FOR FRESH IDEAS . . . IT'S

Prestcold

Perishable foods need safe storage and Prestcold provide it, with handsome service cabinets. Well-known for their reliability they are extremely economical, saving on space, saving on running costs.

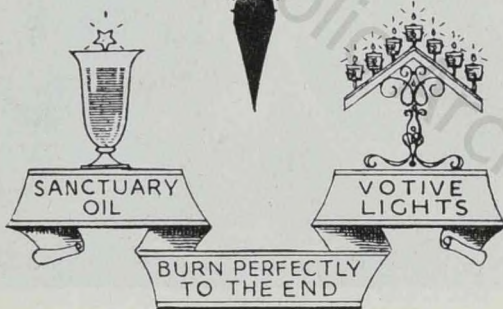

The SC.141 Service Cabinet — capacity 14.02 cu. ft. gross — takes less than 1 sq. yard of floor space. The frozen food locker holds 35 lb. of packaged food, and makes 9 lb. of ice in one day. And you can parade 20 milk bottles on the door shelves. Rounded corners make the enamel lining easy to clean. The sealed refrigerating system is guaranteed for five years, the whole SC.141 for one year.

Just Published

And the Cock Crew

By FIONN MAC COLLA

"A Highland classic . . . a vivid, fiercely written story of betrayal: his man Lachlan's betrayal of the minister, Maighstir Sachairi; Sachairi's betrayal of his own faith and goodness, and, above all, the betrayal of the Highlanders by the lairds and especially by the Kirk.

"The novel does one of the things Scottish critics are always nagging Scottish writers to do; by dealing with the Highland Clearances it brings to life a major watershed in the history of modern Scotland."

African Diary

By FRANCIS J. RIPLEY

From Genoa to Port Said, from Port Said to Mombasa and on through his convalescent journey, Fr. Ripley portrays places of interest and reveals tribal customs and modes of living. His exposition of South Africa's Governmental policy, which he describes as "a particularly inhuman form of totalitarianism," makes interesting reading.

Whether one is travelling on a bus or train . . . snatching a well-earned rest from his daily employment . . . reclining in front of a fire on a cold, wintry evening . . . or seated 'neath the cooling leaves of an old oak tree on a bright summer day . . . he will find Fr. Ripley's African Diary a most welcome companion.

SECTION II.

THE HIERARCHY OF SCOTLAND

From the Extinction of the Hierarchy in 1603 till its Restoration in 1878.

1. The ancient Hierarchy ended with James Betoun, Abp. of Glasgow, who died at Paris on the 25th April, 1603, aged 79. After being subjected to the jurisdiction of the Archpriests and first Vicar-Apostolic of England till 1623, and afterwards to local Prefects of the Mission, the Clergy were incorporated into a missionary body by decree of Propaganda, 1653, and governed by the following Prefects-Apostolic: William Ballantyne (or Bellenden), 1653-61; Alexander Dunbar (or Winster), 1662-68, 1672-94; and John Walker (or Ross), 1668-71. In May, 1694, a Scottish Vicariate-Apostolic was established. This was divided into two Districts, the Lowland and the Highland, in February, 1731; and these two into three, the Eastern, Western and Northern, by Papal Rescript of 13th February, 1827. This last arrangement remained in force till the re-establishment of the Hierarchy by the Apostolic Letter, Ex Supremo Apostolatus Apice, 4th March, 1878.

DIOCESE OF ARGYLL AND THE ISLES

Comprising Counties of Argyll and Inverness (south of a line drawn from the northern extremity of Loch Luing to the junction of the Counties of Inverness, Aberdeen and Banff); the Islands of Bute and Arran and the Hebrides.

The See of Argyll was founded about 1200, being disjoined from the Diocese of Dunkeld; and was vacant for more than three centuries. James Hamilton was appointed to the See on 14th July, 1553, but was probably never consecrated.

The See of the Isles (Insularum or Sodorensis) is said to have been founded about 447 by St. Patrick, who consecrated Germanus, its first Bishop; it was united to Man till the end of the 14th century; and was vacant for 325 years, from the death of Roderick Maclean in 1553 till the Restoration of the Hierarchy in 1878.

Rev. James McGhee who was born at Port-Glasgow, on 31st March, 1939, received his ecclesiastical education at St. Mary's College, Blairs, and at the Royal Scots College, Valladolid. On 29th April, 1962, he was ordained for the Diocese of Paisley, in the Chapel of the Scots College, Valladolid, by the Right Reverend James Black, Bishop of Paisley, and he is now a curate at St. Mirin's Cathedral, Paisley.

SECTION III.

OBITUARIES — 1962

Rev. George John MacGillivray, M.A.—2nd January, 1962

Rev. George MacGillivray, a priest of the Diocese of Southwark, who, for close on twenty years had lived in retirement at Fortrose and provided Holy Mass and the Sacraments for the few Catholics of that ancient cathedral town, died on Tuesday, 2nd January, 1962, in his eighty-sixth year.

A contributor to The Tablet who knew Father MacGillivray in the years when he was Catholic chaplain at Cambridge (1928-1932), writes: "In his Cambridge chaplaincy Father MacGillivray was in his middle fifties. We saw, in fact, the product of many years lived in the service of Christ and of an unusually various and taxing experience of life; and any description of the man we knew—and perhaps never appreciated as he deserved—must take account of the richly gifted and also very individual material that grace had been working upon so long. These points may be noted to start with: he was a Scot and a gentleman, and he had been brought up in a Protestant home where a deep respect for learning went hand in hand with religion. His father was an Edinburgh lawyer and it was in Edinburgh that George MacGillivray was born on May 10th, 1876, and there that he was educated, first at the Academy and then at the University, where he took his degree in 1895; after a year or so abroad, adding French and Italian to the Latin, Greek and German he had already acquired, he entered Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1896, to read theology. He took his degree in 1899, and was placed in the same class in the Theological Tripos as the learned Downside Benedictine, Dom Hugh Connoly. He was ordained for the Anglican ministry by Dr. Randall Davidson and then served as curate in Portsmouth and Croydon.

"But in 1910, being drawn to foreign missionary work, he joined the Archbishop's 'Assyrian Mission' to the Nestorian Christians in Eastern Turkey, near the Persian border. The effect of this momentous step was described in his fascinating autobiography, Through the East to Rome (1931), recording with a dogged Scottish persistence the slow, painstaking way in which he read and thought himself out of the Church of England. The 1914 war ended the 'Assyrian Mission,' and in 1917, having learned to drive, he joined the French Red Cross and worked around Salonika, meditating afresh upon the New Testament. With the end of the war his mental struggle was virtually ended and, early in 1919, he was received into the Catholic Church at Downside. 'I never had any emotional attraction to the Catholic Church,' he wrote in his book, 'I never wanted to be a Catholic . . . I became a Catholic simply because I had to.'

"After four years at the Beda he was ordained priest in 1922 and after two curacies returned to his old university—as chaplain to the Catholic undergraduates. During the next two years he wrote his two best books, Through the East to Rome and The Way of Life, and began a valuable series of pamphlets for the C.T.S. In 1932, he returned (with alacrity) to the life of a parish priest."

He became rector of St. Francis', Maidstone, and later rector of St. Joseph's, Brighton. Ill health forced him to retire from this last appointment in 1944, he bought a house at Fortrose and there, until well past his eightieth year, he attended to the needs of the small Catholic community of the town and its neighbourhood.

Requiem Mass was celebrated in the little chapel of St. Peter and St. Boniface by the Right Rev. Mgr. Valentine J. Canon Mackenzie, Vicar General of Aberdeen, and Father MacGillivray was laid to rest at Fortrose. May he rest in peace.

Reverend Charles Burns — 12th January, 1962

The Rev. Charles Burns was born at Glenboig, Lanarkshire, on 27th January, 1903. After his preliminary studies at St. Mary's College, Blairs, he was transferred to the Royal Scots College, Valladolid, where, on the completion of his studies, he was ordained priest, on 25th May, 1929, by the Archbishop of Valladolid, the Most Reverend Remigio Gandasegui y Gorrochategui.

The first four years of his work as a priest in the Archdiocese of Glasgow were spent as a curate in St. Mary's, Whifflet. Between 1933 and 1941, he was stationed at St. Bridget's, Baillieston, and, during the following nine years, he was curate at St. Ninian's, Knightswood, until his appointment as parish priest of St. Martin's, Renton, in 1950. His zealous work in all of these parishes is remembered with gratitude by the respective congregations, but the toll it had taken of Father Burns' health was shown unmistakably in the grave illness which struck him down shortly after his arrival in Renton, an illness so serious as to make it necessary for him to resign his parochial charge in 1951 after only a few months as parish priest. His health never afterwards improved sufficiently to allow him to resume active parochial work and he lived in retirement at St. Anne's, Musselburgh, where he died on Friday, 12th January, 1962, at the comparatively early age of fifty-eight.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Tuesday, 16th January, 1962, in St. Mary's Whifflet, by His Lordship Bishop Hart of Dunkeld, who had been ordained at Valladolid, on the same day as Father Burns. Another bishop, ordained at that same ordination, Bishop McGee of Galloway, was also present. Bishop Ward, Mgr. Conroy and Mgr. Monaghan, Vicars General of Glasgow, Motherwell and St. Andrews and Edinburgh, together with a large number of clergy from these dioceses, were prominent in the crowded church. In his panegyric, Bishop Ward paid tribute to the splendid work done by Father Burns in the various parishes where he had served and in particular he spoke of the deceased priest's ardent devotion to Our Lady, which made him undertake, even during his years of illness, the pain and fatigue of several pilgrimages to the shrine of the Immaculate Mother of God at Lourdes. Schoolchildren and hundreds of parishioners of St. Mary's, Whifflet, prayed in the streets as the funeral cortege set off for St. Patrick's Cemetery, New Stevenston, where Father Charles Burns was laid to rest. Requiescat in pace.

Rev. William Fitzsimmons—22nd March, 1962

On 22nd March, 1962, Father William Fitzsimmons died in the Royal Infirmary, Glasgow. It was the fourth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He was born on 6th September, 1934, in Keltly, Fife, where he attended St. Joseph's School before entering Blairs College in 1946. From Blairs he was sent to continue his studies at the Royal Scots College, Valladolid, where he was raised to the priesthood by His Lordship Bishop Black on 22nd March, 1958.

Returning to Scotland, he spent short periods in Lochgelly and Methil before taking up his first appointment as curate in St. Ninian's, Restalrig, Edinburgh. Here he passed the greater part of his priestly life. A deeply spiritual person, he was possessed of a warm humanity which combined to produce a profound and lasting effect on the lives of many parishioners.

