SECTION II.

THE HIERARCHY OF SCOTLAND

From the Extinction of the Hierarchy in 1603 till its Restoration in 1878.

1. The ancient Hierarchy ended with James Betoun, Abp. of Glasgow, who died at Paris on the 25th April, 1603, aged 79. After being subjected to the jurisdiction of the Archpriests and first Vicar-Apostolic of England till 1623, and afterwards to local Prefects of the Mission, the Clergy were incorporated into a missionary body by decree of Propaganda, 1653, and governed by the following Prefects-Apostolic: William Ballantyne (or Bellenden), 1653-61; Alexander Dunbar (or Winster), 1662-68, 1672-94; and John Walker (or Ross), 1668-71. In May, 1694, a Scottish Vicariate-Apostolic was established. This was divided into two Districts, the Lowland and the Highland, in February, 1731; and these two into three, the Eastern, Western and Northern, by Papal Rescript of 13th February, 1827. This last arrangement remained in force till the re-establishment of the Hierarchy by the Apostolic Letter, Ex Supremo Apostolatus Apice, 4th March, 1878.

DIOCESE OF ARGYLL AND THE ISLES

Comprising Counties of Argyll and Inverness (south of a line drawn from the northern extremity of Loch Luing to the junction of the Counties of Inverness, Aberdeen and Banff); the Islands of Bute and Arran and the Hebrides.

The See of Argyll was founded about 1200, being disjoined from the Diocese of Dunkeld; and was vacant for more than three centuries. James Hamilton was appointed to the See on 14th July, 1553, but was probably never consecrated.

The See of the Isles (Insularum or Sodorensis) is said to have been founded about 447 by St. Patrick, who consecrated Germanus, its first Bishop; it was united to Man till the end of the 14th century; and was vacant for 325 years, from the death of Roderick Maclean in 1553 till the Restoration of the Hierarchy in 1878.

SECTION III.

OBITUARIES — 1959

Rev. Daniel O'Keeffe—27th January, 1959

Rev. Daniel O'Keeffe, parish priest of St. Alphonsus', Glasgow, died on 27th January, 1959, in the parish where he had begun his priestly work in the Archdiocese of Glasgow. He was fifty-nine years of age. He was born in County Cork in the Diocese of Cloyne. He studied at St. Colman's, Fermoy, before proceeding to St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, where he distinguished himself in both the academic and athletic field. He came to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, for the final year of his studies, and was ordained to the priesthood there on 8th December, 1924. Although he was only part of one year in Bearsden, he endeared himself to all, both priests and students. He was determined to learn all he could of the country of his adoption and he threw himself wholeheartedly into every College activity.

On his ordination in 1924, he was appointed as one of the assistants to the late Mgr. O'Reilly in St. Alphonsus', Glasgow. No better training ground could be found for any young priest. St. Alphonsus' was a large parish, teeming with Catholic life, with a long tradition of excellent priests and faithful people, and Mgr. O'Reilly could call upon a vast experience of notable work in parochial and diocesan spheres to guide and assist the young priest. In Father O'Keeffe he had an apt pupil. His zeal for souls met with great response from the people of the parish, and his work in the confraternities and the schools of the parish was crowned with great success. His interest was not confined only to parochial activities. He had a great love for the Archdiocese and he fostered in his heart a devotion to works of a diocesan nature. In this way he very soon became well known and esteemed by all the clergy and many of the people. When Mgr. O'Reilly died, he was succeeded by the late Father Patrick Hourigan, in whom Father O'Keeffe found not only a pastor but a very devoted friend. In Father O'Keeffe's solid piety and sound commonsense one could see a reflection of Father Hourigan and detect the great influence he had on his curate.

In 1932 Father O'Keeffe was transferred to St. Charles', Glasgow, as senior assistant to the late Father Horgan. His name is remembered with gratitude by the people of that parish, not only for the vigorous life that he brought to the various societies, his complete devotion to the sick, his kindness and amiability in his dealings with all the people, but perhaps especially for the tender care that he bestowed on his ailing parish priest. He was virtually in charge of the parish for a long period before Father Horgan's death, and his administration was marked by great care and attention to detail.

When Canon Lyons came as parish priest he found in Father O'Keeffe an able and loyal assistant who gave himself unsparingly in every effort undertaken for the proposed new church.

In 1942 he was chosen to found the new Parish of Thornliebank. His love for the poor and his love for the traditions of old Catholic Glasgow are reflected in the name of the new parish, St. Vincent de Paul. He was consulted by the late Archbishop Mackintosh on the choice of patron for the parish. He had learned much of old St. Vincent's when he was a curate in St. Alphonsus', and he begged the Archbishop to perpetuate the name by bestowing it upon the new parish. Also, he was starting a new parish with very few resources, and he hoped that through the intercession of St. Vincent de Paul, the patron of the poor, the parish would flourish. The Archbishop readily consented, and Father O'Keeffe set about his pioneer work with great zeal. Very soon the new parish was able to take its place alongside the older parishes in the vigour of its Catholic life. The local hall which had been purchased to serve as a church was transformed into a beautifully artistic and devotional building, confraternities flourished, and the people were inspired with a love for the House of God which is showing itself to-day in their generous efforts in the building of their striking new church.

In 1947 Father O'Keeffe was promoted to the charge of St. Alphonsus' Parish, where he had started his priestly life. He was very proud of the grand old church and of the traditions of the parish. Very soon he set about the task of renovating church and presbytery. In all this he had the enthusiastic co-operation of the people. In his view nothing was too good for the House of God. It must be spotlessly clean, it must be well appointed, it must be devotional, and it must be comfortable for the people. All this he accomplished to the great delight of his people and the admiration of the many people from many parts who crowd into St. Alphonsus' at the week-ends. Hand in hand with this material work went the continual zeal for souls, his devotion to the sick, his care for the children in the schools, his generosity to the poor, and his great interest in every wider work for the good of the church. One need only look to the extraordinary generosity of St. Alphonsus' parish to the work of the Propagation of the Faith to see how his spirit pervaded the whole parish.

For the last two years of his life Father O'Keeffe suffered from heart trouble. It was particularly distressing that a man of his unbounded energy should have to curtail his activities. Yet he accepted the affliction with patience and resignation to God's Will. He could still attend to the administration of his parish. His parochial books were still always well kept and a model of neatness, and in writing to him one could always expect the courtesy of a reply by return of post. His courtesy, his gratitude, never failed him. He welcomed with joy the visits of his fellow-priests, for he was always devoted to the priesthood, had in his lifetime encouraged many vocations to the priesthood, and had always found his greatest pleasure in the company of his brother priests.

That his devotion to the priesthood and the charity of his friendship to his brother priests were deeply appreciated was clearly evident from the great number of priests from all over the country who were present at his funeral Mass. His Grace Archbishop Campbell presided at the Mass, celebrated by Right Rev. Mgr. Ward, V.G., and before the Absolutions he spoke with deep feeling of his sorrow at the loss of this good priest. He reminded the crowded congregation of the qualities of zeal, solid piety, gentleness and friendship which had distinguished the life of Father O'Keeffe, and pointed out our duty in gratitude to pray for the repose of his soul. Scenes of deep mourning were witnessed as the cortege left the church on its way to St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth. Immense crowds lined the streets, old and young, rich and poor, Catholics and non-Catholics alike uniting in their sorrow at the death of their father and friend. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Jeremiah O'Sullivan—2nd March, 1959

Death came somewhat unexpectedly to Father Jeremiah O'Sullivan, first parish priest of the newly formed Parish of St. Fergus', Paisley, on 2nd March, 1959. In his illness he was attended by his good friends, the Nuns of the Bon Secours Nursing Home, Langside.

Father O'Sullivan was born on 14th November, 1902, in Dingle, Co. Kerry. He received his early education in the local Christian Brothers' School before going to St. Brendan's College, Killarney. After two years in St. Peter's College, Wexford, he came to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, where he completed his course. He was ordained priest in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by the Most Rev. Donald Mackintosh, D.D., on Low Sunday, 24th April, 1927.

After ordination, his first appointment, for a few months, was to St. Mary's, Saltcoats. He was then transferred to St. Margaret's, Airdrie, where he spent four years. In 1931, he was appointed to St. John's, Port-Glasgow, where the remaining sixteen years of his curacy were spent. In St. John's he will be long remembered for his intensive visitation and for his success in directing the Women's Sacred Heart Sodality. All his life, Father O'Sullivan was an indefatigable organiser and worker. Yet, in spite of his many pastoral duties he always found time for study. Few knew of his systematic study of theology, of his interest in the liturgy and of his knowledge of the history of the Church, especially in the English-speaking world. He had a well-stocked library with a wide range of books on many subjects.

Appointed parish priest of St. Fergus' in January, 1948, he threw himself wholeheartedly into the work of organising and building up this new parish. In spite of post-war restrictions, he was able to erect a new church and suitably furnish it in the short space of two years. Last year he added a substantially built parochial hall. For years to come these will be monuments to his untiring industry and zeal. He also endeavoured to lay the spiritual foundation of the parish by establishing sodalities, youth clubs and the Legion of Mary. Father O'Sullivan was a man of strong and virile faith. He sought to make the Church a living reality in the various parishes in which he laboured.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated on 4th March by his nephew, Father Patrick O'Sullivan, St. Peter's, Hamilton, Father Daniel Horgan, St. Mungo's, Greenock, being deacon and Father Henry Mooney, St. Fergus', being sub-deacon. His Lordship, Bishop James Black presided and gave the Absolution. After Mass, His Lordship spoke in praise of Father O'Sullivan's pastoral work during the thirty-two years of his priesthood. He paid tribute to his success in firmly establishing the parish of St. Fergus, making special reference to his determination and zeal. He conveyed his sympathy and that of the congregation to the deceased priest's relatives, especially to his two sisters, teachers in Dublin, who were present.

The obsequies at the interment in St. Conval's Cemetery, Barrhead, were performed by the Bishop in the presence of many priests and laity. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. George Canon Grant—6th March, 1959

The Very Rev. Canon George Grant, retired Provost of the Aberdeen Cathedral Chapter, died at Buckie, Banffshire, on the 6th March, 1959. He was 87 years of age.

The Solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was offered up by his nephew, the Rev. George Phillips, parish priest of Dufftown, in St. Peter's, Buckie, on the 9th March, 1959. His Lordship Bishop Francis Walsh, D.D., of Aberdeen, a very large number of Diocesan clergy and the Prior and monks from Pluscarden and monks from Fort Augustus were present. The wide and graceful church was well filled by a congregation made up of relatives, friends and former parishioners. All present came to express their warm regards and high esteem of a priest of an exceptionally lovable character. Very Rev. Canon Thomas McLaughlin of Aboyne preached the panegyric. After the service, the Canon was buried in the ancient Catholic cemetery of St. Ninian's in the Braes of Enzie, His Lordship Bishop Walsh and the Provost, Mgr. D. Paterson, said the prayers. Relatives and the Chapter were pall-bearers; the priests and the monks sang the valedictory "In Paradisum," and the "Benedictus."

George Grant was born on the 18th February, 1877, at Braemar, Aberdeenshire. Eighty years ago, Braemar was a remote small village, lying around the upper valleys of the Clunie and the Dee. It was the quiet home of Highland clansmen, most of whom were Catholics, conscious of an unbroken Catholic priesthood since St. Nathalan or some other Columban missionary first taught their forebears the Faith and the Holy Mass.

While at the local Catholic school, George Grant, like his brother Andrew before him, caught the eye of his parish priest, and in August, 1890, he was sent to Blairs College to study for the priesthood. It was the old Blairs then—candles and oil lamps providing the light and one smoky fire in the study room the only heat. The discipline, the older priests used to tell us, was stern and the way of life spartan. Canon Grant with a smile often remarked, "I suppose it was severe and hard by modern standards, but we boys never noticed that; we were very happy and contented." From Blairs he was sent to Notre Dame des Champs in Paris, in 1894, and a year later, to the Scots College in Rome. While he was a student in Rome, an incident occurred which could have proved fatal. The students were on a day's outing at the seaside town of Nettuno. George Grant and four other students hired a rowing boat and pulled out pretty far to sea. Enjoying the fun and the sunshine, they ran straight into the path of an oncoming steamer, which promptly upset their tiny craft. Fortunately they could all swim. They were hauled on to the steamer and taken to Naples—an unexpected cruise they all enjoyed.

Canon Grant always spoke with enthusiasm of his years in Rome. Rome captivated him and left its own stamp upon his priestly character. He completed his studies in philosophy and theology and on All Saints' Day, 1st November, 1900, in St. John Lateran's, he was ordained priest by Cardinal Respighi.

His first appointment to parish work was to St. Peter's, Aberdeen, as curate, first to the late Father Tom MacDonald and to his brother, Father Andrew Grant. The contrast to Roman student life was vast. The foul housing conditions, the great poverty, the cheap whisky of those days created pressing and serious problems for St. Peter's priests. But the two brothers Grant, par nobile fratrum, were resourceful and capable workers. Together, by personal and organised charities, by temporal and spiritual example, guidance and encouragement, they so gathered their east-end parishioners round their venerable old church that in their day the devotion and response of St. Peter's people to every detail of Catholic life was proverbial.

In 1906, this happy partnership ended. Bishop Chisholm sent Father George to Dornie, on the west coast of Inverness-shire. A quiet life of isolation, a scattered flock earning their livelihood on lochside or hillside or moorland. Father George always referred to his stay in Dornie as his "happy days."

In 1910, he returned to the east, to Aboyne on Deeside, to continue the peaceful tenor of country life. While at Aboyne, he served the lower end of the district around Banchory by saying Mass at the very old church, now closed, at Ballogie, a mile south of the Brig of Potarch. At Aboyne he was a popular and esteemed member of the District Public School Board. In 1914, Father George Grant was asked by Bishop Chisholm to take over St. Peter's Parish, Aberdeen, while his brother Andrew served as a chaplain in the Highland Division. He knew the parish and its people. He accepted the heavy extra duties of war-time conditions, single-handed, for three years—with unruffled composure. During the 1918 Spanish 'flu epidemic, he worked literally night and day. During 1919, Father Andrew Grant returned from war service to St. Peter's, and Father George Grant returned to Aboyne. In 1925, he was sent to Tomintoul—

Scotland's highest inhabited village—where he spent five happy years. In 1930 he left Tomintoul for Beaulieu. While there, he was created a Canon of the Aberdeen Cathedral Chapter in 1937, and later, he succeeded Mgr. C. MacDonald as Provost.

Though slight of build and delicate looking, Canon George was extremely wiry and tough. He never had a day's illness. But the tear and wear of work over many years told on him. His memory often failed him at critical moments when preaching and saying Holy Mass. He wisely and deliberately asked Bishop Walsh to allow him to retire. He chose to go and live in Buckie to be near his brother, Canon Andrew. Here his frail figure and snow-white hair became familiar to all the neighbourhood. He attended all church services, his last appearance in public being present at the Stations of the Cross a week before he died.

His death was rather sudden. Pneumonia followed a stroke. He was anointed by his friend and parish priest, Mgr. Murdoch, of St. Peter's, Buckie. He was quite conscious but unable to receive Holy Viaticum as he had great difficulty in swallowing. He died peacefully about midnight of Thursday, 6th March, 1959.

For fifty-four years this gentle and good and faithful servant gave his undivided attention to all his priestly responsibilities. He never hurried, he never flurried; each day he engaged himself with unbroken fidelity to his personal devotions, his pastoral work and his public duties.

He created and preserved around himself an atmosphere of genial good will, friendly help and forbearance. He was never known to show impatience nor was ever an unkind word spoken by him. This truly remarkable self discipline, coupled with his kindly humour and pawky philosophy endeared him to his cleric brothers and won for him the deepest respect from all who knew him. His soul was rich in Grace, his mind alert and understanding, his heart full of Christian charity. His devotion to the Sacred Heart in the Blessed Sacrament, and his piety towards the Immaculate and Blessed Virgin Mother, drew him often to the Altar and kept him there. No hour of day or night, no length of distance nor the weather's wildest fury ever delayed his attending those whose souls required God's Sacramental help.

