksgiving after Mass, his daily visitation to the people forenoon and evening, his hour in the church from four to five every day. These were the priestly virtues which those who knew him admired and respected. May he rest in peace.

Rev. William Lowery—21st September, 1954

The announcement of the death of Father William Lowery was an unexpected and very great shock, both to his parishioners of St. Catherine's and to the priests of the Archdiocese. Only ten days had elapsed since they had honoured him publicly on the celebration of his silver jubilee in the priesthood. At that time the whole work of the parish lay on his shoulders. No one suspected that perhaps he was not too well, that the strain was a bit too much. He had organised the new parish of which he was the first parish priest.

All that remained was to put the seal on his activities by laying a sure spiritual foundation on which the parish might live and thrive. He arranged for its first Mission to open on the Sunday following his Jubilee celebrations. The Vincentian Fathers opened the Mission on the 19th September, but Father Lowery lived for only two days of it. On Tuesday 21st, he did not appear for the Mission Mass at 10 a.m., and it was then discovered that only a few moments previously Almighty God had called him into eternity at the comparatively young age of fifty.

Father Lowery was born in Tuam, Co. Galway, on the 25th July, 1904. After a brilliant classical career, during which he won the distinction of being an all-Ireland Exhibitioner, he went to Maynooth in 1922. He entered St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in 1926, and was ordained a priest by the late Archbishop Mackintosh in St. Andrew's Cathedral on the 29th June, 1929. After a short period in All Saints', Coatdyke, he was appointed curate in St. Joseph's, Tollcross, where he was to remain for twenty-one years. In 1950 he was specially chosen by the Archbishop to open a parish in the rapidly expanding new housing scheme in Auchenairn and North Balornock. The great work of his life now lay before him—the material and spiritual organisation of this new parish. His time for this tremendous task was, in fact, very brief; no one, apart perhaps from himself, realised how brief it would be. Yet, in the four years spared to him, it could be said that he did complete his task. Proof of this was evinced on that beautiful Sunday in September, 1953, when a large assembly of clergy and laity witnessed the solemn opening of the new church by His Grace the Archbishop of Glasgow—a beautiful and devotional edifice dedicated to St. Catherine Labouré, the Patroness of the parish and the saint of the Miraculous Medal, to whom Father Lowery had a very deep devotion. It was indeed a great tribute to him and to his work in Tollcross as chaplain to the Sisters of Charity School that His Grace dedicated the new parish to this canonized Sister of Charity.

Father Lowery was a priest of mild, retiring disposition, yet quite assertive when the occasion demanded. He was gifted with a clear mind, and, when he did express his views, one realised that his was a penetrating intellect. The very large attendance at his funeral showed that his gifts as a priest and a friend, were widely appreciated, not only by his parishioners who showed the traditional Catholic devotion and love for their parish priest, but also, and especially, by the people of Tollcross. His death was a grievous loss to the Archdiocese, but let us thank God that Father Lowery was spared to lay the foundation of Catholic parish life in Auchenairn and North Balornock, on which future generations may safely build. May his soul rest in peace.

The Very Rev. John Canon Ryan—22nd October, 1954

The Very Rev. John Canon Ryan, a priest of the Archdiocese of Glasgow, died on Friday, 22nd October, 1954, at the presbytery of Holy Cross, Croy, Dunbartonshire. He was born at Holy Cross, Thurles, Co. Tipperary, on the 29th November, 1886. He entered Thurles College in 1903, and afterwards came to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, where he completed his course of theological studies. He was ordained by the Most Rev. Donald Mackintosh, Archbishop of Chersona, on the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul, 1913. Father Ryan's first appointment was to St. John's Port-Glasgow, where he worked for seventeen years. At the end of this period he was sent as parish priest to St. Athanasius', Carlisle: he remained here only for seven months, being transferred to Glenboig, where the building of a new school had involved the parish in heavy debt. In 1934, he was chosen to open the new parish of St. Mungo's, Greenock, a parish which had been formed almost entirely from his old district in St. John's, Port-Glasgow, which he knew intimately. After ten years at St. Mungo's, Greenock, Father Ryan was called upon by Monsignor Daly, Vicar Capitular, to take charge of the important urban parish of St. Alphonsus'. He accepted this appointment, though he felt from the beginning that his health would not stand up to the strain. He waited till the new Archbishop was appointed and asked for a less arduous post. Archbishop Campbell kindly acceded to his request and he was given charge of the rural mission of Croy, which is probably the most Catholic district in the whole land.

All his life, as student and as priest, Canon Ryan was quiet and unassuming. He was an excellent example of a good and virtuous priest, fulfilling his sacred duties in an unobtrusive, painstaking way, seeking no honour, but having the satisfaction of knowing that he was carrying out the will of God. He was never very strong physically and, on many occasions, he must have felt his priestly duties an overtaxing strain, as for instance when he was appointed to St. Alphonsus', Glasgow. The years he spent at Croy were perhaps the happiest of his life: he had the complete loyalty of one of the best congregations in the Archdiocese and the remoteness from the bustling life of the city admirably suited his quiet way of life and unassuming disposition.

He fell ill in the early summer of this year and, after treatment in two different hospitals, he returned to Croy in the beginning of July. Unfortunately, he had to return to hospital and, after an operation, he came home on Thursday, 21st October, and died the following day.

His Grace Archbishop Campbell presided at the funeral Mass on Monday, 25th October, at which a very large number of priests and laity attended. The Mass was sung by a classmate of earlier days, the Very Rev. Thomas Canon Rourke, assisted by Father Thomas Reilly and Father John Hanrahan. A very large number accompanied the cortege to Dalbeth, where the Very Rev. John Canon Tennant read the prayers at the graveside. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Anthony O'Connell—25th November, 1954.

The Rev. Anthony O'Connell was born at Moyne, Co. Tipperary, on the 7th July, 1896. He pursued his ecclesiastical studies at St. Patrick's College, Thurles, and was ordained for Galloway Diocese in the Cathedral of Thurles, on the 5th June, 1921, by the Most Rev. John Harty, Archbishop of Cashel.

