THE TRAINING OF CATHOLIC CHOIRS

by

Donald Edeson

The purpose of this concise and informative book is to provide the Catholic choirmaster with technical hints on the training of a choir. It is primarily written for those who have not had the advantage of a formal choral training, and who have had little time for private study, yet it remains acceptable to the expert.

The author's style of writing is at all times eminently readable and his excellent examples add to the general clarity of the text.

The following subjects are covered in the course of the book :

Selection of voices, the choir in being, instruction in notation, voice training, the rehearsal, points for services, conducting, accompaniment, choice of music, hymn singing, etc.

Service to the INDIVIDUAL

A customer of the Clydesdale & North of Scotland Bank can enjoy more than the obvious advantages which flow from maintaining a banking account. The traveller can obtain his foreign currency requirements ; the busy man or woman can arrange for recurring payments to be made on his or her behalf ; and dividends may be collected under mandate. The Bank can also arrange Personal Loans for a variety of purposes. The Manager of any Branch will welcome the opportunity to furnish full details of these and other services to the individual.

A FITTING MOTTO

Mottoes are chosen to be apt but there are few words which can convey so adequate an image of the Royal Bank as this one word 'Firm.'

It has an air of solidity without stolidity and its very terseness epitomises our ability to get down to the job on hand without wasting time or words.

THE ROYAL BANK OF SCOTLAND

SECTION II.

THE HIERARCHY OF SCOTLAND

From the Extinction of the Hierarchy in 1603 till its Restoration in 1878.

1. The ancient Hierarchy ended with James Betoun, Abp. of Glasgow, who died at Paris on the 25th April, 1603, aged 79. After being subjected to the jurisdiction of the Archpriests and first Vicar-Apostolic of England till 1623, and afterwards to local Prefects of the Mission, the Clergy were incorporated into a missionary body by decree of Propaganda, 1653, and governed by the following Prefects-Apostolic: William Ballantyne (or Bellenden), 1653-61; Alexander Dunbar (or Winster), 1662-68, 1672-94; and John Walker (or Ross), 1668-71. In May, 1694, a Scottish Vicariate-Apostolic was established. This was divided into two Districts, the Lowland and the Highland, in February, 1731; and these two into three, the Eastern, Western and Northern, by Papal Rescript of 13th February, 1827. This last arrangement remained in force till the re-establishment of the Hierarchy by the Apostolic Letter, Ex Supremo Apostolatus Apice, 4th March, 1878.

DIOCESE OF ARGYLL AND THE ISLES

Comprising Counties of Argyll and Inverness (south of a line drawn from the northern extremity of Loch Luing to the junction of the Counties of Inverness, Aberdeen and Banff); the Islands of Bute and Arran and the Hebrides.

The See of Argyll was founded about 1200, being disjoined from the Diocese of Dunkeld; and was vacant for more than three centuries. James Hamilton was appointed to the See on 14th July, 1553, but was probably never consecrated.

The See of the Isles (Insularum or Sodorensis) is said to have been founded about 447 by St. Patrick, who consecrated Germanus, its first Bishop; it was united to Man till the end of the 14th century; and was vacant for 325 years, from the death of Roderick Maclean in 1553 till the Restoration of the Hierarchy in 1878.

COLLEGIUM URBANUM DE PROPAGANDA FIDE.—Scots Students are to be found in the register of Propaganda College during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries; from the beginning of the nineteenth century they have been allocated regularly two or three places in this college. There are no Scots Students in Propaganda College this year.

FRANCE.—In lieu of the ancient Scots Colleges in Paris (founded 1325) and Douai (founded 1576) suppressed during the French Revolution, the French Government provide bursaries for Scottish Ecclesiastical Students in French Seminaries. At present there are Scottish students in the Sulpician Colleges at Issy-les-Moulineaux and Paris.

OBITUARIES — 1960

Very Rev. James Canon Turner—28th February, 1960

The Very Rev. James Canon Turner died suddenly at the home of his brother in London on February 28th, 1960. Born in Edinburgh on May 26th, 1896, James Turner lived his whole life in the city with the exception of the 1914-18 war years when he served with the 4th Royal Scots and saw action at Gallipoli, and the years of his training for the priesthood.

On leaving Boroughmuir School, he was employed in the audit department of the North British Railway, to which post he returned after his years in the army.

As a layman, he threw himself into the parochial life of St. Columba's, and his prowess as a boxer and as an oarsmen made him a particularly popular visitor to the Boys' Club. He was a member of the Knights of St. Columba, of the C.Y.M.S., and a leading member of the Social Study Guild.

In 1930, he decided to try his vocation to the priesthood. He proceeded to Osterley for preliminary studies and thence, for philosophy and theology, to St. Edmund's, Ware. Ordained by the late Archbishop McDonald on June 29th, 1937, he was appointed as curate to the late Bishop Maguire, then parish priest of St. Andrew's, Ravelston. In addition to parochial work, he was appointed assistant to the late Monsignor Forsyth in his office as Diocesan Treasurer, and on the Monsignor's death, was entrusted with the full responsibility of administering diocesan finances. In 1939 he was appointed parish priest at Ravelston and in March, 1950, was transferred to the important parish of St. Patrick's, Edinburgh. In 1955 he was made an Honorary Canon of the Archdiocese.

Canon Turner will be gratefully remembered not only for his work as Diocesan Treasurer, but even more for his priestly labours in St. Patrick's. He planned and executed the magnificent frontage of that church and shortly before his death completed its interior decoration.

His devotions were practical: to Our Lady of Fatima, whose message of penance he ever kept before his people: to the Curé of Ars, patron saint of parish priests: to Margaret Sinclair, whom he had personally known. He was a gentle, friendly priest, guileless in sincerity, childlike in simplicity, a brother to his fellow clergy, a father to his parishioners. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Dermot McMullen—1st February, 1960.

Born in Belfast on November 6th, 1919, Father Dermot McMullen received his early education in Scotland, at Our Holy Redeemer's, Clydebank, and at St. Patrick's High School, Dumbarton. In 1934 he went to St. Mary's College, Blairs, and entered St. Peter's College, New Kilpatrick in 1939. In 1940, he returned to Blairs to continue his studies in philosophy. His training for the priesthood was completed at St. Peter's and St. Joseph's College Mill Hill, where the students were temporarily housed during the ill-fated renovation work at Bearsden. He was ordained priest by His Grace Archbishop Campbell in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on June 29th, 1946.

After a few months in St. Aloysius', Springburn, Father McMullen served for three years as a curate in St. Mary's, Cleland, whence he was transferred to St. Columbkille's, Rutherglen. The last four years of his short priestly life were spent in the parish of All Saints', Airdrie.

Father McMullen was by nature quiet, gentle, unassuming; but he was also a most effective, zealous, and conscientious priest. Methodical in everything he did, he was a man of unflinching punctuality. In the parishes where he worked, he will be particularly remembered for his devoted work as chaplain to the Boys' Guild and other youth organizations. Deeply interested in their spiritual welfare, Father McMullen strove to improve the minds of young people; he taught them to be discriminating in their tastes. A great music lover himself, he endeavoured to stimulate an appreciation of good music with the help of his library of gramophone records. Modern techniques were employed to further his priestly work. He was for instance a keen amateur photographer, and the films which he took on his journeys abroad served to instruct Catholic youth in the history, architecture, and ceremonies of the Church.

It came as a great shock to his many friends when Father McMullen was admitted to Glasgow Royal Infirmary, suffering from coronary thrombosis. For a few weeks he appeared to be making a satisfactory recovery, but on Monday, February 1st, 1960, he was suddenly called by the Divine Master he loved and served so well. In his forty-first year, his fourteenth year in the priesthood.

On the following Wednesday evening in All Saints' Church, Airdrie, His Lordship Mgr. James D. Scanlan presided at the Solemn Dirge, which was followed by Requiem Mass celebrated by the bishop. The Solemn Requiem Mass took place on Thursday, February 4th. His Lordship Bishop Scanlan was again celebrant, assisted by Father Andrew Tunn of All Saints' and Father Henry McGinn of St. Columba's, Viewpark (a former class-mate and fellow curate with Father McMullen), who were deacon and subdeacon respectively. In the course of the panegyric, His Lordship Mgr. Scanlan spoke of "this good priest" who had died "young in age and young comparatively in priestly experience." "Just a few days ago" said the bishop, "I was speaking with him in the infirmary, and little did I think that it would be my last conversation with this good priest, whose merits I appreciated very specially since I first had the privilege of making his acquaintance."

The obsequies took place in the presence of a large number of clergy, representing the diocese of Motherwell and other Scottish dioceses. The presence also of so many layfolk from Cleland and Rutherglen who mingled with the congregation of All Saints' parish, was a fitting tribute from the people to whom Father McMullen had ministered. The interment took place at St. Patrick's cemetery New Stevenston, where the service was conducted by Father Hugh Cahill, D.D., parish priest of All Saints', Airdrie. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Samuel McIsaac—3rd September, 1960.

Father Samuel MacIsaac was born on November 11th, 1888, in the island of Canna. This lovely fertile little island is set like a gem in the centre of the Minch. The school he attended is now closed because there are none of school age on the island to-day, but in his boyhood there were several large families of children. Life was hard but healthy, and there was little need of a doctor; and although there has never been a resident priest except for short periods in recent times, the people have had an unbroken tradition of the Faith through the centuries. At the age of fifteen he went to Blairs and thence in 1908 to the Scots College in Rome. He was ordained priest on 29th May, 1915.

His priestly life was spent partly in the Western Isles and partly in the south. He was assistant first in Castlebay, Barra, then in Daliburgh, South Uist. In 1920 he went to Eriskay, in 1925 to Craigston, Barra. He then served in the south, first in Mossend for a few years and then as chaplain to St. Charles' Institution in Carstairs for over twenty years. He was a man of many talents, with a keen intellect, strong character, and sturdy physique. Farming and the sea were in his blood, and he led an active outdoor life for the most part, otherwise he might well have become an eminent scholar. The few small publications he produced in defence of the Faith show a style of writing and depth of thought which bear comparison with many well-known authors, and his translations of spiritual works into Gaelic would doubtless be worth preserving in print.

In the Isles, especially in Eriskay, the people will not forget the efforts he made to relieve their poverty in years of hardship. On Parish Council and District Council he strove to obtain every possible relief for his poor people. But he also urged them to make the best possible use of the land and sea for the production of food, to organise and co-ordinate their labour, to build a fishing fleet in Eriskay, dairy farms in Craigston, anything that would ease the distress of those difficult times. On the sea he was fearless, and he would set out in his little boat, which was nicknamed "The Coffin," in weather which would make more experienced men stay at home.