This panegyrist, borrowing from St. Paul, suggested as his epitaph words which all who knew him endorsed: Georgius Grant, Sacerdos Bonitate, Justitia, Veritate Conspicuus, Homo Omnino Amabilis, Requiescat in Pace.

Right Rev. Mgr. Cuthbert F. Provost Chase, V.G.—
11th March, 1959

With the death at Edinburgh, on 11th March, 1959, of the Right Rev. Monsignor Chase, a very distinguished ecclesiastical personality has disappeared from our midst. Monsignor Chase was born in Chelsea, London, on 22nd July, 1880. He became a convert to the Faith early in life, studied for the priesthood at Wonersh Seminary and at the Scots College, Rome, and was ordained for the Archdiocese of St. Andrews and Edinburgh on the 16th July, 1905, by the Right Rev. Peter Amigo, Bishop of Southwark. He had been parish priest of Holy Cross Parish, Edinburgh, for thirty-seven years. After the death of Archbishop Andrew Joseph McDonald, he acted as Vicar Capitular of the Archdiocese and, since the accession of the present Archbishop, Monsignor Chase had been his Vicar General.

Pontifical Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh, on Friday, 13th March, 1959, by the Most Rev. Archbishop Gordon Joseph Gray. The crowded congregation included over one hundred prelates, canons of the cathedral chapter, diocesan priests and members of religious orders. The burial took place at Mount Vernon where, in the presence of Archbishop Gray and a large group of mourners, Monsignor Monaghan recited the final prayers at the graveside.

In his panegyric, Archbishop Gray said that Francis Cuthbert Chase was "a very young convert, first attracted to the Church by the Latin liturgy, he used to tell us, out of a love for the Latin tongue inherited from his father, a classical scholar. With the Faith, there quickly flowered a vocation to the priesthood and, at the age of fourteen, he entered St. John's Seminary, Wonersh, in the Diocese of Southwark," where the Rector at that time was the future Cardinal Bourne.

"Until a couple of years ago," said the Archbishop, "Mgr. Chase always made his annual retreat at Wonersh with his fellow students of half a century ago.

"His theology course in Rome lasted less than a year because of ill health, and his ordination at Wonersh to the subdiaconate was put forward by a year since grave doubts were entertained whether he would live to be ordained in his class.

"By some strange whim this Londoner—for he was born in Chelsea—this typical Englishman, applied to the late Archbishop James Augustine Smith to be accepted as a priest for the Archdiocese of St. Andrews and Edinburgh. And once accepted for the Archdiocese, he gave his heart to Scotland, and took Scotland to his heart," said His Grace.

"Even to-day he is remembered in the parishes where he served as a curate—in St. Patrick's for a short two years; here in the Cathedral for over ten years, where, as Master of Ceremonies, his love and knowledge of the liturgy helped to build up the tradition for perfect and exact ceremonial that the late Canon McGettigan did so much to consolidate.

"Reluctantly, for he loved the Cathedral with the opportunities it offered for liturgical perfection, he accepted his first appointment as parish priest to West Calder, and there, from 1918 until 1922, he zealously cared for the spiritual needs of his flock.

"So far back as in 1907, the year before Holy Cross Academy was founded, the need for a church in that area of Leith had been realised. In 1922 the late Archbishop Smith decided that the foundation of this new parish could not be further delayed and in 1922 Monsignor Chase was chosen as the first rector of this new parish."

In a moving personal reminiscence, Archbishop Gray described the influence Mgr. Chase exerted on him in early years. He said:

"I was one of his first altar boys. How we loved and admired him! He ruled us with a rod of iron. But in his other hand—there was always a bag of sweets!

"The liturgy—he would tolerate nothing that was slipshod or careless. It was the divine service—he used to remind us—the external visible service of God . . .

"Looking back on those years, I would say that the loyalty and affection he won from the boys of his parish was his greatest joy and pride. In 1927 he personally took me to his old seminary to begin my studies for the priesthood. As with his other protégés, he wrote to me, visited me regularly.

"He inspired and fostered so many vocations to the priesthood by his enthusiasm and never failing interest and advice.

"He was Master of Ceremonies when I was ordained priest here in the Cathedral. I sang my first solemn High Mass under his guidance, preached my first sermon in his church at Holy Cross. I was his curate for a few weeks.

"The years passed by. To me—as to his other former altar boy priests—he was friend, counsellor and guide.

"And then in August, 1951, after fourteen heavy months as Vicar Capitular with full charge of this diocese, he received me, whom he had led from boyhood to the priesthood, as his Archbishop, in the name of the Chapter accepted the Bull of appointment; pledged his loyalty with the humility of a young priest to one whose priesthood owed so much to him.

"You would not wonder that I asked him, a friend and guide of over thirty years, to be my first Vicar General.

"Why did we, who knew him, love him so dearly? To some, he seemed sometimes a little aloof, reserved. But we who knew him, his brother priests especially, in whose presence he had overcome his innate shyness, found in him a friend whose loyalty could not be shaken, a priest, like Nathanael, in whom there was no guile.

"He was so straight and frank and honest. He never dissembled. And he was in his interest perennially young. In September, 1952, I asked him to take some young ecclesiastical students, for whom there was no room at Blairs, down to Southwark Junior College. He took them, so gladly. And he showed them round London as twenty-five years before he had shown me round London. And he told me with glee when he returned home that they'd enjoyed it so much because he had taken them to the Schoolboys' Exhibition.

"Perhaps his thirty odd years visiting the schools of the diocese—no easy task with early morning starts by tram and by bus—kept him young; perhaps his interest in Scouting; perhaps his hobbies, and especially his fascination for railway engines and timetables. Or perhaps, just the innocence of a truly priestly soul that was without guile.

"He had his little lovable eccentricities—his peculiar fashion in hats; his snuff; his boyish enthusiasm; his fund of anecdotes. We loved him for them all.

"But pardon me. I see that old, well-loved, loyal friend. I see also the priest. So meticulous in his duties. Not just in the perfection of liturgical functions, but in the sometimes humdrum routine work of the parish. In his untiring visitation of the homes of his parishioners—when he was able. In his assiduous care for the sick. In his painstaking instruction of a host of converts. In his diligent attention to the multifarious tasks of the priesthood.

"I see him now, in all weathers, cycling or walking each morning the mile from his presbytery to the church for his meditation and Mass. I see him transversing the same road each evening for his last visit to the Blessed Sacrament. He loved his parish, and his little simple church, and his Master who deigned to dwell in it. I see him in these latter years when age and infirmity had slowed his footsteps. Still retracing that well-known path to offer Mass.

"He was house-bound—for over two months. His Rosary or his Breviary was rarely out of his hands. His end came quickly, to us unexpectedly. Yet he had expected death just as it came. A long life—he was in his seventy-ninth year—is over. In the diocese Monsignor Chase was almost an institution. A great priest, respected, loved. A personality, an outstanding figure. May I in all respect say an ecclesiastical 'worthy.' I think he will become a legend, a golden legend. May he rest in peace."

Very Rev. Patrick A. Canon McCarthy—15th March, 1959

Canon McCarthy, who died at Uddingston on Sunday afternoon, the 15th March, 1959, was eighty-six years of age and the oldest priest in the West of Scotland. A member of a family which gave generously to the religious life, Canon McCarthy, the second youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McCarthy, was born at Feenagh, Co. Limerick, on 23rd December, 1872, and received his early education from the Christian Brothers at Charleville, Co. Cork. From there he went to St. Munchin's College, Limerick, where after taking classics with distinction, he proceeded to the seminary at Le Mans, Sarthe, France, to study philosophy.

After a further period of theological studies at St. Mary's College, Oscott, Birmingham, he came to Scotland and completed his preparation for the priesthood at St. Peter's College, Bearsden.

After being ordained on Pentecost Sunday, 6th June, 1897, in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by Archbishop Maguire, he was appointed to a curacy at St. Augustine's, Langloan, Coatbridge. There he served until his appointment to Maryhill, Glasgow, in 1900. After three years there, he was transferred to Motherwell, where he spent another three years before receiving his first appointment as parish priest at Largs.

Following some years in the well-known Scottish seaside town, he was transferred to another Clyde coast town, Gourock, where, as parish priest of St. Ninian's, he was responsible for the building of a school for the local Catholic school-children.

From 1918 to 1929 he served at Stevenston and then, after a year at Cleland, he was appointed to succeed Father James P. Towie as parish priest of St. John the Baptist's, Uddingston, and here he was to remain until his retirement.

It was while at Stevenston that Father McCarthy, as he then was, had the happiness of celebrating the silver jubilee of his ordination. On that occasion, as on the occasion of his golden jubilee in 1947, he was feted by his devoted parishioners. The diamond jubilee celebrations in 1957 were on a quieter note, as Canon McCarthy by that time, on account of his advanced age, was not fit to attend the usual public celebrations held to mark such a glorious chapter in a long and happy life story. At the Mass offered in St. John's to mark that occasion, however, Bishop Scanlan voiced the feelings of all when he paid tribute to the sterling work done by Canon McCarthy during his sixty years in the priesthood.

When the Cathedral Chapter of the Motherwell Diocese was erected in November, 1952, Canon McCarthy was among those named members of the chapter and after his retirement in February, 1957, he became an honorary member of the chapter.

Tragically, one of Canon McCarthy's brothers, Father Alec McCarthy, C.M., who was on the staff of the Vincentian College at Castleknock, Dublin, died a week before Canon McCarthy's diamond jubilee in 1957. Another brother, Mgr. Charles McCarthy, has been parish priest of St. John's, Newfoundland, for many years. A sister, a nun, died some years ago. Another sister lives in Limerick. Several of Canon McCarthy's nieces and nephews entered religion and some are serving on the missions in Africa. Another niece is in the Presentation Convent, Carlow.

A very tall and stately figure before his advancing years began to lay their mark on him, Canon McCarthy was a great favourite with children. He was no less loved by the older people and his kindness and quietness of manner, coupled with great firmness of character, made him a great personality. He was moreover a man who, during his long life, showed remarkable administrative ability in tending the affairs of the parishes under his care, and his loss will be keenly felt for a long time.

Pontifical Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. John the Baptist's Church, Uddingston, on Wednesday, 18th March, by Right Rev. Mgr. Scanlan, Bishop of Motherwell. The preacher of the panegyric was Father Patrick Heaney of Sacred Heart Church, Bellshill, a former curate of the Canon's. Among the eighty or more priests who were present at the Mass were two nephews, Father Alec McCarthy, who was sub-deacon of the Mass, and Father James McCarthy, C.S.S.R., who was home on leave from the Philippines. After the Requiem Mass, the funeral took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery, New Stevenston. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Jeremiah O'Leary—19th March, 1959

On the Feast of St. Joseph, 1959, the life on earth of the Rev. Jeremiah O'Leary, parish priest of St. Michael's, Dumbarton, suddenly ended. Born scarcely fifty-six years earlier in Knockanes, near Killarney, Father O'Leary served all his priestly years, thirty-two of them, in the Archdiocese of Glasgow.

Having passed through St. Brendan's, Killarney, and continued his training in Dublin, Father O'Leary was ordained priest at All Hallows, in June, 1927. After a year in Maryhill, six other fruitful years were devoted to St. Mary's, Hamilton. Sent next to Our Lady and St. Mark, Alexandria, this part of Dumbartonshire was to benefit directly from the rest of his distinguished priestly life. For after thirteen years in his beloved Vale, Father O'Leary was promoted parish priest of St. Martin's, Renton, and three years later, during the 1950 Holy Year, succeeded Canon Bogan as parish priest of the recently begun St. Michael's, Dumbarton.

Besides his solid pastoral work as curate and parish priest, his brilliant influence was felt further afield, chiefly through his careful service in the catechism revision, on the Matrimonial Board, various Youth Groups, and the Dumbarton Education Committee.

As parish priest of St. Michael's, a chief concern of his was to have a becoming church built. Since its opening in 1946, the parish was indebted to St. Patrick's High School for accommodation on Sundays and Holidays. At other times a small oratory in the parochial house was all that was available to a large, increasing congregation. His happiness was all the more intense then, when His Grace Archbishop Campbell laid the foundation stone of St. Michael's Church on 23rd November, 1952, and again when, in the presence of His Grace, the church was solemnly opened on 23rd May, 1954. The first Mass offered in the new church was High Mass, sung by Mgr. Ward, V.G., whose mother is a parishioner of St. Michael's.

Willingly though they had been borne, the work and worry involved proved a severe physical strain on Father O'Leary. He had indeed gone a long way towards seeing the type of building he considered becoming. Yet the ramifications of dealing with builders, to say nothing of constant vigilance to ensure the best workmanship, proved too taxing.

In indifferent health, his chief concern remained constant; his own spiritual welfare and that of his flock. For them, his sole aim was to build up strong traditions of solid piety, free from fuss and regimentation. As a lay appreciation in the local paper stated: "His term in Dumbarton was characterised by his efforts to bring home to parents the important part which they required to play in the religious upbringing of their children in an age which was rapidly becoming more materialistic, and by his efforts to bring home to both employers and employees the mutual social and moral obligations which they owed to each other."

On St. Joseph's Day, 1959, the fatal heart attack occurred suddenly, when Father O'Leary was almost at St. Martin's Presbytery, Renton. Leaving the car he had donated to St. Michael's, he collapsed on the pavement, and there received the Sacraments from Father Kelly. On the way to the Vale of Leven Hospital, he joined in while Father Kelly said the prayers for the dying; prayers he must have known almost by heart, so often had he recited them for others. Shortly after reaching the hospital, his immortal soul was summoned to judgment.

Three days later, Solemn Requiem Mass was offered in the presence of His Grace Archbishop Campbell and Bishop Hart of Dunkeld. The church was crowded with parishioners and priests. Mgr. Ward officiated at the Mass and at Dalbeth, assisted by Canon Bogan and one of Father O'Leary's nephews, Father Keating.

In the course of his most moving panegyric, His Grace the Archbishop paid this tribute to Father O'Leary; "On this sad occasion it is impossible for me to find words to express the confidence I had in him, the affection and regard I had for him. He was a powerful, able man, a tremendous personality, and yet in all his ways, in his words and in his deeds, he had the gentleness of a lamb. Father O'Leary was a most humble man. Gifted though he was, he never regarded himself as being superior to any other priest. That is why his fellow priests loved him so much." May he rest in peace.

Rev. David Quigley—3rd June, 1959

Father David Quigley was born in Glasgow on the 26th September, 1887. In the Autumn of 1904 he went to St. Mary's College, Blairs, where he passed four years in preparation for the priesthood. From Blairs he was transferred, for his philosophical and theological studies, to the Royal Scots College, Valladolid, and in that city, in the Church of the Rosarillo, he was ordained priest for the Archdiocese of Glasgow, on 2nd June, 1917, by Don Pedro Segura y Sáenz, who was then Bishop-Auxiliary of Valladolid but who died only recently as the well-known Cardinal-Archbishop of Seville.

When Father Quigley returned home to his native archdiocese, he was appointed to a curacy in the very busy and populous dockside parish of St. Patrick's, Anderston, where for ten years he shared fully in the multifarious Catholic life of that enormous parish with its two outlying chapels-of-ease, its confraternities, societies and institutions. In 1926 he was transferred to St. Ninian's, Kirkintilloch, where he remained until 1937, during which time his zealous work, especially his attention to the aged and the sick, endeared him to all.

The year 1937 saw Father Quigley appointed as parish priest to the small Renfrewshire parish of Linwood and five years later, in 1942, he became parish priest of St. Paul's, Whiteinch. He was destined to continue as parish priest of St. Paul's until his death, which occurred on 3rd June, 1959, in his seventy-first year.

When he returned to the heavy parochial work of a Glasgow riverside parish, Father Quigley's youthful vigour was gone and, for the last year or two of his ministry, he was actually in rapidly declining health but, throughout this whole period his interest in his people (albeit, like his piety, unostentatious) was very deep and real. This was very evident, when the decision was made to replace, with a large modern church, the old school-chapel, which had served the parish for fifty years, and also to recondition the somewhat old-fashioned presbytery. Father Quigley willingly shouldered the immense worries and physical inconvenience entailed by all this work. It was an added note of tragedy that his death occurred just a few days before the solemn dedication of the foundation stone within the towering walls of the new church.

