Prestcold

Perishable foods need safe storage and Prestcold provide it, with handsome service cabinets. Well-known for their reliability they are extremely economical, saving on space, saving on running costs.

The SC.141 Service Cabinet — capacity 14.02 cu. ft. gross — takes less than 1 sq. yard of floor space. The frozen food locker holds 35 lb. of packaged food, and makes 9 lb. of ice in one day. And you can parade 20 milk bottles on the door shelves. Rounded corners make the enamel lining easy to clean. The sealed refrigerating system is guaranteed for five years, the whole SC.141 for one year.

SECTION II.

THE HIERARCHY OF SCOTLAND

From the Extinction of the Hierarchy in 1603 till its Restoration in 1878.

1. The ancient Hierarchy ended with James Betoun, Abp. of Glasgow, who died at Paris on the 25th April, 1603, aged 79. After being subjected to the jurisdiction of the Archpriests and first Vicar-Apostolic of England till 1623, and afterwards to local Prefects of the Mission, the Clergy were incorporated into a missionary body by decree of Propaganda, 1653, and governed by the following Prefects-Apostolic: William Ballantyne (or Bellenden), 1653-61; Alexander Dunbar (or Winster), 1662-68, 1672-94; and John Walker (or Ross), 1668-71. In May, 1694, a Scottish Vicariate-Apostolic was established. This was divided into two Districts, the Lowland and the Highland, in February, 1731; and these two into three, the Eastern, Western and Northern, by Papal Rescript of 13th February, 1827. This last arrangement remained in force till the re-establishment of the Hierarchy by the Apostolic Letter, Ex Supremo Apostolatus Apice, 4th March, 1878.

ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS OF SCOTLAND

From the Restoration of the Hierarchy in 1878

The Apostolic Letter "Ex Supremo Apostolatus Apice" of Leo XIII, 4th March, 1878, divided Scotland into the Province of St. Andrews and Edinburgh (with four Suffragan Sees) and the Archdiocese of Glasgow, which was directly subject to the Holy See. By the Apostolic Constitution "Maxime Interest" of Pius XII, 25th May, 1947, and the Apostolic Constitution "Dominici Gregis" of the same date, the Archdiocese of Glasgow was erected into a Province and divided into the Metropolitan See of Glasgow with the Suffragan Sees of Motherwell and Paisley.

DIOCESE OF ARGYLL AND THE ISLES

Comprising Counties of Argyll and Inverness (south of a line drawn from the northern extremity of Loch Luing to the junction of the Counties of Inverness, Aberdeen and Banff); the Islands of Bute and Arran and the Hebrides.

The See of Argyll was founded about 1200, being disjoined from the Diocese of Dunkeld; and was vacant for more than three centuries. James Hamilton was appointed to the See on 14th July, 1553, but was probably never consecrated.

The See of the Isles (Insularum or Sodorensis) is said to have been founded about 447 by St. Patrick, who consecrated Germanus, its first Bishop; it was united to Man till the end of the 14th century; and was vacant for 325 years, from the death of Roderick Maclean in 1553 till the Restoration of the Hierarchy in 1878.

OBITUARIES—1964

Reverend Peter Murie—11th January, 1964

On the 13th January, 1964 news of Father Murie's death came to the Vicariate at Motherwell. He had died suddenly in Providence House, Worcester, U.S.A. on 11th January. To those who knew Peter Murie as a student and as a priest in the Archdiocese of Glasgow and later in the Diocese of Motherwell the announcement brought many memories. He was born at Airdrie on 27th March, 1893. His parents were both of the grand old stock of Catholic Lanarkshire. His father died at a very early age and he was reared by his mother who was a sister of the great Dan Doyle whose name was a household word in the early days of the Celtic Football Club. After spending some time at St. Mungo's Academy, Peter Murie entered Blairs College, Aberdeen in August 1907. Towards the end of his student days there and shortly before going to the College of Propaganda, Rome, his mother died. It would be true to say that he never quite recovered from this blow. Because of the early demise of both his parents he became convinced that he could not possibly be blessed either with robust health or long life. Propaganda in those days required only the strongest and after one year there Father Murie was transferred to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in the September of 1914. War had been declared the previous month and as it dragged on, gradually the student ranks became depleted. Eventually the great College of St. Peter, Bearsden, was left to continue with one professor and two students. Monsignor Henry Forbes was the professor, John Scanlon and Peter Murie were the students. All three have gone to God after great work in the priesthood and to their credit be it ever remembered that they prevented the College from being closed, and the rules and regulations were observed to the letter until the joyous return of students from the war in the early days of 1919.

Father Murie was ordained on 29th June, 1919, and from then until 1928 he was a curate at St. Michael's, Parkhead. After two years in Longriggend and four in Barrhead, Father Murie was forced to go to the south of England because of his health. In 1939 he was appointed to St. Ninian's, Knightswood, and after two years he became parish priest of St. Aloysius', Chapelhall. The eleven years which he spent in Chapelhall were in all probability the happiest of his life. He beautified the gothic church and it must stand as a lasting memorial to his excellent taste. Calderbank was part of the parish but Father Murie felt it should have a church of its own. The present parish of Corpus Christi owes its existence to his work and foresight.

In 1952 Father Murie was transferred to Mossend but he remained there only one year and his stay in Carluke, Aviemore, Moredun, Paisley, was also of short duration. In 1958 he decided to seek better health in America and he became chaplain to Providence House, Worcester, Mass. He ministered to the old people there until his sudden death on Saturday, 11th January, 1964.

Father Murie was a man of culture and his musical talent was ever at the service of the church. For many years it was taken for granted at any priest's funeral that Father Murie would preside at the organ and he was prepared to travel long distances to do so. He was a saintly man and a priest at all times. He seemed to belong to an older generation than his years warranted, and he inspired memories of Archbishops Eyre and Maguire. His great cross was that he could not come to terms with the world in which he found himself but in spite of this he accomplished much.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul at St. Columbkille's Church, Rutherglen, on Friday, 17th January, 1964. Archbishop Scanlan presided and the assembly of clergy indicated the esteem in which he was held. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. John J. Canon Scanlon—29th January, 1964

The Community in St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in the 1916-17 session numbered, as I remember, twenty-four. Of these, ten, including six new arrivals from Blairs, were Scots and the rest were Irish. The first World War was at its height. The Kitchener attestation scheme was already in operation and conscription clearly on its way. Some time in the Spring of 1917, the late Archbishop Maguire sent out a highly patriotic document which was to become known as the Recruiting Pastoral. The Exodus began shortly after Easter. By Ordination Day, in June of that year, only two Scots were left and one of these did not expect to return after the holidays. The three seniors, Frs. D. O'Flynn (R.I.P.), D. Harty and J. Fennessy were ordained at the end of June.

The remaining Irishmen were faced with a difficult decision. Understandably, with the echoes of the recently quelled rebellion still in their ears, they had less than no ambition to become British soldiers. Reluctantly, they decided they must seek their priestly fortunes elsewhere. The new session opened in September with a "Community" of two, a Scot and an Irishman. The Scot was Peter Murie (R.I.P.) and the Irishman, John J. Scanlon, the subject of this brief notice.

For reasons which will emerge shortly, it will be concerned with character rather than geography. He spent almost all his priestly life in Greenock, with brief interludes in St. Joseph's, North Woodside Road, and in Clarkston. He began in St. Mary's, Greenock and later served in St. Mungo's, St. Patrick's, which, as its first curate, he had helped Canon Kelly, the former Provost of the Glasgow Chapter, to found. His last appointment was the Chaplaincy to the Little Sisters of the Poor in the same town.

The decision to stay on in Bearsden when all the others left was a momentous one for a lad of twenty who, moreover, was always quiet, self-effacing and gentle. The gentleness concealed a will of granite, not only on this early occasion but always, to the end of his days. But the granite was always well hidden, not only by his gentleness but, and even more so, by his shining priestliness, a trait for which he will be happily remembered in all his appointments. A man of quietude, of stillness, and reserve. One hastens to add that though his good humour, too, was quiet and reserved, it was also very real and constantly gave pleasure and laughter to his companions.

But—and I falter as I write—the greatest story of Canon Scanlon's life, was, oddly enough, perhaps, the story of his death. Ten years previously, when he was a very heavy smoker indeed, he gave up the habit completely—a typical, quiet, un-fussy decision which he never revoked.

His health began to give way in the Spring of 1963. In the following August he had to give up his chaplain's duties to the Little Sisters. These were taken over—and gladly—by the priests of St. Mary's.

The last chapter was noble and saintly—and long. He did not die until the end of January 1964. It was an odyssey of daily increasing pain. Soon, he gave up his car, but for some time he was still able to have a drive in a friend's car. And then this also was impossible. He had permission to say Mass in his house. Gradually even this became harder and towards the end he was reduced to saying it seated, at a table, helped by a devoted priest-friend and two Little Sisters and his own blood sister who had come to look after him when he left St. Patrick's.

Two days after his last Mass he went thankfully to the Master, whom he had served so faithfully and long. He was buried from St. Mary's and rests in Barrhead Cemetery with his fellow priests of the diocese.

These are the bare facts—as far as they go. There are many others, most of them beyond the capacity of the present writer to formulate. His ready, quiet, smile in the teeth of great suffering. His request for a blessing from the priests who visited him. His sheer priestly heroism and sanctity, and many other things in a long litany of priestly holiness. He certainly taught the priests of that area, how a priest, could and should, die.

To say he has left a memory that will long be green would be merely to perpetrate a truism—trite and unworthy. His achievement was and remains much greater. His memory still, a year and more after his death, leaves priestly breaths, in that area and beyond, bated, in pity, edification and thankfulness for the secular priesthood.