In September, 1961, Father Fitzsimmons was transferred to St. Francis Xavier's, Falkirk. Early in 1962 he contracted an infection of the kidney and was taken first to the Royal Infirmary, Falkirk, and later to the Royal Infirmary, Glasgow. Throughout his illness he accepted his suffering with typical cheerfulness and received the news of his imminent death with extraordinary resignation. The constant stream of clerical visitors to his bedside testifies to the regard in which he was held by his fellow priests. To see and talk with him in these last days was an edifying experience, and his death on 22nd March robbed the archdiocese of a priest respected beyond the merits of his years.

A large congregation of clergy and laity attended the funeral in St. Francis Xavier's, Falkirk, on 25th March, when His Grace Archbishop Gray offered Pontifical Requiem Mass, with Father Thomas Holloran and Father Stephen Judge as deacons. Among the many details of the funeral, which Father Fitzsimmons had arranged himself, was the request that there should be no panegyric; but His Lordship Bishop McGill who was also present spoke a few words of comfort to the bereaved family and congregation. The interment took place at Kirk o' Beath Cemetery, close to the village of Keltly, where Father John Fusco officiated at the graveside, surrounded by a large gathering of mourners, clerical and lay, who had known this young priest as a trusted and well-loved friend, a respected colleague and a zealous priest. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Edward Dempsey—27th March, 1962

Pray for the repose of the soul of the Rev. Edward Dempsey, parish priest of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Broughty Ferry, Dundee, who died in the Bon Secours Hospital, Glasgow, on the 27th March, 1962, aged 60, in the 34th year of his priesthood.

The Rev. Edward Dempsey was born in Alloa on the 20th November, 1901, of devout Irish parents, his father coming from Dublin and his mother from the West of Ireland. His boyhood was spent in Shettleston.

Father Dempsey entered Blairs College in 1918; the Seminaire St. Sulpice, Issy, France, in 1923; the Seminary at Rue du Regard, Paris, in 1927. Most remarkable in the thirty-four years of his sacred ministry was the high esteem and affectionate regard in which he held his superiors in the seminaries of St. Sulpice; and his very frequent reference to them in his sermons and conversation was very edifying. He received the Tonsure in June, 1925; Minor Orders in June and December, 1926; the Subdiaconate in June, 1927; the Diaconate in December, 1927; and he was ordained Priest by the late Bishop Toner, Bishop of Dunkeld, in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Dundee, on the 29th June, 1928. His two brothers were also priests, members of the Society of Jesus. Father William Dempsey, S.J., is on the staff of St. Aloysius', Glasgow; Father Joseph Dempsey, S.J., died in 1958. R.I.P.

For some months immediately after ordination, Father Dempsey administered St. Fillan's, Criefl., during the convalescence of the parish priest, Father (later Monsignor) Joseph Keenan. Later, he served for a time at St. Mary's, Greenock, and on his return to his own diocese he was curate for varying times at St. Patrick's, Dundee, Our Lady of Victories, Dundee, SS. Peter and Paul's, Dundee, and at St. John's, Perth. In 1943, he was appointed parish priest of St. John Vianney's in Alva, Clackmannanshire, where he devoted himself unsparingly to the care of the church and the souls in his charge. In 1949, he was promoted to the city parish of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Broughty Ferry. There again, as elsewhere, he quietly but effectively maintained and improved the equipment of the parish, both material and spiritual. During his twelve years in the Ferry, the church, besides receiving attention in painting and decoration, was enhanced by the completion of the seating and the installing of the new baptismal font and altar rails. To commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the beautiful red sandstone built church, the long-vacant niche above the main door was filled with a statue of Our Lady of Good Counsel, in tasteful design and cut from white Portland stone.

His obsequies took place in the Church of St. Aloysius, Glasgow. The Right Rev. William A. Hart, Bishop of Dunkeld, celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass, and Father William Dempsey, S.J., officiated at the committal service in Dalbeth Cemetery. Mgr. Michael Foylan, V.G., Mgr. Treanor, Prot. Ap., Rector of St. Peter's College, Cardross, and several Canons of Dunkeld and Glasgow were present in the sanctuary. Mgr. Samuel Kilpatrick represented the Archbishop of Glasgow. Some fifty priests of Dunkeld, Glasgow and elsewhere attended to pay their last respects to a friend and colleague. There was a large congregation in the nave of the church. Many of the parishioners of Broughty Ferry made the long early journey from the East to pay their last respects to their humble and beloved priest. After the Mass, the Bishop conveyed the sympathy of all present to the sorrowing relatives, and referred to Father Dempsey's devotion to duty in spite of great suffering endured for many months before his death, and to his often saying Mass and attending calls when he was scarcely able to do so. He died in the Hospital of Bon Secours, surrounded by all the consolations of Holy Church. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. Thomas Joseph Canon Ferrigan—25th April, 1962

The death occurred at St. Raphael's Nursing Home, Edinburgh, on Wednesday, 25th April, 1962, of the Very Rev. Thomas J. Canon Ferrigan, parish priest at Rosyth: he was in his eighty-first year and had been parish priest of St. John and St. Columba's, Rosyth, for over thirty years.

The Very Rev. Thomas Joseph Canon Ferrigan was born in Edinburgh on 31st May, 1881. He entered Blairs College, Aberdeen, to begin his studies for the priesthood on 1st September, 1895; he was sent to Issy, Paris, towards the end of 1898 and thereafter to St. Sulpice, Paris, in October, 1902, to study theology. Finally, he went to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in 1905, and was ordained priest on 4th November, 1906.

He began his priestly work in Lennoxton, and was there for a considerable time with the late Archbishop, then Father Andrew Joseph McDonald, O.S.B., who was supplying for the sick parish priest. Canon Ferrigan often recalled this happy, early association with the man who would later appoint him a canon. He was transferred to Broxburn in 1910 and then to West Calder in 1911. He became priest-in-charge at Oakley in 1912, where he is still warmly remembered by the older people. Promotion came quickly in those days and, in 1914, he was appointed to Winchburgh. The First Great War broke out and he volunteered to be a chaplain to the Forces in 1915. For five years, 1915 to 1920, he took part in many campaigns. He was in the trenches in France. He landed at the Dardanelles. He served in North Africa. He was in Persia and South Russia. He brought the Mass back to deserted churches, not only for the troops but also for native people without priests. For long periods he lived in continual danger night and day. Finally, he served on troopships from the Far East. When he came back to the archdiocese, he had to wait until a parish became vacant, supplying in many parishes for short periods. In 1922, he became priest-in-charge of Balerno; he went to Methil in 1924 and, in 1931—thirty-one years ago—he came to Rosyth. At Rosyth, he quickly endeared himself to his parishioners, mostly ex-navy men, working in the Royal Dockyard, and their wives and families. As had been his custom in other parishes, his only interests were his church, his school and the spiritual well-being of the souls in his care. The children loved him and their parents revered the good priest, who, in all their needs and troubles, was ever their father and their friend.

The Second World War broke out and again he was busy with the Forces; this time, the Navy and the Air Force. Many lads from England and from overseas will remember happily the Padre at the Crossroads, Rosyth. Old tasks had to be repeated, such as burying the dead after battle—this he had to do after the Battle of the Forth, in the early stages of the war. As the war ended and normal life was being resumed, he was, in 1943, appointed a canon of the metropolitan cathedral chapter.

In his heyday, Canon Ferrigan was a strong man physically: to the very end he was strong of character and those around him knew that when he had made up his mind—that was that. The other marked characteristic of his life was his devotion to the Mother of God. From early youth he prayed to Our Lady of Aberdeen and made pilgrimage to her shrine in Brussels. Frequently too he made his way to Lourdes, very often with the French National Pilgrimage.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by Archbishop Gordon Joseph Gray on Friday, 27th April, 1962, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh, where Canon Ferrigan was baptised eighty-one years ago. The panegyric was preached by Canon Ferrigan's life-long friend, Right Rev. Mgr. Richard Provost Delaney, parish priest of Dunfermline. Prominent in the congregation were members of the cathedral chapter, many clergy of the archdiocese and parishioners of Rosyth, who travelled to Edinburgh to pay their last respects to their venerable pastor. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. John William Canon O'Sullivan—28th June, 1962

The Very Rev. John William Canon O'Sullivan, Administrator of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Dumfries, died on 28th June, 1962, in the Dumfries and Galloway Infirmary at the age of sixty-seven.

Canon O'Sullivan was a native of Dingle, County Kerry, and his studies for the priesthood were carried out in Killarney and St. Patrick's, Thurles. He was ordained for the Diocese of Galloway in 1920, and served for short periods in Kilmarnock and Cumnock before coming to St. Andrew's, Dumfries, where he was to serve God and his people for close on thirty-eight years.

He was curate to Canon O'Brien till the death of the latter in 1937, when he was appointed parish priest and administrator of the Cathedral. The Cathedral meant so much to him, but he was never jealous of the efforts of his people when he encouraged them to raise funds for the new church of St. Teresa in Maxwelltown, which deprived him of half of his people when it was opened in 1958.

One can only guess the deep personal sense of tragedy he experienced when St. Andrew's Cathedral was gutted by fire in the early hours of Ascension Thursday, 11th May, 1961. But he was not a man to mope in inactivity. Within a matter of a few days he had begun to transform the parish hall into a chapel that would serve the needs of his people till a new St. Andrew's would arise on the site of the old.

He began to plan with all the energy and drive of a younger man and this despite the fact—though he never told another soul—that he knew from his doctor that his days on earth were numbered. In Holy Week his friends were alarmed to see how ill he looked, but he brushed aside their concern with a smile. On the morning of Holy Saturday he was taken to the Infirmary where an operation was performed. His condition improved slightly and he was allowed home to his presbytery. But this respite proved only temporary and he had to return to hospital very ill in the middle of June. On 28th June, he knew he was dying. He asked for the Last Sacraments, asked that his people be thanked for their prayers, and died very quietly and peacefully in the late afternoon.

His body lay overnight in the temporary church in Brooke Street, and on the morning of the funeral, a Low Mass was celebrated there in the presence of His Lordship Bishop McGee. Then the remains were transferred to St. Teresa's, which could accommodate the throng that wished to pay their last respects to their dead friend. His Lordship celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass and preached the panegyric in which he bade the people of Dumfries never to forget a man who had done so much for them and who had meant so much to them.

The Provost, Town Councillors, Director of Education and many other civic dignitaries attended the Requiem Mass, a token of the appreciation of the non-Catholic population for the merits of the late Canon who had served for many fruitful years on the Education Committee of Dumfries County.

It is not given to many priests to labour for the length of thirty-eight years in the one parish. The Canon's long period with his people gave him the opportunity to know them all personally, and he had a tenacious memory. He was a man who knew his own mind and never hesitated to express his opinion even when he knew it to be unpopular. With him things were black and white, never grey. His very forthrightness plus his shrewdness in assessing a situation caused many to seek his views when an important decision was at stake.