In Carstairs he found a life which was ideally suited to him. He was appointed chaplain to St. Charles' Institution in 1934, and thus could combine an active priestly life with the work on the farm. He was a member of the Board of Management and farm manager also. In his years there he saw erected and completed four very necessary buildings as additions to the existing building. These included the new chapel, opened about two years before he retired. His interest in the children was unlimited, and he did all in his power to help the Sisters and encourage them in their dedicated labours.

For a long time he battled against ill-health, and for the last eighteen months he directed the management from his sick-bed. Finally, in 1956, he retired to Rothesay, to the Mount Carmel Convalescent Home. But his interest in the Institution never lessened, and he continually made enquiries about the children of the Institution, for whom he had a very deep affection. He died on Saturday, 3rd September, 1960.

In St. Andrew's, Rothesay, a Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Mgr. Conroy, V.G., representing the diocese of Motherwell, who also conducted the service at the grave in Rothesay cemetery. At the same hour a Solemn Requiem was offered in Motherwell Cathedral. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Michael Little—19th March, 1960.

The loss of a good priest who gave himself without stint to his people on that never-to-be-forgotten occasion, the disaster at Auchengeich Colliery, was referred to by Mgr. J. D. Scanlan, Bishop of Motherwell, when he preached the panegyric at the Pontifical Requiem Mass for the late Father Michael Little, Parish Priest of St. Barbara's, Muirhead, who died on the Feast of St. Joseph, 1960.

Father Little was born at Dalmuir on August 5th, 1907, and received his early education at St. Patrick's High School, Dumbarton. He was the first pupil to be ordained priest from this school. In 1924 he entered St. Mary's College, Blairs and then proceeded to St. Peter's College, New Kilpatrick in 1928. At St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on June 29th, 1933 he was ordained to the priesthood, and it was in this cathedral parish that he was to spend the first few weeks of his priestly life before being appointed to St. Patrick's, Shotts, where he was to remain for the next fourteen years. During this period he gave so much of his boundless energy and priestly devotion to so many aspects of parochial work that even to-day his name still conjures up memories both varied and warm. The years of the war found him organising with his characteristic vigour news-letters and comforts for the parishioners serving in H.M. Forces.

In 1948, he was transferred to the newly-designated Cathedral in Motherwell and there again his immense energy and generosity of spirit were in evidence in every feature of his pastoral work.

Father Little's first promotion came when he was chosen to take charge of the parish of Our Lady and St. John's, Blackwood. He soon endeared himself to the farming community of his widely scattered parish and to the miners of Blackwood and neighbouring districts. Father Little was an indefatigable worker and will be long remembered for his intensive visitation of the parish. By his genial personality and warm friendliness he won all hearts and by his loving care for the welfare of his people, he soon became a well beloved figure in farms and hamlets far removed from the beaten track.

People who visit the church at Blackwood remark on its rare beauty. Since its erection in 1880, each priest in turn did much to maintain and enhance it. Father Little was not found wanting in devoting himself to this worthy cause. In his effort to bring the church to its present state of perfection, he encountered many difficulties which might have disheartened a lesser man, but the strong and powerful motive was there to take him through. He loved God, God's holy mother and the holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Small wonder then that Father Little loved the beauty of God's Church, and very fitting indeed that he had inscribed over the altar the words "I have loved O Lord the beauty of Thy house and the place where Thy glory dwelleth." This church, refurbished by him, is surely a lasting proof of his love for sacred things.

In December 1955, Father Little was appointed Parish Priest of St. Barbara's, Muirhead, where the new church and presbytery were in course of construction; and so with characteristic drive and enthusiasm he applied himself to the task of completing the buildings. The church was solemnly dedicated by the Bishop in February 1956. In Muirhead, as in his previous charges, his kind and friendly nature banished all shyness and very soon he knew everyone by their christian name. Generous to a fault he took special delight in seeking out the poor and those in need. Perhaps the best indication of his deep faith and ardent charity is to be found in the later part of his life. In June 1958 he was struck down by a severe heart attack. He was advised by his superiors and doctors to rest; but it was not his nature to do so. As soon as the pain left him he was back at work. The new housing scheme at Moodiesburn was developing and he was most anxious to have a new parish established there.

In December of that year Almighty God sent him what was indeed his heaviest cross to bear. His brother and life long companion in the priesthood, Father John Little died suddenly at his side in St. Barbara's Presbytery. In September, 1959, Father Michael Little was making what proved to be his last retreat at Kinnoull when the Auchengeich Colliery disaster happened and many of his parishioners were entombed. Regardless of his health he rushed home to bear the burdens of the disaster with his people. Those days of sorrow and anxiety he spent at the pit head or down the mine with the rescue teams. At night he would visit the homes to console and comfort the stricken families.

The news of the death of Father Little—in tragically similar circumstances, as Bishop Scanlan pointed out, to the death in November, 1955, of his predecessor at St. Barbara's, the late Father Michael O'Connor—cast a gloom over the village of Muirhead which only six months previously was the scene of widespread mourning for the Auchengeich Colliery disaster.

The esteem in which Father Little was held in all the parishes where he had laboured was reflected in the large crowd of people from Shotts, Coalburn, Blackwood and Motherwell; along with the great number of priests who attended the Solemn Pontifical Mass offered by his Lordship the Bishop who stated that the witness they all had given that morning was sufficient testimony that the memory of Father Michael Little would always be treasured and revered in St. Barbara's Parish. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Hugh McCranor—25th August, 1960.

The archdiocese lost one of its most beloved priests by the death, on 25th August, of Father Hugh McCranor. Father McCranor was born in Paisley on 29th May, 1912. He was educated in St. Mary's College, Blairs, and in St. Peter's College, Bearsden. He was due for ordination with the rest of his class in June, 1937, but shortly before this he took ill and his ordination had to be postponed. He was eventually ordained in St. Peter's College Chapel by the late Bishop Graham on Sunday, 12th September, 1937. His first appointment was to St. Mary's, Whifflet, where he remained only a few weeks and was then transferred to St. Lawrence's, Greenock. He was here just over one year when illness again caused him to go to hospital. A year later, he spent a short time in Houston and, after another spell in hospital, he went to the parish of Christ the King, King's Park. Here he remained until May, 1959, when he was given the charge of St. Kessog's, Balloch. The illness which had handicapped him all through his priestly life gradually became worse, and he died at the early age of forty-eight on 25th August, 1960.

Although Father McCranor was parish priest of Balloch at the time of his death, he will always be identified with the parish of Christ the King, for here he spent eighteen years of his priestly life. When he came to King's Park he was a sick man. His expectation of life was short, and it was thought that in a place like King's Park he might be able to take things easy. But Father McCranor's zeal for souls would not allow him to rest, and his name soon became a household word in the district among Catholics and non-Catholics alike. He won the affection and respect of all by his cheerfulness, his boundless charity and his unflinching devotion to duty, and this in spite of his constant struggle against ill-health. But perhaps his most outstanding characteristics and those for which he will long be remembered were his intense devotion to Our Blessed Lady and his constant attention to the sick and the dying. Many people are grateful for the comfort with which Father McCranor eased the last moments of some near and dear relative. Many a time he rose from a sick bed to be with someone who was dying. He will for ever be remembered with affection and gratitude in King's Park as the priest who was always with the dying to console and encourage them in their last agony. And more than one poor sinner was brought back to repentance in his last hours by Father McCranor's devotion and charity. Perhaps his own continual ill health had something to do with it, but there is no doubt Father McCranor seemed to have a special power with the sick and the dying.

At the Requiem Mass in Balloch the panegyric was preached by Bishop Ward, and he recalled how shortly after Father McCranor's ordination he visited him in hospital along with the late archbishop. Father McCranor had had a severe operation and the prospects were that he would be quite unfit for active work. He lamented to the archbishop how, so shortly after his ordination, he was now a useless priest and would never be able to do much work. His Grace replied, "Father, you can do as much for souls by your sufferings as many a more active priest." Father McCranor was spared to spend twenty-three years of active work—to help souls by his own sufferings and to comfort and console many in their own sufferings and last agony. Bishop Ward also remarked how true sanctity is always cheerful, and he recalled how Father McCranor delighted to be among his fellow-priests and whenever he was in their company there was always laughter and merriment. It was the same in parochial gatherings: wherever Father McCranor was present there was always a joke and a smile. No one ever suspected that he was nearly always in constant pain. He even contrived to hide it from those with whom he was living in the chapel house, and his cheerful manner at breakfast belied the fact that he had spent many a sleepless night. One final characteristic of Father McCranor was his generosity. He could never keep a thing for himself. His greatest pleasure was in giving to others. Whenever he received a gift he was never happy until he had given it to someone else. The news of his death brought sorrow to his countless friends, but our sorrow was mixed with joy, because we knew that at last his sufferings were over and he had entered into his eternal joy. May his generous soul rest in peace.

Very Rev. George Canon Galbraith, M.B.E., M.C.,

19th June, 1960.

It would probably be safe to say that Canon George Galbraith was the most widely known priest of the Archdiocese of Glasgow in his day. He was born in Glasgow on the 29th August, 1879, was educated at St. Aloysius' College and then went to Blairs College in 1897, to study for the priesthood. Between 1900 and 1903 he studied at the Sulpician College of Issy near Paris and in 1903 he entered St. Peter's College at New Kilpatrick and on the 24th June, 1907, he received the priesthood at the hands of Archbishop Maguire in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow.

Father Galbraith's first short curacy was at All Saints', Coatdyke, and after a few months he was appointed to St. Bride's, Cambuslang. It was at Cambuslang that Father Galbraith first set his hand to work which, in the course of years, would become characteristic of his priestly career—practical interest in helping foreigners, whom the chances of war or peace brought to the West of Scotland, so that they might feel at home among us. And, incidentally, he received at Cambuslang the first of many well-merited decorations, the Belgian Medal of King Albert, for his work in helping the Belgian refugees of the First World War.