There remain two postscripts. First, the almost life-long friendship between Canon Scanlon and his class-mate and Bishop—Bishop Black. The second is an allusion to the dedicated devotion of another priest-friend. He must here be nameless, a fact which must be regarded as regrettable. He quietly gave up his summer holiday for his friend, took him out for drives while these were still possible and thereafter assisted him at his painful Mass every morning till the last, two days before his death. The priests of Greenock surely have much to be thankful for in the memory of the life—and especially the death—of John J. Canon Scanlon. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Francis P. Taggart—20th March, 1964

The Rev. Francis P. Taggart was born at Coatbridge on 27th August, 1888. He was a pupil of the Jesuit Fathers at St. Aloysius' College, Glasgow, and, having decided to study for the secular priesthood, he went to Blairs College in 1903. Two years later, in 1905, he was sent for his higher studies to the Royal Scots College in Valladolid in Spain and, after two years there, he returned in 1907 to finish his studies at St. Peter's College, New Kilpatrick. On June 29th, 1913, he was ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. Donald A. Mackintosh, Archbishop of Chersona and Coadjutor to the Archbishop of Glasgow.

Father Taggart laboured as a curate in several parishes of the Archdiocese of Glasgow: St. Patrick's, Anderston (1913-1916); St. Luke's, Glasgow (1916-1924); All Saints, Coatdyke (1925-1932); and, in 1932, he was appointed priest-in-charge of St. Catherine's, Harthill. His health had always been somewhat unstable and, after a few months in Harthill he was compelled by ill-health to seek leave of absence from parochial duties. In 1951, he was appointed chaplain to the Carmelite Convent at Langside and, when that convent found itself in urgent need of funds for the restoration of its chapel and other buildings ravaged by dry rot, Father Taggart threw himself unremittingly into a campaign of sermons and appeals until the necessary finances were secured. The hospital of the Bon Secours Sisters in Langside was also deeply indebted to him for his fund-raising efforts on their behalf, in the course of which he preached extensively in the three dioceses of Glasgow, Motherwell and Paisley. It was the Bon Secours Sisters who nursed him in his last illness and it was at their hospital in Langside, on Friday, 20th March, 1964, that he passed to his eternal reward, in the seventy-sixth year of his age.

The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated on Monday, 23rd March, 1964, in Holy Cross Church, Glasgow, by Monsignor Samuel Kilpatrick, D.D., Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Glasgow. Archbishop James Donald Scanlan, D.C.L., B.L., presided and gave the Absolutions. Among the many clergy and people, who formed the congregation, were representatives of the city parishes where Father Taggart had laboured so ably in his earlier years. The interment took place at St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. Andrew Canon McKinley—6th April, 1964

Canon McKinley died on the 6th April, 1964, whilst attending a Funeral Mass in his former parish of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Broughty Ferry. He had gone there to pay tribute to Mrs. Mary Noel, a former parishioner and benefactor of the church in Broughty Ferry, whose family have been outstanding and understanding benefactors of the church in Angus and Fife for more than one hundred years. The Canon had suffered from a cardiac condition for some years, and only last summer he had collapsed under a severe attack whilst holidaying in Dublin. It was on that occasion that his brother, Father Charles McKinley, had sped to Ireland to be at his bedside, and had himself collapsed suddenly and fatally in his hotel.

Andrew McKinley was born in Dundee on the 15th June, 1888, and was baptised in St. Joseph's Church by Father John O'Neill on the 1st July. His parents were prominent members of St. Joseph's Parish. His father was a devoted member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and president of the parish conference for many years. He was prominent, too, in public affairs, and served as parish councillor on all of the many committees that were the forerunners of our present-day welfare system. The Canon taught in St. Joseph's School for a few years as a pupil-teacher before going to Blairs College, in 1905, at the age of seventeen, to begin studies leading to the priesthood. In 1909, he was sent to the Scots College, Rome, to study philosophy, theology, and the other branches of ecclesiastical science, at the Gregorian University. He was ordained priest in Rome on the 22nd April, 1916.

His first appointment was to Our Lady of Victories in the city of Dundee, where he served for two years. In 1918, he was transferred to St. Joseph's. There followed twelve years of fruitful pastoral ministry. In 1930, he received his first charge as parish priest of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Broughty Ferry, a parish which included St. Bride's, Monifeth. There he served a ministry of eighteen years, which was marked, and still remembered, by various embellishments of the church in Broughty Ferry; and particularly for his faithful and devoted attention to the patients of Ashludie Chest Hospital. On the death of Canon Noonan in 1948, Canon McKinley was appointed to the important parish of St. Patrick's, Dundee. He continued there the efforts of his predecessor to have a church erected in the growing housing scheme of Mid-Craigie; and he was gratified to see this project (much-delayed because of World War II) come to fruition in 1950. The Canon gave hospitality to the Servite Fathers who came on the invitation of Bishop Scanlan to serve the new parish (St. Vincent de Paul's) till they found accommodation adjacent to the new church.

Canon McKinley was well known and highly respected everywhere in his native city, in which the whole of his ministry was spent. He had a pleasing and attractive personality. He was endowed with good sense and a good head for administration. His conversation was lively and full of interest. His formal addresses and sermons, always well prepared, were noted for their clarity of expression and full of a warm-hearted humanity.

A devoted client of the Little Flower, the Canon spoke frequently of the cause of her beatification and canonisation to the guilds entrusted to his care and inspired much devotion to the saint. As the years rolled by and maturity enriched his many natural qualities, his sermons and, in particular, his "Holy Hours," attracted much attention. He was essentially a man of simple faith and his easy familiarity with the things of the spirit and the supernatural prompted ready response and imitation in his parishioners.

Throughout his long career, the Canon enjoyed the confidence of his superiors, and many responsible tasks (over and above his formal pastoral duties) were entrusted to him. He had been Diocesan Director and Treasurer of the Pontifical Aid Societies (the Propagation of the Faith), Secretary of the Diocesan Finance Board; Chairman of the Diocesan Pilgrimage Committee, and since 1946 a member of the Cathedral Chapter.

His obsequies took place in his own church, St. Patrick's, Dundee, on Wednesday, 8th April. His Lordship Bishop Hart, who presided over the Dirge the previous evening, offered Solemn Requiem Mass. Monsignor Foylan, V.G., and Canons Quinn and O'Donoghue, attended His Lordship, and Fathers Hanlon and Donnachie, sons of the parish, were deacons of the Mass. Fathers Gallagher and Campbell were Masters of Ceremonies, and the servers were adult members of the congregation. His Lordship expressed his condolences and those of the clergy to the Canon's two sisters and to the congregation of St. Patrick's. The interment was at Balgay Cemetery.

Rev. Laurence F. Breen—27th April, 1964.

The Rev. Laurence Francis Breen, parish priest of St. Quivox, Prestwick, died on the 27th April, 1964. Father Breen was born on 24th August, 1908, and, after receiving his early schooling at Holy Cross, Edinburgh, he entered St. Mary's College, Blairs. He studied in St. Sulpice, and was ordained to the priesthood on 24th June, 1933. After his ordination, Father Breen worked as a curate in St. Andrew's, Dumfries, and St. Mary's, Irvine, before being appointed parish priest of Our Lady and St. Ninian's in Newton Stewart in 1937. Next year he took over the new parish of St. Quivox, Prestwick, where he was to spend the rest of his days.

Apart from the last few years of his life, when ill health limited his activity, Father Breen was known as a most energetic person. His zeal was such that he seldom seemed to rest, and he was always seeking new ways to make his parish flourish. He found time, too, for other activities, for example, he edited the Directory of Galloway for some years, and he was one of the Religious Inspectors of Schools in that diocese. His bustling energy showed even in sport: he was an accomplished golfer, footballer and cricketer.

During the war years another burden was added to the care of his parish. Father Breen spent days, and sometimes nights too, looking after refugees who arrived at Prestwick Airport, and later he took on the onerous duties of Auxiliary Chaplain to the United States Air Force Base in Prestwick. The pressure of all the work he undertook was too much for his health; in 1961 he spent some weeks in hospital, suffering from a chronic heart condition. This affliction kept him in an unaccustomed and unwanted inactivity until his death; he bore it with wonderful patience and meekness while his zeal remained unaltered, so that on the very day of his death he discussed parochial affairs and alterations which he wanted to make in the church. His death was a fitting climax to the career of one who had spent himself for the good of souls: he died during a mission in the parish, and the Mission Father anointed him as he lay passing away. Within minutes of his death he had the prayers of his parishioners who packed the church for the Mission Service.

Requiem Mass was celebrated in the presence of Bishop McGee in the Church of St. Quivox by the curate, Father F. Gilmour Ommer, and this was followed by the Solemn Requiem, offered by Bishop McGee, who preached the panegyric, in the Good Shepherd Cathedral. He was buried among his own parishioners in the Prestwick Cemetery. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Stanislaus Eardley—6th June, 1964.