His fellow clergy will long remember his warm hospitality. His was a personality that is not easily replaced. And the people of Dumfries will long remember and revere the name of John William Canon O'Sullivan. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. Alexander S. Canon Kerr—30th June, 1962

The Very Rev. Alexander S. Canon Kerr, parish priest of St. Andrew's, Braemar, died suddenly on Saturday, 30th June, 1962, at Braemar, at the age of sixty-nine.

Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's, Fochabers, on Tuesday, 3rd July, 1962: the celebrant of the Mass being the Very Rev. Thomas Provost McLaughlin, D.D., of Aboyne, the deacon and sub-deacon being the Right Rev. Monsignor William Murdoch, D.D., of Buckie, and the Very Rev. Alexander S. Canon MacWilliam, of St. Peter's, Aberdeen. His Lordship Bishop Walsh presided in the sanctuary, gave the absolutions and officiated at the burial service at St. Ninian's Graveyard, in the Enzie.

During the Requiem Mass, the Very Rev. Joseph Canon Lamont, of Keith, preached the following panegyric:

"Eight months ago, the clergy and people of this diocese of Aberdeen gathered together in the church of Marydale, Inverness-shire, to pay our last respects and to pray for the repose of the soul of Father George Kerr, parish priest of Marydale. The Requiem Mass on that occasion was said by his brother, Canon Alexander Kerr, parish priest of Braemar.

"To-day we have gathered together in this church of St. Mary's, Fochabers, to perform the same office for Alexander Kerr as we did for his brother, George Kerr. Two brothers, both priests, both born and baptised in the neighbouring parish of Keith, both serving the diocese of Aberdeen faithfully and well, fifteen years between them in age, eight months between them in death. On Friday last, 29th June, Canon Kerr said the morning and evening Mass of Obligation in St. Andrew's Church, Braemar. On Saturday, 30th June, he died. For twenty-one years, he had carried out his duty quietly and efficiently, seldom taking holidays and only taking time off, so to speak, on the last morning of his life, to receive the Last Sacraments from the Provost of the Chapter.

"We have assembled in this church to-day and not in St. Andrew's, Braemar, because, in his last will, Canon Kerr wished to be buried with his parents, and his parents are buried in St. Ninian's Cemetery in the Enzie. St. Mary's, Fochabers, is only a few miles from St. Ninian's Cemetery, and so the Mass is here. And I think that there is, in that provision in the will of Canon Kerr, a key to his character. He chose to be buried with his parents who gave him life.

"Alexander Spence Kerr was born in Keith on 31st May, 1893, and was baptised in St. Thomas' Church, Keith. He came of good Catholic parents, whose name was never written boldly but always faithfully in the annals of the parish in which they lived, St. Thomas' Church, Keith, and St. Margaret's Church, Huntly, have many records of baptisms, first Communions and confirmations of that family and the minutes of meetings, which survive, tell a simple story of faithful attendance and diligent service in all the works of the parish. A simple story indeed, but what parish priest asks for a better story, for it is based on the hidden life at Nazareth.

" He went first to school at St. Margaret's, Huntly, to which his parents had moved shortly after his birth and, after a year or two at the Gordon Schools, Huntly, he went to Blairs College in 1907. In 1913, he went to the Scots College in Rome, lived and studied there during the First World War and received there all the minor and major orders. He enjoyed Rome: indeed he enjoyed all his student days, for I remember him speaking about them. He enjoyed the company of others, he enjoyed the boisterousness that went with it, he enjoyed his studies and his life in the Eternal City but, strange to relate, I do not think he ever returned to visit it. But he does return to his parents. Rome, he enjoyed: his parents and his diocese were part of himself.

" He was ordained in Rome by Cardinal Pompili on 28th February, 1920, and he returned to be a curate in St. Mary's Cathedral, Aberdeen. In 1924, he was given as his first charge the West Highland parish of Dornie in Kintail. After five years there, he went to Clova in Aberdeenshire and, in 1933, to Aberlour in Banffshire. In 1941, he was appointed to his final charge of St. Andrew's, Braemar, and on Saturday he demitted that office to go to God. None of the parishes Canon Kerr served were in the centre of things. Indeed the reverse is true, they were all rather isolated, but he was perfectly happy and contented in them. He was seldom absent from his charge and his work, especially his book work, which was done neatly and without fuss. He liked the company of his fellow priests and was always present at clerical meetings, his face beaming with good humour, taking an active part in any discussion. At Braemar, he kept alive, and was very proud to do so, the Highland hospitality, which is a tradition in this diocese.

" In 1954, he was appointed a canon in the cathedral chapter: he became a member of the diocesan Finance Committee: later, Bishop Walsh appointed him treasurer of the Small Parishes Fund. In all these tasks he was very faithful and carried out his duties meticulously. For forty-two years he has given quiet, efficient, valuable service to this diocese and we are the poorer for his going. To the Bishop of Aberdeen we offer our sympathy and prayers in his loss. To his brothers and sisters, who have suffered two sudden bereavements, we offer too our sympathy, but also our thanks that from their family came two priests who served the diocese humbly and devotedly. Alexander Kerr has gone home to the parents, who offered him to God in his youth and who, I am sure, were awaiting his coming. May he rest in peace."

Reverend Denis Hoban — 6th July, 1962

The sad news reached us that Father Denis Hoban had died suddenly in far-off South Africa on 6th July, 1962. Thus came to an end a short but full apostolate.

Father Hoban was born in Shieldmuir on 29th July, 1926. He received his early education at St. Patrick's School, Shieldmuir, St. Aloysius', Garnethill and Our Lady's High School, Motherwell. He then studied for the priesthood at Blairs and at St. Peter's College, Cardross. During the Second World War, his studies were interrupted when he had to work in the coalmines. This was to have an adverse effect on his health. Bishop Douglas ordained him on 24th June, 1953, and his first appointment was to St. Columbkille's, Rutherglen, but shortly afterwards he went to Newmains and then to St. Kevin's, Bargeddie, where he soon gave evidence of his priestly qualities.

In no profession does so much depend on the man, the personality, as the priestly calling. In the final analysis all depends on grace but grace acts through nature. Although not very robust Father Hoban worked conscientiously, ever solicitous for those entrusted to his care. He loved especially to visit the people and to instruct converts and here his rare talent for friendship, so well known to his contemporaries in the college, was invaluable. The people loved his visits for he made them feel quite at home and he had a wonderful insight into the much misunderstood youth of today so that they fast became his friends.

Whenever Father Denis was not forced by ill-health to give up the active life, he manifested a great zest for life chiefly through his interest in people and his cultivated appreciation of music and art.

Father Hoban next spent three years with the Army Chaplains Department and these were perhaps the happiest years of his life, first at Bulford Camp then at Krefeld and Iserlohn in Germany. He soon gained a great name as a Chaplain such was his facility in mixing with all ranks and his devotion to duty in looking after the soldiers, their families, the schools and hospitals. However even during these three years in the Forces his health continued to cause anxiety and so he was constrained to return to the diocese, where he was appointed to St. Columba's, Viewpark.

It was becoming only too apparent that his health would never improve in our Scottish climate so, at the invitation of Bishop Green of Port Elizabeth, he went to South Africa, where he worked with the coloured people in Port Elizabeth and Cradock. It was too late, however, and he died at the age of thirty-five.

The correspondent of the Southern Cross writes: "Despite the brevity of his priestly career in Port Elizabeth, Father Hoban earned the deep affection and gratitude of those for whom he worked"

On the 9th July, Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul in St. Augustine's Cathedral, Port Elizabeth, and in the Cathedral of Our Lady of Good Aid, Motherwell, and he was interred in the Priests' Plot of St. Dominic's Priory cemetery, Walmer, in South Africa.

He earned the affection of all who knew him. May they not forget him in their prayers. May he rest in peace.

Reverend Joseph Brett — 27th July, 1962

Rev. Joseph Brett, parish priest of St. Thomas' Church, Riddrie, died in the Bon Secours Nursing Home, Glasgow, on Friday, 27th July, 1962, at the age of sixty-three.

Born at Lorrha, Co. Tipperary, on 1st June, 1899, Father Brett studied for the priesthood at St. Peter's College, Wexford, and was ordained there on 7th June, 1928, by the Right Reverend William Codd, Bishop of Ferns. He came to the Archdiocese of Glasgow and the first six years of his priestly ministry were spent at St. Charles', Paisley, until, in 1935, he was transferred to St. Patrick's, Anderston, where he was to remain for almost ten years. In both these parishes the people soon discovered that despite a certain shyness and seriousness of manner, Father Brett was a very friendly man whose assiduous visitation of the parishioners, especially the sick, was marked by kindness, charity and understanding. In 1944, he became chaplain to St. Joseph's Home, Garngad, where the Little Sisters of the Poor and the Old Folks, whom they serve, all remember Father Brett's genuine concern for their well-being; and during this period, also, he looked after the spiritual welfare of the Catholic inmates of Barlinnie Prison. Five years later, he was appointed to St. Thomas' Parish, Riddrie, and this important parish was to be the scene of his pastoral labours for the last thirteen years of his life. These thirteen years saw far reaching changes in St. Thomas' Parish; three new daughter parishes were constituted, St. Bernadette's in 1950, St. Maria Goretti's in 1953 and St. Philip's in 1954; St. Thomas' Parish itself was equipped with a new chapel house and the present magnificent church was built and opened in 1957.

The strain of all this work gradually undermined Father Brett's health and he became seriously ill last January. For a time he seemed to recover and he went home to Ireland for a short period of recuperation, but that improvement was not maintained. Latterly, notwithstanding the devoted care of the Sisters at the Bon Secours Nursing Home in Glasgow, his malady increased; he knew himself to be dying and he calmly prepared himself to meet the Divine Master he had served so faithfully.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Thomas', Riddrie, on Tuesday, 31st July, 1962, by Canon George Conlon, parish priest of St. Paul's, Shettleston, and the crowded congregation, which included some hundred priests and many canons and prelates from Glasgow and the neighbouring dioceses, heard the Very Reverend Monsignor Kilpatrick, D.D., in his panegyric, speak eloquently of Father Brett's great qualities of heart and mind and of his zealous work for souls in the Archdiocese of Glasgow. May he rest in peace.

Very Reverend Peter Canon Sexton — 10th August, 1962

The diocese of Motherwell lost one of its best known priests by the death of Canon Sexton, who became seriously ill while at home on holiday and died in Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, Drogheda, on Friday, 10th August, 1962.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Michael's Church, Clifflerna, at which Mgr. Fitzpatrick, V.G., Cootehill, presided: Mgr. J. Conroy, V.G. represented the Diocese of Motherwell and, also present at the Mass, were many priests from Scotland and the diocese of Kilmore. The remains were interred in the family burial ground at Clifflerna.