When he came to Scotland, in 1921, Father O'Connell was appointed to St. Mary's, and later, to St. Joseph's, Dundee, before he settled in his own Diocese of Galloway. For over twenty years, Father O'Connell suffered from a bronchial complaint. This condition forced him for a time, in the early years of his priestly life, to seek a milder climate in England. When he returned to Galloway Diocese he was appointed curate at Girvan and, in 1931, on the death of Canon Richard Mullins, he became parish priest of that parish. Father O'Connell's health continued to give trouble and, at length, he decided to take up work in the Diocese of St. Augustine, Florida, in the United States, where the climate would permit him to regain his health.

On his way to take up his new duties in America, Father O'Connell paid a visit to his relatives at Thurles and, here, in his native town, he collapsed and died on 25th November, 1954.

Requiem Mass was offered in Twomileborris Church, Thurles, on Saturday, 27th November; His Lordship Bishop McGee of Galloway, accompanied by Father John W. O'Sullivan of Dumfries Cathedral, were present. The funeral took place afterwards to Johnstown Cemetery. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Alexander Mackintosh—10th December, 1954.

The Rev. Alexander Mackintosh was born at Bunroy, Lochaber, on the 18th April, 1878. He entered Blairs College in September, 1894 from which college he passed to the college of Notre Dame des Champs, Paris, and finally to the Scots College, Rome. He was ordained, on 2nd April, 1904, by Cardinal Respighi in the Basilica of St. John Lateran, Rome.

His first appointment on returning home to Scotland was as a curate in St. John's, Glasgow. He was a native Gaelic speaker and served for some years at Oban Cathedral and St. Mun's, Dunoon. For a few years he was priest-in-charge of the Mission of Glenboig and, since 1936, he had been living in retirement in his native Roy Bridge. He died there on 10th December, 1954.

Requiem Mass was sung by Father Dominic MacKellaig in St. Margaret's Church, Roy Bridge, on Monday, 13th December, and the funeral was at Cillechaoril. May he rest in peace.

APPENDIX I.

ECCLESIASTICAL LAWS AND OBSERVANCES.

1. EASTER DUTIES AND INDULGENCES.

THE Faithful of Scotland are authorised to satisfy the obligation of the Paschal Communion and to gain the Plenary Indulgence on any day from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday. (S.C.C.: 11th Oct., 1946).

2. FAST AND ABSTINENCE DAYS.

The new Code of Canon Law makes many important changes in the general law of fasting and abstinence. The Indult, however, granted in perpetuity to Scotland by the Holy See on 27th January, 1911, still continues in force. The regulations of both Code and Indult as they apply to Scotland are here summarised.

A. LAWS OF FASTING.

1. The law of fasting is binding on all between their 21st and 59th birthdays, unless they are excused by reason of health or the nature of their employment.

In all cases of doubt a confessor should be consulted.

2. On Fast days only one full meal, which may be taken either at midday or in the evening, is allowed.

In addition two light collations are permitted, one consisting of two or three ounces of food, which may include a little butter, jam or marmalade, and the other of eight to ten ounces, at which butter, cheese, eggs, or fish may be taken. Milk is allowed at either of these collations.

On Fast days which are not also days of abstinence, flesh meat and soup made from meat may be taken only at the chief meal by those bound to fast. The old law, forbidding the use of fish and flesh at the same meal, is abolished.

3. The Fast days of the year are:—

(a) The Ember days.

(b) The Vigils or Eves of Pentecost, the Assumption, All Saints and Christmas, but when any of these Feasts falls on a Monday, though the Vigil is observed on the previous Saturday, it does not carry with it the obligation of fasting or abstinence.

On Christmas Eve the quantity of food permitted at the evening collation may be doubled.

(c) All the days of Lent, except Sundays, but on Holy Saturday the fast ends at midday.

4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a Fast day

B. LAWS OF ABSTINENCE.

1. The use of flesh meat or of soup made from meat is forbidden on Abstinence days to all who have completed their 7th year.

2. The use of eggs, butter, margarine, as well as of dripping, lard, suet or other condiments made from animal fat, is allowed on all days of the year without exception.

3. The days of Abstinence are:—

(a) The Fridays throughout the year.

(b) The Ember Wednesdays.

(c) The Vigils of the Assumption, All Saints and Christmas, except when any of these Vigils falls on a Saturday or Sunday.

(d) In Lent, Ash Wednesday, Ember Saturday, and (up to midday) Holy Saturday.

4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a day of Abstinence.

(APPROVED BY THE HIERARCHY, 11th October, 1932.)

N.B.—For the time being the above legislation is modified by an Indult, issued by the Holy See on January 28th, 1949, which reduces the number of days on which the laws of fast and abstinence must be observed in the following manner: "until provision is made otherwise, abstinence should be observed every Friday, the law of abstinence together with fast on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the Vigils of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Indult also adds a concession in the quality of food permitted: "graciously granting, nevertheless, that on days of abstinence together with fast it will everywhere be permissible to take eggs and milk products even in the morning and the evening."

3. NEW REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE EUCHARISTIC FAST.

A.

The Law of the Eucharistic Fast from midnight as defined in Canons 808 and 858§1 of the Code of Canon Law, continues to bind all who do not belong to the categories noted in the Apostolic Constitution Christus Dominus (6th January, 1953) and interpreted by the subsequent Instruction published by the Holy Office.

In the first place, the drinking of water is no longer to be regarded as breaking the Eucharistic Fast. This concession applies to everyone.

Secondly, concessions are given to two classes of lay-people, but in each case the advice of a confessor must be sought.

(A) Those who are sick (even though they are not confined to bed) may, on the advice of a confessor, take non-alcoholic drink or medicine (even solid medicine) if by reason of their illness or because of grave inconvenience, they cannot observe the complete fast in preparation for Holy Communion. There is no limitation of time to be observed in this case.

(B) The Faithful who, even though they are not sick, are prevented by grave inconvenience from keeping the complete Eucharistic Fast may be granted certain concessions but always on the advice of their confessor. Three types of grave inconvenience are recognised in the Instruction of the Holy Office and these are:—

- (1) Tiring or weakening work undertaken before Communion. Under this heading come:
 - (a) Manual work in factories and elsewhere.
 - (b) Night work (as in the cases of nurses, night-watchmen, etc.).
 - (c) Mothers of families and pregnant women, engaged in domestic duties before going to Church.
- (2) The lateness of the hour when Holy Communion may be received.
- (3) The length of the journey to Church, which is interpreted as meaning about $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles if the journey is on foot, and proportionally longer according to the vehicle used, always taking into account the condition of the person concerned.