Archbishop Campbell presided at the Solemn Requiem Mass, celebrated by the Very Rev. William Canon McGoldrick, parish priest of Our Holy Redeemer's, Clydebank, in presence of a large congregation of parishioners and clergy, which included the Right Rev. Edward Douglas, Bishop of Botrys, and the Cathedral Chapter of Glasgow. It seemed curiously appropriate that just as Archbishop Campbell finished the Absolutions, a ship's siren, on the nearby river, sounded a long mournful blast, which seemed to echo the sorrow which filled the hearts of the parishioners who filled the church and crowded the street outside, praying for a well-beloved pastor. May he rest in peace.

Rev. John P. Rae, M.A. (Oxon.)—11th June, 1959

Rev. John P. Rae collapsed and died with tragic suddenness on the evening of the 11th June, 1959. He was thirty-eight years of age and in the full vigour of an active life. By the mercy of God, a fellow priest was at hand to administer the last Sacraments in the few minutes before he died.

Father Rae was born in Carfin on 17th February, 1921. He received his early education at St. Mary's School, Whifflet, and at Our Lady's High School, Motherwell. In 1937 he entered Scots College, Rome, to begin his studies for the priesthood and gained his licentiate in philosophy in 1940. In that same year he returned to Scotland along with the rest of the college on the eve of Italy's entry into the war. He continued his studies in St. Peter's College, Bearsden. Owing to his being under the canonical age, he was not ordained along with his contemporaries and the priesthood was conferred on him in the College Chapel at Bearsden by the Right Rev. Henry G. Graham, D.D., Bishop of Tipasa, on the 3rd September, 1944.

After his ordination, he spent a few weeks as a curate in Sacred Heart Parish, Bridgeton, before going to Oxford at the command of his superiors. His studies at Oxford were crowned with the same brilliant success that had been his at Rome and Bearsden, and he took his degree in philosophy and political economy in 1948. On his return from Oxford he was appointed to the staff of St. Peter's College, Darleith, where he lectured on Ethics and Fundamental Theology for the eleven remaining years of his life.

It was God's will that most of his few years of life as a priest should be spent amongst those training for the priesthood, and for this work he was eminently qualified both spiritually and intellectually. His fine intellect was allied to a tireless industry, and in preparing his lectures he was most thorough and meticulous. His reading was deep, extensive and constant and he kept himself fully abreast of the current trends of thought in theology and sociology.

But for all his serious habits of study he was no mere book-worm. Gifted with a powerful physique, he was an outstanding athlete. At Oxford he gained his half-blue for association football and had the further distinction of captaining the university team. At Darleith he continued to play football and tennis with the students and also took charge of manual work, which he not only supervised but shared in with immense gusto. He had a keen interest in all the college activities and for the last two years was the editor of the college magazine.

Though his work was principally among the students, to whom he gave of his brilliant best, he also found time to give many lectures and retreats outside the college. Many of his evenings and weekends were taken up with such work which entailed considerable travelling and fatigue, yet he never refused a request on the grounds of personal hardship. Even during his holidays from the college he found some work to turn his hand to. For many summers, part of his vacation was spent helping to run a camp for boys.

John Rae made a deep impression on all who had the privilege of knowing him. Essentially of a serious disposition and with a deep sense of responsibility for others, he had many burdens placed upon his strong shoulders. All of these he bore with a cheerful courage and a strong patience, never being too pre-occupied to help others in their times of difficulty and trouble. His charity was deep and active and his generosity in the face of real need was utter and complete. But though he was serious he was in no way dull. His very keen sense of humour and his capacity for joyous laughter made him the most pleasant of companions.

Father Rae was a complete man. His great talents of mind and body were subservient at all times and in every way to the ruling purpose of his life, the love and service of God. He laboured always for God, knowing no rest and no half measures; imposing upon himself the firmest of disciplines. Though he could not have been in any way aware that length of days would not be given to him, he strove and laboured always as though time was short and much had to be done. He fulfilled a long life in a short space of years.

To those whom he left behind, his family and his friends, there is mingled with their sorrow the shining memory of a strong man and a dedicated priest who gave all his days to God.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated for Father Rae in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on Monday, 15th June, 1959. The celebrant was the Right Rev. Monsignor Charles Treanor, D.D., Rector of St. Peter's College, who was assisted by the Rev. James Meehan, D.C.L., deacon, and Rev. Maurice Taylor, D.D., sub-deacon. His Grace Archbishop Campbell presided and gave the Absolutions. Their Lordships Bishop Scanlan of Motherwell and Bishop Black of Paisley were also present in the sanctuary.

His Grace the Archbishop in his panegyric spoke feelingly of the deep loss to the archdiocese and to himself personally of this good and excellent priest. He offered his deepest sympathy to the relatives and friends of Father Rae and asked for prayers for the repose of his great soul. May he rest in peace.

Rev. James Connolly, D.D.—26th June, 1959

Rev. James Connolly, D.D., former Rector of the Royal Scots College at Valladolid, Spain, died on Friday, 26th June, 1959, aged sixty-nine years, at Rosewell, Midlothian.

Dr. Connolly was born on 22nd December, 1889, in the "rather sad, dreary village of Lumphinnans" in Fife. After leaving the elementary school, he worked for a time as a coal-miner until, at eighteen years of age, he responded to an insistent call to the priesthood. He studied at the Scots College, Rome, took his Doctorate of Theology there, and on All Saints' Day, 1914, he was ordained priest in the Lateran Basilica.

Returning to his native archdiocese, he worked as curate or parish priest in Inverkeithing, Jedburgh and Kelso until, in 1919, he was appointed, as vice-rector, to assist Monsignor Humble in the ancient Royal Scots College at Valladolid in Old Castile.

For eighteen years he followed the traditional routine of college life in the grand old Colegio in the city or in the college-villa, perched high on the crest of the hill, against the blue Castilian sky, at Boecillo: these were years of devoted attention to the work of forming candidates to the priesthood. "Those who were privileged to study under him were amazed at the depth of his learning—philosophy, theology, canon law, scripture, classics and the arts—and the long hours spent with his books formed one long prayer." Then, in 1937, this placid and not unascetic routine was shattered by the sombre tragedy of the Spanish Civil War. The students perforce had to return to Scotland. The superiors of the college remained, not without some risk to their lives, on guard over the college and its property. The situation demanded patience and courage of a very high order: the college was isolated from any real contact with Scotland; outside its walls, the country was filled with violence and horror; inside the lonely, empty and silent college, Dr. Connelly had as his sole companion the sick and aging rector, Monsignor Humble. To make things easier for his superior, Dr. Connolly forwent even the meagre rationed food of the time and followed the almost starvation diet prescribed for the ailing rector.

In 1948, the octogenarian rector died and Dr. Connolly became rector, but his trials were not over. The years passed and no students were sent out to the Colegio. In the frustrating silence of the college, Dr. Connolly studied and prayed—and waited. Then in 1951, the Scottish bishops decided that the great traditions of the Scots College in Spain should be revived. A group of students were sent to Valladolid and, a year later, Dr. Connolly, feeling the weight of advancing years and unnerved by the privations, worries and uncertainties of the previous thirteen years, then decided to resign the rectorship to make way for a younger man who might bring more youthful vigour to the task of repairing the ravages wrought on the college by the Civil War. Of the forty-five years of his priesthood, thirty-three had been devoted to the Colegio. He deserves an honourable place in the annals of the Royal Scots College because, in the unhappy days when he was called on to direct its affairs, he found that his task was not to do great things but simply to endure courageously. He kept the Colegio in being during the Civil War and probably saved it from extinction in the uncertain days that followed. Perhaps his most courageous act on behalf of the Colegio, once his task was accomplished, was to resign into younger hands the task of re-establishing its ancient traditions.

Dr. Connolly returned to Scotland and was appointed parish priest of St. Matthew's, Rosewell. The home climate bore hard on him, accustomed for almost a lifetime to the clear air and warm sun of Spain. After thirty years in Catholic Spain, with all its glorious traditions and pageantry, he must have found our northern Catholicism somewhat enervated and dull. But he never complained. Archbishop Gray, in his panegyric, spoke of Dr. Connolly's sincere humility and extraordinary strength of character. When it was suggested that he might be appointed a Domestic Prelate to His Holiness, he turned it down with the reply, "It is an honour and not an onus." The suggestion that he might be appointed a canon of the metropolitan chapter was greeted with a quiet smile and the decisive reply, "Purple would not suit me." He brought into his parochial ministry something of the uncompromising Catholicism of Spain and much also of its courtesy and charm.

After an illness, which had lasted for six months or more, he died on 26th June, 1959. The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Matthew's, Rosewell, on Tuesday, 30th June, by His Grace Archbishop Gordon Gray of St. Andrews and Edinburgh. Many of Dr. Connolly's former pupils, including Bishop McGee of Galloway and Bishop Hart of Dunkeld, were among the clergy who flocked to Rosewell to join with the parishioners in the Solemn Requiem. Men of the parish bore the coffin to Hawthornden Cemetery, and almost the entire congregation joined in the procession as the cortege passed through the streets. In all the houses, blinds were drawn as a mark of respect and, as the mourners made their way to the cemetery, they recited the rosary. At the graveside, the last prayers were conducted by Bishop McGee of Galloway. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Robert John Cairns—20th July, 1959

The Rev. Robert Cairns, who died on Monday, 20th July, 1959, at Newcastle, Co. Down, was scarcely known to the present generation of Catholics in the Province of Glasgow, from which ill-health forced him to retire fully thirty-three years ago.

Father Cairns was a native of Glasgow, born in St. Patrick's Parish, Anderston, on 21st May, 1877. He began his studies at St. Mungo's Academy and, later, entered St. Mary's College, Blairs, in September, 1892. In August, 1895, he was transferred to St. Peter's College, New Kilpatrick, where he completed his theological studies and, on the 24th May, 1904, he was raised to the priesthood, in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by His Grace Archbishop Maguire. He was appointed, for a short time, curate at St. Patrick's, Dumbarton, and, in 1905, he was transferred to St. Michael's, Parkhead. He remained at Parkhead for seven years and, after that, from 1912 to 1921, he laboured for the salvation of souls in the parish of St. Ignatius, Wishaw. In Wishaw, even after the lapse of almost forty years, he is still remembered with affection for his zealous ministry carried on despite enfeebling attacks of asthma. In 1921, he received his first appointment as parish priest to the country parish of St. Patrick's, Strathaven. At Strathaven he is remembered as a kindly and cultured priest who, in spite of the meagre income of his little parish in those days of industrial strife and unemployment, managed to brighten parochial life a bit by re-decorating the church for the first time in twenty-five years. It was at Strathaven that a serious breakdown in health forced him finally to retire in 1926 and, since then, he has been living at Newcastle, Co. Down.

On the 22nd July, 1959, Father Cairns was laid to rest in the beautiful little churchyard at Newcastle, Co. Down. That, even in his retirement at Castlewellan and Newcastle, he had become well known and well beloved was evident from the large number of mourners who filled the church to capacity for his obsequies. What was especially noteworthy in the eyes of Father Patrick Wycherley, parish priest of St. Anthony's, Govan, who represented the Archbishop of Glasgow at the funeral and, who was accompanied by Father Frederick Rawlings of St. Margaret's, Kinning Park, was the fact that every curate who had served in Newcastle while Father Cairns lived there, returned for the funeral. This must have been at great inconvenience, for the nearest church was eleven miles distant: hence many miles were traversed that morning by the priests of the Diocese of Down and Connor, who came to show honour and respect to, and pray for the soul of Father Cairns. Those priests spoke of the reverential awe with which they looked on the gentle, scholarly retired priest from Glasgow, who was so patient and considerate for them during the long years of his illness. The Bishop of Down and Connor was represented at the Mass by Archdeacon McWilliams. The parish priest of Newcastle, the Very Reverend Charles O'Neill, announced during the Requiem Mass that, by direction of His Lordship the Bishop, the Mass Offerings would be devoted to Masses for the soul of Father Cairns. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. William Joseph Canon O'Connor—18th August, 1959

While in hospital, on being asked by a visitor if there was anything he required, Canon O'Connor replied, "What can this world offer me?" We would expect such an answer from a saint, and indeed the Canon was truly a man of God. Those who had the good fortune to know him were aware of his constant aim: "To seek the things that are above, not the things that are upon the earth." Frequently he expressed the desire to be with God, and such is the spirit which robs death of its sting and victory and causes the soul to go to meet its God with eager confidence.

William Joseph O'Connor was born on 11th November, 1881, at New Inn, Cahir, Co. Tipperary, and was educated by the Holy Ghost Fathers at Rockwell College. In 1904, he went to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, and was ordained priest in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on 24th June, 1908.

As a zealous curate, he worked in Greenock, Cumnock and Kilmarnock until, in 1921, he was appointed the first parish priest of Kirkconnel in Dumfriesshire. A new parish is always a difficult assignment, but all will remember the rigours of the great strike of 1926, and can imagine the hardships of both priest and parishioners of that little mining town. Deservedly the memory of his name is still fragrant among its older parishioners. In 1931, he moved to Maybole, and later to Waterside and Kirkcudbright. From 1940 until 1952, he looked after the glorious church of St. Sophia in Galston, and laboured amongst the people of Darvel and Newmilns as well as Galston. Finally, he was appointed to St. Joseph's, Kilmarnock, from which parish he retired in 1953.

He was Canon Theologian of Galloway Diocese.

"He had in my opinion a very extraordinary degree of what is called detachment," said Bishop McGee when preaching the panegyric in St. Joseph's Church, Kilmarnock. "He thought very little of material things, of his own comfort, his own convenience. Self-interest never came into his calculations. That gave him an almost exaggerated sense of independence. He was so humble and detached that he did not see why people should require to do things for him. He had also in his make-up an extraordinary candour."

Those who knew him will recall with affection his warm sense of humour and his whole-hearted generosity. Those who knew him well will agree that his greatest virtue was Christian charity and particularly towards his brother priests, for in this he was a shining example.

Besides his extraordinary degree of detachment, Bishop McGee stressed among his many qualities, his humility, his sympathy and his old world courtesy. This sympathetic politeness made him the confidant of many priests and won the hearts of his parishioners. The children were attracted by his gentleness and his love of fun, and although many years have passed since he left their parishes, they recall how childlike he was and how their love of him was returned a hundredfold.

The last six years of Canon O'Connor's life were spent in St. John of God's Hospital in Dublin. In spite of the devoted attention of the nursing staff, however, they were not happy years because the arteries of his brain were gradually hardening and this caused him to have lapses in which he imagined himself to be undergoing persecution from the enemies of Christ. This grievous suffering was real to him, and yet he bore it with the fortitude of a martyr.

He celebrated the golden jubilee of his priesthood last year. Bishop McGee and two of the Galloway priests were present to offer a spiritual bouquet and gifts from the diocesan priests and from his former parishioners. On that day, the good God blessed him with splendid mental and bodily health and he was able to offer his Jubilee Mass. Not only that, he was able to come for a drive and enjoy a celebration dinner.

For years the Canon had been crippled with arthritis, and it was a sorry day for him when he could no longer limp to the altar to offer the holy Sacrifice. Fortunately this only happened in the last six months of his life, and from then onwards his meditation book, his breviary or rosary were constantly with him. Our last sight of him was a week before he died when, propped up in bed, fingering his beloved beads, he showered thanks and blessings on us with such earnestness that we were sure he knew God was soon to call him.

At his own request, his body was brought back to Kilmarnock to lie amid the people he loved. The solemn Requiem was offered by the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Joseph McHardy, V.G., and the panegyric was delivered by the Rt. Rev. Joseph McGee, Bishop of Galloway.

Thanks be to God who hath given him victory through Our Lord Jesus Christ. May he receive the reward of a holy priest.