The Very Rev. Peter Canon Sexton was born at Greaghmagibney, Stradone, Co. Cavan, on 4th August, 1895. He received his early education at St. Patrick's College, Cavan, and in September, 1919, he entered St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny, to begin his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained for the Archdiocese of Glasgow in St. Joseph's Convent, Kilkenny, by the Rt. Rev. James Downey, Co-adjutor Bishop of Ossory, on 11th June, 1925.

On taking up duty in Glasgow, he was appointed to the parish of St. Anne as curate to the late Father Fleming. He is still remembered by the people of St. Anne's with warmth and affection. In 1932 he was transferred to St. Patrick's, Greenock, and here he laboured for thirteen years and established himself firmly in the lives and hearts of the people. He devoted himself unsparingly to their spiritual and temporal welfare. They found in him an unflinching source of strength and comfort in all their trials, especially in the dark days of the "Blitz." The bond between priest and people was never stronger, but, as a result of his ceaseless labours, his health began to fail.

In 1945, he was appointed parish priest of St. Catherine's, Harthill. The dry, bracing air of Harthill restored him to health and he was able to carry out the arduous duties of this parish with all his former vigour. The marble altar in the Church and the parish hall are permanent reminders of his pastoral care.

In 1951, he was given charge of the new parish of St. Bernadette, Motherwell. He applied himself to the task of organisation with characteristic zeal, drive and enthusiasm. He built a temporary church and laid the foundations of this flourishing parish.

In 1959, he was made a Canon of the Cathedral Chapter. The following year he became parish priest of the important mission of St. Patrick's, Coatbridge where he proved himself a worthy successor to a long line of distinguished pastors. Although he was but a short time in Coatbridge he made a deep impression on the people. Almost his last task was the interior decoration of the Church.

The late Canon Sexton was a well known figure throughout the Western Province. He was an unforgettable character and many are the anecdotes told and retold of him, recording his saintliness and wit. His quaint and casual manner failed to disguise a deep spirituality and the people were quick to discern in him a man of prayer. He was a traditionalist by nature, relying on the old tried methods. Wherever he went, he infused new life into the Sacred Heart Sodality, and, by word and example, spread the practice of the daily Rosary and the Stations of the Cross. He allowed himself no respite in parochial visitation and never forgot a soul who had come under his charge. The school and the hospital he visited constantly. Well versed in the Sacred Scripture and endowed with a remarkable gift of expression, he expounded the truths of the gospel in a simple, effective manner that made a lasting impression on all who heard him. His obvious sincerity and kindly, sympathetic nature made approach easy. His knowledge of human nature and native sagacity made him an invaluable counsellor to all in difficulties.

Throughout his life he strove for better understanding within the whole community and was held in respect by his many non-Catholic friends. Gifted with an original sense of humour, he delighted clerical and parochial gatherings with his drolleries and "philosophizings" and he dearly enjoyed the cut and thrust of good natured banter with his brother priests. But undoubtedly his most outstanding characteristic and the one for which he will be remembered most, was his tender solicitude for the sick and dying. In the words of a former parishioner "He stayed with us in sickness."

In the presence of a crowded congregation, His Lordship, Bishop Scanlan, celebrated Pontifical Requiem Mass in St. Patrick's Church, Coatbridge, on Thursday, 16th August, 1962. There was present a large gathering of priests, many from other dioceses. People came from all the parishes in which he had served, to pay their last respects to a devoted priest and His Lordship, Bishop Scanlan, in a moving tribute, echoed the feelings of all who had known Canon Sexton, when he said "I feel that I have lost a friend." May he rest in peace.

Reverend William White — 26th August, 1962

The tragic suddenness of Father William White's death on 26th August, 1962, has left all who knew him deeply sensible of a great loss. It was the last day of his annual holiday and he was returning to his parish of St. Bridget's, Baillieston, to take up again the work to which he was so dedicated. A sudden illness interrupted his journey—an illness so serious that it required immediate hospital treatment. He was removed to Moffat Cottage Hospital. A priest was summoned to administer the last Sacraments and in a matter of hours he was dead—he had finished the work that God had given him to do.

Father William White was born in Mourn Abbey, Mallow, Co. Cork on 17th July, 1910. He received his early education in the local National School in preparation for his entry into St. Colman's College, Fermoy, in 1924. After a year in All Hallows College, Dublin, he came to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in 1930. On the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul, 1936, he was ordained priest in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by the Right Rev. Henry G. Graham, Bishop of Tipasa. It must have been an additional reason for rejoicing that his brother, Father Daniel B. White, was ordained with him on the same day. His first appointment was to St. Anne's, Whitevale Street, where his ministry quickly gave promise of the single-minded devotion which was to be the mark of all his work in the future.

After two years, in 1938, he was transferred to Our Holy Redeemer's, Clydebank. Father White was always reticent about his own achievements. This, coupled with a deep distrust of anything bordering on sentimentality, made him diffident about describing his own experiences during the big German air-raid on Clydebank. It was only by piecing together a few chance remarks and by taking notice of his actions many years afterwards that one knew that his work that night had been heroic. He grieved with the families that had been bereaved, he consoled the survivors. Some had been orphaned and these became his special interest—an interest that he maintained for years after the disastrous event.

The war was still in progress when Father White was appointed to St. Roch's, Royston Road. The warm hearted people of Garngad soon came to know him for the zealous priest he always was and his decision in 1944 to volunteer for Army Service must have come as a disappointment to many. However, it was typical of the man that he should want to serve where he was convinced he could be most useful. From 1944 to 1948 he served as a Chaplain to the Forces. In the United Kingdom, in Cairo, in Jerusalem—wherever he was stationed—his influence was far reaching. His nimble mind, his solid learning, his devotion to duty, his friendliness made a lasting impression on his fellow officers as well as on the rank and file.

When his term of service was completed he came to St. Bride's, Cambuslang. This was to be his last curacy for, in 1954, he was asked to take charge of the new parish of St. Luke's, Motherwell. There, perhaps, he will be best remembered. In a relatively short time he had welded this new community into a real parish, fired with his own drive and enthusiasm. His first concern was to provide a temporary chapel. The former garage was quickly adapted to the purpose. A year later the present Church was opened. For seven years he was the faithful servant of the parishioners of St. Luke's, an indefatigable worker who spared no effort to get to know his people thoroughly well. There was general regret among his people when in 1961 he was appointed parish priest of the important parish of St. Bridget's, Baillieston. In the short year of his stay among the people of Baillieston he accomplished much and gave promise of still more.

Father White will be remembered as a priest of the strictest self-discipline, whose forceful sermons were prepared with meticulous care. His interest in the Legion of Mary was the natural outcome of his devotion to the Mother of God. His fellow priests will remember him as a good companion, a raconteur with a seemingly inexhaustible fund of stories, a wise and prudent counsellor, always a student who found a fascination in the doctrine of the Mystical Body of Christ.

For one who lived so close to God, death may have come suddenly and unexpectedly, but surely it did not find him unprovided.

His Lordship, Bishop Scanlan, spoke appreciatively of the work of this good priest after the Pontifical Requiem Mass on 29th August, 1962. The regret that he felt at his death was that of everyone who had had the privilege of knowing him. May he rest in peace.

Reverend James McGinley — 12th October, 1962

The Rev. James McGinley died at Leeds on Friday, 12th October, 1962, in the forty-first year of his age. Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Very Reverend Patrick Canon Torley in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Maryhill, on Wednesday 17th October, 1962, and the interment took place at St. Kentigern's Cemetery, Lambhill. During the Solemn Requiem Mass, the Very Reverend Peter Canon Boland, parish priest of St. Patrick's, Anderston, preached the following panegyric.

It is my melancholy task this morning to bid fare well on your behalf, and on my own, to the mortal remains of Father James McGinley. Father McGinley was an Anderston boy. His family had had a long, generous and devoted association with St. Patrick's. As a young boy his thoughts turned to the priesthood, and as he assuredly had the required gifts of grace and nature, when the time came, he was readily accepted as a student in Blairs College. At the termination of his classical education he was sent to the Scots College in Rome, but the Second World War brought a very promising scholastic career there to an abrupt close. He came home with the other students to St. Peter's College, then at Bearsden, and was ordained in St. Andrew's Cathedral in June, 1946. His work as a priest began in St. Patrick's, Dumbarton, but it was only for a few months. His superiors decided that his undoubted talents would be of the utmost value in teaching and he was sent to St. Mary's, Blairs—to the school where he, himself, had begun his studies. Talents he certainly had; God had endowed him with an outstanding voice and an alertness of mind, a depth of understanding and a facility of expression. He was ten years in Blairs: little did he think, or did any of his friends, that this was to be, on the main, his life's work. He gave his all to that assignment: all the enthusiasm and industry at his command. His students will ever remember him as a patient teacher, a kindly priest: a cultured man, but one whose modesty in his own accomplishments almost bordered on diffidence. But how successful he was, not only in imparting the knowledge demanded by the set curriculum of studies, but also in the way he instilled in them his own love for music, for the arts, for the beautiful things of life. Those young boys, now priests, many of them present this morning, are the testimony of the regard and gratitude that he merited. Unfortunately, the strain and tension of those teaching years began to take their toll of a constitution which was never robust, and, to the regret of the professors and pupils in Blairs, it became evident that he could not continue. He came home to parochial work and it was hoped that in the new congenial and restful atmosphere of St. Mary's, Maryhill, his health would return. You, the people of Maryhill, had him with you for four years. You, also, got to know of his kindness and patience. He was renowned for his generosity of the poor. He was a refuge for every needy soul in this area. Outstanding perhaps in his work here was his success in instructing non-Catholics and many converts remain to thank him as the instrument, under God, that brought them to the happiness of Faith. However, in spite of the sympathy, consideration and care of Canon Torley and his fellow curates, he remained far from well. The hoped-for improvement in his physical condition did not materialise and it became increasingly evident that he could not cope with the cares and work that came his way.

His untimely death has left us all aghast. He was but in the prime of life, in the maturity of his priesthood. Normally, he might have looked forward to years of usefulness in his sacred calling. But we know not the designs of God and in those short fifteen years—in college and in this mission—he may have given God more goodwill, more work and more glory than many of us might give in length of years.