Father Eardley was born at East Calder in 1910. He went to study at Blairs College in 1926 and subsequently was sent to France, in 1930, to finish his studies for the priesthood. The first year was spent at St. Lo and this was followed by five years at Coutances with the Sulpician Fathers. His ordination to the priesthood took place in Edinburgh Cathedral in 1936. A first appointment was made to St. Patrick's, Edinburgh, where Father Eardley quickly endeared himself to young and old. His affection for young souls and his unflagging efforts on their behalf were reflected in the vigorous pattern of parochial activities. Life as a curate in a busy city parish had to come to an end sometime and Father Eardley was sent as priest in charge to Innerleithen. It was a big contrast to previous activity, but Father Eardley soon established himself as a busy worker in God's service. A more important charge awaited him in yet another environment. He went to Burntisland, which provided great scope for his priestly energy. Unfortunately his health began to cause grave concern and, with deep regret, he had to lay down his sacerdotal burden until such times as the Master would restore the failing energy. His period of sick leave over, a wise Providence directed him once again to his beloved France. There his intimate knowledge of French enabled him to shoulder the burden of pastoral ministry with an ever diminishing band of French priests, who were more than delighted to welcome an old confrère of Saint Sulpice to their midst. It was not an easy task and the stored up physical strength began to falter again. His return to an English speaking world found its rest and peace in a fruitful and much appreciated ministry to the afflicted and sorrowful. His death occurred with great suddenness at Warrenpoint on the 6th June, 1964. Monsignor James Monaghan, V.G., Father Gerard McGarry, a close friend of Father Eardley's curacy in Edinburgh, Father Thomas J. McLaughlin and Father William D. Hamilton travelled to the Requiem Mass and obsequies. An eloquent testimony to the esteem and love in which he was held was provided by the big concourse of the faithful who attended this last gesture of faith to a great priest. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. John Canon Macneil—30th July, 1964.

As the mail-boat Claymore steamed towards Oban on the morning of Thursday, 30th July, 1964, Canon Macneil of Arisaig was seen among the passengers at breakfast. He was travelling alone, returning from a short visit to his native Barra, and he appeared to be in good health and spirits. But shortly after he had disembarked, he suddenly collapsed in Oban station. He was quickly rushed to the local hospital, but nothing could be done to save him, and he died within minutes. The same boat bore his remains back to Barra when it left in the early hours of the following morning. It was a sad and lonely end to the life of a beloved priest.

John Macneil was born in Castlebay, Isle of Barra, on 19th August, 1894. His father was a merchant, his shop in the heart of a busy island. For at that time Barra was at the peak of its prosperity. Castlebay herring were famous throughout Europe both for the quantity and the quality of the fish landed there. There were no fewer than sixteen curing stations all round the harbour, employing workers from the east coast as well as from the islands. It was an ideal place for a boy to live, and he would find never a dull moment on land or in the boats which filled the bay. He used to recall in later years the activity of those days, and the characters who gathered in his father's shop; how he would hide under the counter and listen to their conversation on all topics from local gossip to international politics. He had a most retentive memory in which he seemed to store everything he had ever read or heard, so that he could not only remember it, but he could remember also where he had heard or read it, no matter how long ago. This was a gift which served him well in school, especially in the study of languages. It also helped him to adorn his conversation and his letters, in which he would so aptly apply to some contemporary situation the chance remarks made, for instance, by one of his father's customers, fifty years ago, about the Kaiser or Lloyd George, or the bons mots of his teachers.

He attended Castlebay school. The headmaster was Mr. James Smith, a native of Greenock, who during his forty years in Barra fostered several vocations to the priesthood. He entered Blairs in 1908 and, in 1913, he went to France. The old Seminary of St. Sulpice had been taken over some years previously by the anti-clerical government, and the Scots boys went to various colleges: usually they went either to Issy-les-Moulineaux or to the seminary in Rue du Regard in Paris. But at this time there were no vacancies in those colleges, and some went to Bourges, some to Angers, some to Avignon. John went to Avignon for the first two years, then to Issy in 1915, and in 1916 to Rue du Regard. They were difficult years in war-time France, but his health was good and he prosecuted his studies well. On 29th June, 1918, he was ordained in St. Sulpice by Cardinal Amette. The following day he said his first Mass in a convent in Rue Notre Dame des Champs.

He came home immediately after ordination, and a final experience of war awaited him as he crossed the Minch. The steamer in which he sailed (the famous Plover) was fired upon by a German submarine, and the panic-stricken passengers gathered round the young priest. In the emergency he gave general absolution—the first time he administered the Sacrament of Penance! His first appointment was to the Archdiocese of Glasgow because his own diocese happened to have as many priests as were required. He served for two months in St. John's, Glasgow, then was sent as curate with Father Charleson in Croy. The following year the parish of Northbay was set up as an independent parish, and Father Joseph Gillies was taken from Blairs to take charge of it. To replace him in Blairs went Father Macneil.

He was fourteen years in Blairs, and his former pupils will remember him as a just, kindly and interesting professor. In 1933, he went to his first (and only) parochial charge, in St. Mary's, Arisaig. Here he was ideally suited. Arisaig is a Catholic area now very much in decline because of depopulation. Areas where once there were many people are now deserted. Houses which once were filled with children—many of them orphans from the city who found a home among the kindly people—are quiet now. He was a quiet priest in a quiet peaceful parish. He was always at home, always available to his people. His books were his companions, and his fellow-priests knew that he was a reliable source of information on any point of theology, canon law, scripture—in fact anything to do with the church, even news of the clergy in almost any part of Scotland. Although he travelled so seldom, he was au courant with all that happened in the church. This was his only interest. He was of a somewhat timid nature, shy and unobtrusive, hating the limelight or publicity of any kind. To some he might have seemed unsociable, for apart from the immediate work of the priesthood, he would avoid at all costs being involved in anything that would mean having attention drawn to himself. He was precise to a degree, even meticulous, in all he said and did. His sermons were always short and to the point; never a word too many or too few. To the young priests of the diocese he was both an example and a friend. He was an example in the regularity of his life—everything was ordered around his Mass and Office and prayers. And it was a delight to call on him to gather ammunition from his store of wit for the battle of life. We will miss him.

As his mortal remains were laid to rest in the cemetery of St. Brendan in Barra, the bishop gathered his flock at Arisaig to console them and offer Requiem Mass for their pastor. He had been appointed Canon in 1961.

“Fois shiorruidh thoir dha, a Thighearna. Gu'n robh fhois ann an sith.”

Rev. John Francis Stuart—4th August, 1964

Father John Stuart would have been seventy-nine years of age on 3rd October, 1964. He was born in the parish of St. Mary's, Abercromby Street, in 1885. His parents came from Banffshire, from quiet and lovely Glenlivet, where the Catholic Faith had never died and the tales and memories of that enchanting glen and its steadfast people remained a constant and powerful inspiration in the life of Father Stuart. He was educated at St. Mary's Primary School and

St. Aloysius' College before entering St. Mary's College, Aberdeen, to begin his studies for the priesthood. His studies were interrupted at Issy-les-Moulineaux for a year through illness and were continued at St. Peter's College, Bearsden.

He was ordained on 29th June, 1913, and appointed to St. Mary's, Pollokshaws as curate to Canon De Backer. His apostolate of more than fifteen years there is well remembered, not only by the people of the 'Shaws, but also by the Helpers of the Holy Souls and The Marist Brothers, to whom he also gave unflinching service. His talents did not go unnoticed by his ecclesiastical superiors because, when the late Canon O'Brien failed in health, Father Stuart was sent to administer the parish of Holy Cross, Crosshill. After a brief period, he received his first appointment as parish priest, to Our Lady and St. John's, Blackwood. Times were hard in those years throughout the country, and were no easier when he was transferred to the charge of St. Mary's in Duntocher. (It is to be noted that he who had so great devotion to the Mother of God, should find his life so bound up with parishes dedicated to her honour).

On September 30th, 1932, he was transferred to Duntocher, arriving a week later than scheduled, due to a Mission in Blackwood. It was in this parish that his talents as a leader, administrator and spiritual guide were to be appreciated to the full. In those days the Clydebank area was still suffering industrial depression. Many of the men of the parish depended for employment on the shipyards, and, in particular, John Brown's: the other great centre of employment was Singer's Factory. The now-aged liner "Queen Mary" was at that time lying unfinished on the stocks. Practically all the menfolk of the district were unemployed, condemned to idleness and frustration and their families to dire poverty. The outlook seemed bleak, with no silver lining. Father Stuart had to face also a parish debt, which in those days seemed formidable. Moreover, his plans had to embrace a building project of new church and chapel house. The parish had been established in 1841. Whilst the buildings were not as yet a century old, it was a relief when a new presbytery was completed in 1935-36.

The Duntocher parish embraced, at that period, not only Duntocher, but also Old Kilpatrick, Bowling and Hardgate. The devotion of Father Stuart to the sick and old folks, particularly in the outlying areas, is something that was to stand to his credit for many a long year. His name is also very well remembered in the community of the Little Sisters of the Poor in Roystonhill (or as it was known in those days as Garngad), for he was confessor to them for a long time.

With the improvement in trade, Duntocher parish took on a new lease of life, economically and spiritually. The "Queen Mary" slipped off the stocks: other industrial concerns took on a new lease of life, and everything seemed to be set for a revival. So much so that a new presbytery was built. The parishioners of St. Mary's were wholeheartedly behind their priests in any ventures that meant improvement in parochial status. No one suspected the dramatic and tragic change that was shortly to engulf them. Father Stuart had been called to the sick bed of a relative in March, 1941. The Second World War had already been in progress for almost two years, and the Duntocher folk had, loyal as always, rallied to the cause. Quite suddenly, on the nights of the thirteenth and fourteenth of March, 1941, the entire Clydebank area was subjected to intensive attack by enemy aircraft and was devastated so thoroughly that years were to pass before any real recovery was possible. Upon hearing of the fate of his beloved flock and parish, Father Stuart returned post-haste to give what solace and comfort he could to those to whom he had become a well loved father. He found the new chapel house uninhabitable; his church wrecked; his flock scattered to Balloch, Renton, Alexandria, Gartocharn, Denny, Croy, Kirkintilloch, Balfron, Drymen and even further afield. His first concern was for the continuation of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Unfortunately, Sunday, 16th March, 1941, had to remain as a "black" day in the annals of the parish, because it was probably the one day in its history when, because of the havoc, there was not a place in which the Holy Sacrifice could be offered, or a congregation (apart from the personnel of the First Aid post) could have been present. The curates had to depend on the charity of St. Peter's College, Bearsden, for living accommodation (a fact which Father Stuart always remembered). However a retired businessman, Thomas Connolly (R.I.P.), offered the use of his house for a curate and for a temporary chapel, until the Duntocher Band Hall, owned by another respected parishioner, Thomas McColgan (R.I.P.), was made available as a Mass centre. No windows, no heating, with accommodation for about two hundred, the Holy Sacrifice was offered in these conditions until around 1954 (though later, some improvements were made in heating).