In such cases of grave inconvenience, non-alcoholic liquids may be taken up to one hour before receiving Holy Communion.

B.

When Mass is said in the evening, the Faithful who have not already received Holy Communion that day, may communicate at that Mass. In these circumstances, the usual meals may be taken, but only up to three hours before receiving Holy Communion. During the meal which is permitted up to three hours before Communion, one may take the beverages which are customary, but all spirituous liquors are forbidden. Moreover, before or after the meal one may take something to drink (all forms of alcoholic drink being completely excluded) up to one hour before Holy Communion.

4. MARRIAGES.

Marriage may be contracted on any day of the year. The Solemnising of Marriage, i.e., the Solemn Blessing of the Church which is given only during Mass, is forbidden from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, and from the first Sunday of Advent to Christmas Day, all dates being inclusive. Bishops, however, may for a just reason allow the Solemnising of Marriage any day during the forbidden periods, provided the laws of the Liturgy be observed. A widow, who has already received this Blessing, may not again be blessed at any subsequent marriage.

Marriage is constituted by the free consent of two parties taking one another for husband and wife. Anything interfering with the freedom of consent, in the way of serious error, grave fear and violence, may endanger the validity of the marriage bond.

The age required for valid marriage is sixteen years complete in the case of the man, fourteen years complete in that of the woman; those under twenty-one years of age should before marriage inform their parents and obtain their consent.

Marriage cannot be contracted without a Dispensation by persons within the third degree of kindred or the second degree of affinity; if attempted the marriage is invalid. Spiritual kindred contracted by Baptism, i.e., between a god-parent and a god-child, is also an invalidating impediment.

Marriage between a Catholic and an unbaptised person is invalid without a dispensation.

A "mixed" marriage (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptised, does not profess the Catholic Faith) is unlawful without a Dispensation; and the Dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions as laid down by the Council of Fort Augustus (Decr., xvii. 5): (1) That all children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptised, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. (2) That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. (3) That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place elsewhere than before the Catholic Priest.

(4) That the Catholic party shall endeavour to effect the conversion of the non-Catholic party to the true faith of Christ. These promises will ordinarily be made in writing by the parties.

For parties preparing for marriage, the golden rule is: Give very early notice to the parish priest, who will furnish precise and helpful instructions as to both civil and ecclesiastical requirements. Banns have to be proclaimed on three consecutive Sundays or Holidays, and evidence of Baptism has to be furnished by both parties, even in the case of a mixed marriage. If it can be done without serious inconvenience, Catholics should be confirmed before marriage. As a general rule, the parish priest of the bride, in the case of a mixed marriage the parish priest of the Catholic party, will take charge of the marriage.

The Decree Ne temere, which became law in Scotland only on the 1st of September, 1908, made important regulations for the celebration of marriage, either between two Catholics, or between a Catholic and a non-Catholic. These regulations have been incorporated into, and somewhat modified by, the new Code of Canon Law, which came into force on the 19th May, 1918. The following points should be noted:—

I. Engagements, even when formally and solemnly contracted, afford no canonical ground for claiming a fulfilment of the promise.

II. Only those marriages are valid which are contracted before the parish priest or the Ordinary of the place, or a priest delegated by either of these, and at least two witnesses.

III. The parish priest and the Ordinary of the place validly assist at a marriage:

(a) only within the limits of their territory; within which they assist validly at marriages not only of their own subjects, but also of those not subject to them;

(b) provided that not compelled by violence or by grave fear they ask and receive the consent of the contracting parties.

IV. They assist licitly:

(a) when they have legitimately ascertained the free state of the contracting parties;

(b) when they have ascertained that one of the contracting parties has a domicile, or at least has lived for a month in the place where the marriage takes place.

V. When the parish priest or Ordinary or delegate as above (No. II.) cannot be got:

(a) in danger of death marriage may be validly and licitly contracted before two witnesses only;

(b) outside the case of danger of death, when these conditions are prudently considered as likely to last for a month, marriage may be contracted before two witnesses only.

(c) in either case, if any priest is at hand, he should be called in to assist; but his presence or absence does not affect the validity of the marriage.

VI. (a) The above laws are binding on all persons baptised in the Catholic Church, and on those who have been converted to it from heresy or schism.

(b) The same laws are binding on the same Catholics as above, if they contract marriage with non-Catholics, baptised or unbaptised, even after a Dispensation has been obtained.

(c) Non-Catholics, whether baptised or unbaptised, who contract among themselves, are nowhere bound to observe the Catholic form of marriage.

5. SICK CALLS.

All sick calls should be given in at the Priest's house at a timely hour in the morning. If this reasonable rule were adhered to, it would save the Clergy much unnecessary labour and the people many disappointments, which they may justly ascribe to their own want of system.

On Saturdays, eves of Holidays, and other days which are generally devoted to the Confessional, the priest should not, if possible, be called away from this important duty. Unless in cases of necessity, sick calls should not be made on Saturdays or Sundays, when the Clergy have so many other duties to attend to.

It is the duty of the people to conform to whatever regulations may be made by the Clergy, on these and other matters connected with Religion, in their respective congregations. All things should be done in order, according to the advice of St. Paul.

When the priest is called to attend a sick person, everything that he requires for the administration of the Sacraments should be furnished as becomingly as possible in the room where the sick person lies—viz., a table covered with a clean linen cloth, on which should be laid 2 candles, a vessel of holy water with a sprinkler, a small vessel of common water for the purification of the priest's fingers after the administration of the Holy Viaticum, and a napkin for the sick person at the time of Communion. As the priest generally brings the Blessed Sacrament on these occasions, everything should be so becomingly prepared, according to their means, as to show the great respect of the inmates for Jesus Christ, and the high value they set upon the honour thus rendered to their house in the visit of their Lord and Redeemer.

While the priest is administering the Viaticum and Extreme Unction, the assistants should devoutly offer up their prayers to God on behalf of the sick person, to implore that he may receive those Sacraments with the necessary dispositions.

APPENDIX II.