In the beginning, I said we are here this morning to take leave of what is mortal of Father McGinley, but we are not here to say farewell to his soul. That living link will continue. In that there is no death, Father McGinley is still with us in the great Mystical Body of Christ. He shares our claim on the treasury of that body—the superabundant merits of Christ; the additional merits of His Holy Mother and of all the Saints. He has the claim but he can no longer exercise it on his own behalf. We now can do it for him. We will pray for him. Those priests, whose professor he was, will specially pray for him. We, his colleagues and friends in the priesthood, will give him a priority in the memento at our morning Mass. You of his congregation in Maryhill will pray for him; you will remember him in the Masses you hear, in your Holy Communions, in the prayers you say. We do not know what happens beyond the veil—who needs our prayers or who do not. It is even hidden from us what our prayers can accomplish. All we know is that it is the privilege, the joy, and consolation of our Faith to do so. Is not the divine message to us that it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead. Therefore, let us pray and pray, and continue to pray for Father McGinley, and for all the faithful departed.

His Grace, the Archbishop, and the Bishop of Sita are in Rome and so cannot be here, as they certainly would have been, but they have sent us a message assuring us that their prayers and their thoughts will be with us during this Requiem Mass today. His Grace also asks me to convey his sympathy and his condolences to the brother and sister of Father McGinley in their sad bereavement. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Malcolm MacKinnon—20th November, 1962

The Rev. Malcolm MacKinnon, who died at Ault, Castlebay, on Tuesday, 20th November, 1962, was born seventy-four years ago, in Barra, on 10th July, 1889. He went to Blairs College, in 1904, to begin his studies for the priesthood and, in 1909, he went to continue these studies at Issy and at St. Sulpice in Paris. It was in Paris on 4th July, 1914, that he was ordained priest for his native diocese of Argyll and the Isles.

When he returned to Scotland he was appointed to a curacy at St. Margaret's, Kinning Park, Glasgow, where he had, as his first parish priest, Archbishop Donald A. Mackintosh, the Coadjutor Archbishop of Glasgow. His sojourn at Kinning Park was brief, however, for soon he was transferred to his native diocese to take temporary charge of St. Michael's, Eriskay, when the parish priest of that parish, the late Monsignor John MacNeill, went off, as chaplain with Lochiel's Cameron Highlanders to the battlefields of France. This temporary appointment lengthened into five strenuous years, which won for Father MacKinnon the lasting gratitude of the people of Eriskay. In 1919 his superiors placed him in charge of the larger parish of Benbecula, where he was to remain till 1924. From 1924 till 1928 he looked after the parish of Eigg and, between 1928 and 1933, he was given charge of the mainland parish of Arisaig.

The strenuous work involved in these pastoral charges took its toll of Father MacKinnon's health: since 1933 his health was uncertain and despite attempts to resume regular pastoral work at Eriskay, at Dunoon, and at Lochgelly, he had finally to go into retirement and, for the past eighteen years, he has lived at Ault, Castlebay, Barra.

These years of retirement were full of varied and useful activity. Father MacKinnon made himself an expert on the legal questions which abound in a community of crofters and fisherfolk who, while living remote from the centre of government administration, are nevertheless very dependent on governmental departments and legislation. Everyone, who stood in need of advice and guidance came to the affable, friendly and helpful priest; they came, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, from Barra and from the other isles. Father MacKinnon was always ready to help with sound advice and, often enough, when correspondence with some government official or department was necessary, he would take over that burdensome task himself.

Something of the extent of this helpful work could be gauged by the hundreds of mourners, who came, not only from Barra, but from the other isles, to be present at the funeral Mass in Our Lady, Star of the Sea Church at Castlebay, celebrated on Friday, 23rd November, 1962, and to accompany his remains to St. Brendan's Graveyard at Borve, where he lies, alongside Father John MacMillan and Father William MacKenzie, among the people he loved. May he rest in peace.

APPENDIX I.

ECCLESIASTICAL LAWS AND OBSERVANCES.

1. EASTER DUTIES AND INDULGENCES.

The Faithful of Scotland are authorised to satisfy the obligation of the Paschal Communion and to gain the Plenary Indulgence on any day from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday. (S.C.C.: 11th Oct., 1946).

2. FAST AND ABSTINENCE DAYS.

The new Code of Canon Law makes many important changes in the general law of fasting and abstinence. The Indult, however, granted in perpetuity to Scotland by the Holy See on 27th January, 1911, still continues in force. The regulations of both Code and Indult as they apply to Scotland are here summarised.

A. LAWS OF FASTING.

1. The law of fasting is binding on all between their 21st and 59th birthdays, unless they are excused by reason of health or the nature of their employment.

In all cases of doubt a confessor should be consulted.

2. On Fast days only one full meal, which may be taken either at midday or in the evening, is allowed.

In addition two light collations are permitted, one consisting of two or three ounces of food, which may include a little butter, jam or marmalade, and the other of eight to ten ounces, at which butter, cheese, eggs, or fish may be taken. Milk is allowed at either of these collations.

On Fast days which are not also days of abstinence, flesh meat and soup made from meat may be taken only at the chief meal by those bound to fast. The old law, forbidding the use of fish and flesh at the same meal, is abolished.

3. The Fast days of the year are:—

(a) The Ember days.

(b) The Vigils or Eves of Pentecost, All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, but when any of these Feasts falls on a Monday, though the Vigil is observed on the previous Saturday, it does not carry with it the obligation of fasting or abstinence.

On Christmas Eve the quantity of food permitted at the evening collation may be doubled.

(c) All the days of Lent, except Sundays, but on Holy Saturday the fast ends at midday.

4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a Fast day.

B. LAWS OF ABSTINENCE.

1. The use of flesh meat or of soup made from meat is forbidden on Abstinence days to all who have completed their 7th year.

2. The use of eggs, butter, margarine, as well as of dripping, lard, suet or other condiments made from animal fat, is allowed on all days of the year without exception.

3. The days of Abstinence are:—

(a). The Fridays throughout the year.

(b) The Ember Wednesdays.

(c) The Vigils of All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, except when any of these Vigils falls on a Saturday or Sunday.

(d) In Lent, Ash Wednesday, Ember Saturday, and (up to midday) Holy Saturday.

4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a day of Abstinence. (Approved by the Hierarchy, 11th October, 1932.)

N.B.—For the time being the above legislation is modified by an Indult, issued by the Holy See on January 28th, 1949, which reduces the number of days on which the laws of fast and abstinence must be observed in the following manner: “until provision is made otherwise, abstinence should be observed every Friday, the law of abstinence together with fast on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the Vigils of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ.”

(By a subsequent Decree of the Sacred Congregation of the Council, the fast observed on the Vigil of the Assumption has been transferred permanently to the 7th December.)

The Indult also adds a concession in the quality of food permitted: “graciously granting, nevertheless, that on days of abstinence together with fast it will everywhere be permissible to take eggs and milk products even in the morning and the evening.”

3. NEW REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE EUCHARISTIC FAST.

In a Motu Proprio, published on the 19th March, 1957, the following regulations concerning the Eucharistic Fast were promulgated:

1. The period of the Eucharistic Fast is shortened to three hours from solid food and alcoholic drinks, and one hour from non-alcoholic liquids. This regulation is to be observed both by priests, before the celebration of Mass, and by the faithful, before receiving Holy Communion, whether it be in the morning or evening. Water does not break the fast.

2. The above period for the Eucharistic Fast is to be observed even by those who celebrate Mass or receive Holy Communion at midnight or in the early hours of the morning.

3. The sick, even though not confined to bed, may take non-alcoholic liquids or genuine medicine, either liquids or solid, at any time before celebrating Mass or receiving Holy Communion.

4. MARRIAGES.

Marriage may be contracted on any day of the year. The Solemnising of Marriage, i.e., the Solemn Blessing of the Church which is given only during Mass, is forbidden from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, and from the first Sunday of Advent to Christmas Day, all dates being inclusive. Bishops, however, may for a just reason allow the Solemnising of Marriage any day during the forbidden periods, provided the laws of the Liturgy be observed. A widow, who has already received this Blessing, may not again be blessed at any subsequent marriage.

Marriage is constituted by the free consent of two parties taking one another for husband and wife. Anything interfering with the freedom of consent, in the way of serious error, grave fear and violence, may endanger the validity of the marriage bond.

The age required for valid marriage is sixteen years complete in the case of the man, fourteen years complete in that of the woman; those under twenty-one years of age should before marriage inform their parents and obtain their consent.

Marriage cannot be contracted without a Dispensation by persons within the third degree of kindred or the second degree of affinity; if attempted the marriage is invalid. Spiritual kindred contracted by Baptism, i.e., between a god-parent and a god-child, is also an invalidating impediment.

Marriage between a Catholic and an unbaptised person is invalid without a dispensation.

A "mixed" marriage (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptised, does not profess the Catholic Faith) is unlawful without a Dispensation; and the Dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions as laid down by the Council of Fort Augustus (Decr., xvii. 5): (1) That all children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptised, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. (2) That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. (3) That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place elsewhere than before the Catholic Priest. (4) That the Catholic party shall endeavour to effect the conversion of the non-Catholic party to the true faith of Christ. These promises will ordinarily be made in writing by the parties.

For parties preparing for marriage, the golden rule is: Give very early notice to the parish priest, who will furnish precise and helpful instructions as to both civil and ecclesiastical requirements. Banns have to be proclaimed on three consecutive Sundays or Holidays, and evidence of Baptism has to be furnished by both parties, even in the case of a mixed marriage. If it can be done without serious inconvenience, Catholics should be confirmed before marriage. As a general rule, the parish priest of the bride, in the case of a mixed marriage the parish priest of the Catholic party, will take charge of the marriage.

The Decree Ne temere, which became law in Scotland only on the 1st of September, 1908, made important regulations for the celebration of marriage, either between two Catholics, or between a Catholic and a non-Catholic. These regulations have been incorporated into, and somewhat modified by, the new Code of Canon Law, which came into force on the 19th May, 1918. The following points should be noted:—

I. Engagements, even when formally and solemnly contracted, afford no canonical ground for claiming a fulfilment of the promise.

II. Only those marriages are valid which are contracted before the parish priest or the Ordinary of the place, or a priest delegated by either of these, and at least two witnesses.

III. The parish priest and the Ordinary of the place validly assist at a marriage:

(a) only within the limits of their territory; within which they assist validly at marriages not only of their own subjects, but also of those not subject to them;

(b) provided that not compelled by violence or by grave fear they ask and receive the consent of the contracting parties.

IV. They assist licitly:

(a) when they have legitimately ascertained the free state of the contracting parties;

(b) when they have ascertained that one of the contracting parties has a domicile, or at least has lived for a month in the place where the marriage takes place.

V. When the parish priest or Ordinary or delegate as above (No. II.) cannot be got:

(a) in danger of death marriage may be validly and licitly contracted before two witnesses only;

(b) outside the case of danger of death, when these conditions are prudently considered as likely to last for a month, marriage may be contracted before two witnesses only.