Very Rev. Bernard Canon Auer—21st August, 1959

Canon Bernard Auer was born in Aberdeen on the 10th March, 1882, of a family which derived originally from Switzerland and Germany. He entered Blairs College in September, 1895, to study for the priesthood and, five years later, he went to France, where he pursued his philosophical and theological studies at the Sulpician colleges of Issy-les-Moulineaux and Paris. He was ordained priest at Paris, on 1st July, 1905, by Mgr. Jourdain de la Passardière, and on his return to Scotland was appointed curate, under Canon Meany, at St. Mary's Cathedral, Aberdeen. A second curacy at St. Mary's, Inverness, followed, and in 1912 he was given his first parochial charge, the remote and arduous mission of St. Joachim's at Wick. Two years later, he was appointed to St. Lawrence's at Dingwall, an extensive mission, which still covers almost the whole of Ross-shire. Here he remained for twenty years and, in 1934, he succeeded the Very Rev. George P. Canon Shaw at St. Michael's, Tomintoul. Nearly ten years were to pass at Tomintoul and, in 1943, he became parish priest of St. Sylvester's, Elgin. Shortly after his appointment to the ancient cathedral city of Moray, Father Auer was appointed to the cathedral chapter of Aberdeen by the late Bishop Bennett.

Quiet and reserved, he appeared cold and brusque to those who did not know him, but for his parishioners in the various parishes he served and for his fellow priests this venerable man hardly disguised his real kindness and geniality. His parishioners were grateful too for the methodical and dutiful way in which the services of the church were carried out and for the meticulous care he bestowed on the church buildings and temporalities of each parish.

Shortly after the celebration of his sacerdotal golden jubilee, Canon Auer retired from parochial duties and lived at Banchory on Deeside. Death came suddenly, while the Canon was on holiday at Rothesay, on Friday, 21st August, 1959.

Pontifical Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Michael's Church, Tomintoul, on Tuesday, 25th August, by His Lordship Bishop Walsh. Father Davis of Dingwall and Father Keith of Wick being deacon and subdeacon of the Mass. Monsignor Mackenzie, V.G., assisted the Bishop, and the choir of priests were led by Father Sullivan of Inverness. His Lordship Bishop Douglas was present in the sanctuary and the large congregation which listened to the panegyric delivered by Canon Lamont of Keith, included layfolk and clergy from many and distant parts of the Diocese of Aberdeen. Bishop Walsh officiated at the graveside in the trim and quiet little cemetery attached to St. Michael's Church. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. George Canon Stuart—28th August, 1959

The Very Rev. George Canon Stuart, parish priest of St. Peter's, Partick, was born in Partick, on the 29th October, 1884. His parents hailed from the traditionally Catholic Enzie district of Banffshire and Canon Stuart, all his days, remained proud of his connection with the immemorial Catholicism of Banffshire and the vigorous Catholicism of Partick. He was educated at St. Mary's College, Blairs, and at the Scots College, Rome. He was ordained in Rome on All Saints' Day, 1908, by Archbishop Ceppetelli. For half a century Canon Stuart has laboured for souls in the Archdiocese of Glasgow.

During the past year or two his once robust health had been declining and, while on holiday at Largs, he suffered a severe heart attack and died on Friday, 28th August, 1959. St. Peter's Church in Partick was crowded to overflowing and clergy and prelates from all over Scotland were present at the Solemn Requiem Mass, which was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Monsignor James Ward, V.G., on Monday, 31st August.

Monsignor Ward preached the panegyric and (since Archbishop Campbell was unable to be present because of illness) he conveyed the Archbishop's deep sympathy to Canon Stuart's sister and other relatives, to the priests of the archdiocese, and to the priests and people of St. Peter's, saying that there was no priest whom the Archbishop held in higher admiration than Canon Stuart, and no counsellor whose advice he accepted more willingly.

Recalling Canon Stuart's boyhood, Mgr. Ward said that, "with many of the older parishioners of St. Peter's, he spent his childhood days roving about the very streets which later fell to him to be his share in the vineyard of Our Lord. It was not given to many priests to return to the parish of their childhood days. Canon Stuart appreciated that privilege. He was always tremendously edified by the great respect that was shown to him as their parish priest by those who had shared his childhood days here in the parish of St. Peter's.

"When he was a young man, as he often recalled, it was with great pride on his part that he saw this magnificent church rising. He loved it in its building, and it was given to him to minister as parish priest in this church to the evening of his days. As he loved it in its building, so too he loved it in its beauty.

"When he left St. Peter's Boys' School," Mgr. Ward continued, "the Canon went to St. Aloysius' College and then to Blairs College before proceeding to the Scots College, Rome, to prepare for his ordination. On his return to Scotland after being raised to the priesthood in Rome, he was sent as assistant to St. John's, Port Glasgow. For eighteen years he laboured among the workers of Clydeside, sharing their sorrows during the First World War and proving a tower of strength to them.

"When the time came for him to be promoted to the charge of a parish, the whole of St. John's turned out to see him off, wish him well and express the wish that he might continue to exercise the same influence as he had exercised among the people of Port Glasgow. When Canon Stuart came to Renton from Port Glasgow during the years of depression, he found great poverty and little pockets of Communism throughout the Vale of Leven—or, rather, of people who thought they were Communists. The weapon he chose to fight Communism was the charity of Christ, and the Canon's kindly gentle nature was responsible for bringing those souls back to the practice of their Faith who had been lured away by the false promises of Communism. From Renton Canon Stuart was promoted to the charge of St. Agnes', Lambhill. He rejoiced in being parish priest of that beautiful church, as he rejoiced in spending himself in beautifying it. From Lambhill he was promoted to St. Joseph's, North Woodside Road, Glasgow, and his memory was held in the greatest reverence there for his kindness to the poor.

"The Canon was never more surprised than when, in 1948, the Archbishop decided that this good priest, who had served so faithfully, zealously and well in many parts of the archdiocese, should be promoted to the Cathedral Chapter. In the same year he was sent to St. Peter's as parish priest. There is no need to tell you of the good work the Canon did in your midst. He beautified your church, he was responsible for having it solemnly consecrated and set aside for the worship of Almighty God for ever. With proper solemnity he celebrated with you the centenary of the establishing of the parish. You gladly accepted the opportunity of celebrating with him last year the golden jubilee of his ordination. On that occasion the Canon did not wish any fuss to be made. Nevertheless you insisted that he rejoice at the happiness of that occasion and united with him in praising God for fifty years in the priesthood.

"The Canon went to Largs four weeks ago to have a rest. Almighty God decided it was to be his eternal rest. The news of his death came as a great shock to the priests and people of St. Peter's and the people throughout the whole of Scotland.

"The Canon was a humble man of God, a good, zealous priest, a kindly, charitable and gentle man, always anxious to help those in trouble. His charity came from his devotion to the Church of God and the Holy Mass, from his deep love and devotion for Our Blessed Lady.

"For many years he was chairman of the pilgrimage committee of the Archdiocese of Glasgow. For many years he went to Lourdes and on the pilgrimages he was noted for his kindness and generosity to all the pilgrims, but especially to the poor sick. His charity overflowed, and there was one particular charity dear to his heart, the Catholic Enquiry Office. There was no knowing the amount of good he had done through that office."

Mgr. Ward ended by asking the parishioners to remember Canon Stuart in their prayers.

Large crowds lined the streets after Mass to pay their last respects to Canon Stuart as the funeral cortege set out for St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Michael McNicholas—31st August, 1959

The Rev. Michael McNicholas was born at Bohola, Co. Mayo, on the 19th January, 1902. He studied for the priesthood at St. Jarlath's College, Tuam, at St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, and at St. Peter's College, Wexford. He was ordained, on 6th June, 1927, at St. Peter's College, Wexford, by the Right Rev. William Codd, Bishop of Ferns.

Coming to Glasgow in that year, 1927, he was appointed to a curacy at Holy Cross, Glasgow, under the well-known Canon William O'Brien. After four years at Holy Cross, Crosshill, and two years at St. Mary's, Greenock, Father McNicholas came to St. Michael's, Parkhead, in 1933, and remained there for eight years. A few months at Carfin in 1941-1942 intervened and from 1942 to 1948 he was curate at St. Teresa's, Possilpark. In all of these parishes Father McNicholas was recognised both by the parishioners and by his fellow priests as a man wholly devoted to the salvation of souls, a man of great charity and an extremely lovable personality.

In 1948 Father McNicholas was appointed parish priest of St. James' Parish, Paisley, and in the re-arrangement of jurisdiction to form the new Province of Glasgow, he became a priest of the new Diocese of Paisley. The parish of St. James had been inaugurated as far back as 1901, when the temporary church, formed out of an old mill, was opened as a chapel of ease within St. Mirin's Mission. Father McNicholas now set to work to build a permanent church for his people and, in June, 1957, his work was crowned with success, when the lovely new church of St. James was solemnly opened by His Lordship Bishop Black. But, by this time Father McNicholas was a very sick man, whose condition baffled the skill of doctors and surgeons. Even his best friends, who knew how securely his life was grounded in the love and service of God and in devotion to God's Holy Mother, were amazed at the serene and happy way in which he tried to continue his pastoral work despite great suffering and inconvenience, during these last years.

A few days before Christmas, 1958, Father McNicholas went to Ireland to pay a short visit to his centenarian mother (who has since died). In Ireland the final phase of his malady struck him and he was taken into hospital in Dublin, where after a long and painful illness, he died on Monday, 31st August, 1959. He was buried in his native place at Bohola, Co. Mayo, his funeral being attended by a party of priests from Paisley, led by Monsignor John McIntyre, V.G. In his parish of St. James, Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop Black, on Monday, 7th September, in the presence of many priests from all parts of the Province of Glasgow, a number of civic dignitaries, and a crowded congregation, who all mourned the loss of a beloved and courageous priest. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Michael J. Sweeney—3rd September, 1959

Rev. Michael J. Sweeney was born at Lavalla, Ballinacally, Co. Clare, on the 4th July, 1899. He studied for the priesthood at St. Flannan's College, Ennis (1913-1918), at Maynooth College (1918-1924), and at St. Peter's College, New Kilpatrick (1924-1925). He was ordained for the Archdiocese of Glasgow, on the 6th June, 1925, in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by Archbishop Donald Mackintosh.

After ordination, Father Sweeney was appointed curate at St. Bridget's, Baillieston, where he proved an able assistant to the aging parish priest, Canon Collins. From Baillieston he was transferred to St. Mary's, Whifflet, in 1933. Four years later, in 1937, he went to St. Laurence's, Greenock, and in 1940, he became senior curate in St. Bride's, Cambuslang. In all of these parishes his zealous apostolate is lovingly recalled by grateful parishioners.

In 1945 he received his first appointment to the charge of a parish, the parish of Our Lady and St. John, Blackwood. This parish, in the Upper Ward of Lanarkshire, is widely scattered and, because of that, is somewhat difficult to run. It proved too strenuous for Father Sweeney, whose health was now giving cause for anxiety and he retired in 1950.

Father Sweeney died on Thursday, 3rd September, 1959, at Waterford, in Ireland, at the age of 59. Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass was celebrated, in Our Lady of Good Aid Cathedral, Motherwell, on Thursday, 10th September, 1959. May he rest in peace.

The Right Rev. Kenneth Grant, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Argyll and the Isles—7th September, 1959

A wave of profound shock and sorrow swept over the Diocese of Argyll and the Isles, and over the whole of Catholic Scotland on the morning of Monday, 7th September, as word was passed from mouth to mouth that Bishop Grant was dead. It was known, of course, that he had been ill, and that he had recently undergone a major operation, but somehow the possibility of his death had not been generally considered. The priests mourned the loss of a great leader, the Highlands had lost a well-known and beloved character, and many people of all ranks and creeds had lost a true friend. His death stirred memories in the minds of those who had been prisoners of war with him, and they felt a sense of personal loss such as only comrades in adversity can know.

Bishop Grant was born in Fort William on the 18th March, 1900, of a family whose roots run deep in the story of Catholic Lochaber. He was as proud of his Highland Catholic ancestry as a man might be of his noble lineage, and with better reason; and nothing angered him more than the insinuation so often made, that the Catholic Faith is somehow foreign to the Highland tradition and heritage. His early education he received in the little parish school of St. Mary's, Fort William. Few Catholic children in the Highlands had an opportunity then of advancing to secondary education, and having absorbed all the learning that was considered necessary for a country boy, he left school in due course. He continued his education on his own, however; he was an avid reader, and he learned also from masters who could neither read nor write—the older generation in the Braes of Lochaber, from whom he received the oral traditions of history, folklore, poetry and religious knowledge. He was not a book-worm, however, for he is remembered in Fort William as a leader among the boys, climbing Ben Nevis, scouting on the other hills, fishing the rivers, and assisting anyone who had charge of horses or other animals. At the age of sixteen he was certain of his vocation to the priesthood, and because Bishop Smith could not accept another student that year, he decided, in view of his age, to seek admission to Blairs for the Glasgow Archdiocese rather than wait another year. He entered Blairs in 1916, but was not left for long without interruption to his studies. In 1918, he was called up for military service in the Seaforth Highlanders. The Armistice came in time to prevent his being drafted abroad, and in the following year he returned to Blairs. It was at this time that he started a thorough study of the Gaelic language, and his love of languages remained with him all his life. By his own efforts he later became a fluent speaker not only in Gaelic but also in French and German, with a good working knowledge of Latin and Italian and even a smattering of Russian.

In 1921, he went to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, and in due course he was ordained priest in Glasgow on the 24th April, 1927. After a short period in Parkhead, he was sent at Bishop Martin's request to Benbecula in the Hebrides, to take charge of the parish which was then temporarily vacant. There he had the opportunity of perfecting his Gaelic by practice. After a year in Benbecula, he returned to Glasgow, as curate in St. Mary's, Pollokshaws, where he was to spend more than ten years. He grew to love Glasgow and the people of Glasgow, and was loved by them in return. The big Highland priest with the soft heart was known especially to the "down-and-outs" of those days of depression, as one who would easily be persuaded to part with all he could spare, and sometimes more. He could never resist a call upon his charity, even when he suspected it was not genuine. This softness of heart he considered a weakness to be overcome, and sometimes he would try by bluster and a show of aggression to overcome it. Fortunately he never succeeded, for it was not a weakness but the secret of his strength—a genuine sympathy for anyone in distress. His charity to people who suffered real need was boundless, and known only to God.

It was this sympathy with the poor which led to his decision in 1939 to offer his services to the army. For he saw men go to war, poor, toil-worn, under-nourished men from the city slums, who owed little to the society they were fighting to defend; and he felt that he, a strapping six-foot-one of perfect health, could do no less. He enlisted with the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders, and after four months at Aldershot, he landed with the 51st (Highland) Division on the frozen shores of France in January, 1940. With that gallant army, he saw action during the first phase of the war, on the Saar front, at Abbeville, and then on the terrible retreat before the advancing German host in May. The fortunes of the 51st were followed with breathless anxiety by every Highland home as they were pressed backwards through France to the sea. Cut off from the main British Expeditionary Force which was evacuated at Dunkirk, the remnant of the Highland Division was eventually trapped at St. Valery-en-Caux, near Dieppe. Surrounded by German guns, at the mercy of dive-bombers, utterly exhausted and without stores or ammunition, they surrendered in proud defeat. At this last moment, Father Grant met his youngest brother, whom he had not known to be in France, and together they were taken prisoner at the point of the same rifle. This caused him great distress, for he knew the anxiety his parents must have endured on his account and that of his three brothers in the fighting forces.