When the First World War came, it was only a matter of time before his ecclesiastical superiors had to give in and allow Father Galbraith to volunteer as an Army Chaplain and, in 1917, there began an association with the H.L.I., which he cherished to the end of his days. An incident at the outset of his military career was amusingly typical: Father Galbraith left Glasgow on a Sunday to join his regiment in France and, on the Wednesday of that same week, his name was put forward for the Military Cross as award for outstanding devotion to his duty under heavy fire. His embarrassed colonel was also a Catholic and promptly cancelled the proposed award, assuring himself that this new and irrepressible chaplain would win the M.C. in any event but it was better to let a decent interval elapse. He was right: Father Galbraith did get the M.C. and two bars to it before the war ended. At one time his life was despaired of, when he lay in hospital suffering from severe gas-poisoning, but he recovered and was with his men on their victory march into Germany. In the great cathedral of Cologne, he offered up Holy Mass and preached to the troops, many of them from Glasgow, to the great edification of the Germans present.

His war years over, he was appointed assistant to Canon Jansen at Kirkintilloch but before long he was given charge of the new parish of St. Magdalen, Tarbrax. There he built his first church and his duties as parish priest covered a great area of the Upper Ward of Lanarkshire. He was elected to the old Education Authority, many a doughty Scotch farmer voting for "the wee priestie wi' the Scotch name." From Tarbrax, he was promoted to St. Charles' Parish at Newton, where his name will remain in benediction, not only for his worthiness as a priest, but also because he built there a church with voluntary labour. The miners of the district were involved in the General Strike and, to counteract the dangers and boredom of the enforced idleness, Father Galbraith coaxed them, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, to join in building a new church and, on July 3rd, 1927, they all had the satisfaction of seeing the new church of St. Charles Borromeo opened and blessed by His Grace, Archbishop Mackintosh.

In 1933, he was appointed to Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, in Cardonald, and here he set to work to build his third church, this time in honour of his beloved patroness, Our Lady of Lourdes. Every detail of this building was lovingly thought out by Father Galbraith, from the nameplate on the avenue, which quietly proclaims "Lourdes Ave," to the colourful windows and the massive marble altar and it was a red-letter day in his life when, on September 29th, 1949, His Grace Archbishop Campbell consecrated the completed church.

The Second World War came in 1938 and his friends had difficulty in dissuading Father Galbraith from volunteering again as an army chaplain, but really there was plenty to do at home, for in the Cardonald area there were transit camps, occupied at different times by British, French, Polish, Dutch and American troops and the figure of Father Galbraith was a familiar sight in their midst. French poilus, who were priests, Polish chaplains, American priests all found their way eventually to Lourdes Ave. The German priest who arrived there, one day, under guard, from the prisoner-of-war camp, left with much more than the Mass requisites he had come to seek and his guard were equally satisfied with their visit. His hospitality and benevolence towards Polish and French soldiers and refugees earned him the Polish Order of the Golden Fleece and the Legion of Honour from their respective governments.

Toward the end of the war, Father Galbraith was appointed representative of the Scottish Hierarchy on the Vatican Relief Committee: it was hardly remarkable that he talked someone in the R.A.F. into flying him over to Paris in a Dakota to attend an important meeting of the committee. Less than a fortnight after the American Army had relieved a notorious concentration camp, Father George walked in and there, for six weeks, he laboured, burying the dead, baptising children and generally caring for the unfortunate prisoners. When Berlin was taken by the Allied Armies, he volunteered to travel from Paris with a camion, laden with all the requisites for Holy Mass and various other necessities: this meant entering the Russian Zone and Father Galbraith caused a sensation when he alighted from his camion at that frontier, which had already become the "Iron Curtain." Whether it was the display of war-medals on his chest, or the comforts that he dispensed, or his rather alarming French, or that Hail Mary to Our Lady of Lourdes, we will never know, but the Russian guards capitulated and Father Galbraith went on to Berlin where Bishop von Preysing welcomed him with the assurance that never was such aid more needed. For his work on the Vatican Relief Committee, Father Galbraith received the Papal Cross of Pius XII and, back in Glasgow, he was elected to the Metropolitan Cathedral Chapter, which he served as Canon-Secretary for many years.

Anyone reading of the many extra-parochial duties undertaken by Canon Galbraith might believe that he was inattentive to his pastoral work but such an impression would be quite false. Despite his many journeys and the many demands made on his experience and charity, his own people always came first and the daily post from overseas consisted almost entirely of questions and advice on parish affairs.

Canon George was a simple man and that simplicity he carried into all his various and manifold duties. Always faithful to his morning Mass, even when, in his latter years, he had to be assisted at the altar: ever ready and eager to dispense the forgiveness and grace of his Beloved Master in the confessional: in the pulpit, sometimes chiding, sometimes cajoling, but simply and without flourish preaching God's wonderful love for his children. His great love for Our Lady of Lourdes was manifested in his frequent visits to the Grotto in the Pyrenees: that sacred spot, which Mary's presence had sanctified for all time, was for George Galbraith the loveliest place on earth. One often fancied that his prayer was that he might end his own earthly pilgrimage there. When he was made a Canon of the Grotto at Lourdes, his cup of happiness was filled. To his own parish of Our Lady of Lourdes in Glasgow, he brought many of the practices and hymns of Lourdes. His delight was to speak to the children about Bernadette and all the wonderful events of the apparitions. No sermon or talk was ever complete without mention of Our Lady of Lourdes and the titular feast and its novena was a great event in the parochial year at Cardonald. Canon Galbraith was a simple man but also a man of great determination and perseverance and much of that strength was found at Our Lady's altar. Very often when his presence was required in the call-room, he would be found kneeling at the altar, the beads of his rosary slipping softly through his fingers. The extra-parochial work and the publicity it brought served but to camouflage the real depth of his quiet spirituality.

The presbytery in Lourdes Ave was a priests' house, where every fellow priest was welcomed. At times it almost seemed another League of Nations, so many were its visitors, so varied the nationalities. Canon Galbraith loved to act the host and his deep rumbling chuckle of laughter often smoothed away the anxieties of a curate or brought a promise of help to some stranded foreign priest. His abounding generosity to the poor is known only to them and to God: no beggar ever left his door without something to help him in his difficulties and cheer him on his way. That his people were proud of him and fond of him was very evident when, on June 23rd, 1957, they fêted him on the occasion of his Sacerdotal Golden Jubilee and, when he was awarded the M.B.E. in the 1956 New Year's Honours List, the murmur of approval spread far beyond Cardonald and Glasgow.

When his final illness came to slow him up, the Canon would become very impatient with himself—so much to do and so little time left. Conscious to the end, his last words were whispered to the Lady he had loved—"Our Lady of Lourdes, help me," and very quietly his soul slipped into eternity. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. Dominic Canon MacKellaig—2nd September, 1960

The news of the death of "Father Dominic," as he was affectionately known throughout the West, came as a great shock to his many friends, on the evening of September 2nd. He was known to have been ill for some months, to have been suffering severe pain, but so heroic was his courage, and so faithful his attention to duty, that no suspicion of the fatal nature of his ailment was felt.

Dominic MacKellaig was born in the parish of Arisaig on the 20th July, 1904. His family moved to Morar, where in Kinsadle School the future priest began his primary education. Fort William Secondary School and the Abbey School, Fort Augustus, were the scene of his completion of his secondary course. Having been accepted as a candidate for the priesthood, he proceeded to Issy and St. Sulpice, and on 29th June, 1928, he was ordained in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by the Right Rev. James McCarthy, Bishop of Galloway.

For a short time after ordination he worked in St. Martin's, Renton, before returning to his native diocese of Argyll and the Isles. Two years in Oban and one in Fort William saw the end of his term as a curate. In 1931, at the age of twenty-seven, he found himself in charge of the parish of Craigston, Barra. In those days there was a glebe of considerable size attached to the parish, involving the young priest in agricultural as well as pastoral labours. Willing help came from his people, and the inexperienced young farmer was undaunted by this unexpected aspect of parish work. Realising that youth needed a place of recreation in the long winter evenings, he built a handsome parish hall, and introduced the islanders to the game of badminton. When, in 1936, Fr. John Macmillan found the scattered nature of Northbay parish too much for his failing powers, the bishop arranged an exchange and Fr. Dominic moved north.

During his ten years' tenure of this charge, he extended the parish hall, and, in 1940, established a Chapel of Ease at Eoligarry, a flourishing community of crofter fishermen. "The Big House of Eoligarry" was converted into a sizable Mass Centre and dedicated to St. Vincent in recognition of the labours of the Vincentian Fathers in preserving under God, the Faith in the Southern Hebrides.

From Barra, the war over, Fr. Dominic came to Roy Bridge which, for the next fourteen years, was to see the last of his labours. Here he had the double charge of Roy Bridge with a splendid church and presbytery, and Spean Bridge, where Mass was celebrated in the house of one of the parishioners. Three years after his arrival, taking advantage of the closure of a timber-built school up country, he purchased the building, had it dismantled and re-erected as a charming little church—St. Joseph's, Spean Bridge.

Any outside activities might be considered to be beyond the capacity of such a busy priest; nevertheless he acted as Diocesan Treasurer for the A.P.F., Opus Sancti Petri, and Holy Childhood, and was Diocesan Inspector of Schools in Lochaber, Arisaig and Moidart. The composition of our population obliges priests to take part in public work—Catholic Action—and Fr. Dominic, both in Barra and Roy Bridge, was a member of Inverness County Council, served on many committees, and at the time of his death was Chairman of the Lochaber District Council and of the National Health Executive Council for Inverness-shire.

His was a full life, and such was his character that having once undertaken a task he worked at full stretch. "All in all—not at all" might have been his motto. He tackled everything with a boyish enthusiasm that won people's hearts. His zeal for the beauty of God's house is manifest wherever he has been: "Nil tegitit, quod non ornavit." Through all these activities, he burned the candle to the socket, fourteen years short of the allotted span.

It is difficult, even though advisable, to avoid superlatives in speaking of this dear priest. His spiritual qualities were not paraded, but he lived always close to the supernatural—"by their fruits you shall know them." He had a wonderful capacity for making and keeping friends. He was hospitable and generous to a fault, and many a heart was cheered by his ready sympathy and happy smile.

A few weeks before his death, he was nominated a Canon of the Diocese, but the Chapter of Argyll and the Isles was not destined to have the counsel which had been so freely given in secular spheres.

The obsequies were performed in St. Margaret's, Roy Bridge, by the Right Rev. Stephen McGill, Bishop of the diocese, with Mgr. Neil MacKellaig (brother) Assistant Priest; Fr. Angus MacKellaig (brother) Deacon; Fr. Alexr. MacKellaig (cousin) Subdeacon.