(c) in either case, if any priest is at hand, he should be called in to assist; but his presence or absence does not effect the validity of the marriage.

VI. (a) The above laws are binding on all persons baptised in the Catholic Church, and on those who have been converted to it from heresy or schism.

(b) The same laws are binding on the same Catholics as above, if they contract marriage with non-Catholics, baptised or unbaptised, even after a Dispensation has been obtained.

(c) Non-Catholics, whether baptised or unbaptised, who contract among themselves, are nowhere bound to observe the Catholic form of marriage.

5. SICK CALLS.

All sick calls should be given in at the Priest's house at a timely hour in the morning. If this reasonable rule were adhered to, it would save the Clergy much unnecessary labour and the people many disappointments, which they may justly ascribe to their own want of system.

On Saturdays, eves of Holidays, and other days which are generally devoted to the Confessional, the priest should not, if possible, be called away from this important duty. Unless in cases of necessity, sick calls should not be made on Saturdays or Sundays, when the Clergy have so many other duties to attend to.

It is the duty of the people to conform to whatever regulations may be made by the Clergy, on these and other matters connected with Religion, in their respective congregations. All things should be done in order, according to the advice of St. Paul.

When the priest is called to attend a sick person, everything that he requires for the administration of the Sacraments should be furnished as becomingly as possible in the room where the sick person lies—viz., a table covered with a clean linen cloth on which should be laid 2 candles, a vessel of holy water with a sprinkler, a small vessel of common water for the purification of the priest's fingers after the administration of the Holy Viaticum, and a napkin for the sick person at the time of Communion. As the priest generally brings the Blessed Sacrament on these occasions, everything should be so becomingly prepared, according to their means, as to show the great respect of the inmates for Jesus Christ, and the high value they set upon the honour thus rendered to their house in the visit of their Lord and Redeemer.

While the priest is administering the Viaticum and Extreme Unction, the assistants should devoutly offer up their prayers to God on behalf of the sick person, to implore that he may receive those Sacraments with the necessary dispositions.

APPENDIX II.

INDULGENCES AND DEVOTIONS

I. INDULGENCES.

EXPLANATION OF INDULGENCES.

An indulgence is a remission of the whole, or part, of the temporal punishment that often remains to be suffered for sins which, as to their guilt and eternal punishment, have been already remitted. For the effect and validity of an Indulgence it is not only necessary that there be a competent authority in him who grants it, and a just cause or motive for the grant, but it is also necessary, on the part of him who obtains it, that he renounce and be sincerely sorry for all his sins, that he be in the state of grace, and that he duly perform the conditions prescribed. Of Indulgences, some are called plenary, which, when fully obtained, remit the whole of the temporal punishment that remained due on account of past sins; others are for a certain number of years or days, which when fully obtained, remit as much of the temporal punishment as would have been discharged by the performance of so many years or days of Canonical Penance. Thus, by a quarantine Indulgence was meant the remission of so much of the future penalty (poena) of sin as is the equivalent of keeping a Lent according to the strict discipline of the Church. Quarantines are no longer mentioned in the official collection of indulgenced prayers (Vatican Press, 1938).

Indulgences attached to sacred objects, such as rosaries, etc., are available to any person using these objects, and the Indulgences cease only when the thing is destroyed or sold.

The conditions for most Plenary Indulgences include Confession, Communion, Visit to a Church and prayers for the Pope's intentions. For an Indulgence granted for any particular day, Confessions made eight days before will suffice; Communion may be made the day before, and both Confession and Communion any day within the Octave. For Triduums, Novenas and suchlike, Confession and Communion may be made any day within the Octave after the conclusion of the exercises. For daily communicants, or for those who confess regularly twice a month, no special confession is necessary. The visit may be made to any church or oratory and may be made from noon of the preceding day to midnight of the last day of the time appointed. Prayer for the Pope's intentions should be recited vocally and not merely mentally. Jubilee Indulgences, as well as some others, have their own special conditions.

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO SCOTLAND.

1. From the Feast of St. Thomas, Apostle, 21st December, to the first Sunday after the Epiphany, inclusively.

2. From Ash-Wednesday to the second Sunday of Lent, inclusively.

3. During the time appointed in each Diocese for complying with Easter duties.
4. From Pentecost Sunday to Sunday after Corpus Christi.
5. From Sunday before the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul to the Octave Day.
6. From Sunday before the Feast of the Assumption to the Octave Day.
7. From Sunday before the Feast of All Saints to the Octave Day.
8. On the Feast of St. Andrew, and during the Octave.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING THESE INDULGENCES.

1. That within the time prescribed the faithful approach the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist.

When Confession is required as a condition for gaining an indulgence, it may be made eight days before or eight days after. The Holy Communion prescribed may be made the day before or within the eight days after. One Confession and Communion will suffice for the gaining of several Plenary Indulgences on the same day. Canon 931.

2. That on the day of their Communion they offer up some prayers to God for the happy state of the whole Church of Christ, for its Supreme Pastor the Bishop of Rome, for peace and concord between all Christian Princes; for the exaltation and propagation of the Holy Catholic Faith, especially in our own country, and for the eternal salvation of all Christians.

3. That if they have an opportunity, they visit within the limited time some church or oratory, and pray to God as has been mentioned before.

4. That, if their circumstances enable them, they perform some works of mercy.

To gain any number of times a Plenary Indulgence granted toties quoties the necessary and sufficient prayers to be said for the Pope's intention at each visit to a church are six Our Fathers, six Hail Marys, and six Glorias. (A.A.S., 1930, 363).

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO ALL THE FAITHFUL. THE INDULGENCES OF THE STATIONS.

The nature and number of the indulgences attached to the Stations of the Cross by the Holy See in the course of the centuries had become uncertain in consequence of the loss of authentic documents. The Holy See therefore has abolished all indulgences hitherto conceded and grants to all the faithful who with contrite heart make the Stations of the Cross the following indulgences:—

1. A Plenary Indulgence as often as the Stations of the Cross are made.

2. Another Plenary Indulgence if they go to Holy Communion on the same day on which they make the Stations; or if, having made the Stations ten times they go to Holy Communion within a month.

3. A Partial Indulgence of ten years for each Station they have made, if after beginning the Stations they are unable, for some reasonable cause, to complete them.

The sick, who are unable to recite a suitable ejaculation, may still gain a Plenary Indulgence by merely kissing or looking upon the crucifix specially blessed.

The sick, those travelling, and any others legitimately impeded gain the Indulgence, if while holding in their hands the crucifix specially blessed, they say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria twenty times, that is fourteen times for the fourteen Stations, five in memory of the Sacred Wounds, and once for the Pope's intention. If some reasonable cause prevents the completion of this exercise, these persons may gain a Partial Indulgence of ten years for each time they have recited an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Gloria.

PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of August all may gain a Plenary Indulgence as often as they visit a Franciscan Church or any Church enjoying the privilege of the Portiuncula, and say six Paters, six Aves, and six Glorias for the Pope's intention. The usual condition of Confession and Holy Communion is enjoined.

COMMEMORATION OF THE HOLY SOULS.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of November or on the following Sunday all may gain a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, as often as they visit a Church or public or semi-public oratory and say the prayers for the Pope's intention.

VISITING A CATHOLIC CEMETERY.

During the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, may be gained by the faithful who visit a Catholic Cemetery on the usual conditions (31st October, 1934).

THE CATECHISM INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence on any two days of each month may be gained by all who either teach or learn the catechism for the space of at least twenty minutes twice in the month. The usual conditions of Confession, Communion, visit to a church and prayer for the Pope's intention are prescribed. For every such period devoted to teaching or learning the catechism a partial indulgence of 100 days may be gained by the contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1930, 343.)

ROSARY INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence, under the usual conditions of Confession and Communion, may be gained by anyone of the faithful who devoutly recites five decades of the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament exposed for public veneration, or reserved in the tabernacle. (A.A.S., Sept., 1927.)

THE HOLY HOUR.

All who perform the pious exercise of the Holy Hour in any church, public oratory, or semi public oratory to which they have legitimate access may gain (1) a Plenary Indulgence, provided they confess their sins and receive Holy Communion and recite the usual prayers for the Pope's intentions; (2) a Partial Indulgence of ten years, if they are at least contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 171.)

THE FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION.

Whether the form of exposition is strictly Clementine or modified by the Bishop's authority, a Plenary Indulgence, once on each day, may be gained by all who visit the Blessed Sacrament during Quarant Ore and recite a Pater, Ave and Gloria five times, and one Pater, Ave and Gloria for the Pope's intention. Confession and Communion are enjoined. Alternatively, a Partial Indulgence of fifteen years is granted to the contrite of heart each time they visit a church during the Forty Hours Devotion and recite the same prayers. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 381.)

PROCESSIONS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained by all those who assist at Processions of the Blessed Sacrament, whether the processions are within or without a sacred building. Confession, Communion and prayer for the Pope's intention are enjoined. (A.A.S., 1933, p.478.)

SPIRITUAL VISITS TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Those who are legitimately prevented from making a visit in person may now gain a Partial Indulgence of five years by making a spiritual visit to the Blessed Sacrament and reciting the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and once for the Pope's intention, provided they are contrite of heart.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained once a week if, through the same impediment, the spiritual visit is made daily. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 169.)

VISITING THE ALTAR OF REPOSE.

The contrite of heart who visit the "Altar of Repose" on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday and recite the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times and once for the Pope's intention may gain a toties quoties indulgence of fifteen years. A Plenary Indulgence may be gained on each of these days if the further conditions of Confession and Communion are fulfilled. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 277.)

PARTIAL INDULGENCES: THE LITANY OF THE B. VIRGIN.

On 6th May, 1879, His Holiness granted the Apostolic Benediction, and an Indulgence of seven years on each Saturday, and on the Feasts of the Blessed Virgin, to the Faithful of England and Scotland who shall recite or sing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin in any church in either country. This Indulgence is now extended to all the faithful and may be gained each time the Litany is recited or sung (Preces et Pia opera, Vatican Press, 1938).

VISITING A CHURCH AND PRAYER FOR THE POPE'S INTENTION.

The phrase "visiting a church." means going to a church with the intention of honouring God, either in Himself or in His saints and, if no set prayer is enjoined, offering mental or vocal prayer according to each one's piety and devotion. When no other prayers are specified, the condition "prayer for the Pope's intention" is satisfied by reciting one Pater, one Ave and one Gloria. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 478.)