Of the five years which followed, the Bishop was later to consider them the happiest of his life. By experience he learned what it is to suffer cold, hunger, terror, depression of spirits, and even the temptation to despair. But in compensation he experienced also a knowledge of men at their best and at their worst; he knew the meaning of true comradeship, and the charity which is proved only in adversity; he had the consolation of bringing Christ to men who might never have known Him, and who needed Him most. Much has been said and written of the great work done by Father Grant in those years, and of the lessons he taught by word and example. He himself would speak, not of what he taught, but of what he learned, the lessons in natural virtues which are all too often neglected by Christians in normal circumstances: patience, unselfishness, loyalty, patriotism, humour and honour. Passing himself through the valley of the shadow of death, he was able to appreciate the feelings of those who genuinely suffered, and to help them to rise above it. He knew the danger which self-pity offers to the soul of man, and strove to combat it in himself and in his comrades by destroying the self-love from which it arises. Tributes were paid by several of his fellow-prisoners of those years, in letters to the Oban Times at the time of his death. They described the conditions of the march into captivity—a fortnight of forced marching through France, Belgium and Holland; the overcrowding, disease and repulsive food of the first months in the Officers' Camp at Laufen on the Salsach River; the years spent in the prison camps in Bavaria among "other ranks," where he was their hero in time of need. As the years wore on and hope of victory or release seemed to fade, the weaker spirits would be tempted even to suicide. As their very sanity fell in danger, there was the temptation to invite death by climbing the wire or provoking the guards to shoot. In such distress the Highland voice of the chaplain would soothe their troubled spirits. "Lift up your eyes to the hills," he would say, pointing to the Alps, and then he would talk of the hills and glens of home which they would surely soon see again. He won the confidence of his captors, and thus was able to secure some measure of relief for his comrades. He kept bees, and gave lectures on this and other fascinating subjects. He organised classes in Gaelic and other languages, and encouraged others to use every spare moment of their time. Thus the years passed, and eventually victory came. The last weeks were filled with anxiety as they were moved from place to place, but eventually after weeks of marching they reached freedom, and in the summer of 1945 Father Grant came home to Glasgow in triumph.

It would require a great deal of re-adjustment for him to settle down again to the life of a city priest after having spent so long a time in the exclusive company of soldiers, but he looked forward to having charge of a parish within a short time. He was appointed temporarily to St. Joseph's, Clarkston. It was with dismay that he received his appointment to the see of Argyll and the Isles, which had been vacant since Archbishop Campbell had been translated to Glasgow, while Father Grant was still a prisoner of war. This would require re-adjustment indeed! He was consecrated in the half-finished cathedral of St. Columba on 27th February, 1959, by his kinsman, Archbishop Campbell of Glasgow.

The future held many difficulties for the new Bishop, but he set to work with enthusiasm. So much had to be studied afresh, especially in canon law and financial matters, but also in speculative and pastoral theology. His long-standing habit of reading now stood him in good stead, as he pored over books night after night into the small hours of the morning. The Cathedral had to be completed and the Bishop's House renovated, and because of the drop in the value of money the estimated cost had soared. Building restrictions added to his worry, and the loss of several priests who died within the first few years was a further cause of anxiety to him. As time went on, however, the situation improved. The Cathedral was brought to its present state of near-completion, and for the first time in more than twenty years the tradesmen left the premises, so that it was fit for its sacred purpose at last.

In 1956 Bishop Grant decided to leave Oban. He had purchased Letter Walton House some time previously in the hope that it might become a centre for priests to serve the Catholics scattered in small numbers through Argyll, far from priests and church. He now made this his residence, and being thus freed from the care of Oban as an individual parish, he was able to turn his attention and labours more fully to the needs of the diocese as a whole. The problems of the diocese are many, and in some ways unique. Many of the old Catholic districts, where the Faith has been strong ever since the Irish missionaries saved it from extinction in the seventeenth century, are now almost deserted. And yet a loyal, faithful remnant remain. There are in all only about 12,000 Catholics in the diocese, and as most of these are in towns served by a few priests, the Catholics in the rural areas have to support most of the priests and churches from their slender means. Besides these Catholic areas, there are the large areas where there are very few Catholics, and where the Mass is offered and the sacraments are administered only once or twice in the year. Many of these places are accessible only with difficulty, being isolated by rough mountains and by the sea. Bishop Grant was preoccupied with these difficulties, and sought means of overcoming them. To the old Catholic parishes he gave a new hope, not only by words but by real assistance. Old presbyteries and churches were by his orders stripped and renovated, and as a result of his policy it is hoped that their future is secure for years to come. He had plans for many places which he was not destined to see to fulfilment, but the effect of the fourteen years of his administration is very great indeed.

Bishop Grant's many qualities were widely recognised, not only at home but on the Continent and in Nova Scotia. He kept close correspondence with members of the German Hierarchy on terms of friendship. In Nova Scotia he received from the University of St. Francis Xavier, Antigonish, an honorary doctorate in laws. To his priests he was always a friend rather than a superior, and he was sure of a sincere welcome whenever he would call, as he often did, unannounced. He delighted in the company of priests, and whether serious or gay, whether it would develop into a heated argument or some amusement which would rouse his hilarious laughter, an evening of his company was always memorable. His ideas of what was becoming in a priest, and what was not, were strict, and he never ceased to remember, nor to remind younger priests, that Christ will be known by men by the image of Him as it is reflected in His priests.

The illness which caused his death must have been troubling him for some time, but he made every effort to conceal it. When he could do so no longer, it was sad to see his huge frame grow steadily more pale and thin. Treatment from doctors and surgeons gave some relief from time to time, but eventually it became clear that only a major operation could give any hope of a cure. The Bishop did not take to his bed, however, and if he realised how slender was the hope which the operation offered—and in retrospect it seems that he did—then he kept his knowledge to himself. He survived the operation by only two days.

The obsequies, performed by Archbishop Gray in the presence of Archbishop Heenan of Liverpool and most of the Bishops of Scotland, as well as a large number of clergy and a huge throng of laity, took place in Oban on the 10th September. Then in brilliant sunshine the long procession wended its way through Lorne and Appin and into Lochaber. It grew longer all the time as it went along, and in Fort William a large crowd joined it, including many of the companions of his youth. As it passed his mother's door, that grand old lady, in her ninetieth year, took a last farewell of her distinguished son. Up the steep hill to Killiechurriel his remains were carried, and there he was laid to rest by the Bishop of Aberdeen among the many priests of Catholic Lochaber. Fois shiorruidh gu'n robh aig 'anam.

Rev. John Deans—18th September, 1959

Rev. John Deans was born in Glasgow on 6th November, 1896, and baptised in St. Francis'. Schooldays over, he went to work in John Brown's shipyard in Clydebank, where his family had been living since 1910 after two years in the U.S.A. In the First World War he served in the Gallipoli campaign and afterwards in France. He was severely wounded in France, and for a long time it was doubtful if he would ever walk again.

After the war and his slow recovery from his wounds, Father Deans returned to Clydebank and to work at John Brown's shipyard, where he was taken into the drawing-office. He had a studious bent of mind, and assiduously attended night school and the Glasgow Technical College with conspicuous success. When the boom after the war collapsed, he emigrated to America. He did so well that within a very few years he was offered the position of manager in a yacht-building yard. However, he asked if he could go to Scotland to settle some business before accepting.

His business was to find out if the Archbishop of Glasgow would accept him as a candidate for the priesthood. Archbishop Mackintosh did accept him, and arranged for him to study at the Scots College in Rome, which he entered in October, 1928. Father Deans was an enthusiastic and thorough student and finished his course well equipped for his calling. He was ordained in Rome by Cardinal Marchetti-Selvaggiani on 10th July, 1935.

On his return to Scotland, he was appointed to St. Patrick's, Anderston. After four years, he was sent to St. Joseph's, Glenboig, and after about three years there he was transferred to St. John's, Barrhead. His next move was to the Catholic Industrial School at Kirkconnel as chaplain. After three or four years he was then appointed to St. Ignatius', Wishaw, but was left there for only about ten months. His last curacy was at St. Paul's, Shettleston, and there he remained for his longest spell. In September, 1956, he was appointed to help Father Cullen at the Parish of St. John of the Cross, Twechar, and after a few months, on the retirement of Father Cullen, he was appointed parish priest. He spent a very active, fruitful life there until he became suddenly and seriously ill towards the end of August this year. He died on the 18th September, fortified by the Rites of the Church. Mgr. Ward, V.G., presided at a Solemn Dirge for him in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on Monday evening, 21st September, and was celebrant and preacher at the Solemn Requiem Mass next morning in the Cathedral. Father Deans was buried in St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth, on 22nd September, 1959.

Although far from robust, Father Deans had been tireless, methodical, and exact. His profound sense of duty never flagged. He was a man of great simplicity, in the sense that he was perfectly integrated. He was a man of such high principle and constancy that, until one began to know him fairly well, he sometimes appeared to be rather unbending. In reality he was instinctively kindly and had a wonderful capacity for making deep friendships: he had remarkably many close friends, both priests and lay-people. He was never happier than in giving, and nobody more hospitable ever lived. Above all, he was a man of deep spirituality, and this supreme characteristic shone out in his last illness, when, as Mgr. Ward said in his panegyric, it was a privilege to visit Father Deans. To use St. John Fisher's expression, in all its tremendous force, Father Deans was a "golden priest." May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. Henry E. Canon Hart—26th October, 1959

To die suddenly—in a few seconds—without the burden, to himself or to others, of lingering illness; to die in the company of two priest-friends of long standing; to go to God shriven, anointed, houselled by one of his oldest friends; this was the end of the life story of Henry Edward Canon Hart, of St. Mary's, Greenock, who died in St. Joseph's Presbytery, Greenock, on 26th October, 1959.

Although the suddenness of his death came as a great shock to all who knew him, it left his large circle of relatives and friends more sorry than surprised. For some few years it had been known that he was suffering from an aneurism of the aorta which was bound, in time, to be fatal. Latterly, he had been taking things quietly, happily accepting little car outings with local colleagues.

The funeral, to St. Conval's Cemetery, Barrhead, took place on 28th October, after Solemn Pontifical Requiem in St. Mary's. The celebrant, His Lordship Bishop Hart of Dunkeld, the Deacon, Father Andrew, O.C.R., of Sancta Maria Abbey, Nunraw, Haddington, and the Subdeacon, Father Gerard Hart, parish priest of the Church of St. Catherine Labourè, Balornock, Glasgow, were all brothers of the Canon, and the M.C. at the faldstool, Father Daniel Hart, of St. Peter's, Partick, was a nephew. His Lordship Bishop Black presided at the Throne and Bishop McGee of Galloway was also present in the sanctuary. Upwards of a hundred and fifty priests came from the West and South of Scotland to assist at the obsequies. The music was sung by a choir of priests under the direction of Father Barclay of St. Joseph's, Greenock. A short panegyric was spoken by Bishop Black. The school-children of St. Mary's, St. Laurence's and St. Mungo's lined the streets as the cortege passed. It was by all accounts the most impressive funeral in living memory in Greenock.

Canon Hart was born in Dumbarton in the month of December in the year 1895. After a year or two in St. Mungo's Academy, Glasgow, he went to Blairs College, Aberdeen, in 1912. From there he went to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in the late summer of 1916. With most of his class, he had been "posted" to France for his senior studies, but the First World War was raging at the time and the Glasgow students were diverted to Bearsden. By the following Spring we had nearly all left the old College and were either already in the army or awaiting call-up. Canon Hart ultimately went to France with a detachment of the R.G.A. (Heavy Artillery). Some months later he volunteered for the old Royal Flying Corps and returned to England for training. Before his training finished, the war had come to an end. In the first months of 1919, we began trickling back to the college we all loved so well. By the 20th March of that year we had been joined by a contingent of new students from Blairs and studies began again.

Canon Hart was ordained priest by the late Archbishop Mackintosh in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on the 27th May, 1923. His first—and only—curacy was in the parish of Our Lady of Good Aid, Motherwell. The effect of his quiet, edifying, unaggressive nature during his more than seventeen years here was shown by the presence at his funeral, nearly twenty years after his departure, of several old parishioners from Motherwell.

He left Motherwell on 11th October, 1940, to take charge of the parish of St. Bride, Bothwell. Here he stayed till 1st June, 1945, when he was transferred to St. Ninian's, Gourrock, and a little over a year later he was appointed to St. Mary's, Greenock, where he spent the remaining years of his life.

A simple recital indeed, like the salient facts in the lives of nearly all priests. It is also woefully incomplete, for "salient facts" are merely the visible tenth part of the iceberg which is the life of the Mission priest. Always he was quiet and unassuming in speech and demeanour, but he was never ineffectual. Indeed, everywhere he went, he left his mark and, generally, he worked so quietly that his mark was not only not realised but was not even discovered until after he had gone. Nowhere was this truer than in St. Mary's. The church was re-decorated, new Stations of the Cross erected, a new pipe organ installed. Various repairs were meticulously attended to and the presbytery largely modernised.

In his relations with others, his great gift was generosity. He was kind almost to a fault and was always ready to give help where he saw it was needed. Above all, he was a priests' priest. Here the present writer can speak with authority. He first met Canon Hart in the late Summer of 1914 as a boy in Blairs and was more or less closely associated with him for all of forty-five years as neighbour, friend and confessor. This long and intimate association is not necessarily a qualification for the privilege of writing this short obituary notice; on the contrary, it might well be a disqualification on the grounds that he has been too close to his subject for true perspective or detached assessment. On the other hand, the purpose of the obituarist is not, except in a limited sense, biographical; rather is it to portray a character and sometimes, as in this instance, to pay a debt.

It was, perhaps, inevitable that to many people Canon Hart was simply and solely the eldest of four priest brothers, one of them a bishop, another a Trappist monk and the other what he was himself, a hard-working parish priest. This is of course true, and it is equally true that this is a very great distinction indeed. But always he was more—much more—than the senior member of a quartette; indeed, he was very much a personage in his own right—homo simplex ac rectus ac timens Deum. In the priesthood, too, he was a man indeed of many brothers, and we are grateful for the memories with which he has enriched our lives. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. Denis Canon Flynn—21st November, 1959

Very Rev. Denis Canon Flynn died on the night of Saturday, 21st November, 1959. His was a sudden but not an unprovided death. That afternoon he had made his weekly confession in the church of the Greyfriars at Uddingston; that evening he had spent in his confessional at St. Patrick's Church, himself dispensing the forgiveness of God. There was certainly bewilderment and tragedy in the suddenness of his departure, but might we not see in it also the loving dispensation of God who exempted him from the purgatorial pains of this world. Canon Flynn was in his sixty-seventh year. He had received his education first in a secondary day school not far from his home, St. Michael's College, Listowel. He then spent two or three years at the diocesan seminary at Killarney, and in 1911, he came to St. Peter's, Bearsden, to complete his studies for the priesthood. In the summer of 1917, he was ordained for the Archdiocese of Glasgow by the Most Rev. J. A. Maguire, Archbishop of Glasgow.

Canon Flynn was outstanding because of his great physique and forceful personality. God gave him a huge frame and, in any company, he hovered over his friends and colleagues. As a young man he was athletic, and in the Gaelic type of football, because of his high reach and strength, he could have been what we refer to as a "star." From his earliest years he had a remarkable fluency and aptitude in the Latin tongue. He owed this to the first school he attended, St. Michael's, Listowel. It was a unique type of school, a day school staffed by a priest and three laymen. It had a fine tradition in teaching the classics. It has fashioned much more, than one would expect to be its quota of distinguished pupils in the Church, in the State and in the world of letters. One might be excused mentioning that great scholar and churchman, Rev. Dr. O'Rahilly, and, as a matter of passing interest, a layman came from it to Scotland to write the most popular Scottish novels of his day.

To those who knew Canon Flynn, one of the outstanding facets of his life was his deep piety. It came from his early environment, from his own great love of God. How that man could pray! It must have been as his grandparents prayed when the Mass was still a fugitive thing in the hills round his native Duagh. In prayer he was completely oblivious of his surroundings. There were some to whom at times he may have been a distraction, but to the majority, I believe, it was a source of inspiration and edification. Father Flynn was a preacher, and in his earliest days at Shieldmuir, he could throng the church with people eager to hear him. He was most generous in obliging his fellow priests when they asked him to speak for them. There were times when he could reach great heights in pathos and eloquence; in fact, but for a certain raucousness of tone, he would have had few equals. God endowed him with the gift of a phenomenal photographic memory. Early on there came into his hands a copy of a book of poems by an Australian priest, "Around the Boree Log." They were verses that had captured in a very delicate way the spirit of the Irish immigrants, priests and people. Father Flynn quickly memorised several of them: "Vale Father Pat," "Josephine," "The Old Mass Shandryan." They became his party pieces. He particularly liked, "Vale Father Pat." I think the story of that great old priest mirrored for him the life he would like to live.