The crowded congregation of lay and cleric, Catholic and non-Catholic, testified to the deep esteem in which Fr. Dominic was held. The bishop spoke movingly of his priestly qualities, and asked for prayers for the repose of his soul.

It was poignant to notice that the stalwart highlanders whom he had selected to bear Bishop Grant to his last resting place, less than a year before, were now following the same path to Killiechurril, with all that was mortal of Fr. Dominic.

May the prayers of Our Lady, St. Joseph, St. Margaret and St. Vincent win for him refreshment, light and peace.

Rev. Joseph McErlain—18th October, 1960.

The death occurred on October 18th, 1960, at Port Stewart, Co. Derry, of the Rev. Joseph McErlain, a priest of the Archdiocese of Glasgow who, because of ill health, has been living in retirement at Port Stewart since 1954.

Father McErlain was born at Brecart, Toomebridge, Co. Antrim, on May 29th, 1898, and after studying for the priesthood at St. Malachy's College, Belfast, and at St. Peter's College, Wexford, he was ordained on June 13th, 1926, at Wexford, by the Right Rev. William Codd, Bishop of Ferns.

When, newly ordained, Father McErlain came from Ireland to Glasgow, in 1926, he was appointed as a curate to the busy city parish of St. Alphonsus, and this was to remain the scene of his priestly labours for fully twenty years. In all the continuous round of parochial duties, Mass and Benediction, sermons, confessions and care of the sick, attention to sodalities and schools, Father McErlain is remembered by the parishioners of St. Alphonsus as a self-effacing and retiring, yet a tirelessly devoted and earnest priest.

In 1947, Father McErlain was given charge of the recently established parish of St. Vincent de Paul at Thornliebank in succession to Father O'Keeffe, who had been for many years his fellow curate at St. Alphonsus'. At Thornliebank, despite the restrictions of the post-war years, he consolidated his predecessor's work and managed to convert an old house in the centre of his parish into a presbytery, from which he organised parochial life more effectually, stimulating the enthusiasm of his people towards the eventual building of a new parish church.

This work of organising his new parish in the lean post-war years, when everything was in short supply except frustration, undermined Father McErlain's health. Grievous illness came, bringing with it incipient paralysis and this conscientious and devoted pastor, who lived for his people, was faced with the difficult decision that he ought to retire. He might possibly have held on for a time, but he felt in conscience that this busy young parish, with a heavy programme of building ahead of it, ought to be entrusted to a priest in vigorous health. Accordingly, with very great sadness, he gave up his charge and retired to Port Stewart, Co. Derry. During the past six years his health has gradually deteriorated, and on October 18th, 1960, he passed to his eternal reward.

The solemn funeral Mass was celebrated by Father James Close, P.P., of Coleraine, on Thursday, October 20th, in the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, Moneyglass, and, representing Archbishop Campbell at the Requiem, was Canon Peter Boland of Anderston; the Rev. William Mallon, D.D., of Dalmuir, who had been a fellow curate at St. Alphonsus', was also there, and Father John O'Sullivan of Thornliebank represented the clergy and people of St. Vincent's. Here in Glasgow, in the new church of St. Vincent de Paul at Thornliebank, on the next day, Friday, October 21st, His Grace Archbishop Campbell, accompanied by canons and clergy of the archdiocese and in the presence of a large gathering of parishioners, presided at a Solemn Requiem offered by Father James Sweeney, the present parish priest of Thornliebank, and in the panegyric, His Grace asked the prayers of the congregation for "the good, humble and unassuming priest" who had done so much to build up their parish. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Jeremiah Healy—20th October, 1960.

The programme of church building which is steadily being completed in the Province of Glasgow has taken serious toll of life among the younger parish priests, who have been most closely connected with the work. The most recent victim is Father Jeremiah Healy, whose death occurred on October 20th, when his lovely new church of Blessed John Ogilvie, Easterhouse, was on the point of completion.

Father Healy was born forty-eight years ago, on February 25th, 1912, in Cork, and after studying for the priesthood in St. John's College, Waterford, he was ordained on June 21st, 1936, as a priest of the Archdiocese of Glasgow. He came to Scotland in 1936 and was appointed assistant priest at St. Ignatius', Church, Wishaw. Here he remained for eight years and won the affection of all parishioners. Small in stature and shy in disposition, his mischievous smile and deep genuine sympathy for all manner of human affliction were quite irresistible and it was a sad day for the parishioners of St. Ignatius', Wishaw, especially for the sick when, in 1944, "wee Father Healy" left them to take up a new assignment as assistant priest at St. Mary's, Pollokshaws.

During thirteen years the priests and laity of St. Mary's grew to esteem, ever more and more, the zealous work and kindly disposition of Father Healy, and his especial monument in Pollokshaws will be the work he achieved in the new housing area at Merrylee where, by constant arduous visitation, he contacted all the Catholics newly settled in the district, strengthening the good, reviving the faith of the lapsed and hesitating, and infusing into all a spirit of unity and co-operation, thereby preparing the ground for what is now the flourishing new parish of St. Gabriel's, Merrylee.

The experience gained in Merrylee was to stand Father Healy in good stead in his next appointment. In 1957, he was given charge of an entirely new parish, that of Blessed John Ogilvie, in the Easterhouse area of the city. Here there was no church, no chapel-house; the Catholics of the district were all newcomers and strangers to one another, having come from diverse districts of the city. Established in a corporation house, Father Healy set to work to contact all his new parishioners, unite them into a congregation and organise their co-operation in the building of their new church, dedicated to Glasgow's counter-Reformation martyr. The number of parishioners steadily increased; Father Healy was given an assistant to help him; the new chapel-house was completed and occupied, making parochial organisation somewhat easier and smoother; the new church was nearing completion and suddenly the genial and zealous priest who had laboured unsparingly at his task was struck down. A serious heart attack necessitated his removal to Stobhill Hospital where, after a fortnight's illness, he died on October 20th, 1960.

The funeral Mass was celebrated in the neighbouring parish church of St. Maria Goretti at Cranhill. His Grace Archbishop Campbell presided at the Mass, which was offered by Canon George Conlon of Shettleston. Present in the sanctuary were the 87-year-old Canon Thomas Kearney of Wishaw, who was Father Healy's first parish priest, and the Very Rev. Provost James Kelly, D.D., who, for thirteen years, had been Father Healy's parish priest at Pollokshaws. In his panegyric, Archbishop Campbell described Father Healy as "one who had died a victim to sheer physical exhaustion in the service of God," and everyone who had ever known this lovable priest, in Wishaw, Pollokshaws or Easterhouse, would agree that this was characteristic of Father Healy's whole priestly life. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. William Aloysius Canon Grant—29th November, 1960

The Very Rev. William Aloysius Canon Grant was born at Braemar on 26th August, 1877. He entered Blairs College on 18th August, 1891. Four years later, in 1895, he was sent to N.D. de Champs in Paris. He entered Issy to study philosophy in October, 1896, and St. Sulpice to do his theology in October, 1898. He received the tonsure in 1897, minor orders in 1899, subdiaconate and diaconate in 1900, and was ordained priest in 1901—all in Paris.

He always looked back with considerable pleasure to his student years in Paris, and he often spoke of his professors and his fellow students. He spent one of the happiest weeks of his life, there, when he celebrated the golden jubilee of his priesthood in 1951. He met the priests of his class who had survived the fifty years. He never forgot the spiritual training he had from the Sulpicians, and it was the foundation of all his devotions to the end. He came home after ordination in 1901 and was appointed to Broxburn, as curate to the late Canon O'Neill. He recalled on many occasions how impressively he was taught his pastoral duties there. For instance, on Sunday afternoons the Canon took him to the various districts of the parish, to enter house after house, to interview the possible Mass missers of the morning.

After two years in Broxburn, he was transferred to Galashiels, to assist the late Provost Rooney. He became, probably, the Provost's closest and, certainly, life-long friend. In 1904, he was appointed priest in charge of the mission of Bo'ness. He worked there for nine years.

In 1913 he was sent to Rumford (now Polmont), to be the first resident priest there. Here, he spent ten years. A priest who was his neighbour in those years, says of him, "His thoughts were all for his people—their problems and their spiritual well being—and how attentive he was to his sick! The borstal at Polmont claimed much of his attention and his thought. He spent many hours there, weekly, instructing, hearing confessions, saying Mass, and interviewing the boys. He loved his little church and he could never conceal his joy when he had been able to afford something new for the house or the altar of the Lord."

This was Canon Grant, wherever he was, the zealous priest, his people's welfare ever at heart, running to his sick, loving his church, where he daily so devoutly said his Mass and his other prayers. After Rumford, he served as priest-in-charge at Duns, Balerno, and Innerleithen.

He was appointed to the Cathedral Chapter in 1939. He resigned from the Chapter in September, 1960, because, at his age he found it so difficult to travel from Hawick for the monthly Mass and meeting. He became an honorary Canon. When his health was failing, he went to Hawick as chaplain to St. Margaret's Dominican Priory and to the hospital attached to that convent. The Sisters can speak with gratitude of his devoted work for the convent and hospital, and the fine example of his deeply devotional Mass and his prayerful morning. They can say even more of the long hours he spent in their hospital with the sick and the dying.

Canon Grant was an unassuming man, not ambitious, quiet, content to be in the background. He loved a chat with his fellow Canons or his brother priests. He was well informed and quoted, with ease, from many authors. His was not an easy life—often he hadn't much on which to live. He was a highlander born, and he faced his illnesses and his difficulties with the grit of his race. His wish and prayer was that he be an active priest to the end. Thank God, his prayer was heard. He died in harness.

He died at his house in Hawick on the 29th of November, 1960. The Requiem Mass was sung by His Grace, Archbishop Gray, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh, on Friday, 2nd December. The panegyric was preached by the Provost of the Cathedral Chapter, Monsignor Delaney. Canon Grant was buried in Mount Vernon Cemetery, Edinburgh, after the Mass. May he rest in peace.

APPENDIX I.

ECCLESIASTICAL LAWS AND OBSERVANCES.

1. EASTER DUTIES AND INDULGENCES.

The Faithful of Scotland are authorised to satisfy the obligation of the Paschal Communion and to gain the Plenary Indulgence on any day from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday. (S.C.C.: 11th Oct., 1946).

2. FAST AND ABSTINENCE DAYS.

The new Code of Canon Law makes many important changes in the general law of fasting and abstinence. The Indult, however, granted in perpetuity to Scotland by the Holy See on 27th January, 1911, still continues in force. The regulations of both Code and Indult as they apply to Scotland are here summarised.