Unfortunately, all these worries had taken their toll of Father Stuart's health, and he had to retire from active service in 1946. For the next eighteen years he lived in retirement at Langside, his whole life a gallant struggle to overcome illness which often threatened to incapacitate him completely. After the Bon Secours Sisters founded their hospital in that district, in 1948, he was a familiar figure in that institution as visitor and as patient.

Requiem Mass for the eternal repose of his soul was offered in St. Mary's, Pollokshaws, and the interment took place in St. Ninian's Cemetery in the Enzie of Banffshire, among the kinsfolk that he loved and among the heroic priests and bishops of the Penal Days whom he admired and revered. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Joseph Docherty—6th August, 1964

On Thursday, 6th August, 1964, the death occurred at the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh, of Father Joseph Docherty, Chaplain to St. Mary's Boys' School, Kenmure, Bishopbriggs, a position which he had held for twenty-four years. Father Docherty was born in Glasgow on 27th August, 1879. In his youth, he was educated by the Jesuit Fathers at St. Aloysius' College, Garnethill. Later he studied under the Marist Brothers at St. Joseph's College, Dumfries. During these early years at school he determined to become a priest and, at length, in October, 1894, he went to Blairs College, Aberdeen, to study for the priesthood. Five years later, in 1900, he was transferred to St. Peter's College, New Kilpatrick, and on June 9th, 1906, he was ordained to the priesthood in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by the Most Rev. John A. Maguire, Archbishop of Glasgow. Appointed curate at St. Margaret's, Johnstone, shortly after his ordination, he remained there for two years and later, from 1908 till 1916, he was assistant priest in the Gorbals parish of St. Luke. As the unspeakable tragedy of the Great War dragged on, involving more and more of the Catholic young men of the archdiocese, the need for more Catholic Chaplains to the Forces grew steadily more urgent. Father Docherty volunteered and, during the three years 1916-1919, he shared the hardships of the soldiers. Back from the army, he spent a year at St. Patrick's, Anderston, before going to the mining village of Croy, where, for three years, he was assistant to Father John M. M. Charleson. In 1923, Father Docherty received his first appointment as priest-in-charge of a mission, the mission being the seaside town of Largs, where he laboured for ten years. During the following six years, from 1933 until 1939, he was priest-in-charge of the neighbouring mission of St. Mary's, Saltcoats. Saltcoats at that time served a large area including West Kilbride and Ardrossan. A notable feature of Father Docherty's incumbency was the building of the splendid new church of St. Peter-in-Chains at Ardrossan. Feeling the strain of advancing years, he was given charge of the more compact and less exacting parish of St. Joseph's, Glenboig, this he held from 1939 to 1940 when he went as chaplain to St. Mary's Boys' Home at Bishopbriggs. His tenure of this chaplaincy was to last for almost a quarter of a century and was marked by zealous care and punctuality. More recently, the ravages of old age were increasingly felt. For a time he lay ill in the Bon Secours Nursing Home, where his patient acceptance of suffering edified all who came in contact with him. He returned to Bishopbriggs but before long he was bedridden and went to reside at St. Anne's, Musselburgh. Towards the end he was transferred to the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh, where he had a leg amputated. It was a valiant struggle but finally the "old soldier" had to surrender and the Master, whom he had served from boyhood, called him home on 6th August, 1964. The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Bishop James Ward, V.G., in the presence of His Grace Archbishop Scanlan in St. Aloysius' Church, Springburn. Present in the church for the Requiem were priests and people from the parishes in the Province of Glasgow, where Father Docherty had spent his years as a priest. The interment took place at St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth, and there the "old soldier" awaits the final reveille. May he rest in peace.

Rev. John F. Angier—27th September, 1964.

The Rev. John Furt Angler, priest of the diocese of Argyll and the Isles, died at his home at Lochyside, near Fort William, on the 27th September, 1964, in the eighty-third year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his priesthood. With his passing, the priests of the diocese have lost a friend of whom we were all particularly fond—a lovable character, full of fun and kindly charm. From his German father and Highland mother he had inherited a mixture of those characteristics usually associated with these two races—the strict sense of duty, discipline, loyalty and independence of the one, and the humble piety of the other. His father had come to the Highlands to set up in business as a watchmaker, and had married Flora Corbett from Moss, in Moidart, a sister of Charles Corbett, the student of Valladolid, who died, in 1874, before reaching the priesthood. John was born in what was then the little village of Fort William on the 27th May, 1882. He attended the little Catholic school at Gordon Square, and in 1898, he went to Blairs. He went to Issy-les-Moulineaux in 1903, and to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in 1905. On the 29th June, 1909, he was ordained priest in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by his fellow-townsmen, the Right Rev. Angus McFarlane, Bishop of Dunkeld.

His first appointment was to Oban, to take charge of the new parish of Taynuilt which had a church but no house for the priest. The house was built about 1914, and, in 1915, Father Angler was appointed to the lonely parish of Laggan in Inverness-shire, which no longer exists. He was there for almost two years, and then for a time he was sent on loan to the diocese of Dunkeld, to serve at Lochee, Dundee. He returned to the Highlands in 1922, and served successively at Glenfinnan, Oban, Dunoon and Rothesay. But it is with Glencoe that his name will always be associated, for he was in charge of that parish from 1933 until he retired in 1960. He was greatly respected by the people, both Catholic and non-Catholic. His was a life of hardship and poverty, but he never made this an excuse for neglecting his personal appearance, or the beauty of his little church. He was admired for the attention he paid to detail in everything he did. His kindness to the sick and the bereaved was greatly appreciated, for he had the happy gift of being able to bring comfort with just a few words, spoken with obvious sincerity and simple, unquestioning faith. He delighted in the company of children, and seemed to have an endless supply of sweets tucked away in a deep pocket somewhere in the folds of his tansure coat, to be given to any child he met. He delighted also in the company of the diocesan priests, and no meeting of clergy was complete without him; his "flashes of merriment were wont to set the table on a roar." His small stature gave the impression of boyish mischief, and his forthright, outspoken manner in an argument will be remembered in anecdotes wherever the priests of the diocese gather.

In 1958 he suffered a stroke, and was partially paralysed. But by sheer determination he recovered well enough to resume full active duty. In 1959 the diocese rejoiced at his Golden Jubilee, and the following year he retired to live at "Mossfield," a little cottage at Lochyside. In 1961 a second stroke left him helpless, and he who had always been so active and independent lay bed-ridden for the next three years, tended by his devoted housekeeper.

The obsequies took place in St. Mary's, Fort William, on September 30th. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Mgr. Ewen Canon MacInnes, V.G., assisted by Rev. John Morrison of Corpach and Rev. Roderick Macdonald of Campbeltown as deacon and subdeacon. Thence the remains were borne to the lovely Isle of St. Finnan in Loch Sheil, where they were laid to rest among his maternal ancestors. Speaking in his panegyric, the Right Rev. Mgr. Duncan Provost MacLean paid tribute to Father Angler's simple, child-like piety, and to his fidelity to the duties of the priesthood in every detail. Child-like, and faithful in little things. Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Lawrence Connelly—3rd October, 1964

Priests with longer memories than the writer agreed that the funeral of Father Lawrence Connelly was one of the largest and saddest ever seen. Huge crowds of priests and people turned out to pay their last respects to a most lovable priest. Everyone had been struck numb by the suddenness of his death in the full bloom of his manhood, in the full promise of his priesthood. Thirty-four years of age seems too young to be struck down. His illness and death were sudden but, thank God, not unprovided. He was the victim of a serious heart-attack in the early hours of Sunday, the 28th of September. He was removed to Bon Secours Hospital and, after a week of prayer and the Sacraments, died on Saturday, the 3rd of October. His family and friends drew great consolation from the fact that the day was the feast of St. Theresa, his great patroness.

Father Connelly was born in Carfin on the 3rd of August, 1930—the spiritual child of Canon Thomas Taylor who then was in charge of that parish. The saintly canon was to leave his mark on a most pliable soul, for all Father Connelly's lifelong devotion to St. Theresa and St. Francis Xavier can be traced to the influence of his parish priest. He was educated at the local school and at Our Lady's Higher Grade, Motherwell, before entering Blairs College in August, 1944. After completing his training at St. Peter's College, Cardross, he was ordained by the late Archbishop Campbell in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on the 29th of June, 1954. His first appointment was as assistant at St. Bartholomew's, Coatbridge, where he spent seven very happy years. This was a new parish with many outlets for his organising ability and the meticulous attention to detail, which always characterised his life and habits. Most of the youth organisations in this parish owe their beginnings and development to Father Connelly, and the strong foundation which he gave them will guarantee a monument to himself as long as that parish lasts.