2. THE PENTECOST NOVENA.

For the Pentecost Novena, prescribed by Encyclical Letters of 5th May, 1895, and 9th May, 1897, the following Indulgences have been granted to those taking part in it:—(1) Ten years for each day; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on any one day of Novena, or on Pentecost, or on any day of the subsequent Octave, on the usual conditions of Confession and Communion and prayers for the Pope's intention, attendance on at least five days being necessary. (These Indulgences are attainable by those also who are legitimately impeded from attending the Public Devotions, provided the Novena be done in private and the other conditions fulfilled; the Partial Indulgence in this case is seven years.) Moreover, those who again, during the Octave of Pentecost, inclusive of Trinity Sunday, privately recite every day, according to their devotion some prayers to the Holy Ghost, may gain a Partial Indulgence of seven years for each day. All these Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory.

3. THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

For the continuance and daily increase of the abundant fruit produced by the Decree of 20th December, 1905, on Daily Communion, Our Holy Father, Pope Pius X., by a letter of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences of the 10th April, 1907, to the Bishops of the Catholic Church, has expressed his wish to have, as far as may be possible, the following annual observances:—

(a) IN CATHEDRAL CHURCHES.

That on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, either immediately after the Festival of Corpus Christi, or (if the circumstances of persons or places so require) at some other time of the year to be fixed by the Bishop, there shall be in every Cathedral Church three days' prayer, as here described: namely:—

I. That, on each day, there shall be a sermon on the great excellence of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and on the dispositions required for worthily receiving it. That, after the sermon, the Blessed Sacrament shall be exposed; and during the Exposition the prayer O most Sweet Jesus (see below), shall be recited, to be followed on the Sunday by the Te Deum. That the Tantum ergo shall then be sung, and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament be given.

II. That, on the Sunday, the last of the three days, there shall be, at the usual parochial Mass, a homily by the Parish Priest on the gospel of the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi—or, if the Sunday be not within the Octave, a sermon in preparation for a fervent Communion; and at this parochial Mass the faithful shall communicate. That, on this Sunday afternoon (or evening), there shall be the same service as on the two preceding days. And in the sermon the preacher shall exhort the faithful to more fervent piety towards the Most Holy Sacrament, and especially to a more frequent participation of this heavenly banquet, in accordance with the approved teaching of the Catechismus Romanus (see n. vi. of the Decree of 20th December, 1905). Moreover, at Benediction (as is said above), the Tantum ergo will be preceded by the Te Deum.

(b) IN PARISH CHURCHES.

His Holiness earnestly recommends that also in Parish Churches, according as each Bishop in his prudence and discernment shall judge fit, there shall be at least those pious exercises which are above described for the Cathedral Churches for the Sunday within the Octave, or some other Sunday in the year.

That the faithful may more eagerly take part in the aforesaid pious exercises, His Holiness has been pleased to grant the following Indulgences, applicable also to the souls in Purgatory:—

1. An Indulgence of ten years for each of the three days' prayer.
2. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained once during the three days, on any day thereof, by those who devoutly assist at the devotions of any one day, and after Confession and Holy Communion pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.
3. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained on the Sunday by all who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion together in a Cathedral or a Parish Church, and pray for the Holy Father's intentions.

PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

O most sweet Jesus, Who didst come into this world to enrich the souls of all mankind with the life of Thy grace, and Who, to preserve and sustain this life in them, dost daily give Thyself in the most august Sacrament of the Eucharist, as a saving medicine to heal their infirmities and a divine food to support their weakness, we pray and beseech Thee to pour forth upon them most graciously Thy holy spirit, so that, being filled therewith, any who are in mortal sin may, by returning to Thee, be restored to the life of grace which they have lost; and that those who, by Thy great mercy, already serve Thee may daily, as far as each one is able, come devoutly to Thy heavenly banquet, and in the strength thereof may find a remedy for their daily venial faults and a support of the life of Thy grace, and, thus becoming more and more cleansed from sin, may obtain the everlasting happiness of heaven. Amen.

4. THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART.

By the Encyclical Letter Miserentissimus Redemptor of Pius XI dated 8th May, 1928, it is decreed that the Act of Reparation thereto appended shall be solemnly recited in all churches throughout the world on the Feast of the Sacred Heart. The Act, together with the Litany of the Sacred Heart, is to be recited during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

ACT OF REPARATION.

O sweet Jesus, Whose overflowing charity for men is requited by so much forgetfulness, negligence and contempt, behold us prostrate before Thy altar eager to repair by a special act of homage the cruel indifference and injuries, to which Thy loving Heart is everywhere subject.

Mindful alas! that we ourselves have had a share in such great indignities, which we now deplore from the depths of our hearts, we humbly ask Thy pardon and declare our readiness to atone by voluntary expiation not only for our own personal offences, but also for the sins of those, who straying far from the path of salvation, refuse in their obstinate infidelity to follow Thee, their Shepherd and Leader, or, renouncing the vows of their baptism, have cast off the sweet yoke of Thy law.

We are now resolved to expiate each and every deplorable outrage committed against Thee; we are determined to make amends for the manifold offences against Christian modesty in unbecoming dress and behaviour, for all the foul seductions laid to ensnare the feet of the innocent, for the frequent violation of Sundays and holidays, and the shocking blasphemies uttered against Thee and Thy Saints. We wish also to make amends for the insults to which Thy Vicar on earth and Thy priests are subjected, for the profanation, by conscious neglect or terrible acts of sacrilege, of the very Sacrament of Thy divine love; and lastly, for the public crimes of nations who resist the rights and the teaching authority of the Church which Thou hast founded.

Would, O divine Jesus, we were able to wash away such abominations with our blood. We now offer, in reparation for these violations of Thy divine honour, the satisfaction Thou didst once make to Thy eternal Father on the Cross and which Thou dost continue to renew daily on our altars; we offer it in union with the acts of atonement of Thy Virgin Mother and all the Saints and of the pious faithful on earth; and we sincerely promise to make recompense, as far as we can with the help of Thy grace, for all neglect of Thy great love and for the sins we and others have committed in the past.

Henceforth we will live a life of unwavering faith, of purity of conduct, of perfect observance of the precepts of the gospel and especially that of charity. We promise to the best of our power to prevent others from offending Thee and to bring as many as possible to follow Thee.

O loving Jesus, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our model in reparation, deign to receive the voluntary offering we make of this act of expiation; and by the crowning gift of perseverance keep us faithful unto death in our duty and the allegiance we owe to Thee, so that we may all one day come to that happy home, where Thou with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

The Indulgences granted are: (1) To the faithful present in any Church or Oratory at the recital of the above Act and the Litany of the Sacred Heart during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament an Indulgence of seven years and further a Plenary Indulgence if, after Confession, they receive Holy Communion, and (2) to those who any where or at any time, even in private, recite the above Act, an Indulgence of five years, and further a Plenary Indulgence once in the month if they repeat the Act daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion. (18th March, 1932).

5. THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING.

Whereas, by the Decree of the S. Congregation of Indulgences, 22nd August, 1906, His Holiness Pope Pius X ordered that each year on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, in all Parish Churches as well as others where the feast is observed, the form of Consecration used by Pope Leo XIII. on the 25th May, 1899, should be recited during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by the Litany of the Sacred Heart, it is now enacted (S.R.C., 28th April, 1926) that (1) the observance is optional on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, but obligatory on the Feast of Christ the King, and (2) the Form to be used is the one given below. To all who with devout and contrite heart assist at this pious exercise and pray for the Pope's intentions, His Holiness grants an Indulgence of seven years, and further a Plenary Indulgence to those who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion. These Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory. Those who recite the following prayer even in private may gain (1) an Indulgence of five years; (2) a Plenary Indulgence if they repeat the prayer daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion.

FORM OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

Most sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thy altar. We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but, to be more surely united with Thee, behold each one of us freely consecrates himself to-day to Thy most Sacred Heart. Many indeed have never known Thee; many too, despising Thy precepts, have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned Thee: grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house lest they die of wretchedness and hunger. Be Thou King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions, or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbour of truth and unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd. Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry: Praise to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to It be glory and honour for ever.

Amen.

6. THE MONTH OF OCTOBER.

For the October Devotions, prescribed by Decrees of 20th August, 1885, etc., the following Indulgences have been granted:—(1) Seven years each time one joins in the public recital of the Rosary and Litany of the B. Virgin (or, being legitimately impeded, says them privately), and prays according to the intentions of the Pope; (2) a Plenary Indulgence to those who, having done this at least ten times, Confess and Communicate; (3) a Plenary Indulgence to all who, on the Feast of the Rosary or within the Octave, Confess, Communicate and pray in some church to God and the B. Virgin according to the intention of His Holiness; (4) seven years each time (during October) for the recital, after the Rosary, of the following prayer to St. Joseph enjoined by the Encyclical of 15th August, 1889; if the prayer is recited outside October a partial Indulgence of three years is granted each time and a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions when the prayer is said daily for a month.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH.

To thee, O blessed Joseph, we fly in our tribulation, and while imploring the help of thy most holy spouse, thy protection also with confidence we crave. By that affection which united thee with the Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God, and by the fatherly love with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we humbly supplicate thee to look down benignantly on the heritage which Christ Jesus purchased with His Blood, and in thy might and power to succour us in our necessities.

Defend, O most provident Guardian of the Divine Family, the chosen race of Jesus Christ; keep us, most loving father, from all taint of error and corruption; do thou from heaven, as our most powerful Protector, stand graciously by us in this conflict with the powers of darkness; and as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus in the imminent peril of His life, so now defend the Holy Church of God from hostile wiles and all adversity, and through thy never-failing patronage so shield each one of us, that, guided by thy example and supported by thy aid, we may live in holiness, piously die and attain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

DEANAMAID URNUIGH.

A Dhia, ar dion agus ar neart, seall, le bàigh air an t-sluagh a tha cur suas an achanaich riut; agus le eadarghuidhe na h-Oighe Glormhor gun smal, Moire, Màthair Dhé, agus a Cèile beannaichte Eoseiph agus nan Ostal beannaichte Peader agus Pol agus nan Naomh uile, 'èisd gu tròcaireach agus gu gràsmhor ris na h-urnuighean a tha sinn a' cur suas air son ath-thilleadh nam peacach agus air son saorsainn agus àrdachadh ar Màthar naomhe, an Eaglais. Troimh Chrìosda ar Tighearna. Amen.

A naomh Michael, Ardaingeal, dion sinn's a chath; bi na d'chul-taice dhuinn an aghaidh eucoir agus innleachdan an aibhistir. "Gu'n smachdaicheadh Dia e," tha sinn gu h'iriosal ag achanaich; agus thusa, 'Cheannaird air Feachd Fhlathanais, leis a' neart a tha agad o Dhia, tilg sìos do dh'ifrinn Sàtan, agus gach spiorad eucorach eile a tha 'siubhal an t-saoghail gu sgrios anmannan. Amen.