INDULGENCES AND DEVOTIONS

1. INDULGENCES.

EXPLANATION OF INDULGENCES.

An indulgence is a remission of the whole, or part, of the temporal punishment that often remains to be suffered for sins which, as to their guilt and eternal punishment, have been already remitted. For the effect and validity of an Indulgence it is not only necessary that there be a competent authority in him who grants it, and a just cause or motive for the grant, but it is also necessary, on the part of him who obtains it, that he renounce and be sincerely sorry for all his sins, that he be in the state of grace, and that he duly perform the conditions prescribed. Of Indulgences, some are called plenary, which, when fully obtained, remit the whole of the temporal punishment that remained due on account of past sins; others are for a certain number of years or days, which when fully obtained, remit as much of the temporal punishment as would have been discharged by the performance of so many years or days of Canonical Penance. Thus, by a quarantine Indulgence was meant the remission of so much of the future penalty (poena) of sin as is the equivalent of keeping a Lent according to the strict discipline of the Church. Quarantines are no longer mentioned in the official collection of indulgenced prayers (Vatican Press, 1938).

Indulgences attached to sacred objects, such as rosaries, etc., are available to any person using these objects, and the Indulgences cease only when the thing is destroyed or sold.

The conditions for most Plenary Indulgences include Confession, Communion, Visit to a Church and prayers for the Pope's intentions. For an Indulgence granted for any particular day, Confessions made eight days before will suffice; Communion may be made the day before, and both Confession and Communion any day within the Octave. For Triduums, Novenas and suchlike, Confession and Communion may be made any day within the Octave after the conclusion of the exercises. For daily communicants, or for those who confess regularly twice a month, no special confession is necessary. The visit may be made to any church or oratory and may be made from noon of the preceding day to midnight of the last day of the time appointed. Prayer for the Pope's intentions should be recited vocally and not merely mentally. Jubilee Indulgences, as well as some others, have their own special conditions.

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO SCOTLAND.

1. From the Feast of St. Thomas, Apostle, 21st December, to the first Sunday after the Epiphany, inclusively.
2. From Ash-Wednesday to the second Sunday of Lent, inclusively.
3. During the time appointed in each Diocese for complying with Easter duties.

4. From Pentecost Sunday to Sunday after Corpus Christi.
5. From Sunday before the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul to the Octave Day.
6. From Sunday before the Feast of the Assumption to the Octave Day.
7. From Sunday before the Feast of All Saints to the Octave Day.
8. On the Feast of St. Andrew, and during the Octave.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING THESE INDULGENCES.

1. That within the time prescribed the faithful approach the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist.

When Confession is required as a condition for gaining an indulgence, it may be made eight days before or eight days after. The Holy Communion prescribed may be made the day before or within the eight days after. One Confession and Communion will suffice for the gaining of several Plenary Indulgences on the same day. Canon 931.

2. That on the day of their Communion they offer up some prayers to God for the happy state of the whole Church of Christ, for its Supreme Pastor the Bishop of Rome, for peace and concord between all Christian Princes; for the exaltation and propagation of the Holy Catholic Faith, especially in our own country, and for the eternal salvation of all Christians.

3. That, if they have an opportunity, they visit within the limited time some church or oratory, and pray to God as has been mentioned before.

4. That, if their circumstances enable them, they perform some works of mercy.

To gain any number of times a Plenary Indulgence granted toties quoties the necessary and sufficient prayers to be said for the Pope's intention at each visit to a church are six Our Fathers, six Hail Marys, and six Glorias. (A.A.S., 1930, 363.)

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO ALL THE FAITHFUL.

THE INDULGENCES OF THE STATIONS.

The nature and number of the indulgences attached to the Stations of the Cross by the Holy See in the course of the centuries had become uncertain in consequence of the loss of authentic documents. The Holy See therefore has abolished all indulgences hitherto conceded and grants to all the faithful who with contrite heart make the Stations of the Cross the following indulgences:—

1. A Plenary Indulgence as often as the Stations of the Cross are made.

2. Another Plenary Indulgence if they go to Holy Communion on the same day on which they make the Stations; or if, having made the Stations ten times they go to Holy Communion within a month.

3. A Partial Indulgence of ten years for each Station they have made, if after beginning the Stations they are unable, for some reasonable cause, to complete them.

The sick, who are unable to recite a suitable ejaculation, may still gain a Plenary Indulgence by merely kissing or looking upon the crucifix specially blessed.

The sick, those travelling, and any others legitimately impeded gain the Indulgence, if while holding in their hands the crucifix specially blessed, they say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria twenty times, that is fourteen times for the fourteen Stations, five in memory of the Sacred Wounds, and once for the Pope's intention. If some reasonable cause prevents the completion of this exercise, these persons may gain a Partial Indulgence of ten years for each time they have recited an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Gloria.

PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of August all may gain a Plenary Indulgence as often as they visit a Franciscan Church or any Church enjoying the privilege of the Portiuncula, and say six Paters, six Aves, and six Glorias for the Pope's intention. The usual condition of Confession and Holy Communion is enjoined.

COMMEMORATION OF THE HOLY SOULS.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of November or on the following Sunday all may gain a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, as often as they visit a Church or public or semi-public oratory and say the prayers for the Pope's intention.

VISITING A CATHOLIC CEMETERY.

During the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, may be gained by the faithful who visit a Catholic Cemetery on the usual conditions (31st October, 1934).

THE CATECHISM INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence on any two days of each month may be gained by all who either teach or learn the catechism for the space of at least twenty minutes twice in the month. The usual conditions of Confession, Communion, visit to a church and prayer for the Pope's intention are prescribed. For every such period devoted to teaching or learning the catechism a partial indulgence of 100 days may be gained by the contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1930, 343.)

ROSARY INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence, under the usual conditions of Confession and Communion, may be gained by anyone of the faithful who devoutly recites five decades of the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament exposed for public veneration, or reserved in the tabernacle. (A.A.S., Sept., 1927.)

THE HOLY HOUR.

All who perform the pious exercise of the Holy Hour in any church, public oratory, or semi-public oratory to which they have legitimate access may gain (1) a Plenary Indulgence, provided they confess their sins and receive Holy Communion and recite the usual prayers for the Pope's intentions; (2) a Partial Indulgence of ten years, if they are at least contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 171.)