From Coatbridge he moved, in 1960, to All Saints', Coatdyke, in the neighbouring town of Airdrie. His sorrow at leaving St. Bartholomew's soon changed to love for the parish of All Saints and happiness in the company of its people, and eventually he became the rock around which the parish clung. As in Coatbridge, he was noted in Coatdyke for his devotion and attention to the house of God and especially its altar. For to act as sacristan was the joy of his heart. The only place in the church equal in his affections with the altar was his confessional. To dispense the mercy of God through the Sacrament of Penance brought Father Connelly untold happiness, and with his tenderness, understanding and patience he was a magnet that drew not only his own parishioners but those of other parishes to the Sacrament of God's mercy. There is joy before the angels of God upon one sinner doing penance, and Father Connelly shared that joy with them all his priestly life.

This is a simple recital indeed, like the salient facts in the lives of nearly all priests. It is also woefully incomplete, for the salient facts are but the skeleton of the life and personality that was Father Connelly. The flesh and blood and substance remain clearly in the memories of his friends. Always he was unassuming and humble but never ineffective; intelligent and stimulating, never overbearing or proud. Everywhere he went he left his mark; everyone he met remembered the encounter. In his relations with everyone he was generous and open-hearted to a fault. He would say that there was no need for him to leave a will as he would make sure he would have no money to leave.

Above all, he was a priest's priest. He loved his fellow-priests—their company, their welfare, their friendship was all he craved. One of the last pleasures of his life was to be instrumental in bringing about the reunion of the priests who were ordained with him to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their ordination. And nobody enjoyed the reunion more than Father Connelly. He leaves behind him a mother and family who mourn the loss of a son and brother. In the priesthood also he was a member of a large family whose members mourn and are sad at their loss, but who will ever remember him and be grateful to God for their knowledge and memories of him. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Gerald A. Harvey, Ph.D., S.T.L.—21st October, 1964

In the early hours of the morning of the 21st October, 1964, Father Gerald Harvey died in the Good Shepherd Presbytery, Glasgow, where he had been parish priest for some nine years.

He was born fifty-seven years ago in Kinning Park, and after his primary education in his local parish school he went to St. Mungo's Academy, a school which he always held in high esteem. From St. Mungo's he was sent to Blairs College to finish his humanities, and in 1926 he went to the Scots College in Rome, where he attended the various courses in the Gregorian University. He was ordained to the priesthood on the 13th November, 1932, by His Eminence Cardinal Marchetti-Selvaggiani, in the Chapel of the Lateran Seminary.

Returning to Scotland in the summer of 1933, he served as curate for varying periods in St. Anne's, in St. Joseph's, North Woodside Road, and in St. Saviour's, Govan, before being appointed in 1955 as parish priest of the Good Shepherd parish, London Road.

Father Harvey was a man of keen intellect and mental application, as his fellow students will remember both from Blairs and Rome. Here let it be said that in his time in Rome he obtained the degrees which he could obtain, but never at any time did he allow those degrees to appear after his name. His learning lost nothing by the omission.

He was a man of boundless energy. Many of his student colleagues will have reason to remember his energy on the football field. As a priest that same energy was translated into zeal for his priestly work. He had a thorough knowledge of his people both as a curate and a parish priest, and he had a gentleness of character towards them which may not have been always apparent to his fellow priests.

Among his many qualities, two in particular deserve attention. One was his most extraordinary capacity for friendship, and the other his untiring desire to help. He made friends in every walk of life, from the highest to the lowest, from every culture, from every religion, and from none. And many there are, both clerical and lay, who have had good reason to be grateful for Father Harvey's ever ready willingness to help in trouble. The words "Don't you worry: I'll see to it" always brought comfort, for the point is that he did see to it, time and time again.

For all his seemingly tireless energy, or perhaps because of it, his strong robust frame was first weakened by illness roughly four years ago. He spent many months in bed, many months in convalescence, but never regained his former health or energy. He went back to his parish and his duties, fighting against disease and weakness, at times using energy which he could ill afford. His last Sunday in life saw him at his normal duties as a priest with the children at Children's Mass. Three days later he died.

To many of his priest friends he was known as "Doucement." This word was frequently on his lips. When conversation perhaps got heated, not infrequently because of his part in it, he would bring it back to relative quiet by "Doucement, boys, doucement." Should a course of action be suggested which might not be the most prudent, his "doucement" would frequently bring common sense into play. He used the word in all shades of meaning, some peculiar to himself, but it was doucement, gently, quietly, without fuss, which characteristically described his death. May he rest in peace.

Father Harvey's remains were brought to the Church of the Good Shepherd on the evening of Thursday, 22nd October, when a Solemn Dirge was sung by his fellow priests, led by His Lordship Bishop Ward, the Vicar General of the Archdiocese. On Friday morning His Lordship celebrated the Solemn Funeral Mass, after which, in the nearby cemetery of St. Peter, Dalbeth, the interment took place. Eternal rest give unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Very Rev. Thomas B. Canon Rourke—2nd November, 1964

On November 2nd, 1964, the day dedicated by our Holy Mother Church to commemorate all the Faithful Departed, at St. Mary's Hospital, Lanark, Thomas B. Canon Rourke gave his soul back to God, and rendered an account of his stewardship to His Lord and Master. The late canon was born at Lanark on January 14th, 1887, and there at St. Mary's School received his early education under the direction of the French Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, for whom all his life long he professed a great estimation. At fifteen years of age, in September 1902, he went to Blairs College where he remained until 1905, when he was sent to the Royal Scots College at Valladolid in Spain. Here he remained for two years, returning in 1907 to St. Peter's College, New Kilpatrick. Six years later, on the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul, June 29th, 1913, he was raised to the priesthood at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, by the Most Rev. Donald A. Mackintosh, Archbishop of Chersona and Coadjutor to the See of Glasgow. After his ordination he served as curate at St. Peter's, Partick, from 1913 to 1915. He was then transferred as curate to St. Anthony's, Govan, where he remained as curate until 1920, in which year he had a breakdown in health and consequently was given the chaplaincy at the Children's Home, Langbank, where he remained until 1923. Re-established in health, in this same year, he was nominated curate at St. Patrick's, Shieldmuir, where he remained until 1930. This year brought his nomination as parish priest of St. Catherine's, Harthill, where he remained for the next two years. In 1932 he went as parish priest to St. Aloysius', Chapelhall, where he laboured for the next nine years until 1941, when he was sent to Knightswood. Here he remained for sixteen years until his retirement, due to ill health, in 1957. During his years at Knightswood, he first of all paid off a large debt which existed on the parish. He planned and began, with the blessing of his ecclesiastical superiors, the fine, new and beautiful church of St. Ninian's. When he retired, he left behind him no debt, but a substantial sum for his successor to continue and end the work which he began. Recognising his ability and his tremendous and unstinting spirit of hard work for the welfare of his parish in particular, and the archdiocese in general, Archbishop Campbell made him a canon of the Cathedral Chapter in 1948.

One of the things which stand out and impress one in his life was his extraordinary spirit of hard work and sacrifice. He knew all his parishioners and was a constant visitor to their homes. He was always ready, in a spirit of true priestly charity, to listen to all his children, and try to give all the spiritual or temporal aid necessary. The cares and worries of the building of the new church, coupled with the intense zeal of his pastoral cares, undermined his health and so bowing his head to the will of God, as manifested by his ecclesiastical superiors, for whom he always had a filial and reverent respect, he retired from active parochial work in 1957. The last seven years of his life were spent in retirement at St. Mary's Hospital, Lanark, under the French Sisters of Charity who taught him in his childhood, and near to the good Vincentian Fathers whom he so deeply appreciated and loved. In 1963 he celebrated the Golden Jubilee of his priesthood. He gave quietly and generously to the Foreign Missions, and only God and the recipients know how generous he was. Here at Lanark where he was born seventy-seven years before, God called him home. His body was taken to St. Ninian's, Knightswood on the evening of November 4th, and on the following morning at 11 a.m. Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass was sung for the repose of his soul by the Auxiliary Bishop of Glasgow, the Right Rev. James Ward, Bishop of Sita. The Chancellor of the Archdiocese, Mgr. Kilpatrick, the Vicar Capitular of Motherwell, Mgr. Conroy, the Vicar General of Paisley, Mgr. Magauran and Mgr. Gutauskas, assisted in the sanctuary. Members of the Glasgow, Motherwell and Paisley Chapters also assisted, as well as a very large number of the secular clergy. There were also representatives of the Vincentian Fathers, Jesuit Fathers and White Fathers. A choir of priests alternating with the clergy sang the Mass. Before the Absolution his Lordship pronounced the panegyric, in which he outlined Canon Rourke's whole life from his boyhood until death, his years at Blairs and Valladolid, and the years of his priestly work in the archdiocese. He pointed out that the late Canon Rourke was always distinguished for hard work and a spirit of loyalty and obedience to his ecclesiastical superiors. He asked the large congregation present always to remember their dead pastor in their prayers, and especially when they visited the Cemetery of St. Kentigern's where so many of their own dead awaited the Resurrection. A number of priests accompanied the body to the cemetery. The parish priest of St. Ninian's, Fr. Noon, officiated at the graveside, and here in the Priests' Plot he was laid to rest. May God grant him eternal rest and peace. Amen.

APPENDIX I.

ECCLESIASTICAL LAWS AND OBSERVANCES.

1. EASTER DUTIES AND INDULGENCES.

The Faithful of Scotland are authorised to satisfy the obligation of the Paschal Communion and to gain the Plenary Indulgence on any day from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday. (S.C.C.: 11th Oct., 1946).

2. FAST AND ABSTINENCE DAYS.

The new Code of Canon Law makes many important changes in the general law of fasting and abstinence. The Indult, however, granted in perpetuity to Scotland by the Holy See on 27th January, 1911, still continues in force. The regulations of both Code and Indult as they apply to Scotland are here summarised.

A. LAWS OF FASTING.

1. The law of fasting is binding on all between their 21st and 59th birthdays, unless they are excused by reason of health or the nature of their employment.