A. LAWS OF FASTING.

1. The law of fasting is binding on all between their 21st and 59th birthdays, unless they are excused by reason of health or the nature of their employment.

In all cases of doubt a confessor should be consulted.

2. On Fast days only one full meal, which may be taken either at midday or in the evening, is allowed.

In addition two light collations are permitted, one consisting of two or three ounces of food, which may include a little butter, jam or marmalade, and the other of eight to ten ounces, at which butter, cheese, eggs, or fish may be taken. Milk is allowed at either of these collations.

On Fast days which are not also days of abstinence, flesh meat and soup made from meat may be taken only at the chief meal by those bound to fast. The old law, forbidding the use of fish and flesh at the same meal, is abolished.

3. The Fast days of the year are:—

(a) The Ember days.

(b) The Vigils or Eves of Pentecost, All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, but when any of these Feasts falls on a Monday, though the Vigil is observed on the previous Saturday, it does not carry with it the obligation of fasting or abstinence.

On Christmas Eve the quantity of food permitted at the evening collation may be doubled.

(c) All the days of Lent, except Sundays, but on Holy Saturday the fast ends at midday.

4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a Fast day.

B. LAWS OF ABSTINENCE.

1. The use of flesh meat or of soup made from meat is forbidden on Abstinence days to all who have completed their 7th year.
2. The use of eggs, butter, margarine, as well as of dripping, lard, suet or other condiments made from animal fat, is allowed on all days of the year without exception.
3. The days of Abstinence are:—
 - (a). The Fridays throughout the year.
 - (b). The Ember Wednesdays.
 - (c). The Vigils of All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, except when any of these Vigils falls on a Saturday or Sunday.
 - (d). In Lent, Ash Wednesday, Ember Saturday, and (up to midday) Holy Saturday.
4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a day of Abstinence.

(Approved by the Hierarchy, 11th October, 1932.)

N.B.—For the time being the above legislation is modified by an Indult, issued by the Holy See on January 28th, 1949, which reduces the number of days on which the laws of fast and abstinence must be observed in the following manner: "until provision is made otherwise, abstinence should be observed every Friday, the law of abstinence together with fast on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the Vigils of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Indult also adds a concession in the quality of food permitted: "graciously granting, nevertheless, that on days of abstinence together with fast it will everywhere be permissible to take eggs and milk products even in the morning and the evening."

3. NEW REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE EUCHARISTIC FAST.

In a Motu Proprio, published on the 19th March, 1957, the following regulations concerning the Eucharistic Fast were promulgated:

1. The period of the Eucharistic Fast is shortened to three hours from solid food and alcoholic drinks, and one hour from non-alcoholic liquids. This regulation is to be observed both by priests, before the celebration of Mass, and by the faithful, before receiving Holy Communion, whether it be in the morning or evening. Water does not break the fast.

2. The above period for the Eucharistic Fast is to be observed even by those who celebrate Mass or receive Holy Communion at midnight or in the early hours of the morning.

3. The sick, even though not confined to bed, may take non-alcoholic liquids or genuine medicine, either liquids or solid, at any time before celebrating Mass or receiving Holy Communion.

4. MARRIAGES.

Marriage may be contracted on any day of the year. The Solemnising of Marriage, i.e., the Solemn Blessing of the Church which is given only during Mass, is forbidden from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, and from the first Sunday of Advent to Christmas Day, all dates being inclusive. Bishops, however, may for a just reason allow the Solemnising of Marriage any day during the forbidden periods, provided the laws of the Liturgy be observed. A widow, who has already received this Blessing, may not again be blessed at any subsequent marriage.

Marriage is constituted by the free consent of two parties taking one another for husband and wife. Anything interfering with the freedom of consent, in the way of serious error, grave fear and violence, may endanger the validity of the marriage bond.

The age required for valid marriage is sixteen years complete in the case of the man, fourteen years complete in that of the woman; those under twenty-one years of age should before marriage inform their parents and obtain their consent.

Marriage cannot be contracted without a Dispensation by persons within the third degree of kindred or the second degree of affinity; if attempted the marriage is invalid. Spiritual kindred contracted by Baptism, i.e., between a god-parent and a god-child, is also an invalidating impediment.

Marriage between a Catholic and an unbaptised person is invalid without a dispensation.

A "mixed" marriage (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptised, does not profess the Catholic Faith) is unlawful without a Dispensation; and the Dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions as laid down by the Council of Fort Augustus (Decr., xvii. 5): (1) That all children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptised, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. (2) That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. (3) That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place elsewhere than before the Catholic Priest. (4) That the Catholic party shall endeavour to effect the conversion of the non-Catholic party to the true faith of Christ. These promises will ordinarily be made in writing by the parties.

For parties preparing for marriage, the golden rule is: Give very early notice to the parish priest, who will furnish precise and helpful instructions as to both civil and ecclesiastical requirements. Banns have to be proclaimed on three consecutive Sundays or Holidays, and evidence of Baptism has to be furnished by both parties, even in the case of a mixed marriage. If it can be done without serious inconvenience, Catholics should be confirmed before marriage. As a general rule, the parish priest of the bride, in the case of a mixed marriage the parish priest of the Catholic party, will take charge of the marriage.

The Decree Ne temere, which became law in Scotland only on the 1st of September, 1908, made important regulations for the celebration of marriage, either between two Catholics, or between a Catholic and a non-Catholic. These regulations have been incorporated into, and somewhat modified by, the new Code of Canon Law, which came into force on the 19th May, 1918. The following points should be noted:—

I. Engagements, even when formally and solemnly contracted, afford no canonical ground for claiming a fulfilment of the promise.

II. Only those marriages are valid which are contracted before the parish priest or the Ordinary of the place, or a priest delegated by either of these, and at least two witnesses.

III. The parish priest and the Ordinary of the place validly assist at a marriage:

(a) only within the limits of their territory; within which they assist validly at marriages not only of their own subjects, but also of those not subject to them;

(b) provided that not compelled by violence or by grave fear they ask and receive the consent of the contracting parties.

IV. They assist licitly:

(a) when they have legitimately ascertained the free state of the contracting parties;

(b) when they have ascertained that one of the contracting parties has a domicile, or at least has lived for a month in the place where the marriage takes place.

V. When the parish priest or Ordinary or delegate as above (No. II.) cannot be got:

(a) in danger of death marriage may be validly and licitly contracted before two witnesses only;

(b) outside the case of danger of death, when these conditions are prudently considered as likely to last for a month, marriage may be contracted before two witnesses only.

(c) in either case, if any priest is at hand, he should be called in to assist; but his presence or absence does not effect the validity of the marriage.

VI. (a) The above laws are binding on all persons baptised in the Catholic Church, and on those who have been converted to it from heresy or schism.

(b) The same laws are binding on the same Catholics as above, if they contract marriage with non-Catholics, baptised or unbaptised, even after a Dispensation has been obtained.

(c) Non-Catholics, whether baptised or unbaptised, who contract among themselves, are nowhere bound to observe the Catholic form of marriage.

5. SICK CALLS.

All sick calls should be given in at the Priest's house at a timely hour in the morning. If this reasonable rule were adhered to, it would save the Clergy much unnecessary labour and the people many disappointments, which they may justly ascribe to their own want of system.

On Saturdays, eves of Holidays, and other days which are generally devoted to the Confessional, the priest should not, if possible, be called away from this important duty. Unless in cases of necessity, sick calls should not be made on Saturdays or Sundays, when the Clergy have so many other duties to attend to.

It is the duty of the people to conform to whatever regulations may be made by the Clergy, on these and other matters connected with Religion, in their respective congregations. All things should be done in order, according to the advice of St. Paul.

When the priest is called to attend a sick person, everything that he requires for the administration of the Sacraments should be furnished as becomingly as possible in the room where the sick person lies—viz., a table covered with a clean linen cloth on which should be laid 2 candles, a vessel of holy water with a sprinkler, a small vessel of common water for the purification of the priest's fingers after the administration of the Holy Viaticum, and a napkin for the sick person at the time of Communion. As the priest generally brings the Blessed Sacrament on these occasions, everything should be so becomingly prepared, according to their means, as to show the great respect of the inmates for Jesus Christ, and the high value they set upon the honour thus rendered to their house in the visit of their Lord and Redeemer.

While the priest is administering the Viaticum and Extreme Unction, the assistants should devoutly offer up their prayers to God on behalf of the sick person, to implore that he may receive those Sacraments with the necessary dispositions.

APPENDIX II.

INDULGENCES AND DEVOTIONS

1. INDULGENCES.

EXPLANATION OF INDULGENCES.

An indulgence is a remission of the whole, or part, of the temporal punishment that often remains to be suffered for sins which, as to their guilt and eternal punishment, have been already remitted. For the effect and validity of an Indulgence it is not only necessary that there be a competent authority in him who grants it, and a just cause or motive for the grant, but it is also necessary, on the part of him who obtains it, that he renounce and be sincerely sorry for all his sins, that he be in the state of grace, and that he duly perform the conditions prescribed. Of Indulgences, some are called plenary, which, when fully obtained, remit the whole of the temporal punishment that remained due on account of past sins; others are for a certain number of years or days, which when fully obtained, remit as much of the temporal punishment as would have been discharged by the performance of so many years or days of Canonical Penance. Thus, by a quarantine Indulgence was meant the remission of so much of the future penalty (poena) of sin as is the equivalent of keeping a Lent according to the strict discipline of the Church. Quarantines are no longer mentioned in the official collection of indulgenced prayers (Vatican Press, 1938).

Indulgences attached to sacred objects, such as rosaries, etc., are available to any person using these objects, and the Indulgences cease only when the thing is destroyed or sold.

The conditions for most Plenary Indulgences include Confession, Communion, Visit to a Church and prayers for the Pope's intentions. For an Indulgence granted for any particular day, Confessions made eight days before will suffice; Communion may be made the day before, and both Confession and Communion any day within the Octave. For Triduums, Novenas and suchlike, Confession and Communion may be made any day within the Octave after the conclusion of the exercises. For daily communicants, or for those who confess regularly twice a month, no special confession is necessary. The visit may be made to any church or oratory and may be made from noon of the preceding day to midnight of the last day of the time appointed. Prayer for the Pope's intentions should be recited vocally and not merely mentally. Jubilee Indulgences, as well as some others, have their own special conditions.