THE FORTY HOURS DEVOTION.

Whether the form of exposition is strictly Clementine or modified by the Bishop's authority, a Plenary Indulgence, once on each day, may be gained by all who visit the Blessed Sacrament during Quarant Ore and recite a Pater, Ave and Gloria five times, and one Pater, Ave and Gloria for the Pope's intention. Confession and Communion are enjoined. Alternatively, a Partial Indulgence of fifteen years is granted to the contrite of heart each time they visit a church during the Forty Hours Devotion and recite the same prayers. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 381.)

PROCESSIONS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained by all those who assist at Processions of the Blessed Sacrament, whether the processions are within or without a sacred building. Confession, Communion and prayer for the Pope's intention are enjoined. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 478.)

SPIRITUAL VISITS TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Those who are legitimately prevented from making a visit in person may now gain a Partial Indulgence of five years by making a spiritual visit to the Blessed Sacrament and reciting the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and once for the Pope's intention, provided they are contrite of heart.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained once a week if, through the same impediment, the spiritual visit is made daily. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 169.)

VISITING THE ALTAR OF REPOSE.

The contrite of heart who visit the "Altar of Repose" on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday and recite the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times and once for the Pope's intention may gain a toties quoties indulgence of fifteen years. A Plenary Indulgence may be gained on each of these days if the further conditions of Confession and Communion are fulfilled. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 277.)

PARTIAL INDULGENCES: THE LITANY OF THE B. VIRGIN.

On 6th May, 1879, His Holiness granted the Apostolic Benediction, and an Indulgence of seven years on each Saturday, and on the Feasts of the Blessed Virgin, to the Faithful of England and Scotland who shall recite or sing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin in any church in either country. This Indulgence is now extended to all the faithful and may be gained each time the Litany is recited or sung (Preces et Pia opera, Vatican Press, 1938).

VISITING A CHURCH AND PRAYER FOR THE POPE'S INTENTION.

The phrase "visiting a church," means going to a church with the intention of honouring God, either in Himself or in His saints, and, if no set prayer is enjoined, offering mental or vocal prayer according to each one's piety and devotion. When no other prayers are specified, the condition "prayer for the Pope's intention" is satisfied by reciting one Pater, one Ave and one Gloria. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 478.)

2. THE PENTECOST NOVENA.

For the Pentecost Novena, prescribed by Encyclical Letters of 5th May, 1895, and 9th May, 1897, the following Indulgences have been granted to those taking part in it:—(1) Ten years for each day; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on any one day of Novena, or on Pentecost, or on any day of the subsequent Octave, on the usual conditions of Confession and Communion and prayers for the Pope's intention, attendance on at least five days being necessary. (These Indulgences are attainable by those also who are legitimately impeded from attending the Public Devotions, provided the Novena be done in private and the other conditions fulfilled; the Partial Indulgence in this case is seven years.) Moreover, those who again, during the Octave of Pentecost, inclusive of Trinity Sunday, privately recite every day, according to their devotion, some prayers to the Holy Ghost, may gain a Partial Indulgence of seven years for each day. All these Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory.

3. THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

For the continuance and daily increase of the abundant fruit produced by the Decree of 20th December, 1905, on Daily Communion, Our Holy Father, Pope Pius X., by a letter of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences of the 10th April, 1907, to the Bishops of the Catholic Church, has expressed his wish to have, as far as may be possible, the following annual observances:—

(a) IN CATHEDRAL CHURCHES.

That on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, either immediately after the Festival of Corpus Christi, or (if the circumstances of persons or places so require) at some other time of the year to be fixed by the Bishop, there shall be in every Cathedral Church three days' prayer, as here described: namely:—

1. That, on each day, there shall be a sermon on the great excellence of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and on the dispositions required for worthily receiving it. That, after the sermon, the Blessed Sacrament shall be exposed; and during the Exposition the prayer O most Sweet Jesus (see below) shall be recited, to be followed on the Sunday by the Te Deum. That the Tantum ergo shall then be sung, and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament be given.

II. That, on the Sunday, the last of the three days, there shall be, at the usual parochial Mass, a homily by the Parish Priest on the gospel of the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi—or, if the Sunday be not within the Octave, a sermon in preparation for a fervent Communion; and at this parochial Mass the faithful shall communicate. That, on this Sunday afternoon (or evening), there shall be the same service as on the two preceding days. And in the sermon the preacher shall exhort the faithful to more fervent piety towards the Most Holy Sacrament, and especially to a more frequent participation of this heavenly banquet, in accordance with the approved teaching of the Catechismus Romanus (see n. vi. of the Decree of 20th December, 1905). Moreover, at Benediction (as is said above), the Tantum ergo will be preceded by the Te Deum.

(b) IN PARISH CHURCHES.

His Holiness earnestly recommends that also in Parish Churches, according as each Bishop in his prudence and discernment shall judge fit, there shall be at least those pious exercises which are above described for the Cathedral Churches for the Sunday within the Octave, or some other Sunday in the year.

That the faithful may more eagerly take part in the aforesaid pious exercises, His Holiness has been pleased to grant the following Indulgences, applicable also to the souls in Purgatory:—

1. An Indulgence of ten years for each of the three days' prayer.
2. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained once during the three days, on any day thereof, by those who devoutly assist at the devotions of any one day, and after Confession and Holy Communion pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.
3. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained on the Sunday by all who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion together in a Cathedral or a Parish Church, and pray for the Holy Father's intentions.

PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

O most sweet Jesus, Who didst come into this world to enrich the souls of all mankind with the life of Thy grace, and Who, to preserve and sustain this life in them, dost daily give Thyself in the most august Sacrament of the Eucharist, as a saving medicine to heal their infirmities and a divine food to support their weakness, we pray and beseech Thee to pour forth upon them most graciously Thy holy spirit, so that, being filled therewith, any who are in mortal sin may, by returning to Thee, be restored to the life of grace which they have lost; and that those who, by Thy great mercy, already serve Thee may daily, as far as each one is able, come devoutly to Thy heavenly banquet, and in the strength thereof may find a remedy for their daily venial faults and a support of the life of Thy grace, and, thus becoming more and more cleansed from sin, may obtain the everlasting happiness of heaven. Amen.

4. THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART.

By the Encyclical Letter Miserentissimus Redemptor of Pius XI dated 8th May, 1928, it is decreed that the Act of Reparation thereto appended shall be solemnly recited in all churches throughout the world on the Feast of the Sacred Heart. The Act, together with the Litany of the Sacred Heart, is to be recited during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

ACT OF REPARATION.

O sweet Jesus, Whose overflowing charity for men is requitted by so much forgetfulness, negligence and contempt, behold us prostrate before Thy altar eager to repair by a special act of homage the cruel indifference and injuries, to which Thy loving Heart is everywhere subject.

Mindful alas! that we ourselves have had a share in such great indignities, which we now deplore from the depths of our hearts, we humbly ask Thy pardon and declare our readiness to atone by voluntary expiation not only for our own personal offences, but also for the sins of those, who straying far from the path of salvation, refuse in their obstinate infidelity to follow Thee, their Shepherd and Leader, or, renouncing the vows of their baptism, have cast off the sweet yoke of Thy law.

We are now resolved to expiate each and every deplorable outrage committed against Thee; we are determined to make amends for the manifold offences against Christian modesty in unbecoming dress and behaviour, for all the foul seductions laid to ensnare the feet of the innocent, for the frequent violation of Sundays and holidays, and the shocking blasphemies uttered against Thee and Thy Saints. We wish also to make amends for the insults to which Thy Vicar on earth and Thy priests are subjected, for the profanation, by conscious neglect or terrible acts of sacrilege, of the very Sacrament of Thy divine love; and lastly, for the public crimes of nations who resist the rights and the teaching authority of the Church which Thou hast founded.

Would, O divine Jesus, we were able to wash away such abominations with our blood. We now offer, in reparation for these violations of Thy divine honour, the satisfaction Thou didst once make to Thy eternal Father on the Cross and which Thou dost continue to renew daily on our altars; we offer it in union with the acts of atonement of Thy Virgin Mother and all the Saints and of the pious faithful on earth; and we sincerely promise to make recompense, as far as we can with the help of Thy grace, for all neglect of Thy great love and for the sins we and others have committed in the past.

Henceforth we will live a life of unwavering faith, of purity of conduct, of perfect observance of the precepts of the gospel and especially that of charity. We promise to the best of our power to prevent others from offending Thee and to bring as many as possible to follow Thee.

O loving Jesus, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our model in reparation, deign to receive the voluntary offering we make of this act of expiation; and by the crowning gift of perseverance keep us faithful unto death in our duty and the allegiance we owe to Thee, so that we may all one day come to that happy home, where Thou with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

The Indulgences granted are: (1) To the faithful present in any Church or Oratory at the recital of the above Act and the Litany of the Sacred Heart during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament an Indulgence of seven years and further a Plenary Indulgence if, after Confession, they receive Holy Communion, and (2) to those who any where or at any time, even in private, recite the above Act, an Indulgence of five years, and further a Plenary Indulgence once in the month if they repeat the Act daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion. (18th March, 1932).

5. THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING.

Whereas, by the Decree of the S. Congregation of Indulgences, 22nd August, 1906, His Holiness Pope Pius X ordered that each year on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, in all Parish Churches as well as others where the feast is observed, the form of Consecration used by Pope Leo XIII. on the 25th May, 1899, should be recited during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by the Litany of the Sacred Heart, it is now enacted (S.R.C., 28th April, 1926) that (1) the observance is optional on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, but obligatory on the Feast of Christ the King, and (2) the Form to be used is the one given below. To all who with devout and contrite heart assist at this pious exercise and pray for the Pope's intentions, His Holiness grants an Indulgence of seven years, and further a Plenary Indulgence to those who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion. These Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory. Those who recite the following prayer even in private may gain (1) an Indulgence of five years; (2) a Plenary Indulgence if they repeat the prayer daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion.

FORM OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

Most sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thy altar. We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but, to be more surely united with Thee, behold each one of us freely consecrates himself to-day to Thy most Sacred Heart. Many indeed have never known Thee; many too, despising Thy precepts, have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned Thee: grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house lest they die of wretchedness and hunger. Be Thou King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions, or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbour of truth and unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd. Be Thou King of all those who are still involved in the darkness of idolatry or of Islamism, and refuse not to draw them all into the light and kingdom of God. Turn Thine eyes of mercy towards the children of that race, once Thy chosen people. Of old they called down upon themselves the Blood of the Saviour; may It now descend upon them a laver of redemption and of life. Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry: Praise to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to It be glory and honour for ever. Amen.

Authorised Version, S.C.R., 17th October, 1925;
A.A.S., xvii., p. 13.

6. THE MONTH OF OCTOBER.

For the October Devotions, prescribed by Decrees of 20th August, 1885, etc., the following Indulgences have been granted:—(1) Seven years each time one joins in the public recital of the Rosary and Litany of the B. Virgin (or, being legitimately impeded, says them privately), and prays according to the intentions of the Pope; (2) a Plenary Indulgence to those who, having done this at least ten times, Confess and Communicate; (3) a Plenary Indulgence to all who, on the Feast of the Rosary or within the Octave, Confess, Communicate and pray in some church to God and the B. Virgin according to the intention of His Holiness; (4) seven years each time (during October) for the recital, after the Rosary, of the following prayer to St. Joseph enjoined by the Encyclical of 15th August, 1889; if the prayer is recited outside October a Partial Indulgence of three years is granted each time and a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions when the prayer is said daily for a month.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH.

To thee, O blessed Joseph, we fly in our tribulation, and while imploring the help of thy most holy spouse, thy protection also with confidence we crave. By that affection which united thee with the Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God, and by the fatherly love with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we humbly supplicate thee to look down benignantly on the heritage which Christ Jesus purchased with His Blood, and in thy might and power to succour us in our necessities.