In all cases of doubt a confessor should be consulted.

2. On Fast days only one full meal, which may be taken either at midday or in the evening, is allowed.

In addition two light collations are permitted, one consisting of two or three ounces of food, which may include a little butter, jam or marmalade, and the other of eight to ten ounces, at which butter, cheese, eggs, or fish may be taken. Milk is allowed at either of these collations.

On Fast days which are not also days of abstinence, flesh meat and soup made from meat may be taken only at the chief meal by those bound to fast. The old law, forbidding the use of fish and flesh at the same meal, is abolished.

3. The Fast days of the year are:—

- (a) The Ember days.
- (b) The Vigils or Eves of Pentecost, All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, but when any of these Feasts falls on a Monday, though the Vigil is observed on the previous Saturday, it does not carry with it the obligation of fasting or abstinence.

On Christmas Eve the quantity of food permitted at the evening collation may be doubled.

- (c) All the days of Lent, except Sundays, but on Holy Saturday the fast ends at midday.
4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a Fast day

B. LAWS OF ABSTINENCE.

1. The use of flesh meat or of soup made from meat is forbidden on Abstinence days to all who have completed their 7th year.

2. The use of eggs, butter, margarine, as well as of dripping, lard, suet or other condiments made from animal fat, is allowed on all days of the year without exception.

3. The days of Abstinence are:—

- (a). The Fridays throughout the year.
- (b) The Ember Wednesdays.
- (c) The Vigils of All Saints, the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, except when any of these Vigils falls on a Saturday or Sunday.
- (d) In Lent, Ash Wednesday, Ember Saturday, and (up to midday) Holy Saturday.

4. Except in Lent, a Holiday of Obligation is never a day of Abstinence. (Approved by the Hierarchy, 11th October, 1932.)

N.B.—For the time being the above legislation is modified by an Indult, issued by the Holy See on January 28th, 1949, which reduces the number of days on which the laws of fast and abstinence must be observed in the following manner: "until provision is made otherwise, abstinence should be observed every Friday, the law of abstinence together with fast on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the Vigils of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ."

(By a subsequent Decree of the Sacred Congregation of the Council, the fast observed on the Vigil of the Assumption has been transferred permanently to the 7th December.)

The Indult also adds a concession in the quality of food permitted: "graciously granting, nevertheless, that on days of abstinence together with fast it will everywhere be permissible to take eggs and milk products even in the morning and the evening."

3. NEW REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE EUCCHARISTIC FAST.

In a Motu Proprio, published on the 19th March, 1957, the following regulations concerning the Eucharistic Fast were promulgated:

1. The period of the Eucharistic Fast is shortened to three hours from solid food and alcoholic drinks, and one hour from non-alcoholic liquids. This regulation is to be observed both by priests, before the celebration of Mass, and by the faithful, before receiving Holy Communion, whether it be in the morning or evening. Water does not break the fast.

2. The above period for the Eucharistic Fast is to be observed even by those who celebrate Mass or receive Holy Communion at midnight or in the early hours of the morning.

3. The sick, even though not confined to bed, may take non-alcoholic liquids or genuine medicine, either liquids or solid, at any time before celebrating Mass or receiving Holy Communion.

4. MARRIAGES.

Marriage may be contracted on any day of the year. The Solemnising of Marriage, i.e., the Solemn Blessing of the Church which is given only during Mass, is forbidden from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, and from the first Sunday of Advent to Christmas Day, all dates being inclusive. Bishops, however, may for a just reason allow the Solemnising of Marriage any day during the forbidden periods, provided the laws of the Liturgy be observed. A widow, who has already received this Blessing, may not again be blessed at any subsequent marriage.

Marriage is constituted by the free consent of two parties taking one another for husband and wife. Anything interfering with the freedom of consent, in the way of serious error, grave fear and violence, may endanger the validity of the marriage bond.

The age required for valid marriage is sixteen years complete in the case of the man, fourteen years complete in that of the woman; those under twenty-one years of age should before marriage inform their parents and obtain their consent.

Marriage cannot be contracted without a Dispensation by persons within the third degree of kindred or the second degree of affinity;

if attempted the marriage is invalid. Spiritual kindred contracted by Baptism, i.e., between a god-parent and a god-child, is also an invalidating impediment.

Marriage between a Catholic and an unbaptised person is invalid without a dispensation.

A "mixed" marriage (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptised, does not profess the Catholic Faith) is unlawful without a Dispensation; and the Dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions as laid down by the Council of Fort Augustus (Decr., xvii. 5): (1) That all children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptised, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. (2) That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. (3) That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place elsewhere than before the Catholic Priest. (4) That the Catholic party shall endeavour to effect the conversion of the non-Catholic party to the true faith of Christ. These promises will ordinarily be made in writing by the parties.

For parties preparing for marriage, the golden rule is: Give very early notice to the parish priest, who will furnish precise and helpful instructions as to both civil and ecclesiastical requirements. Banns have to be proclaimed on three consecutive Sundays or Holidays, and evidence of Baptism has to be furnished by both parties, even in the case of a mixed marriage. If it can be done without serious inconvenience, Catholics should be confirmed before marriage. As a general rule, the parish priest of the bride, in the case of a mixed marriage the parish priest of the Catholic party, will take charge of the marriage.

The Decree Ne temere, which became law in Scotland only on the 1st of September, 1908, made important regulations for the celebration of marriage, either between two Catholics, or between a Catholic and a non-Catholic. These regulations have been incorporated into, and somewhat modified by, the new Code of Canon Law, which came into force on the 19th May, 1918. The following points should be noted:—

I. Engagements, even when formally and solemnly contracted, afford no canonical ground for claiming a fulfilment of the promise.

II. Only those marriages are valid which are contracted before the parish priest or the Ordinary of the place, or a priest delegated by either of these, and at least two witnesses.

III. The parish priest and the Ordinary of the place validly assist at a marriage:

(a) only within the limits of their territory; within which they assist validly at marriages not only of their own subjects, but also of those not subject to them;

(b) provided that not compelled by violence or by grave fear they ask and receive the consent of the contracting parties.

IV. They assist licitly:

(a) when they have legitimately ascertained the free state of the contracting parties;

(b) when they have ascertained that one of the contracting parties has a domicile, or at least has lived for a month in the place where the marriage takes place.

V. When the parish priest or Ordinary or delegate as above (No. II.) cannot be got:

(a) in danger of death marriage may be validly and licitly contracted before two witnesses only;

(b) outside the case of danger of death, when these conditions are prudently considered as likely to last for a month, marriage may be contracted before two witnesses only.

(c) in either case, if any priest is at hand, he should be called in to assist; but his presence or absence does not effect the validity of the marriage.

VI. (a) The above laws are binding on all persons baptised in the Catholic Church, and on those who have been converted to it from heresy or schism.

(b) The same laws are binding on the same Catholics as above, if they contract marriage with non-Catholics, baptised or unbaptised, even after a Dispensation has been obtained.

(c) Non-Catholics, whether baptised or unbaptised, who contract among themselves, are nowhere bound to observe the Catholic form of marriage.

5. SICK CALLS.

All sick calls should be given in at the Priest's house at a timely hour in the morning. If this reasonable rule were adhered to, it would save the Clergy much unnecessary labour and the people many disappointments, which they may justly ascribe to their own want of system.

On Saturdays, eves of Holidays, and other days which are generally devoted to the Confessional, the priest should not, if possible, be called away from this important duty. Unless in cases of necessity, sick calls should not be made on Saturdays or Sundays, when the Clergy have so many other duties to attend to.

It is the duty of the people to conform to whatever regulations may be made by the Clergy, on these and other matters connected with Religion, in their respective congregations. All things should be done in order, according to the advice of St. Paul.

When the priest is called to attend a sick person, everything that he requires for the administration of the Sacraments should be furnished as becomingly as possible in the room where the sick person lies—viz., a table covered with a clean linen cloth on which should be laid 2 candles, a vessel of holy water with a sprinkler, a small vessel of common water for the purification of the priest's fingers after the administration of the Holy Viaticum, and a napkin for the sick person at the time of Communion. As the priest generally brings the Blessed Sacrament on these occasions, everything should be so becomingly prepared, according to their means, as to show the great respect of the inmates for Jesus Christ, and the high value they set upon the honour thus rendered to their house in the visit of their Lord and Redeemer.

While the priest is administering the Viaticum and Extreme Unction, the assistants should devoutly offer up their prayers to God on behalf of the sick person, to implore that he may receive those Sacraments with the necessary dispositions.

APPENDIX II.

INDULGENCES AND DEVOTIONS

1. INDULGENCES.

EXPLANATION OF INDULGENCES.

An indulgence is a remission of the whole, or part, of the temporal punishment that often remains to be suffered for sins which, as to their guilt and eternal punishment, have been already remitted. For the effect and validity of an Indulgence it is not only necessary that there be a competent authority in him who grants it, and a just cause or motive for the grant, but it is also necessary, on the part of him who obtains it, that he renounce and be sincerely sorry for all his sins, that he be in the state of grace, and that he duly perform the conditions prescribed. Of Indulgences, some are called plenary, which, when fully obtained, remit the whole of the temporal punishment that remained due on account of past sins; others are for a certain number of years or days, which when fully obtained, remit as much of the temporal punishment as would have been discharged by the performance of so many years or days of Canonical Penance. Thus, by a quarantine Indulgence was meant the remission of so much of the future penalty (poena) of sin as is the equivalent of keeping a Lent according to the strict discipline of the Church. Quarantines are no longer mentioned in the official collection of indulgenced prayers (Vatican Press, 1938).