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO SCOTLAND.

1. From the Feast of St. Thomas, Apostle, 21st December, to the first Sunday after the Epiphany, inclusively.
2. From Ash-Wednesday to the second Sunday of Lent, inclusively.
3. During the time appointed in each Diocese for complying with Easter duties.

4. From Pentecost Sunday to Sunday after Corpus Christi.
5. From Sunday before the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul to the Octave Day.
6. From Sunday before the Feast of the Assumption to the Octave Day.
7. From Sunday before the Feast of All Saints to the Octave Day.
8. On the Feast of St. Andrew, and during the Octave.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING THESE INDULGENCES.

1. That within the time prescribed the faithful approach the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist.

When Confession is required as a condition for gaining an indulgence, it may be made eight days before or eight days after. The Holy Communion prescribed may be made the day before or within the eight days after. One Confession and Communion will suffice for the gaining of several Plenary Indulgences on the same day. Canon 931.

2. That on the day of their Communion they offer up some prayers to God for the happy state of the whole Church of Christ, for its Supreme Pastor the Bishop of Rome, for peace and concord between all Christian Princes; for the exaltation and propagation of the Holy Catholic Faith, especially in our own country, and for the eternal salvation of all Christians.

3. That if they have an opportunity, they visit within the limited time some church or oratory, and pray to God as has been mentioned before.

4. That, if their circumstances enable them, they perform some works of mercy.

To gain any number of times a Plenary Indulgence granted toties quoties the necessary and sufficient prayers to be said for the Pope's intention at each visit to a church are six Our Fathers, six Hail Marys, and six Glorias. (A.A.S., 1930, 363).

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO ALL THE FAITHFUL. THE INDULGENCES OF THE STATIONS.

The nature and number of the indulgences attached to the Stations of the Cross by the Holy See in the course of the centuries had become uncertain in consequence of the loss of authentic documents. The Holy See therefore has abolished all indulgences hitherto conceded and grants to all the faithful who with contrite heart make the Stations of the Cross the following indulgences:—

1. A Plenary Indulgence as often as the Stations of the Cross are made.

2. Another Plenary Indulgence if they go to Holy Communion on the same day on which they make the Stations; or if, having made the Stations ten times they go to Holy Communion within a month.

3. A Partial Indulgence of ten years for each Station they have made, if after beginning the Stations they are unable, for some reasonable cause, to complete them.

The sick, who are unable to recite a suitable ejaculation, may still gain a Plenary Indulgence by merely kissing or looking upon the crucifix specially blessed.

The sick, those travelling, and any others legitimately impeded gain the Indulgence, if while holding in their hands the crucifix specially blessed, they say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria twenty times, that is fourteen times for the fourteen Stations, five in memory of the Sacred Wounds, and once for the Pope's intention. If some reasonable cause prevents the completion of this exercise, these persons may gain a Partial Indulgence of ten years for each time they have recited an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Gloria.

PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of August all may gain a Plenary Indulgence as often as they visit a Franciscan Church or any Church enjoying the privilege of the Portiuncula, and say six Paters, six Aves, and six Glorias for the Pope's intention. The usual condition of Confession and Holy Communion is enjoined.

COMMEMORATION OF THE HOLY SOULS.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of November or on the following Sunday all may gain a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, as often as they visit a Church or public or semi-public oratory and say the prayers for the Pope's intention.

VISITING A CATHOLIC CEMETERY.

During the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, may be gained by the faithful who visit a Catholic Cemetery on the usual conditions (31st October, 1934).

THE CATECHISM INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence on any two days of each month may be gained by all who either teach or learn the catechism for the space of at least twenty minutes twice in the month. The usual conditions of Confession, Communion, visit to a church and prayer for the Pope's intention are prescribed. For every such period devoted to teaching or learning the catechism a partial indulgence of 100 days may be gained by the contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1930, 343.)

ROSARY INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence, under the usual conditions of Confession and Communion, may be gained by anyone of the faithful who devoutly recites five decades of the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament exposed for public veneration, or reserved in the tabernacle. (A.A.S., Sept., 1927.)

THE HOLY HOUR.

All who perform the pious exercise of the Holy Hour in any church, public oratory, or semi public oratory to which they have legitimate access may gain (1) a Plenary Indulgence, provided they confess their sins and receive Holy Communion and recite the usual prayers for the Pope's intentions; (2) a Partial Indulgence of ten years, if they are at least contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 171.)

THE FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION.

Whether the form of exposition is strictly Clementine or modified by the Bishop's authority, a Plenary Indulgence, once on each day, may be gained by all who visit the Blessed Sacrament during Quarant Ore and recite a Pater, Ave and Gloria five times, and one Pater, Ave and Gloria for the Pope's intention. Confession and Communion are enjoined. Alternatively, a Partial Indulgence of fifteen years is granted to the contrite of heart each time they visit a church during the Forty Hours Devotion and recite the same prayers. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 381.)

PROCESSIONS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained by all those who assist at Processions of the Blessed Sacrament, whether the processions are within or without a sacred building. Confession, Communion and prayer for the Pope's intention are enjoined. (A.A.S., 1933, p.478.)

SPIRITUAL VISITS TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Those who are legitimately prevented from making a visit in person may now gain a Partial Indulgence of five years by making a spiritual visit to the Blessed Sacrament and reciting the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and once for the Pope's intention, provided they are contrite of heart.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained once a week if, through the same impediment, the spiritual visit is made daily. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 169.)

VISITING THE ALTAR OF REPOSE.

The contrite of heart who visit the "Altar of Repose" on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday and recite the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times and once for the Pope's intention may gain a toties quoties indulgence of fifteen years. A Plenary Indulgence may be gained on each of these days if the further conditions of Confession and Communion are fulfilled. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 277.)

PARTIAL INDULGENCES: THE LITANY OF THE B. VIRGIN.

On 6th May, 1879, His Holiness granted the Apostolic Benediction, and an Indulgence of seven years on each Saturday, and on the Feasts of the Blessed Virgin, to the Faithful of England and Scotland who shall recite or sing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin in any church in either country. This Indulgence is now extended to all the faithful and may be gained each time the Litany is recited or sung (Preces et Pia opera, Vatican Press, 1938).

VISITING A CHURCH AND PRAYER FOR THE POPE'S INTENTION.

The phrase "visiting a church," means going to a church with the intention of honouring God, either in Himself or in His saints and, if no set prayer is enjoined, offering mental or vocal prayer according to each one's piety and devotion. When no other prayers are specified, the condition "prayer for the Pope's intention" is satisfied by reciting one Pater, one Ave and one Gloria. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 478.)

2. THE PENTECOST NOVENA.

For the Pentecost Novena, prescribed by Encyclical Letters of 5th May, 1895, and 9th May, 1897, the following Indulgences have been granted to those taking part in it:—(1) Ten years for each day; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on any one day of Novena, or on Pentecost, or on any day of the subsequent Octave, on the usual conditions of Confession and Communion and prayers for the Pope's intention, attendance on at least five days being necessary. (These Indulgences are attainable by those also who are legitimately impeded from attending the Public Devotions, provided the Novena be done in private and the other conditions fulfilled; the Partial Indulgence in this case is seven years.) Moreover, those who again, during the Octave of Pentecost, inclusive of Trinity Sunday, privately recite every day, according to their devotion, some prayers to the Holy Ghost, may gain a Partial Indulgence of seven years for each day. All these Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory.

3. THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

For the continuance and daily increase of the abundant fruit produced by the Decree of 20th December, 1905, on Daily Communion, Our Holy Father, Pope Pius X., by a letter of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences of the 10th April, 1907, to the Bishops of the Catholic Church, has expressed his wish to have, as far as may be possible, the following annual observances:—

(a) IN CATHEDRAL CHURCHES.

That on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, either immediately after the Festival of Corpus Christi, or (if the circumstances of persons or places so require) at some other time of the year to be fixed by the Bishop, there shall be in every Cathedral Church three days' prayer, as here described: namely:—

I. That, on each day, there shall be a sermon on the great excellence of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and on the dispositions required for worthily receiving it. That, after the sermon, the Blessed Sacrament shall be exposed; and during the Exposition the prayer O most Sweet Jesus (see below) shall be recited, to be followed on the Sunday by the Te Deum. That the Tantum ergo shall then be sung, and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament be given.

II. That, on the Sunday, the last of the three days, there shall be, at the usual parochial Mass, a homily by the Parish Priest on the gospel of the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi—or, if the Sunday be not within the Octave, a sermon in preparation for a fervent Communion; and at this parochial Mass the faithful shall communicate. That, on this Sunday afternoon (or evening), there shall be the same service as on the two preceding days. And in the sermon the preacher shall exhort the faithful to more fervent piety towards the Most Holy Sacrament, and especially to a more frequent participation of this heavenly banquet, in accordance with the approved teaching of the Catechismus Romanus (see n. vi. of the Decree of 20th December, 1905). Moreover, at Benediction (as is said above), the Tantum ergo will be preceded by the Te Deum.

(b) IN PARISH CHURCHES.

His Holiness earnestly recommends that also in Parish Churches, according as each Bishop in his prudence and discernment shall judge fit, there shall be at least those pious exercises which are above described for the Cathedral Churches for the Sunday within the Octave, or some other Sunday in the year.

That the faithful may more eagerly take part in the aforesaid pious exercises, His Holiness has been pleased to grant the following Indulgences, applicable also to the souls in Purgatory:—

1. An Indulgence of ten years for each of the three days' prayer.
2. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained once during the three days, on any day thereof, by those who devoutly assist at the devotions of any one day, and after Confession and Holy Communion pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.
3. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained on the Sunday by all who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion together in a Cathedral or a Parish Church, and pray for the Holy Father's intentions.

PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

O most sweet Jesus, Who didst come into this world to enrich the souls of all mankind with the life of Thy grace, and Who, to preserve and sustain this life in them, dost daily give Thyself in the most august Sacrament of the Eucharist, as a saving medicine to heal their infirmities and a divine food to support their weakness, we pray and beseech Thee to pour forth upon them most graciously Thy holy spirit, so that, being filled therewith, any who are in mortal sin may, by returning to Thee, be restored to the life of grace which they have lost; and that those who, by Thy great mercy, already serve Thee may daily, as far as each one is able, come devoutly to Thy heavenly banquet, and in the strength thereof may find a remedy for their daily venial faults and a support of the life of Thy grace, and, thus becoming more and more cleansed from sin, may obtain the everlasting happiness of heaven. Amen.

4. THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART.

By the Encyclical Letter Miserentissimus Redemptor of Pius XI dated 8th May, 1928, it is decreed that the Act of Reparation thereto appended shall be solemnly recited in all churches throughout the world on the Feast of the Sacred Heart. The Act, together with the Litany of the Sacred Heart, is to be recited during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

ACT OF REPARATION.

O sweet Jesus, Whose overflowing charity for men is requited by so much forgetfulness, negligence and contempt, behold us prostrate before Thy altar eager to repair by a special act of homage the cruel indifference and injuries, to which Thy loving Heart is everywhere subject.

Mindful alas! that we ourselves have had a share in such great indignities, which we now deplore from the depths of our hearts, we humbly ask Thy pardon and declare our readiness to atone by voluntary expiation not only for our own personal offences, but also for the sins of those, who straying far from the path of salvation, refuse in their obstinate infidelity to follow Thee, their Shepherd and Leader, or, renouncing the vows of their baptism, have cast off the sweet yoke of Thy law.

We are now resolved to expiate each and every deplorable outrage committed against Thee; we are determined to make amends for the manifold offences against Christian modesty in unbecoming dress and behaviour, for all the foul seductions laid to ensnare the feet of the innocent, for the frequent violation of Sundays and holidays, and the shocking blasphemies uttered against Thee and Thy Saints. We wish also to make amends for the insults to which Thy Vicar on earth and Thy priests are subjected, for the profanation, by conscious neglect or terrible acts of sacrilege, of the very Sacrament of Thy divine love; and lastly, for the public crimes of nations who resist the rights and the teaching authority of the Church which Thou hast founded.

Would, O divine Jesus, we were able to wash away such abominations with our blood. We now offer, in reparation for these violations of Thy divine honour, the satisfaction Thou didst once make to Thy eternal Father on the Cross and which Thou dost continue to renew daily on our altars; we offer it in union with the acts of atonement of Thy Virgin Mother and all the Saints and of the pious faithful on earth; and we sincerely promise to make recompense, as far as we can with the help of Thy grace, for all neglect of Thy great love and for the sins we and others have committed in the past.

Henceforth we will live a life of unwavering faith, of purity of conduct, of perfect observance of the precepts of the gospel and especially that of charity. We promise to the best of our power to prevent others from offending Thee and to bring as many as possible to follow Thee.

O loving Jesus, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our model in reparation, deign to receive the voluntary offering we make of this act of expiation; and by the crowning gift of perseverance keep us faithful unto death in our duty and the allegiance we owe to Thee, so that we may all one day come to that happy home, where Thou with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

The Indulgences granted are: (1) To the faithful present in any Church or Oratory at the recital of the above Act and the Litany of the Sacred Heart during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament an Indulgence of seven years and further a Plenary Indulgence if, after Confession, they receive Holy Communion, and (2) to those who any where or at any time, even in private, recite the above Act, an Indulgence of five years, and further a Plenary Indulgence once in the month if they repeat the Act daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion. (18th March, 1932).

5. THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING.

Whereas, by the Decree of the S. Congregation of Indulgences, 22nd August, 1906, His Holiness Pope Pius X ordered that each year on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, in all Parish Churches as well as others where the feast is observed, the form of Consecration used by Pope Leo XIII. on the 25th May, 1899, should be recited during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by the Litany of the Sacred Heart, it is now enacted (S.R.C., 28th April, 1926) that (1) the observance is optional on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, but obligatory on the Feast of Christ the King, and (2) the Form to be used is the one given below. To all who with devout and contrite heart assist at this pious exercise and pray for the Pope's intentions, His Holiness grants an Indulgence of seven years, and further a Plenary Indulgence to those who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion. These Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory. Those who recite the following prayer even in private may gain (1) an Indulgence of five years; (2) a Plenary Indulgence if they repeat the prayer daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion.

FORM OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

Most sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thy altar. We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but, to be more surely united with Thee, behold each one of us freely consecrates himself to-day to Thy most Sacred Heart. Many indeed have never known Thee; many too, despising Thy precepts, have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned Thee: grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house lest they die of wretchedness and hunger. Be Thou King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions, or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbour of truth and unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd. Be Thou King of all those who are still involved in the darkness of idolatry or of Islamism, and refuse not to draw them all into the light and kingdom of God. Turn Thine eyes of mercy towards the children of that race, once Thy chosen people. Of old they called down upon themselves the Blood of the Saviour; may it now descend upon them a laver of redemption and of life. Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry: Praise to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to It be glory and honour for ever.

Amen.

6. THE MONTH OF OCTOBER.

For the October Devotions, prescribed by Decrees of 20th August, 1885, etc., the following Indulgences have been granted:—(1) Seven years each time one joins in the public recital of the Rosary and Litany of the B. Virgin (or, being legitimately impeded, says them privately), and prays according to the intentions of the Pope; (2) a Plenary Indulgence to those who, having done this at least ten times, Confess and Communicate; (3) a Plenary Indulgence to all who, on the Feast of the Rosary or within the Octave, Confess, Communicate and pray in some church to God and the B. Virgin according to the intention of His Holiness; (4) seven years each time (during October) for the recital, after the Rosary, of the following prayer to St. Joseph enjoined by the Encyclical of 15th August, 1889; if the prayer is recited outside October a partial Indulgence of three years is granted each time and a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions when the prayer is said daily for a month.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH.

To thee, O blessed Joseph, we fly in our tribulation, and while imploring the help of thy most holy spouse, thy protection also with confidence we crave. By that affection which united thee with the Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God, and by the fatherly love with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we humbly supplicate thee to look down benignantly on the heritage which Christ Jesus purchased with His Blood, and in thy might and power to succour us in our necessities.

Defend, O most provident Guardian of the Divine Family, the chosen race of Jesus Christ; keep us, most loving father, from all taint of error and corruption; do thou from heaven, as our most powerful Protector, stand graciously by us in this conflict with the powers of darkness; and as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus in the imminent peril of His life, so now defend the Holy Church of God from hostile wiles and all adversity, and through thy never-failing patronage so shield each one of us, that, guided by thy example and supported by thy aid, we may live in holiness, piously die and attain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

7. CONSECRATION OF FAMILIES TO THE SACRED HEART.

BY MEANS OF THE ENTHRONEMENT.

It is the earnest desire of the Holy See that all Christian families should be consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and that a statue or image of Him be set up in a prominent place in each house, so that Christ may be enthroned as ruler in the home. All families should be consecrated separately, not in groups. The priest blesses the image, and recites the Act of Consecration. When a priest cannot be had, the image, which should be previously blessed, will be set in its place by the head of the family or other lay person, who also will recite the Act of Consecration. The Indulgences granted to each member of the family are: (1) Seven years and on the day of consecration; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the day of consecration; (3) three years on the annual renewal of the consecration; (4) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the annual renewal. The form of consecration, which alone is valid for the effect of the Indulgences (S.P.A.: 1st March, 1918: A.A.S., x, p. 154) is the following:

ACT OF CONSECRATION.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, who didst manifest to Blessed Margaret Mary the desire of reigning in Christian families, we to-day wish to proclaim Thy most complete regal dominion over our own. We would live in future with Thy life, we would cause to flourish in our midst those virtues to which Thou hast promised peace here below, we would banish far from us the spirit of the world which Thou hast cursed; and Thou shall reign over our minds in the simplicity of our faith, and over our hearts by the whole-hearted love with which they shall burn for Thee, the flame of which we shall keep alive by the frequent reception of Thy Divine Eucharist.

Deign, O Divine Heart, to preside over our assemblings, to bless our enterprises, both spiritual and temporal, to dispel our cares, to sanctify our joys, to alleviate our sufferings. If ever one or other of us should have the misfortune to afflict Thee, remind him, Heart of Jesus, that Thou art good and merciful to the penitent sinner. And when the hour of separation strikes, when death shall come to cast mourning into our midst, we will all, both those who go and those who stay, be submissive to Thy eternal decrees. We will console ourselves with the thought that a day will come when the entire family, reunited in Heaven, can sing for ever Thy glories and Thy mercies.

May the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and the glorious Patriarch St. Joseph, present this consecration to Thee, and keep it in our minds all the days of our life.

All glory to the Heart of Jesus our King and our Father.

8. PRAYERS AFTER LOW MASS.

Pope Pius XI. has ordered that these prayers be said for Russia. A Partial Indulgence of ten years is attached to their recitation in addition to the Indulgence of seven years granted for the triple invocation of the Sacred Heart. (A.A.S., 1934, p. 312).

To be said kneeling. Hail Mary, three times.

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy; Hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To Thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to Thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, Thine eyes of mercy towards us; and after this our exile, show unto us the Blessed Fruit of Thy womb, Jesus; O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

℣. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

℟. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

LET US PRAY.

O God, our refuge and our strength, look with favour on Thy people who cry to Thee; and through the intercession of the Glorious and Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and St. Joseph her Spouse, of Thy Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and of all the Saints, mercifully and graciously hear the prayers which we pour forth for the conversion of sinners, and for the freedom and exaltation of our Holy Mother the Church. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel defend us in the day of battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil:—"the Lord command him," we humbly pray;—and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other wicked spirits who go about the world for the destruction of souls. Amen.

To the above prayers may be added the following invocation said three times:—

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

(Indulgence of seven years).

URNUIGH AN DEIDH NA H-AIFRINNE.

Am Beannachadh Moire tri uairean.

Fáilte dhut a Bhan-righ, etc.

R. Guidh air ar son a Mhàthair naomh Dhé.

F. Los gu'n toill sinn gealladh Chriosda.

DEANAMAID URNUIGH.

A Dhia, ar dion agus ar neart, seall, le bàigh air an t-sluagh a tha cur suas an achanaich riut; agus le eadarghuidhe na h-Oighe Glormhor gun smal, Moire, Màthair Dhe, agus a Cèile beannaichte Eoseiph agus nan Ostal beannaichte Peader agus Pòl agus nan Naomh uile, 'eisd gu tròcaireach agus gu gràsmhor ris na h-urnuighean a tha sinn a' cur suas air son ath-thilleadh nam peacach agus air son saorsainn agus àrdachadh ar Màthar naomhe, an Eaglais. Troimh Chrìosda ar Tighearna. Amen.