Defend, O most provident Guardian of the Divine Family, the chosen race of Jesus Christ; keep us, most loving father, from all taint of error and corruption; do thou from heaven, as our most powerful Protector, stand graciously by us in this conflict with the powers of darkness; and as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus in the imminent peril of His life, so now defend the Holy Church of God from hostile wiles and all adversity, and through thy never-failing patronage so shield each one of us, that, guided by thy example and supported by thy aid, we may live in holiness, piously die and attain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

7. CONSECRATION OF FAMILIES TO THE SACRED HEART
BY MEANS OF THE ENTHRONEMENT.

It is the earnest desire of the Holy See that all Christian families should be consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and that a statue or image of Him be set up in a prominent place in each house, so that Christ may be enthroned as ruler in the home. All families should be consecrated separately, not in groups. The priest blesses the image, and recites the Act of Consecration. When a priest cannot be had, the image, which should be previously blessed, will be set in its place by the head of the family or other lay person, who also will recite the Act of Consecration. The Indulgences granted to each member of the family are: (1) Seven years and on the day of consecration; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the day of consecration; (3) three years on the annual renewal of the consecration; (4) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the annual renewal. The form of consecration, which alone is valid for the effect of the Indulgences (S.P.A.: 1st March, 1918: A.A.S., x, p. 154) is the following:

ACT OF CONSECRATION.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, who didst manifest to Blessed Margaret Mary the desire of reigning in Christian families, we to-day wish to proclaim Thy most complete regal dominion over our own. We would live in future with Thy life, we would cause to flourish in our midst those virtues to which Thou hast promised peace here below, we would banish far from us the spirit of the world which Thou hast cursed; and Thou shall reign over our minds in the simplicity of our faith, and over our hearts by the whole-hearted love with which they shall burn for Thee, the flame of which we shall keep alive by the frequent reception of Thy Divine Eucharist.

Deign, O Divine Heart, to preside over our assemblings, to bless our enterprises, both spiritual and temporal, to dispel our cares, to sanctify our joys, to alleviate our sufferings. If ever one or other of us should have the misfortune to afflict Thee, remind him, Heart of Jesus, that Thou art good and merciful to the penitent sinner. And when the hour of separation strikes, when death shall come to cast mourning into our midst, we will all, both those who go and those who stay, be submissive to Thy eternal decrees. We will console ourselves with the thought that a day will come when the entire family, reunited in Heaven, can sing for ever Thy glories and Thy mercies.

May the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and the glorious Patriarch St. Joseph, present this consecration to Thee, and keep it in our minds all the days of our life.

All glory to the Heart of Jesus our King and our Father.

8. PRAYERS AFTER LOW MASS.

Pope Pius XI. has ordered that these prayers be said for Russia. A Partial Indulgence of ten years is attached to their recitation in addition to the Indulgence of seven years granted for the triple invocation of the Sacred Heart. (A.A.S., 1934, p. 312).

To be said kneeling. Hail Mary, three times.

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy; Hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To Thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to Thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, Thine eyes of mercy towards us; and after this our exile, show unto us the Blessed Fruit of Thy womb, Jesus; O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

LET US PRAY.

O God, our refuge and our strength, look with favour on Thy people who cry to Thee; and through the intercession of the Glorious and Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and St. Joseph her Spouse, of Thy Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and of all the Saints, mercifully and graciously hear the prayers which we pour forth for the conversion of sinners, and for the freedom and exaltation of our Holy Mother the Church. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel defend us in the day of battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil;—"the Lord command him," we humbly pray;—and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other wicked spirits who go about the world for the destruction of souls. Amen.

To the above prayers may be added the following invocation said three times:—

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

(Indulgence of seven years).

URNUIGH AN DEIDH NA H-AIFRINNE.

Am Beannachadh Moire tri uairean.

Fàilte dhut a Bhan-rìgh, etc.

R. Guidh air ar son a Mhàthair naomh Dhé.

Amen.

A Chridhe uilenaoimh Iosa dean tròcair oirnn. (tri uairean).

9. THE ANGELUS.

In Catholic countries, and in many places at home, the Angelus Bell is rung in the morning, at noon, and in the evening at sunset to honour the Mystery of the Incarnation. To gain the indulgences attached to this Devotion, the Angelus must be said kneeling, except on Saturday evening, and Sunday, when it is said standing. In Paschal Time, that is, from Holy Saturday at noon till the Saturday before Trinity Sunday at noon, inclusively, the Regina Cæli is said instead of the Angelus. This prayer is always said standing. Those who do not know the Regina Cæli may gain the indulgences by saying the Angelus; but it must be said standing during Paschal Time. For the convenience of the Faithful is appended a translation of the Regina Cæli taken from the Raccolta.

Queen of Heaven, rejoice. Alleluia.

For He whom thou wast made worthy to bear.

Alleluia.

Hath risen as He said. Alleluia.

Pray for us to God. Alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary. Alleluia.

R. For the Lord hath risen indeed. Alleluia.

Let us pray.

O God, Who through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, has vouchsafed to give joy to the whole world, grant us, we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

10. ASSOCIATION FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

The Association assists by prayers and alms the Catholic Missionaries in heathen and non-Catholic countries.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP. — (1) The daily recitation of Our Father and one Hail Mary, with the invocation: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us; and (2) the annual contribution of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly; (3) Special members contribute one guinea, or more, yearly; (4) Life membership subscription, £8.

ORGANISATION.—The usual method of collection is by the formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Collector. The Collector receives the contributions of his group, circulates among them the Annals of the Associations, and pays over his collection to the local Treasurer. A return of the sums received, and of their appropriation is inserted annually in the "Annals of the Propagation of the Faith." One copy of each issue of the Annals is supplied to every ten members.

SPIRITUAL FAVOURS.—An exceptionally large number of spiritual privileges, including Plenary and Partial Indulgences, is granted to Associates. Extensive Faculties are also given to priests who direct local centres or become special members. A complete list of these privileges may be obtained from the Secretary of the Scottish Branch, St. John's, Portobello, or from any of the Diocesan Officials (vid. Part iv., Section I, 4).

11. CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

The following Indulgences were granted to the Catholic Truth Society in perpetuity by a Decree of the S. Cong. de Prop. Fide, 6th October, 1896:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence (applicable to the Souls in Purgatory) to all present and future members of the Society on the day of their joining the Society, and also on the Feasts of St. Andrew, the Apostle; St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; St. Patrick, St. Columba and St. Ninian, or on any day within the Octave of these Feasts, on condition that they visit an Oratory of the Society, or their own Parish Church, and, after confessing their sins with sincere repentance and receiving Holy Communion, pray for the Propagation of the Holy Faith and for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff.