Father Flynn's life as a priest began in Shieldmuir. The other years of his life as an assistant priest were given to St. Mary's, Whifflet. His first charge as a pastor was St. Conval's, Linwood, and after a few years there, he came to the city, to the north-west region, to the Parish of St. Columba, and here for ten other years he passed what I believe were the happiest of his life. There were many souls to be helped, there were many avenues of human interest to be explored. Father Flynn was a pastoral priest. It was the work he loved. Let me put it in one sentence, a sentence I borrow from the words spoken at his obsequies by the Bishop of Motherwell: "I do not think I ever proceeded down this road without seeing Canon Flynn busy about his many duties." He had congenial assistant priests in St. Columba's. He liked company, he liked talk. He built the new church of the parish. That is not technically correct. It is the architect and the contractors that build a church; the priest provides the wherewithal. He does this in the measure that he can imbue his people with his own urge and ambition to give the Son of God an earthly temple as fitting as the resources of the parishioners will allow. Father Flynn accomplished this, and that striking, challenging, red brick edifice with its dark brown tiles and sloping roof, will always be his "memorial."

In 1947, the parish of Our Lady of Good Aid, Motherwell, became vacant. The Archbishop of Glasgow selected Father Flynn for the charge. It was an important assignment. How important perhaps he did not then foresee. Next year, 1948, Motherwell was made a diocese, the first new See in Scotland since the Restoration of the Hierarchy in 1878. Any priest who has done pioneer work, who has founded a parish, who has begun with a field and in a few years succeeded in having an organised community, a church, a presbytery, has a story to tell of prolonged anxieties and worries and disappointments. Even such a priest could scarcely appreciate what is involved in the growing pains of a new diocese.

Father Flynn was one of the new bishop's first consultors. He was on the Finance Board. But more, his church at Motherwell became the cathedral. It would have liturgical days. The canonical and episcopal functions would be held in it. There would be a chapter of canons. When the chapter was established, Father Flynn was immediately appointed to it. The preparations to be made were varied and complex and so too did the life of Father Flynn become involved, complex and arduous. Thanks, however, to his efforts, and those of the devoted men the new bishop gathered to him, the growing pains were quickly got through and Motherwell had found its feet.

In 1956, Canon Flynn went back to his first love, St. Patrick's, Shieldmuir, back to the house where he had spent his first night as a missionary priest in Scotland, the house in which he was fated to spend his last. He was happy to return. He was coming home to those who had known him so long. He knew he was coming back to esteem and real affection, and that evening, as he travelled up the Wishaw Road, I am sure his thoughts were back in the "Boree Log" and he was reciting to himself from "Father Pat."

Far defter hands may now adorn the work he laboured in, but granite base and buttressed wall were built by "Father Din."

His bishop, the Right Rev. J. D. Scanlan, sang his Requiem Mass and spoke feelingly of his loss. In the sanctuary was his lifelong friend and college companion, the Right Rev. J. Black, Bishop of Paisley. There also was the Vicar General of Glasgow, Right Rev. Mgr. J. Ward, to represent the archbishop and the diocese that had claimed more than half his priestly life. The clergy came in great numbers, monsignors, canons and priests, to pay their last regards to one whom they were proud to have known as a colleague. Fittingly, the committal prayers at the cemetery in New Stevenston were recited by his relation and countyman, Very Rev. Patrick Quille, Administrator of St. Mary's Cathedral. And the laity! I quote from the Glasgow Observer, Friday, 27th November: "The church was taxed to its utmost capacity, the side passages, the porch and even the choir-loft were packed with mourners. Many others unable to get into the church, stood in the shelter of the entrance door to the parochial hall across the way, out of the lashing rain, so that they might offer up a silent prayer as the coffin bearing the huge frame of the genial giant of a priest was borne from the church to the waiting hearse." May he rest in peace.

Right Rev. Henry Grey Graham, Bishop of Tipasa in Numidia
5th December, 1959

The Right Rev. Henry Grey Graham, Bishop of Tipasa in Numidia and parish priest of Holy Cross Parish, Crosshill, Glasgow, who had been in declining health for some years, died after a short illness, at the Bon Secours Nursing Home, on Saturday the 5th December, 1959, at the age of eighty-five years.

Pontifical Requiem Mass was celebrated in Holy Cross Church on Thursday, 10th December, 1959, by His Grace, Archbishop Donald A. Campbell, D.D., of Glasgow, in the presence of Archbishop Gordon Gray, M.A., of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, and the entire Scottish Hierarchy. An immense throng of prelates, canons of cathedral chapters and clergy represented every diocese in Scotland. The parishioners of Holy Cross Parish and laity from more distant parts crowded the church and lined the streets to join in the holy Sacrifice of the Mass and pay their last, prayerful respects as the lengthy cortege escorted the mortal remains of their beloved pastor to his last resting place at St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth.

In the course of the obsequies, His Lordship, Bishop Black, spoke of the many messages of condolence that had been received and, in particular, he mentioned those from His Excellency, the Apostolic Delegate, and from the President of Ireland. His Lordship then delivered the following panegyric:

"This great concourse of prelates, priests, religious and faithful people has been drawn together by the sad tidings of the death of the great priest whose mortal remains lie here before us, the Right Reverend Henry Grey Graham, Bishop of Tipasa and parish priest of this Church of the Holy Cross. We have come together for our mutual comfort in our loss, to express our deep regard and love for him and to carry out the last obsequial rites for the eternal repose of his soul. Bishop Graham has been taken from us full of years, after a long life of prayer and work for God; and while we mourn his loss, we do not begrudge him his rest from labour.

His long life of eighty-five years and more has been a full life. Henry Grey Graham was born in the village of Maxton, Roxburghshire, on 8th March, 1874. He was a son of the manse. His father, Manners H. Graham, was parish minister of Maxton, and Henry was the youngest of five sons in an honourable and honoured family of ten children. He went to school in Kelso and, when not yet sixteen years old, he proceeded to the University of St. Andrews. There he graduated Master of Arts in 1893 and Bachelor of Divinity in 1896. In the session 1896-1897 he lectured at St. Andrews in Hebrew and Oriental studies. He was licensed as a minister of the Church of Scotland in March, 1897. After serving as assistant minister in various parishes in Clydesdale, he was elected parish minister of Avondale, in Lanarkshire, in 1901.

His serious study and persevering prayer prepared him well for the gift of the Faith and for the long and fruitful apostolate which was to follow. On the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady in the year 1903, he was received into the Church at the Abbey of Fort Augustus, and he made his first Holy Communion on the same day. Forthwith he offered his life to God in the priesthood and proceeded in October of the same year to the Scots College in Rome and the Gregorian University. In 1905 he received all the Orders up to the diaconate and was ordained priest by Cardinal Respighi in the Lateran Basilica on 22nd December, 1906. The following summer, he returned to Scotland and, after serving temporarily at Larkhall, he was appointed curate at Motherwell. From 1907 until 1916 the people of the parish of Our Lady of Good Aid knew his zeal and his enthusiasm. He was a controversial figure in the noblest sense of the word, that is, he waged war for Truth and Justice, and suffered much obloquy and persecution in the process. His tall figure astride a bicycle, as he went on his rounds of visitation, was a familiar sight to the citizens and sometimes the object of violent attack.

After his years of curacy in Motherwell, Father Graham was promoted to the charge of St. Mary's, Longriggend; and although his pastorate there lasted only two years, he is remembered to this day, with great reverence and affection, by the older generation of the faithful in Longriggend.

In the year 1917 compassion for the failing health of Archbishop Smith, Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, moved the Holy Father to grant him the support and aid of an auxiliary bishop. Father Graham was chosen for that honour and burden. He was elected to the Titular See of Tipasa, in Numidia, and consecrated in St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh, by the Archbishop of Glasgow, assisted by the Bishops of Galloway and Dunkeld, on 16th November, the Feast of St. Margaret, 1917. The time was fraught with anxiety. The Scottish Education Act was in the making; and great store of prudence and courage was called for in those who had the leadership of the Church in Scotland in those days. It was, too, the most anxious year of the First World War. Travel was slow and very difficult; but the new bishop set about, with great courage, the task of the visitation of the parishes and the administration of the Sacrament of Confirmation in the vast territory of the Archdiocese. With persevering endurance he achieved his aims. For thirteen years the Bishop enjoyed the privilege and carried the burden of administering the Archdiocese of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, until, on the succession to the See of the virile Archbishop Andrew Joseph McDonald, his aid was no longer required and he came home to Glasgow.

Since 1930, the people of Holy Cross have known and loved him as their father in God. You have seen him coming and going, tirelessly, in and out among you, bringing a blessing by his very presence, visiting you in your home, breaking the bread of sound doctrine to you in the pulpit, administering the Sacraments to you, comforting you in your sorrows, rejoicing with you in your joys, offering for you the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, caring, with meticulous care, for the temporalities of your parish, assuring and securing the beauty of this House of God and all its furnishings. You, like all whom he served before you, have reason to remember him with gratitude and to repay his services by your prayers. The priests also who served him and you in this parish will be for ever grateful for the care he lavished on them and, most of all, for the example of his apostolic zeal and prayerful life. I had the privilege of serving him and you for a short time, twenty years ago. Ever since, I have regarded that period as the most valuable and the most formative of all my life in the priesthood.

The mind and heart of the bishop were too big to be entirely filled even by his immense solicitude for the parish. For many years he has rendered signal service to His Grace, the Archbishop of Glasgow, and to his predecessor, by undertaking many tasks in the Archdiocese, such as the administration of the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Orders and the oversight and provision of Religious Communities. Moreover, the spread of the Faith, for which he was himself so grateful, both at home, through the activities and publications of the Catholic Truth Society, and in pagan lands, through his constant and generous support of the Association for the Propagation of the Faith and Missionary Societies, was an object so near to his heart that he counted neither the labour nor the cost.

Bishop Graham was, for all his gifts, a most humble man and one who shrank from praise. I can see him shaking his head at me now in deprecation of my praise and almost I can hear him whistling me down from this pulpit; but I must risk his reproof, because it is for the edification of the Church that the good works of a good pastor should be made known. St. Paul once wrote to St. Timothy: "It behoveth a bishop to be blameless." That is a terrifying requirement; yet, as far as human frailty will allow, it was realised in the life of Bishop Graham. If ever it is lawful to apply to fragile man the words which the Church uses with reference to Confessor Pontiffs, I think it is lawful to apply them to this good bishop: "Ecce sacerdos magnus qui in diebus suis placuit Deo, et inventus est justus." Here is a great priest who in his days pleased God and was accounted a just man.

My dear Fathers and Brethren, I am acutely conscious that I cannot even begin to record the regard, the admiration, the affection, which we all feel towards this good bishop and friend whose loss we are mourning to-day; but I can, and I do commend him to you in your prayers and Masses in the days and years to come. Especially to the dear people of this parish of Holy Cross I say: "Cherish his memory and repay his care and solicitude for you by the fervour of your prayer for him, so that, 'when the Prince of Pastors shall appear, he may receive a never fading crown of glory.'" May he rest in peace.

APPENDIX I.

ECCLESIASTICAL LAWS AND OBSERVANCES.

1. EASTER DUTIES AND INDULGENCES.

The Faithful of Scotland are authorised to satisfy the obligation of the Paschal Communion and to gain the Plenary Indulgence on any day from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday. (S.C.C.: 11th Oct., 1946).

2. FAST AND ABSTINENCE DAYS.

The new Code of Canon Law makes many important changes in the general law of fasting and abstinence. The Indult, however, granted in perpetuity to Scotland by the Holy See on 27th January, 1911, still continues in force. The regulations of both Code and Indult as they apply to Scotland are here summarised.

A. LAWS OF FASTING.

1. The law of fasting is binding on all between their 21st and 59th birthdays, unless they are excused by reason of health or the nature of their employment.

In all cases of doubt a confessor should be consulted.

2. On Fast days only one full meal, which may be taken either at midday or in the evening, is allowed.

In addition two light collations are permitted, one consisting of two or three ounces of food, which may include a little butter, jam or marmalade, and the other of eight to ten ounces, at which butter, cheese, eggs, or fish may be taken. Milk is allowed at either of these collations.

On Fast days which are not also days of abstinence, flesh meat and soup made from meat may be taken only at the chief meal by those bound to fast. The old law, forbidding the use of fish and flesh at the same meal, is abolished.

3. The Fast days of the year are:—

(a) The Ember days.

(b) The Vigils or Eves of Pentecost, All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, but when any of these Feasts falls on a Monday, though the Vigil is observed on the previous Saturday, it does not carry with it the obligation of fasting or abstinence.

On Christmas Eve the quantity of food permitted at the evening collation may be doubled.

(c) All the days of Lent, except Sundays, but on Holy Saturday the fast ends at midday.

4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a Fast day.

B. LAWS OF ABSTINENCE.

1. The use of flesh meat or of soup made from meat is forbidden on Abstinence days to all who have completed their 7th year.
2. The use of eggs, butter, margarine, as well as of dripping, lard, suet or other condiments made from animal fat, is allowed on all days of the year without exception.
3. The days of Abstinence are:—
  - (a). The Fridays throughout the year.
  - (b) The Ember Wednesdays.
  - (c) The Vigils of All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, except when any of these Vigils falls on a Saturday or Sunday.
  - (d) In Lent, Ash Wednesday, Ember Saturday, and (up to midday) Holy Saturday.
4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a day of Abstinence.

(Approved by the Hierarchy, 11th October, 1932.)

N.B.—For the time being the above legislation is modified by an Indult, issued by the Holy See on January 28th, 1949, which reduces the number of days on which the laws of fast and abstinence must be observed in the following manner: "until provision is made otherwise, abstinence should be observed every Friday, the law of abstinence together with fast on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the Vigils of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Indult also adds a concession in the quality of food permitted: "graciously granting, nevertheless, that on days of abstinence together with fast it will everywhere be permissible to take eggs and milk products even in the morning and the evening."

3. NEW REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE EUCHARISTIC FAST.

In a Motu Proprio, published on the 19th March, 1957, the following regulations concerning the Eucharistic Fast were promulgated:

1. The period of the Eucharistic Fast is shortened to three hours from solid food and alcoholic drinks, and one hour from non-alcoholic liquids. This regulation is to be observed both by priests, before the celebration of Mass, and by the faithful, before receiving Holy Communion, whether it be in the morning or evening. Water does not break the fast.
2. The above period for the Eucharistic Fast is to be observed even by those who celebrate Mass or receive Holy Communion at midnight or in the early hours of the morning.
3. The sick, even though not confined to bed, may take non-alcoholic liquids or genuine medicine, either liquids or solid, at any time before celebrating Mass or receiving Holy Communion.

4. MARRIAGES.

Marriage may be contracted on any day of the year. The Solemnising of Marriage, i.e., the Solemn Blessing of the Church which is given only during Mass, is forbidden from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, and from the first Sunday of Advent to Christmas Day, all dates being inclusive. Bishops, however, may for a just reason allow the Solemnising of Marriage any day during the forbidden periods, provided the laws of the Liturgy be observed. A widow, who has already received this Blessing, may not again be blessed at any subsequent marriage.

Marriage is constituted by the free consent of two parties taking one another for husband and wife. Anything interfering with the freedom of consent, in the way of serious error, grave fear and violence, may endanger the validity of the marriage bond.

The age required for valid marriage is sixteen years complete in the case of the man, fourteen years complete in that of the woman; those under twenty-one years of age should before marriage inform their parents and obtain their consent.

Marriage cannot be contracted without a Dispensation by persons within the third degree of kindred or the second degree of affinity; if attempted the marriage is invalid. Spiritual kindred contracted by Baptism, i.e., between a god-parent and a god-child, is also an invalidating impediment.

Marriage between a Catholic and an unbaptised person is invalid without a dispensation.

A "mixed" marriage (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptised, does not profess the Catholic Faith) is unlawful without a Dispensation; and the Dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions as laid down by the Council of Fort Augustus (Decr., xvii. 5): (1) That all children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptised, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. (2) That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. (3) That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place elsewhere than before the Catholic Priest. (4) That the Catholic party shall endeavour to effect the conversion of the non-Catholic party to the true faith of Christ. These promises will ordinarily be made in writing by the parties.