A naomh Michael, Ardaingal, dion sinn's a chath; bi na d'chultaise dhuinn an aghaidn eucoir agus innleacndan an aibhistir. "Gu'n smachdaicheadh Dia e," tha sinn gu h'iriosal ag achanaich; agus thusa, 'Cheannaird air Feachd Fhlathanais, leis a' neart a tha agad o Dhia, tilg sìos do dh'ifrinn Sàtan, agus gach spiorad eucorach eile a tha 'siubhal an t-saoghail gu sgrios anmannan. Amen.

A Chridhe uilenaomh Iosa dean tròcair oirnn. (tri uairean).

9. THE ANGELUS.

In Catholic countries, and in many places at home, the Angelus Bell is rung in the morning, at noon, and in the evening at sunset to honour the Mystery of the Incarnation. To gain the indulgences attached to this Devotion, the Angelus must be said kneeling, except on Saturday evening, and Sunday, when it is said standing. In Paschal Time, that is, from Holy Saturday at noon till the Saturday before Trinity Sunday at noon, inclusively, the Regina Coeli is said instead of the Angelus. This prayer is always said standing. Those who do not know the Regina Coeli may gain the indulgences by saying the Angelus; but it must be said standing during Paschal Time. For the convenience of the Faithful is appended a translation of the Regina Coeli taken from the Raccolta.

Queen of Heaven, rejoice. Alleluia.

For He whom thou wast made worthy to bear.
Alleluia.

Hath risen as He said. Alleluia.

Pray for us to God. Alleluia.

ψ. Rejoice and be glad, O virgin Mary. Alleluia.

℞. For the Lord hath risen indeed. Alleluia.

LET US PRAY.

O God, Who through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, has vouchsafed to give joy to the whole world, grant us, we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

10. PONTIFICAL WORK FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

The Work assists by prayers and alms the Catholic Missionaries in heathen and non-Catholic countries.

Conditions of Membership.—(1) The daily recitation of Our Father and one Hail Mary, with the invocation: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us, and (2) the annual contribution of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly; (3) Special members contribute one guinea, or more, yearly; (4) Life membership subscription, £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Collector. The Collector receives the contributions of his group, circulates among them the Annals of the Work, and pays over his collection to the local Treasurer. A return of the sums received, and of their appropriation is inserted annually in the "Annals of the Propagation of the Faith." One copy of each issue of the Annals is supplied to every ten members.

Spiritual Favours.—An exceptionally large number of spiritual privileges, including Plenary and Partial Indulgences, is granted to Members. Extensive Faculties are also given to priests who direct local centres or become special members. A complete list of these privileges may be obtained from the Secretary of the Scottish Council, St. Andrew's Cathedral, Dundee, or from any of the Diocesan Officials (vid. Part v.).

11. CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

The following Indulgences were granted to the Catholic Truth Society in perpetuity by a Decree of the S. Cong. de Prop. Fide, 6th October, 1896:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence (applicable to the Souls in Purgatory) to all present and future members of the Society on the day of their joining the Society, and also on the Feasts of St. Andrew, the Apostle; St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; St. Patrick, St. Columba and St. Ninian, or on any day within the Octave of these Feasts, on condition that they visit an Oratory of the Society, or their own Parish Church, and, after confessing their sins with sincere repentance and receiving Holy Communion, pray for the Propagation of the Holy Faith and for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff.

(2) A Partial Indulgence of one hundred days every time they succeed in persuading a new member to join the Society, and every time they attend a General or Local Meeting of the Society.

By decree of the Sacred Penitentiary, 7th November, 1935, the following Indulgences were also granted to the members of the Box-Tenders' Association:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained by members on the usual conditions: (a) on any day they choose after joining the Association; (b) on the Feast of St. Francis de Sales; (c) once a month on condition that they have faithfully and regularly carried out their duty of looking after the book-case.

(2) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained at the hour of death by members who, after Confession and Holy Communion, or at least after an act of contrition, piously utter the Holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if they can do so, or at least in their hearts, and patiently accept death from the hands of God as a penalty for sin.

(3) A Partial Indulgence of three hundred days may be gained by members each and every time they arrange the pamphlets in good order and afterwards make an act of contrition, at least with a contrite heart, before the Blessed Sacrament.

12. SHORT FORM OF PROFESSION OF FAITH

To be used by permission in the Reception of Converts

I, holding in my hand God's holy gospels and enlightened by divine grace, publicly declare that I accept the Faith which is taught by the Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church. I believe that Church to be the one true Church which Jesus Christ set up here on earth; to which I make my submission with all my heart.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

I believe that seven sacraments were instituted by Jesus Christ for the salvation of mankind: Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Holy Order and Matrimony.

I believe that the Bishop of Rome is the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth, that he is the supreme visible Head of the whole Church, and that he teaches infallibly what we must believe and do for salvation.

I also believe everything which the Holy Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church defines and declares that we must believe. To her I give my whole allegiance and I reject every error and schism which she condemns.

So help me God, and these His holy gospels which I touch with my hand.

ST. FRANCIS LEPER GUILD

(Founded 1895)

DIRECTOR: THE VERY REV. FATHER PROVINCIAL, O.F.M.

PRESIDENT: SIR HAROLD HOOD, Bt., T.D.

HON. TREASURER - G. H. WINDSOR, Esq.

LEPROSY CAN BE CURED

The new Sulphone drugs bring the hope of a cure to the many lepers in the world to-day. Yet thousands are receiving no treatment through lack of funds.

WILL YOU HELP IN THIS GREAT WORK?

BY BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE GUILD—Annual Subscription not less than 5/-.

BY DONATIONS—LEPER PENNY CARDS—LEPER PENNY BOXES.

BY AN ANNUAL LEPER PENNY COLLECTION made in the SCHOOLS in honour of "FATHER DAMIEN'S DAY" (May 11th).

BY A COVENANT DEED. Members who pay Income Tax at Standard Rate may increase their subscriptions without further cost to themselves, by entering into a Covenant Deed with the Guild to pay their subscriptions annually for a period of seven years. Income Tax paid on the subscription can then be reclaimed. Further details gladly sent on application.

BY REMEMBERING the St. Francis Leper Guild IN YOUR WILL.

Donations and Subscriptions will be gratefully received by the Hon. Secretary, St. Francis Leper Guild, THE REVEREND MOTHER, 20 The Boltons, London, S.W.10.

SMYLLUM PARK SCHOOL LANARK

Smyllum Park School is intended for orphans and destitute children, sent by Welfare Committees from all parts of Scotland.

Children are admitted from the age of two till the school leaving age of fifteen.

The School, situated in beautiful grounds, is divided into two sections—for boys and girls, both managed by the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul. The Primary School is under the Education Committee of the County of Lanark, and a Post Primary Course is completed at St. Mary's J.S. School, Lanark.

For pension and particulars, apply to the Sister Superior.

N.B. Owing to the impossibility of carrying on the work of the School with the funds at their disposal, the Sisters will be most grateful for help of any kind—gifts of money or clothing will be most acceptable.

KNIGHTS OF ST. COLUMBA

The Knights of St. Columba, established in 1919, is a British Fraternal Order of men who are practising Catholics.

The Order aims at uniting Catholics; it seeks to give a practical meaning to the word "Fraternity"; it links up lonely men, introduces parish to parish, and infuses esprit de corps throughout the country. Parish Priests have a useful aid wherever there is a Council—a compact body of men, obedient to authority, well disciplined, and ready at all times for works of Catholic Action or of Charity.

The Order has a junior branch for boys of fourteen to twenty-one, known as the Squire Section, formed with the object of safeguarding our youths against the evils that everywhere surround them, and of helping them to be practical Catholics.

Priests or laymen interested in the work of the Order who would wish to become members or assist in the work of setting up a Council in their Area, are cordially invited to write for full particulars to:—

RECOGNISED HOME FOR RETIRED AND ELDERLY
PROFESSIONAL LADIES AND OTHERS.

Lay Apostolate Centre and House :

FATIMA HOUSE, 70 FINNART STREET, GREENOCK

The Members of Mater Dei Apostolate have care of the Home. Their purpose is Personal Sanctification through complete Dedication to Christ by the vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience. Their twofold aim is first the forming of centres in working class areas, living with the people, sharing their lives, and forming LAY APOSTLES to spread the Faith and the Church's Social Teaching amongst the people.

Secondly, the care of the retired and aged in Homes they found, which are completely Non-Institutional, and also the visiting of the aged in their Homes.

Those whose lives are wholly DEDICATED to CHRIST and the LAY APOSTOLATE through the Evangelical Counsels, live in the Homes or Centres, and the Lay Apostles who continue to live in the world, dedicate their lives to Christ by a special Consecration, but do not make Vows.

St. Margaret of Scotland Adoption Society

(Under the patronage of the Archbishop and Bishops of the Province of Glasgow)

The aim of this Society is—

1. To work, through legal Adoption, for the spiritual and temporal welfare of young children in need of homes and parents, by finding for them the shelter and stability of Catholic home-life, and that truly parental love of which they have been deprived.
2. To bring consolation, purpose and fulfilment to Catholic couples denied the blessing of natural parenthood.

The Society is wholly dependent on the spontaneous charity of our Catholic laity. You can help in this work by Legacy, by Deed of Covenant, by Donation or by Membership.

Pontifical Work of the Propagation of the Faith

with its headquarters in Rome, under the direction of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda, is an organisation of the Faithful of every nation, not only to further the evangelisation of the heathen world by united prayer, but also to support the Missionaries in their toil by the collection of alms, and distribution to the Missions of the money offered by the faithful.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

- (1) The daily recitation of Our Father and Hail Mary, with the invocations: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us! St. Teresa, pray for us! and
- (2) The annual subscription of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly.
- (3) Special Members contribute one guinea or more yearly.
- (4) Life Members contribute a sum of not less than £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the Formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Promoter. The Promoter receives the contributions of the Group.

Cards of Membership may be obtained from the local clergy.

His Holiness Pope Pius X said: "How dear to Us is this Blessed Association for the Propagation of the Faith, the most fruitful of all Catholic good works, it is not necessary to say, its object being to assist the Church in carrying out the command received from its Divine Author: 'Go and teach all nations'."

President:

Right Rev. Francis Walsh, D.D. Ph.D., Bishop of Aberdeen.

National Secretary:

Right Rev. Mgr. Michael Canon Foylan, V.G.,
St. Andrew's Cathedral, 150 Nethergate, Dundee.

National Treasurer:

Right Rev. James Ward, V.G., Bishop of Sita,