Indulgences attached to sacred objects, such as rosaries, etc., are available to any person using these objects, and the Indulgences cease only when the thing is destroyed or sold.

The conditions for most Plenary Indulgences include Confession, Communion, Visit to a Church and prayers for the Pope's intentions. For an Indulgence granted for any particular day, Confessions made eight days before will suffice; Communion may be made the day before, and both Confession and Communion any day within the Octave. For Triduums, Novenas and suchlike, Confession and Communion may be made any day within the Octave after the conclusion of the exercises. For daily communicants, or for those who confess regularly twice a month, no special confession is necessary. The visit may be made to any church or oratory and may be made from noon of the preceding day to midnight of the last day of the time appointed. Prayer for the Pope's intentions should be recited vocally and not merely mentally. Jubilee Indulgences, as well as some others, have their own special conditions.

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO SCOTLAND.

1. From the Feast of St. Thomas, Apostle, 21st December, to the first Sunday after the Epiphany, inclusively.
2. From Ash-Wednesday to the second Sunday of Lent, inclusively.
3. During the time appointed in each Diocese for complying with Easter duties.
4. From Pentecost Sunday to Sunday after Corpus Christi.
5. From Sunday before the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul to the Octave Day.
6. From Sunday before the Feast of the Assumption to the Octave Day.
7. From Sunday before the Feast of All Saints to the Octave Day.
8. On the Feast of St. Andrew, and during the Octave.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING THESE INDULGENCES.

1. That within the time prescribed the faithful approach the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist.

When Confession is required as a condition for gaining an indulgence, it may be made eight days before or eight days after. The Holy Communion prescribed may be made the day before or within the eight days after. One Confession and Communion will suffice for the gaining of several Plenary Indulgences on the same day. Canon 931.

2. That on the day of their Communion they offer up some prayers to God for the happy state of the whole Church of Christ, for its Supreme Pastor the Bishop of Rome, for peace and concord between all Christian Princes; for the exaltation and propagation of the Holy Catholic Faith, especially in our own country, and for the eternal salvation of all Christians.

3. That if they have an opportunity, they visit within the limited time some church or oratory, and pray to God as has been mentioned before.

4. That, if their circumstances enable them, they perform some works of mercy.

To gain any number of times a Plenary Indulgence granted toties quoties the necessary and sufficient prayers to be said for the Pope's intention at each visit to a church are six Our Fathers, six Hail Marys, and six Glorias. (A.A.S., 1930, 363).

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO ALL THE FAITHFUL.

THE INDULGENCES OF THE STATIONS.

The nature and number of the indulgences attached to the Stations of the Cross by the Holy See in the course of the centuries had become uncertain in consequence of the loss of authentic documents. The Holy See therefore has abolished all indulgences hitherto conceded and grants to all the faithful who with contrite heart make the Stations of the Cross the following indulgences:—

1. A Plenary Indulgence as often as the Stations of the Cross are made.
2. Another Plenary Indulgence if they go to Holy Communion on the same day on which they make the Stations; or if, having made the Stations ten times they go to Holy Communion within a month.
3. A Partial Indulgence of ten years for each Station they have made, if after beginning the Stations they are unable, for some reasonable cause, to complete them.

The sick, who are unable to recite a suitable ejaculation, may still gain a Plenary Indulgence by merely kissing or looking upon the crucifix specially blessed.

The sick, those travelling, and any others legitimately impeded gain the Indulgence, if while holding in their hands the crucifix specially blessed, they say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria twenty times, that is fourteen times for the fourteen Stations, five in memory of the Sacred Wounds, and once for the Pope's intention. If some reasonable cause prevents the completion of this exercise, these persons may gain a Partial Indulgence of ten years for each time they have recited an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Gloria.

PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of August all may gain a Plenary Indulgence as often as they visit a Franciscan Church or any Church enjoying the privilege of the Portiuncula, and say six Paters, six Aves, and six Glorias for the Pope's intention. The usual condition of Confession and Holy Communion is enjoined.

COMMEMORATION OF THE HOLY SOULS.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of November or on the following Sunday all may gain a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, as often as they visit a Church or public or semi-public oratory and say the prayers for the Pope's intention.

VISITING A CATHOLIC CEMETERY.

During the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, may be gained by the faithful who visit a Catholic Cemetery on the usual conditions (31st October, 1934).

THE CATECHISM INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence on any two days of each month may be gained by all who either teach or learn the catechism for the space of at least twenty minutes twice in the month. The usual conditions of Confession, Communion, visit to a church and prayer for the Pope's intention are prescribed. For every such period devoted to teaching or learning the catechism a partial indulgence of 100 days may be gained by the contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1930, 343.)

ROSARY INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence, under the usual conditions of Confession and Communion, may be gained by anyone of the faithful who devoutly recites five decades of the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament exposed for public veneration, or reserved in the tabernacle. (A.A.S., Sept., 1927.)

THE HOLY HOUR.

All who perform the pious exercise of the Holy Hour in any church, public oratory, or semi public oratory to which they have legitimate access may gain (1) a Plenary Indulgence, provided they confess their sins and receive Holy Communion and recite the usual prayers for the Pope's intentions; (2) a Partial Indulgence of ten years, if they are at least contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 171.)

THE FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION.

Whether the form of exposition is strictly Clementine or modified by the Bishop's authority, a Plenary Indulgence, once on each day, may be gained by all who visit the Blessed Sacrament during Quarant Ore and recite a Pater, Ave and Gloria five times, and one Pater, Ave and Gloria for the Pope's intention. Confession and Communion are enjoined. Alternatively, a Partial Indulgence of fifteen years is granted to the contrite of heart each time they visit a church during the Forty Hours Devotion and recite the same prayers. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 381.)

PROCESSIONS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained by all those who assist at Processions of the Blessed Sacrament, whether the processions are within or without a sacred building. Confession, Communion and prayer for the Pope's intention are enjoined. (A.A.S., 1933, p.478.)

SPIRITUAL VISITS TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Those who are legitimately prevented from making a visit in person may now gain a Partial Indulgence of five years by making a spiritual visit to the Blessed Sacrament and reciting the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and once for the Pope's intention, provided they are contrite of heart.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained once a week if, through the same impediment, the spiritual visit is made daily. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 169.)

VISITING THE ALTAR OF REPOSE.

The contrite of heart who visit the "Altar of Repose" on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday and recite the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times and once for the Pope's intention may gain a toties quoties indulgence of fifteen years. A Plenary Indulgence may be gained on each of these days if the further conditions of Confession and Communion are fulfilled. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 277.)

PARTIAL INDULGENCES: THE LITANY OF THE B. VIRGIN.

On 6th May, 1879, His Holiness granted the Apostolic Benediction, and an Indulgence of seven years on each Saturday, and on the Feasts of the Blessed Virgin, to the Faithful of England and Scotland who shall recite or sing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin in any church in either country. This Indulgence is now extended to all the faithful and may be gained each time the Litany is recited or sung (Preces et Pia opera, Vatican Press, 1938).

VISITING A CHURCH AND PRAYER FOR THE POPE'S INTENTION.

The phrase "visiting a church," means going to a church with the intention of honouring God, either in Himself or in His saints and, if no set prayer is enjoined, offering mental or vocal prayer according to each one's piety and devotion. When no other prayers are specified, the condition "prayer for the Pope's intention" is satisfied by reciting one Pater, one Ave and one Gloria. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 478.)

2. THE PENTECOST NOVENA.

For the Pentecost Novena, prescribed by Encyclical Letters of 5th May, 1895, and 9th May, 1897, the following Indulgences have been granted to those taking part in it:—(1) Ten years for each day; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on any one day of Novena, or on Pentecost, or on any day of the subsequent Octave, on the usual conditions of Confession and Communion and prayers for the Pope's intention, attendance on at least five days being necessary. (These Indulgences are attainable by those also who are legitimately impeded from attending the Public Devotions, provided the Novena be done in private and the other conditions fulfilled; the Partial Indulgence in this case is seven years.) Moreover, those who again, during the Octave of Pentecost, inclusive of Trinity Sunday, privately recite every day, according to their devotion, some prayers to the Holy Ghost, may gain a Partial Indulgence of seven years for each day. All these Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory.

3. THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

For the continuance and daily increase of the abundant fruit produced by the Decree of 20th December, 1905, on Daily Communion, Our Holy Father, Pope Pius X., by a letter of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences of the 10th April, 1907, to the Bishops of the Catholic Church, has expressed his wish to have, as far as may be possible, the following annual observances:—

(a) IN CATHEDRAL CHURCHES.

That on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, either immediately after the Festival of Corpus Christi, or (if the circumstances of persons or places so require) at some other time of the year to be fixed by the Bishop, there shall be in every Cathedral Church three days' prayer, as here described: namely:—

1. That, on each day, there shall be a sermon on the great excellence of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and on the dispositions required for worthily receiving it. That, after the sermon, the Blessed Sacrament shall be exposed; and during the Exposition the prayer O most Sweet Jesus (see below) shall be recited, to be followed on the Sunday by the Te Deum. That the Tantum ergo shall then be sung, and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament be given.

II. That, on the Sunday, the last of the three days, there shall be, at the usual parochial Mass, a homily by the Parish Priest on the gospel of the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi—or, if the Sunday be not within the Octave, a sermon in preparation for a fervent Communion; and at this parochial Mass the faithful shall communicate. That, on this Sunday afternoon (or evening), there shall be the same service as on the two preceding days. And in the sermon the preacher shall exhort the faithful to more fervent piety towards the Most Holy Sacrament, and especially to a more frequent participation of this heavenly banquet, in accordance with the approved teaching of the Catechismus Romanus (see n. vi. of the Decree of 20th December, 1905). Moreover, at Benediction (as is said above), the Tantum ergo will be preceded by the Te Deum.