For parties preparing for marriage, the golden rule is: Give very early notice to the parish priest, who will furnish precise and helpful instructions as to both civil and ecclesiastical requirements. Banns have to be proclaimed on three consecutive Sundays or Holidays, and evidence of Baptism has to be furnished by both parties, even in the case of a mixed marriage. If it can be done without serious inconvenience, Catholics should be confirmed before marriage. As a general rule, the parish priest of the bride, in the case of a mixed marriage the parish priest of the Catholic party, will take charge of the marriage.

The Decree Ne temere, which became law in Scotland only on the 1st of September, 1908, made important regulations for the celebration of marriage, either between two Catholics, or between a Catholic and a non-Catholic. These regulations have been incorporated into, and somewhat modified by, the new Code of Canon Law, which came into force on the 19th May, 1918. The following points should be noted:—

I. Engagements, even when formally and solemnly contracted, afford no canonical ground for claiming a fulfilment of the promise.

II. Only those marriages are valid which are contracted before the parish priest or the Ordinary of the place, or a priest delegated by either of these, and at least two witnesses.

III. The parish priest and the Ordinary of the place validly assist at a marriage:

(a) only within the limits of their territory; within which they assist validly at marriages not only of their own subjects, but also of those not subject to them;

(b) provided that not compelled by violence or by grave fear they ask and receive the consent of the contracting parties.

IV. They assist licitly:

(a) when they have legitimately ascertained the free state of the contracting parties;

(b) when they have ascertained that one of the contracting parties has a domicile, or at least has lived for a month in the place where the marriage takes place.

V. When the parish priest or Ordinary or delegate as above (No. II.) cannot be got:

(a) in danger of death marriage may be validly and licitly contracted before two witnesses only;

(b) outside the case of danger of death, when these conditions are prudently considered as likely to last for a month, marriage may be contracted before two witnesses only.

(c) in either case, if any priest is at hand, he should be called in to assist; but his presence or absence does not effect the validity of the marriage.

VI. (a) The above laws are binding on all persons baptised in the Catholic Church, and on those who have been converted to it from heresy or schism.

(b) The same laws are binding on the same Catholics as above, if they contract marriage with non-Catholics, baptised or unbaptised, even after a Dispensation has been obtained.

(c) Non-Catholics, whether baptised or unbaptised, who contract among themselves, are nowhere bound to observe the Catholic form of marriage.

5. SICK CALLS.

All sick calls should be given in at the Priest's house at a timely hour in the morning. If this reasonable rule were adhered to, it would save the Clergy much unnecessary labour and the people many disappointments, which they may justly ascribe to their own want of system.

On Saturdays, eves of Holidays, and other days which are generally devoted to the Confessional, the priest should not, if possible, be called away from this important duty. Unless in cases of necessity, sick calls should not be made on Saturdays or Sundays, when the Clergy have so many other duties to attend to.

It is the duty of the people to conform to whatever regulations may be made by the Clergy, on these and other matters connected with Religion, in their respective congregations. All things should be done in order, according to the advice of St. Paul.

When the priest is called to attend a sick person, everything that he requires for the administration of the Sacraments should be furnished as becomingly as possible in the room where the sick person lies—viz., a table covered with a clean linen cloth on which should be laid 2 candles, a vessel of holy water with a sprinkler, a small vessel of common water for the purification of the priest's fingers after the administration of the Holy Viaticum, and a napkin for the sick person at the time of Communion. As the priest generally brings the Blessed Sacrament on these occasions, everything should be so becomingly prepared, according to their means, as to show the great respect of the inmates for Jesus Christ, and the high value they set upon the honour thus rendered to their house in the visit of their Lord and Redeemer.

While the priest is administering the Viaticum and Extreme Unction, the assistants should devoutly offer up their prayers to God on behalf of the sick person, to implore that he may receive those Sacraments with the necessary dispositions.

APPENDIX II.

INDULGENCES AND DEVOTIONS

1. INDULGENCES.

EXPLANATION OF INDULGENCES.

An indulgence is a remission of the whole, or part, of the temporal punishment that often remains to be suffered for sins which, as to their guilt and eternal punishment, have been already remitted. For the effect and validity of an Indulgence it is not only necessary that there be a competent authority in him who grants it, and a just cause or motive for the grant, but it is also necessary, on the part of him who obtains it, that he renounce and be sincerely sorry for all his sins, that he be in the state of grace, and that he duly perform the conditions prescribed. Of Indulgences, some are called plenary, which, when fully obtained, remit the whole of the temporal punishment that remained due on account of past sins; others are for a certain number of years or days, which when fully obtained, remit as much of the temporal punishment as would have been discharged by the performance of so many years or days of Canonical Penance. Thus, by a quarantine Indulgence was meant the remission of so much of the future penalty (poena) of sin as is the equivalent of keeping a Lent according to the strict discipline of the Church. Quarantines are no longer mentioned in the official collection of indulgenced prayers (Vatican Press, 1938).

Indulgences attached to sacred objects, such as rosaries, etc., are available to any person using these objects, and the Indulgences cease only when the thing is destroyed or sold.

The conditions for most Plenary Indulgences include Confession, Communion, Visit to a Church and prayers for the Pope's intentions. For an Indulgence granted for any particular day, Confessions made eight days before will suffice; Communion may be made the day before, and both Confession and Communion any day within the Octave. For Triduums, Novenas and suchlike, Confession and Communion may be made any day within the Octave after the conclusion of the exercises. For daily communicants, or for those who confess regularly twice a month, no special confession is necessary. The visit may be made to any church or oratory and may be made from noon of the preceding day to midnight of the last day of the time appointed. Prayer for the Pope's intentions should be recited vocally and not merely mentally. Jubilee Indulgences, as well as some others, have their own special conditions.

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO SCOTLAND.

1. From the Feast of St. Thomas, Apostle, 21st December, to the first Sunday after the Epiphany, inclusively.
2. From Ash-Wednesday to the second Sunday of Lent, inclusively.
3. During the time appointed in each Diocese for complying with Easter duties.

4. From Pentecost Sunday to Sunday after Corpus Christi.
5. From Sunday before the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul to the Octave Day.
6. From Sunday before the Feast of the Assumption to the Octave Day.
7. From Sunday before the Feast of All Saints to the Octave Day.
8. On the Feast of St. Andrew, and during the Octave.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING THESE INDULGENCES.

1. That within the time prescribed the faithful approach the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist.

When Confession is required as a condition for gaining an indulgence, it may be made eight days before or eight days after. The Holy Communion prescribed may be made the day before or within the eight days after. One Confession and Communion will suffice for the gaining of several Plenary Indulgences on the same day. Canon 931.

2. That on the day of their Communion they offer up some prayers to God for the happy state of the whole Church of Christ, for its Supreme Pastor the Bishop of Rome, for peace and concord between all Christian Princes; for the exaltation and propagation of the Holy Catholic Faith, especially in our own country, and for the eternal salvation of all Christians.

3. That if they have an opportunity, they visit within the limited time some church or oratory, and pray to God as has been mentioned before.

4. That, if their circumstances enable them, they perform some works of mercy.

To gain any number of times a Plenary Indulgence granted toties quoties the necessary and sufficient prayers to be said for the Pope's intention at each visit to a church are six Our Fathers, six Hail Marys, and six Glorias. (A.A.S., 1930, 363).

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO ALL THE FAITHFUL.

THE INDULGENCES OF THE STATIONS.

The nature and number of the indulgences attached to the Stations of the Cross by the Holy See in the course of the centuries had become uncertain in consequence of the loss of authentic documents. The Holy See therefore has abolished all indulgences hitherto conceded and grants to all the faithful who with contrite heart make the Stations of the Cross the following indulgences:—

1. A Plenary Indulgence as often as the Stations of the Cross are made.

2. Another Plenary Indulgence if they go to Holy Communion on the same day on which they make the Stations; or if, having made the Stations ten times they go to Holy Communion within a month.

3. A Partial Indulgence of ten years for each Station they have made, if after beginning the Stations they are unable, for some reasonable cause, to complete them.

The sick, who are unable to recite a suitable ejaculation, may still gain a Plenary Indulgence by merely kissing or looking upon the crucifix specially blessed.

The sick, those travelling, and any others legitimately impeded gain the Indulgence, if while holding in their hands the crucifix specially blessed, they say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria twenty times, that is fourteen times for the fourteen Stations, five in memory of the Sacred Wounds, and once for the Pope's intention. If some reasonable cause prevents the completion of this exercise, these persons may gain a Partial Indulgence of ten years for each time they have recited an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Gloria.

PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of August all may gain a Plenary Indulgence as often as they visit a Franciscan Church or any Church enjoying the privilege of the Portiuncula, and say six Paters, six Aves, and six Glorias for the Pope's intention. The usual condition of Confession and Holy Communion is enjoined.

COMMEMORATION OF THE HOLY SOULS.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of November or on the following Sunday all may gain a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, as often as they visit a Church or public or semi-public oratory and say the prayers for the Pope's intention.

VISITING A CATHOLIC CEMETERY.

During the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, may be gained by the faithful who visit a Catholic Cemetery on the usual conditions (31st October, 1934).

THE CATECHISM INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence on any two days of each month may be gained by all who either teach or learn the catechism for the space of at least twenty minutes twice in the month. The usual conditions of Confession, Communion, visit to a church and prayer for the Pope's intention are prescribed. For every such period devoted to teaching or learning the catechism a partial indulgence of 100 days may be gained by the contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1930, 343.)

ROSARY INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence, under the usual conditions of Confession and Communion, may be gained by anyone of the faithful who devoutly recites five decades of the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament exposed for public veneration, or reserved in the tabernacle. (A.A.S., Sept., 1927.)

THE HOLY HOUR.

All who perform the pious exercise of the Holy Hour in any church, public oratory, or semi public oratory to which they have legitimate access may gain (1) a Plenary Indulgence, provided they confess their sins and receive Holy Communion and recite the usual prayers for the Pope's intentions; (2) a Partial Indulgence of ten years, if they are at least contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 171.)

THE FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION.

Whether the form of exposition is strictly Clementine or modified by the Bishop's authority, a Plenary Indulgence, once on each day, may be gained by all who visit the Blessed Sacrament during Quarant Ore and recite a Pater, Ave and Gloria five times, and one Pater, Ave and Gloria for the Pope's intention. Confession and Communion are enjoined. Alternatively, a Partial Indulgence of fifteen years is granted to the contrite of heart each time they visit a church during the Forty Hours Devotion and recite the same prayers. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 381.)

PROCESSIONS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained by all those who assist at Processions of the Blessed Sacrament, whether the processions are within or without a sacred building. Confession, Communion and prayer for the Pope's intention are enjoined. (A.A.S., 1933, p.478.)

SPIRITUAL VISITS TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Those who are legitimately prevented from making a visit in person may now gain a Partial Indulgence of five years by making a spiritual visit to the Blessed Sacrament and reciting the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and once for the Pope's intention, provided they are contrite of heart.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained once a week if, through the same impediment, the spiritual visit is made daily. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 169.)

VISITING THE ALTAR OF REPOSE.

The contrite of heart who visit the "Altar of Repose" on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday and recite the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times and once for the Pope's intention may gain a toties quoties indulgence of fifteen years. A Plenary Indulgence may be gained on each of these days if the further conditions of Confession and Communion are fulfilled. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 277.)

PARTIAL INDULGENCES: THE LITANY OF THE B. VIRGIN.

On 6th May, 1879, His Holiness granted the Apostolic Benediction, and an Indulgence of seven years on each Saturday, and on the Feasts of the Blessed Virgin, to the Faithful of England and Scotland who shall recite or sing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin in any church in either country. This Indulgence is now extended to all the faithful and may be gained each time the Litany is recited or sung (Preces et Pia opera, Vatican Press, 1938).

VISITING A CHURCH AND PRAYER FOR THE POPE'S INTENTION.

The phrase "visiting a church," means going to a church with the intention of honouring God, either in Himself or in His saints and, if no set prayer is enjoined, offering mental or vocal prayer according to each one's piety and devotion. When no other prayers are specified, the condition "prayer for the Pope's intention" is satisfied by reciting one Pater, one Ave and one Gloria. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 478.)

2. THE PENTECOST NOVENA.

For the Pentecost Novena, prescribed by Encyclical Letters of 5th May, 1895, and 9th May, 1897, the following Indulgences have been granted to those taking part in it:—(1) Ten years for each day; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on any one day of Novena, or on Pentecost, or on any day of the subsequent Octave, on the usual conditions of Confession and Communion and prayers for the Pope's intention, attendance on at least five days being necessary. (These Indulgences are attainable by those also who are legitimately impeded from attending the Public Devotions, provided the Novena be done in private and the other conditions fulfilled; the Partial Indulgence in this case is seven years.) Moreover, those who again, during the Octave of Pentecost, inclusive of Trinity Sunday, privately recite every day, according to their devotion, some prayers to the Holy Ghost, may gain a Partial Indulgence of seven years for each day. All these Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory.

3. THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

For the continuance and daily increase of the abundant fruit produced by the Decree of 20th December, 1905, on Daily Communion, Our Holy Father, Pope Pius X., by a letter of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences of the 10th April, 1907, to the Bishops of the Catholic Church, has expressed his wish to have, as far as may be possible, the following annual observances:—

(a) IN CATHEDRAL CHURCHES.

That on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, either immediately after the Festival of Corpus Christi, or (if the circumstances of persons or places so require) at some other time of the year to be fixed by the Bishop, there shall be in every Cathedral Church three days' prayer, as here described: namely:—

I. That, on each day, there shall be a sermon on the great excellence of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and on the dispositions required for worthily receiving it. That, after the sermon, the Blessed Sacrament shall be exposed; and during the Exposition the prayer O most Sweet Jesus (see below) shall be recited, to be followed on the Sunday by the Te Deum. That the Tantum ergo shall then be sung, and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament be given.

II. That, on the Sunday, the last of the three days, there shall be, at the usual parochial Mass, a homily by the Parish Priest on the gospel of the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi—or, if the Sunday be not within the Octave, a sermon in preparation for a fervent Communion; and at this parochial Mass the faithful shall communicate. That, on this Sunday afternoon (or evening), there shall be the same service as on the two preceding days. And in the sermon the preacher shall exhort the faithful to more fervent piety towards the Most Holy Sacrament, and especially to a more frequent participation of this heavenly banquet, in accordance with the approved teaching of the Catechismus Romanus (see n. vi. of the Decree of 20th December, 1905). Moreover, at Benediction (as is said above), the Tantum ergo will be preceded by the Te Deum.

(b) IN PARISH CHURCHES.

His Holiness earnestly recommends that also in Parish Churches, according as each Bishop in his prudence and discernment shall judge fit, there shall be at least those pious exercises which are above described for the Cathedral Churches for the Sunday within the Octave, or some other Sunday in the year.

That the faithful may more eagerly take part in the aforesaid pious exercises, His Holiness has been pleased to grant the following Indulgences, applicable also to the souls in Purgatory:—

1. An Indulgence of ten years for each of the three days' prayer.
2. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained once during the three days, on any day thereof, by those who devoutly assist at the devotions of any one day, and after Confession and Holy Communion pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.
3. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained on the Sunday by all who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion together in a Cathedral or a Parish Church, and pray for the Holy Father's intentions.

PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

O most sweet Jesus, Who didst come into this world to enrich the souls of all mankind with the life of Thy grace, and Who, to preserve and sustain this life in them, dost daily give Thyself in the most august Sacrament of the Eucharist, as a saving medicine to heal their infirmities and a divine food to support their weakness, we pray and beseech Thee to pour forth upon them most graciously Thy holy spirit, so that, being filled therewith, any who are in mortal sin may, by returning to Thee, be restored to the life of grace which they have lost; and that those who, by Thy great mercy, already serve Thee may daily, as far as each one is able, come devoutly to Thy heavenly banquet, and in the strength thereof may find a remedy for their daily venial faults and a support of the life of Thy grace, and, thus becoming more and more cleansed from sin, may obtain the everlasting happiness of heaven. Amen.

4. THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART.

By the Encyclical Letter Miserentissimus Redemptor of Pius XI dated 8th May, 1928, it is decreed that the Act of Reparation thereto appended shall be solemnly recited in all churches throughout the world on the Feast of the Sacred Heart. The Act, together with the Litany of the Sacred Heart, is to be recited during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

ACT OF REPARATION.

O sweet Jesus, Whose overflowing charity for men is requited by so much forgetfulness, negligence and contempt, behold us prostrate before Thy altar eager to repair by a special act of homage the cruel indifference and injuries, to which Thy loving Heart is everywhere subject.

Mindful alas! that we ourselves have had a share in such great indignities, which we now deplore from the depths of our hearts, we humbly ask Thy pardon and declare our readiness to atone by voluntary expiation not only for our own personal offences, but also for the sins of those, who straying far from the path of salvation, refuse in their obstinate infidelity to follow Thee, their Shepherd and Leader, or, renouncing the vows of their baptism, have cast off the sweet yoke of Thy law.

We are now resolved to expiate each and every deplorable outrage committed against Thee; we are determined to make amends for the manifold offences against Christian modesty in unbecoming dress and behaviour, for all the foul seductions laid to ensnare the feet of the innocent, for the frequent violation of Sundays and holidays, and the shocking blasphemies uttered against Thee and Thy Saints. We wish also to make amends for the insults to which Thy Vicar on earth and Thy priests are subjected, for the profanation, by conscious neglect or terrible acts of sacrilege, of the very Sacrament of Thy divine love; and lastly, for the public crimes of nations who resist the rights and the teaching authority of the Church which Thou hast founded.

Would, O divine Jesus, we were able to wash away such abominations with our blood. We now offer, in reparation for these violations of Thy divine honour, the satisfaction Thou didst once make to Thy eternal Father on the Cross and which Thou dost continue to renew daily on our altars; we offer it in union with the acts of atonement of Thy Virgin Mother and all the Saints and of the pious faithful on earth; and we sincerely promise to make recompense, as far as we can with the help of Thy grace, for all neglect of Thy great love and for the sins we and others have committed in the past.

Henceforth we will live a life of unwavering faith, of purity of conduct, of perfect observance of the precepts of the gospel and especially that of charity. We promise to the best of our power to prevent others from offending Thee and to bring as many as possible to follow Thee.

O loving Jesus, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our model in reparation, deign to receive the voluntary offering we make of this act of expiation; and by the crowning gift of perseverance keep us faithful unto death in our duty and the allegiance we owe to Thee, so that we may all one day come to that happy home, where Thou with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

The Indulgences granted are: (1) To the faithful present in any Church or Oratory at the recital of the above Act and the Litany of the Sacred Heart during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament an Indulgence of seven years and further a Plenary Indulgence if, after Confession, they receive Holy Communion, and (2) to those who any where or at any time, even in private, recite the above Act, an Indulgence of five years, and further a Plenary Indulgence once in the month if they repeat the Act daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion. (18th March, 1932).

5. THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING.

Whereas, by the Decree of the S. Congregation of Indulgences, 22nd August, 1906, His Holiness Pope Pius X ordered that each year on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, in all Parish Churches as well as others where the feast is observed, the form of Consecration used by Pope Leo XIII. on the 25th May, 1899, should be recited during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by the Litany of the Sacred Heart, it is now enacted (S.R.C., 28th April, 1926) that (1) the observance is optional on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, but obligatory on the Feast of Christ the King, and (2) the Form to be used is the one given below. To all who with devout and contrite heart assist at this pious exercise and pray for the Pope's intentions, His Holiness grants an Indulgence of seven years, and further a Plenary Indulgence to those who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion. These Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory. Those who recite the following prayer even in private may gain (1) an Indulgence of five years; (2) a Plenary Indulgence if they repeat the prayer daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion.

FORM OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

Most sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thy altar. We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but, to be more surely united with Thee, behold each one of us freely consecrates himself to-day to Thy most Sacred Heart. Many indeed have never known Thee; many too, despising Thy precepts, have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned Thee: grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house lest they die of wretchedness and hunger. Be Thou King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions, or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbour of truth and unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd. Be Thou King of all those who are still involved in the darkness of idolatry or of Islamism, and refuse not to draw them all into the light and kingdom of God. Turn Thine eyes of mercy towards the children of that race, once Thy chosen people. Of old they called down upon themselves the Blood of the Saviour; may it now descend upon them a laver of redemption and of life. Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry: Praise to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to It be glory and honour for ever.

Amen.

Authorised Version, S.C.R., 17th October, 1925;
A.A.S., xvii., p. 13.

6. THE MONTH OF OCTOBER.

For the October Devotions, prescribed by Decrees of 20th August, 1885, etc., the following Indulgences have been granted:—(1) Seven years each time one joins in the public recital of the Rosary and Litany of the B. Virgin (or, being legitimately impeded, says them privately), and prays according to the intentions of the Pope; (2) a Plenary Indulgence to those who, having done this at least ten times, Confess and Communicate; (3) a Plenary Indulgence to all who, on the Feast of the Rosary or within the Octave, Confess, Communicate and pray in some church to God and the B. Virgin according to the intention of His Holiness; (4) seven years each time (during October) for the recital, after the Rosary, of the following prayer to St. Joseph enjoined by the Encyclical of 15th August, 1889; if the prayer is recited outside October a partial Indulgence of three years is granted each time and a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions when the prayer is said daily for a month.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH.

To thee, O blessed Joseph, we fly in our tribulation, and while imploring the help of thy most holy spouse, thy protection also with confidence we crave. By that affection which united thee with the Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God, and by the fatherly love with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we humbly supplicate thee to look down benignantly on the heritage which Christ Jesus purchased with His Blood, and in thy might and power to succour us in our necessities.

Defend, O most provident Guardian of the Divine Family, the chosen race of Jesus Christ; keep us, most loving father, from all taint of error and corruption; do thou from heaven, as our most powerful Protector, stand graciously by us in this conflict with the powers of darkness; and as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus in the imminent peril of His life, so now defend the Holy Church of God from hostile wiles and all adversity, and through thy never-failing patronage so shield each one of us, that, guided by thy example and supported by thy aid, we may live in holiness, piously die and attain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

7. CONSECRATION OF FAMILIES TO THE SACRED HEART.

BY MEANS OF THE ENTHRONEMENT.

It is the earnest desire of the Holy See that all Christian families should be consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and that a statue or image of Him be set up in a prominent place in each house, so that Christ may be enthroned as ruler in the home. All families should be consecrated separately, not in groups. The priest blesses the image, and recites the Act of Consecration. When a priest cannot be had, the image, which should be previously blessed, will be set in its place by the head of the family or other lay person, who also will recite the Act of Consecration. The Indulgences granted to each member of the family are: (1) Seven years and on the day of consecration; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the day of consecration; (3) three years on the annual renewal of the consecration; (4) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the annual renewal. The form of consecration, which alone is valid for the effect of the Indulgences (S.P.A.: 1st March, 1918: A.A.S., x, p. 154) is the following:

ACT OF CONSECRATION.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, who didst manifest to Blessed Margaret Mary the desire of reigning in Christian families, we to-day wish to proclaim Thy most complete regal dominion over our own. We would live in future with Thy life, we would cause to flourish in our midst those virtues to which Thou hast promised peace here below, we would banish far from us the spirit of the world which Thou hast cursed; and Thou shall reign over our minds in the simplicity of our faith, and over our hearts by the whole-hearted love with which they shall burn for Thee, the flame of which we shall keep alive by the frequent reception of Thy Divine Eucharist.

Deign, O Divine Heart, to preside over our assemblings, to bless our enterprises, both spiritual and temporal, to dispel our cares, to sanctify our joys, to alleviate our sufferings. If ever one or other of us should have the misfortune to afflict Thee, remind him, Heart of Jesus, that Thou art good and merciful to the penitent sinner. And when the hour of separation strikes, when death shall come to cast mourning into our midst, we will all, both those who go and those who stay, be submissive to Thy eternal decrees. We will console ourselves with the thought that a day will come when the entire family, reunited in Heaven, can sing for ever Thy glories and Thy mercies.

May the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and the glorious Patriarch St. Joseph, present this consecration to Thee, and keep it in our minds all the days of our life.

All glory to the Heart of Jesus our King and our Father.

8. PRAYERS AFTER LOW MASS.

Pope Pius XI. has ordered that these prayers be said for Russia. A Partial Indulgence of ten years is attached to their recitation in addition to the Indulgence of seven years granted for the triple invocation of the Sacred Heart. (A.A.S., 1934, p. 312).

To be said kneeling. Hail Mary, three times.

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy; Hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To Thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to Thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, Thine eyes of mercy towards us; and after this our exile, show unto us the Blessed Fruit of Thy womb, Jesus; O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

℣. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

℟. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ .

LET US PRAY.

O God, our refuge and our strength, look with favour on Thy people who cry to Thee; and through the intercession of the Glorious and Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and St. Joseph her Spouse, of Thy Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and of all the Saints, mercifully and graciously hear the prayers which we pour forth for the conversion of sinners, and for the freedom and exaltation of our Holy Mother the Church. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel defend us in the day of battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil:—"the Lord command him," we humbly pray;—and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other wicked spirits who go about the world for the destruction of souls. Amen.

To the above prayers may be added the following invocation said three times:—

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

(Indulgence of seven years).

URNUIGH AN DEIDH NA H-AIERINNE.

Am Beannachadh Moire tri uairean.

Fáilte dhut a Bhan-righ, etc.

R. Guidh air ar son a Mhàthair naomh Dhé.

F. Los gu'n toill sinn gealladh Chrìosda.

DEANAMAID URNUIGH.

Troimh Chrìosda ar Tighearna. Amen.

A Chridhe uilenaomh Iosa dean tròcair oirnn. (tri uairean).

9. THE ANGELUS.

In Catholic countries, and in many places at home, the Angelus Bell is rung in the morning, at noon, and in the evening at sunset to honour the Mystery of the Incarnation. To gain the indulgences attached to this Devotion, the Angelus must be said kneeling, except on Saturday evening, and Sunday, when it is said standing. In Paschal Time, that is, from Holy Saturday at noon till the Saturday before Trinity Sunday at noon, inclusively, the Regina Coeli is said instead of the Angelus. This prayer is always said standing. Those who do not know the Regina Coeli may gain the indulgences by saying the Angelus; but it must be said standing during Paschal Time. For the convenience of the Faithful is appended a translation of the Regina Cœli taken from the Raccolta.

Queen of Heaven, rejoice. Alleluia.

For He whom thou wast made worthy to bear.

Alleluia.

Hath risen as He said. Alleluia.

Pray for us to God. Alleluia.

ÿ. Rejoice and be glad, O virgin Mary. Alleluia.

ñ. For the Lord hath risen indeed. Alleluia.

LET US PRAY.

O God, Who through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, has vouchsafed to give joy to the whole world, grant us, we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

10. PONTIFICAL WORK FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

The Work assists by prayers and alms the Catholic Missionaries in heathen and non-Catholic countries.

Conditions of Membership.—(1) The daily recitation of Our Father and one Hail Mary, with the invocation: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us, and (2) the annual contribution of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly; (3) Special members contribute one guinea, or more, yearly; (4) Life membership subscription, £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Collector. The Collector receives the contributions of his group, circulates among them the Annals of the Work, and pays over his collection to the local Treasurer. A return of the sums received, and of their appropriation is inserted annually in the "Annals of the Propagation of the Faith." One copy of each issue of the Annals is supplied to every ten members.

Spiritual Favours.—An exceptionally large number of spiritual privileges, including Plenary and Partial Indulgences, is granted to Members. Extensive Faculties are also given to priests who direct local centres or become special members. A complete list of these privileges may be obtained from the Secretary of the Scottish Council, St. Andrew's Cathedral, Dundee, or from any of the Diocesan Officials (vid. Part v.).

11. CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

The following Indulgences were granted to the Catholic Truth Society in perpetuity by a Decree of the S. Cong. de Prop. Fide, 6th October, 1896:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence (applicable to the Souls in Purgatory) to all present and future members of the Society on the day of their joining the Society, and also on the Feasts of St. Andrew, the Apostle; St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; St. Patrick, St. Columba and St. Ninian, or on any day within the Octave of these Feasts, on condition that they visit an Oratory of the Society, or their own Parish Church, and, after confessing their sins with sincere repentance and receiving Holy Communion, pray for the Propagation of the Holy Faith and for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff.

(2) A Partial Indulgence of one hundred days every time they succeed in persuading a new member to join the Society, and every time they attend a General or Local Meeting of the Society.

By decree of the Sacred Penitentiary, 7th November, 1935, the following Indulgences were also granted to the members of the Box-Tenders' Association:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained by members on the usual conditions: (a) on any day they choose after joining the Association; (b) on the Feast of St. Francis de Sales; (c) once a month on condition that they have faithfully and regularly carried out their duty of looking after the book-case.

(2) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained at the hour of death by members who, after Confession and Holy Communion, or at least after an act of contrition, piously utter the Holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if they can do so, or at least in their hearts, and patiently accept death from the hands of God as a penalty for sin.

(3) A Partial Indulgence of three hundred days may be gained by members each and every time they arrange the pamphlets in good order and afterwards make an act of contrition, at least with a contrite heart, before the Blessed Sacrament.

12. SHORT FORM OF PROFESSION OF FAITH

To be used by permission in the Reception of Converts

I..... holding in my hand God's holy gospels and enlightened by divine grace, publicly declare that I accept the Faith which is taught by the Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church. I believe that Church to be the one true Church which Jesus Christ set up here on earth; to which I make my submission with all my heart.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

I believe that seven sacraments were instituted by Jesus Christ for the salvation of mankind: Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Holy Order and Matrimony.

I believe that the Bishop of Rome is the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth, that he is the supreme visible Head of the whole Church, and that he teaches infallibly what we must believe and do for salvation.

I also believe everything which the Holy Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church defines and declares that we must believe. To her I give my whole allegiance and I reject every error and schism which she condemns.

So help me God, and these His holy gospels which I touch with my hand.

“CARMINA MISSAE”

Words by C. E. L. Music by J. H. Dixon, D.Mus., F.R.C.O.

Meditations on the Holy Mass, in the form of English Hymns and intended for Congregational singing during Low Mass, in accordance with the Encyclical “Mediator Dei.”

This set of Hymns interprets the chief and essential elements of the Mass, so that people singing them in a devout manner will be truly and effectively assisting at Mass, not only as individuals but also corporately as a congregation.

The music has been specially composed with congregational requirements and limitations in mind. The rhythms of the tunes are sufficiently varied so as to prevent monotony and the harmonies carefully chosen so as to reflect and intensify the different sentiments of the words.

The work has received the official Imprimatur of His Lordship the Bishop of Lancaster.

KNIGHTS OF ST. COLUMBA

The Knights of St. Columba, established in 1919, is a British Fraternal Order of men who are practising Catholics.

The Order aims at uniting Catholics; it seeks to give a practical meaning to the word "Fraternity"; it links up lonely men, introduces parish to parish, and infuses esprit de corps throughout the country. Parish Priests have a useful aid wherever there is a Council—a compact body of men, obedient to authority, well disciplined, and ready at all times for works of Catholic Action or of Charity.

The Order has a junior branch for boys of fourteen to twenty-one, known as the Squire Section, formed with the object of safeguarding our youths against the evils that everywhere surround them, and of helping them to be practical Catholics.

Priests or laymen interested in the work of the Order who would wish to become members or assist in the work of setting up a Council in their Area, are cordially invited to write for full particulars to:—

SMYLLUM PARK SCHOOL

LANARK

Smyllum Park School is intended for orphans and destitute children, sent by Welfare Committees from all parts of Scotland.

Children are admitted from the age of two till the school leaving age of fifteen.

The School, situated in beautiful grounds, is divided into two sections—for boys and girls, both managed by the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul. The Primary School is under the Education Committee of the County of Lanark, and a Post Primary Course is completed at St. Mary's J.S. School, Lanark.

For pension and particulars, apply to the Sister Superior.

N.B. Owing to the impossibility of carrying on the work of the School with the funds at their disposal, the Sisters will be most grateful for help of any kind—gifts of money or clothing will be most acceptable.