(2) A Partial Indulgence of one hundred days every time they succeed in persuading a new member to join the Society, and every time they attend a General or Local Meeting of the Society.

By decree of the Sacred Penitentiary, 7th November, 1935, the following Indulgences were also granted to the members of the Box-Tenders' Association:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained by members on the usual conditions: (a) on any day they choose after joining the Association; (b) on the Feast of St. Francis de Sales; (c) once a month on condition that they have faithfully and regularly carried out their duty of looking after the book-case.

(2) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained at the hour of death by members who, after Confession and Holy Communion, or at least after an act of contrition, piously utter the Holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if they can do so, or at least in their hearts, and patiently accept death from the hands of God as a penalty for sin.

(3) A Partial Indulgence of three hundred days may be gained by members each and every time they arrange the pamphlets in good order and afterwards make an act of contrition, at least with a contrite heart, before the Blessed Sacrament.

12. SHORT FORM OF PROFESSION OF FAITH

To be used by permission in the Reception of Converts

I, holding in my hand God's holy gospels and enlightened by divine grace, publicly declare that I accept the Faith which is taught by the Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church. I believe that Church to be the one true Church which Jesus Christ set up here on earth ; to which I make my submission with all my heart.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord ; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell ; the third day He rose again from the dead : He ascended into heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God the Father almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost ; the Holy Catholic Church ; the communion of saints ; the forgiveness of sins ; the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

I believe that seven sacraments were instituted by Jesus Christ for the salvation of mankind : Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Holy Order and Matrimony.

I believe that the Bishop of Rome is the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth, that he is the supreme visible Head of the whole Church, and that he teaches infallibly what we must believe and do for salvation.

I also believe everything which the Holy Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church defines and declares that we must believe. To her I give my whole allegiance and I reject every error and schism which she condemns.

So help me God, and these His holy gospels which I touch with my hand.

Fatal Star

By Hamish Fraser

In the opinion of the Rev. A. A. Stephenson, S.J., who has written the Preface to this book, Mr. Fraser "has written one of the most interesting and important books of its kind which have appeared in this generation; what other modern thinker has probed the world's disease so deeply or prescribed so well-conceived and radical a remedy?"

"As a thinker and writer, Hamish Fraser has unswervingly dedicated his gifts and energies to a single problem, our time's 'great question,' which might be formulated as the causes, character and cure of collectivist materialism or the social implications of Christianity or Christ and Anti-Christ in society."

FATAL STAR is dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima. Not without reason; for as Father Stephenson says in his Preface, "in the light of Fraser's book the events of Fatima . . . assume a new significance. The message of Fatima is seen to be no perquisite of cloistered piety, but to have an urgent relevancy for all who care for human life and for a Christian society."

In this book, Fraser describes how and why he became a Communist and explains the reasons which ultimately led to his disillusionment. He describes the misery of the disillusioned in unforgettable terms, and his account of the events leading to his conversion to the Catholic Faith is more than a personal document: it is a revelation of what the author himself describes as "the logistics of supernatural grace."

THE CATHOLIC GEM

4d. MONTHLY

THE POPULAR MAGAZINE
FOR SCHOOLGIRLS & 'BOYS

THE danger to young people from bad literature was never more acute than it is to-day. Each month this brightly produced magazine for the 9 to 15-year-olds is packed with interesting articles and stories, has competitions, pen-friends circle and the GEM CLUB. Fully illustrated, but NOT a "comic," it's a monthly treat that's hard to beat.

Comments from the Catholic Press

★ "Provides a real substitute for the national 'comics.'"

—CATHOLIC HERALD

★ "... makes a nice balance between the ordinary and trivial schoolboy's and schoolgirl's paper and the more devotional children's publication."

APPRENTICE AND APOSTLE

By Rev. BRO. LUCIAN, M.A.

The moving biography of Marcel Callo, a young French Jocist, whose apostolate in German labour camps provided a constant source of inspiration to his fellow prisoners, and who was subsequently martyred at the hands of the Gestapo.

Ten art illustrations.

"The life is for the most part the stirring story of a young man's heroic fight against the enemies of his country and against evil of all kinds to keep his fellows faithful to Christ and His Church."

—Catholic Herald.

LETTERS TO A NURSE

By JOHN McKEE

7s. 6d.

In a series of witty and racily written letters, addressed to a non-Catholic, Father McKee leads the reader from belief in God to belief in the true Church.

"An extremely valuable book. Its merit is quite beyond anything that ordinary words would convey."—Clergy Review.

"The nearest thing to a knock-out for the average anti-Catholic. It is just the right book to give to people who are honestly looking for the true Church and are bothered by the very forceful arguments which can be, and are, mustered against it by friends of the semi-pagan kind."—The Universe.

THE SIMPLE MASS BOOK

By REV. PETER CONNOLLY, D.C.L.

3s.

Containing 57 actual close-up photographs of the Holy Mass and with full explanations of what the priest is doing at each prayer. It is, in fact, a Junior Missal!

"One of the best Mass books for children that we have seen. Every action is clearly explained, so that the child can follow it intelligently."

Catholic Times.

KNIGHTS OF ST. COLUMBA

Supreme Knight: T. J. T. McMENEMY.

The Knights of St. Columba, established in 1919, is a British Fraternal Order of men who are practising Catholics.

The Order aims at uniting Catholics; it seeks to give a practical meaning to the word "Fraternity"; it links up lonely men, introduces parish to parish, and infuses esprit de corps throughout the country. Parish Priests have a useful aid wherever there is a Council—a compact body of men, obedient to authority, well disciplined, and ready at all times for works of Catholic Action or of Charity.

The Order has a junior branch for boys of fourteen to twenty-one, known as the Squire Section, formed with the object of safeguarding our youths against the evils that everywhere surround them, and of helping them to be practical Catholics.

Priests or laymen interested in the work of the Order who would wish to become members or assist in the work of setting up a Council in their Area, are cordially invited to write for full particulars to:—

The Supreme Secretary, 54 Berkeley Street, Glasgow, C.3.