A Chridhe uilenaomh Iosa dean tròcair oirnn. (tri uairean).

9. THE ANGELUS.

In Catholic countries, and in many places at home, the Angelus Bell is rung in the morning, at noon, and in the evening at sunset to honour the Mystery of the Incarnation. To gain the indulgences attached to this Devotion, the Angelus must be said kneeling, except on Saturday evening, and Sunday, when it is said standing. In Paschal Time, that is, from Holy Saturday at noon till the Saturday before Trinity Sunday at noon, inclusively, the Regina Coeli is said instead of the Angelus. This prayer is always said standing. Those who do not know the Regina Coeli may gain the indulgences by saying the Angelus; but it must be said standing during Paschal Time. For the convenience of the Faithful is appended a translation of the Regina Cœli taken from the Raccolta.

Queen of Heaven, rejoice. Alleluia.

For He whom thou wast made worthy to bear.

Alleluia.

Hath risen as He said. Alleluia.

Pray for us to God. Alleluia.

✠. Rejoice and be glad, O virgin Mary. Alleluia.

R. For the Lord hath risen indeed. Alleluia.

LET US PRAY.

O God, Who through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, has vouchsafed to give joy to the whole world, grant us, we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

10. PONTIFICAL WORK FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

The Work assists by prayers and alms the Catholic Missionaries in heathen and non-Catholic countries.

Conditions of Membership.—(1) The daily recitation of Our Father and one Hail Mary, with the invocation: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us, and (2) the annual contribution of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly; (3) Special members contribute one guinea, or more, yearly; (4) Life membership subscription, £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Collector. The Collector receives the contributions of his group, circulates among them the Annals of the Work, and pays over his collection to the local Treasurer. A return of the sums received, and of their appropriation is inserted annually in the "Annals of the Propagation of the Faith." One copy of each issue of the Annals is supplied to every ten members.

Spiritual Favours.—An exceptionally large number of spiritual privileges, including Plenary and Partial Indulgences, is granted to Members. Extensive Faculties are also given to priests who direct local centres or become special members. A complete list of these privileges may be obtained from the Secretary of the Scottish Council, St. Andrew's Cathedral, Dundee, or from any of the Diocesan Officials (vid. Part v.).

11. CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

The following Indulgences were granted to the Catholic Truth Society in perpetuity by a Decree of the S. Cong. de Prop. Fide, 6th October, 1896:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence (applicable to the Souls in Purgatory) to all present and future members of the Society on the day of their joining the Society, and also on the Feasts of St. Andrew, the Apostle; St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; St. Patrick, St. Columba and St. Ninian, or on any day within the Octave of these Feasts, on condition that they visit an Oratory of the Society, or their own Parish Church, and, after confessing their sins with sincere repentance and receiving Holy Communion, pray for the Propagation of the Holy Faith and for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff.

(2) A Partial Indulgence of one hundred days every time they succeed in persuading a new member to join the Society, and every time they attend a General or Local Meeting of the Society.

By decree of the Sacred Penitentiary, 7th November, 1935, the following Indulgences were also granted to the members of the Box-Tenders' Association:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained by members on the usual conditions: (a) on any day they choose after joining the Association; (b) on the Feast of St. Francis de Sales; (c) once a month on condition that they have faithfully and regularly carried out their duty of looking after the book-case.

(2) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained at the hour of death by members who, after Confession and Holy Communion, or at least after an act of contrition, piously utter the Holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if they can do so, or at least in their hearts, and patiently accept death from the hands of God as a penalty for sin.

(3) A Partial Indulgence of three hundred days may be gained by members each and every time they arrange the pamphlets in good order and afterwards make an act of contrition, at least with a contrite heart, before the Blessed Sacrament.

12. SHORT FORM OF PROFESSION OF FAITH

To be used by permission in the Reception of Converts

I, holding in my hand God's holy gospels and enlightened by divine grace, publicly declare that I accept the Faith which is taught by the Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church. I believe that Church to be the one true Church which Jesus Christ set up here on earth; to which I make my submission with all my heart.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

I believe that seven sacraments were instituted by Jesus Christ for the salvation of mankind: Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Holy Order and Matrimony.

I believe that the Bishop of Rome is the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth, that he is the supreme visible Head of the whole Church, and that he teaches infallibly what we must believe and do for salvation.

I also believe everything which the Holy Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church defines and declares that we must believe. To her I give my whole allegiance and I reject every error and schism which she condemns.

So help me God, and these His holy gospels which I touch with my hand.

The New Holy Week Book
in English

Contains the Ordinary and Canon of the Mass and the prayers of the ceremonies for the Second Sunday of Passiontide, Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday's Easter Vigil Mass with Lauds.

ENLARGED TO INCLUDE IN ADDITION THE MASSES FOR
MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

“It is hoped that by means of a translation such as this, offered at such low cost, the faithful may be encouraged to recall and re-enact the great events of Holy Week . . . Here is a simple prayer book offered as Catholic Action. The price brings the new ceremonies within the reach of everyone.”—THE CATHOLIC TIMES.

“. . . contains all that the layman needs to know about the ceremonies of Holy Week. By means of this translation, the faithful are enabled . . . to offer, along with the priest, the official language of the Church.”

DIRECTOR: THE VERY REV. FATHER PROVINCIAL, O.F.M.
 PRESIDENT: SIR HAROLD HOOD, Bt., T.D.
 HON. TREASURER - G. H. WINDSOR, Esq.

LEPROSY CAN BE CURED

The new Sulphone drugs bring the hope of a cure to the many lepers in the world to-day. Yet thousands are receiving no treatment through lack of funds.

WILL YOU HELP IN THIS GREAT WORK?

BY BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE GUILD—Annual Subscription not less than 6/-.

BY DONATIONS—LEPER PENNY CARDS—LEPER PENNY BOXES.

BY AN ANNUAL LEPER PENNY COLLECTION made in the SCHOOLS in honour of "FATHER DAMIEN'S DAY" (May 11th).

BY A COVENANT DEED. Members who pay Income Tax at Standard Rate may increase their subscriptions without further cost to themselves, by entering into a Covenant Deed with the Guild to pay their subscriptions annually for a period of seven years. Income Tax paid on the subscription can then be reclaimed. Further details gladly sent on application.

BY REMEMBERING the St. Francis Leper Guild IN YOUR WILL.

Donations and Subscriptions will be gratefully received by the Hon. Secretary, St. Francis Leper Guild, THE REVEREND MOTHER, 20 The Boltons, London, S.W.10.

SMYLLUM PARK SCHOOL LANARK

Smyllum Park School is intended for orphans and destitute children, sent by Welfare Committees from all parts of Scotland.

Children are admitted from the age of two till the school leaving age of fifteen.

The School, situated in beautiful grounds, is divided into two sections—for boys and girls, both managed by the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul. The Primary School is under the Education Committee of the County of Lanark, and a Post Primary Course is completed at St. Mary's J.S. School, Lanark.

For pension and particulars, apply to the Sister Superior.

N.B. Owing to the impossibility of carrying on the work of the School with the funds at their disposal, the Sisters will be most grateful for help of any kind—gifts of money or clothing will be most acceptable.

WALKING WITH MARY

By FRANK DUFF

7s 6d

*Revised and enlarged edition.*Previously titled, The Spirit of the Legion of Mary.

Now enlarged, revised and improved, and issued with a new four-colour dust jacket.

"I regard the publication of these chapters as one of the most important contributions to the Catholic literature of the century . . . It would have been a tragedy if these articles had been allowed to perish . . . They are living, vital documents, brimful of zeal and confidence, treasuries of practical wisdom and great experience."

KNIGHTS OF ST. COLUMBA

The Knights of St. Columba, established in 1919, is a British Fraternal Order of men who are practising Catholics.

The Order aims at uniting Catholics; it seeks to give a practical meaning to the word "Fraternity"; it links up lonely men, introduces parish to parish, and infuses esprit de corps throughout the country. Parish Priests have a useful aid wherever there is a Council—a compact body of men, obedient to authority, well disciplined, and ready at all times for works of Catholic Action or of Charity.

The Order has a junior branch for boys of fourteen to twenty-one, known as the Squire Section, formed with the object of safeguarding our youths against the evils that everywhere surround them, and of helping them to be practical Catholics.

Priests or laymen interested in the work of the Order who would wish to become members or assist in the work of setting up a Council in their Area, are cordially invited to write for full particulars to:—

THE HOSTEL, GERALD ROAD, PENDLETON, SALFORD 6

The Members of Mater Dei Apostolate have care of the Home. Their purpose is Personal Sanctification through complete Dedication to Christ by the vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience. Their twofold aim is first the forming of centres in working class areas, living with the people, sharing their lives, and forming LAY APOSTLES to spread the Faith and the Church's Social Teaching amongst the people.

Secondly, the care of the retired and aged in Homes they found, which are completely Non-Institutional, and also the visiting of the aged in their Homes.

Those whose lives are wholly DEDICATED to CHRIST and the LAY APOSTOLATE through the Evangelical Counsels, live in the Homes or Centres, and the Lay Apostles who continue to live in the world, dedicate their lives to Christ by a special Consecration, but do not make Vows.

Specialists in Dry Rot Repairs

St. Margaret of Scotland Adoption Society

Under the patronage of the Archbishop and Bishops of the Province of Glasgow)

THE AIM OF THIS SOCIETY IS—

1. To work, through legal Adoption, for the spiritual and temporal welfare of young children in need of homes and parents, by finding for them the shelter and stability of Catholic home-life, and that truly parental love of which they have been deprived.
2. To do such rehabilitative work as may be required.
3. To bring consolation, purpose and fulfilment to Catholic couples denied the blessing of natural parenthood.

The Society is wholly dependent on the spontaneous charity of our Catholic laity. You can help in this work by Legacy, by Deed of Covenant, by Donation or by Membership.

Pontifical Work of the Propagation of the Faith

with its headquarters in Rome, under the direction of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda, is an organisation of the Faithful of every nation, not only to further the evangelisation of the heathen world by united prayer, but also to support the Missionaries in their toil by the collection of alms, and distribution to the Missions of the money offered by the faithful.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

- (1) The daily recitation of Our Father and Hail Mary, with the invocations: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us! St. Teresa, pray for us! and
- (2) The annual subscription of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly.
- (3) Special Members contribute one guinea or more yearly.
- (4) Life Members contribute a sum of not less than £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the Formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Promoter. The Promoter receives the contributions of the Group.

Cards of Membership may be obtained from the local clergy.

His Holiness Pope Pius X said: "How dear to Us is this Blessed Association for the Propagation of the Faith, the most fruitful of all Catholic good works, it is not necessary to say, its object being to assist the Church in carrying out the command received from its Divine Author: 'Go and teach all nations'."