(b) IN PARISH CHURCHES.

His Holiness earnestly recommends that also in Parish Churches, according as each Bishop in his prudence and discernment shall judge fit, there shall be at least those pious exercises which are above described for the Cathedral Churches for the Sunday within the Octave, or some other Sunday in the year.

That the faithful may more eagerly take part in the aforesaid pious exercises, His Holiness has been pleased to grant the following Indulgences, applicable also to the souls in Purgatory:—

1. An Indulgence of ten years for each of the three days' prayer.
2. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained once during the three days, on any day thereof, by those who devoutly assist at the devotions of any one day, and after Confession and Holy Communion pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.
3. A Plenary Indulgence to be gained on the Sunday by all who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion together in a Cathedral or a Parish Church, and pray for the Holy Father's intentions.

PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

O most sweet Jesus, Who didst come into this world to enrich the souls of all mankind with the life of Thy grace, and Who, to preserve and sustain this life in them, dost daily give Thyself in the most august Sacrament of the Eucharist, as a saving medicine to heal their infirmities and a divine food to support their weakness, we pray and beseech Thee to pour forth upon them most graciously Thy holy spirit, so that, being filled therewith, any who are in mortal sin may, by returning to Thee, be restored to the life of grace which they have lost; and that those who, by Thy great mercy, already serve Thee may daily, as far as each one is able, come devoutly to Thy heavenly banquet, and in the strength thereof may find a remedy for their daily venial faults and a support of the life of Thy grace, and, thus becoming more and more cleansed from sin, may obtain the everlasting happiness of heaven. Amen.

4. THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART.

By the Encyclical Letter Miserentissimus Redemptor of Pius XI dated 8th May, 1928, it is decreed that the Act of Reparation thereto appended shall be solemnly recited in all churches throughout the world on the Feast of the Sacred Heart. The Act, together with the Litany of the Sacred Heart, is to be recited during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

ACT OF REPARATION.

O sweet Jesus, Whose overflowing charity for men is requited by so much forgetfulness, negligence and contempt, behold us prostrate before Thy altar eager to repair by a special act of homage the cruel indifference and injuries, to which Thy loving Heart is everywhere subject.

Mindful alas! that we ourselves have had a share in such great indignities, which we now deplore from the depths of our hearts, we humbly ask Thy pardon and declare our readiness to atone by voluntary expiation not only for our own personal offences, but also for the sins of those, who straying far from the path of salvation, refuse in their obstinate infidelity to follow Thee, their Shepherd and Leader, or, renouncing the vows of their baptism, have cast off the sweet yoke of Thy law.

We are now resolved to expiate each and every deplorable outrage committed against Thee; we are determined to make amends for the manifold offences against Christian modesty in unbecoming dress and behaviour, for all the foul seductions laid to ensnare the feet of the innocent, for the frequent violation of Sundays and holidays, and the shocking blasphemies uttered against Thee and Thy Saints. We wish also to make amends for the insults to which Thy Vicar on earth and Thy priests are subjected, for the profanation, by conscious neglect or terrible acts of sacrilege, of the very Sacrament of Thy divine love; and lastly, for the public crimes of nations who resist the rights and the teaching authority of the Church which Thou hast founded.

Would, O divine Jesus, we were able to wash away such abominations with our blood. We now offer, in reparation for these violations of Thy divine honour, the satisfaction Thou didst once make to Thy eternal Father on the Cross and which Thou dost continue to renew daily on our altars; we offer it in union with the acts of atonement of Thy Virgin Mother and all the Saints and of the pious faithful on earth; and we sincerely promise to make recompense, as far as we can with the help of Thy grace, for all neglect of Thy great love and for the sins we and others have committed in the past.

Henceforth we will live a life of unwavering faith, of purity of conduct, of perfect observance of the precepts of the gospel and especially that of charity. We promise to the best of our power to prevent others from offending Thee and to bring as many as possible to follow Thee.

O loving Jesus, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our model in reparation, deign to receive the voluntary offering we make of this act of expiation; and by the crowning gift of perseverance keep us faithful unto death in our duty and the allegiance we owe to Thee, so that we may all one day come to that happy home, where Thou with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

The Indulgences granted are: (1) To the faithful present in any Church or Oratory at the recital of the above Act and the Litany of the Sacred Heart during Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament an Indulgence of seven years and further a Plenary Indulgence if, after Confession, they receive Holy Communion, and (2) to those who any where or at any time, even in private, recite the above Act, an Indulgence of five years, and further a Plenary Indulgence once in the month if they repeat the Act daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion. (18th March, 1932).

5. THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING.

Whereas, by the Decree of the S. Congregation of Indulgences, 22nd August, 1906, His Holiness Pope Pius X ordered that each year on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, in all Parish Churches as well as others where the feast is observed, the form of Consecration used by Pope Leo XIII. on the 25th May, 1899, should be recited during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by the Litany of the Sacred Heart, it is now enacted (S.R.C., 28th April, 1926) that (1) the observance is optional on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, but obligatory on the Feast of Christ the King, and (2) the Form to be used is the one given below. To all who with devout and contrite heart assist at this pious exercise and pray for the Pope's intentions, His Holiness grants an Indulgence of seven years, and further a Plenary Indulgence to those who, after Confession, receive Holy Communion. These Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory. Those who recite the following prayer even in private may gain (1) an Indulgence of five years; (2) a Plenary Indulgence if they repeat the prayer daily during the month, visit a Church or Oratory, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion.

FORM OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

Most sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thy altar. We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but, to be more surely united with Thee, behold each one of us freely consecrates himself to-day to Thy most Sacred Heart. Many indeed have never known Thee; many too, despising Thy precepts, have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned Thee: grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house lest they die of wretchedness and hunger. Be Thou King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions, or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbour of truth and unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd. Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry: Praise to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to It be glory and honour for ever.

Amen.

6. THE MONTH OF OCTOBER.

For the October Devotions, prescribed by Decrees of 20th August, 1885, etc., the following Indulgences have been granted:—(1) Seven years each time one joins in the public recital of the Rosary and Litany of the B. Virgin (or, being legitimately impeded, says them privately), and prays according to the intentions of the Pope; (2) a Plenary Indulgence to those who, having done this at least ten times, Confess and Communicate; (3) a Plenary Indulgence to all who, on the Feast of the Rosary or within the Octave, Confess, Communicate and pray in some church to God and the B. Virgin according to the intention of His Holiness; (4) seven years each time (during October) for the recital, after the Rosary, of the following prayer to St. Joseph enjoined by the Encyclical of 15th August, 1889; if the prayer is recited outside October a partial Indulgence of three years is granted each time and a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions when the prayer is said daily for a month.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH.

To thee, O blessed Joseph, we fly in our tribulation, and while imploring the help of thy most holy spouse, thy protection also with confidence we crave. By that affection which united thee with the Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God, and by the fatherly love with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we humbly supplicate thee to look down benignantly on the heritage which Christ Jesus purchased with His Blood, and in thy might and power to succour us in our necessities.

Defend, O most provident Guardian of the Divine Family, the chosen race of Jesus Christ; keep us, most loving father, from all taint of error and corruption; do thou from heaven, as our most powerful Protector, stand graciously by us in this conflict with the powers of darkness; and as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus in the imminent peril of His life, so now defend the Holy Church of God from hostile wiles and all adversity, and through thy never-failing patronage so shield each one of us, that, guided by thy example and supported by thy aid, we may live in holiness, piously die and attain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

7. CONSECRATION OF FAMILIES TO THE SACRED HEART.

BY MEANS OF THE ENTHRONEMENT.

It is the earnest desire of the Holy See that all Christian families should be consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and that a statue or image of Him be set up in a prominent place in each house, so that Christ may be enthroned as ruler in the home. All families should be consecrated separately, not in groups. The priest blesses the image, and recites the Act of Consecration. When a priest cannot be had, the image, which should be previously blessed, will be set in its place by the head of the family or other lay person, who also will recite the Act of Consecration. The Indulgences granted to each member of the family are: (1) Seven years and on the day of consecration; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the day of consecration; (3) three years on the annual renewal of the consecration; (4) a Plenary Indulgence on the usual conditions on the annual renewal. The form of consecration, which alone is valid for the effect of the Indulgences (S.P.A.: 1st March, 1918: A.A.S., x, p. 154) is the following:

ACT OF CONSECRATION.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, who didst manifest to Blessed Margaret Mary the desire of reigning in Christian families, we to-day wish to proclaim Thy most complete regal dominion over our own. We would live in future with Thy life, we would cause to flourish in our midst those virtues to which Thou hast promised peace here below, we would banish far from us the spirit of the world which Thou hast cursed; and Thou shall reign over our minds in the simplicity of our faith, and over our hearts by the whole-hearted love with which they shall burn for Thee, the flame of which we shall keep alive by the frequent reception of Thy Divine Eucharist.

Deign, O Divine Heart, to preside over our assemblings, to bless our enterprises, both spiritual and temporal, to dispel our cares, to sanctify our joys, to alleviate our sufferings. If ever one or other of us should have the misfortune to afflict Thee, remind him, Heart of Jesus, that Thou art good and merciful to the penitent sinner. And when the hour of separation strikes, when death shall come to cast mourning into our midst, we will all, both those who go and those who stay, be submissive to Thy eternal decrees. We will console ourselves with the thought that a day will come when the entire family, reunited in Heaven, can sing for ever Thy glories and Thy mercies.

May the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and the glorious Patriarch St. Joseph, present this consecration to Thee, and keep it in our minds all the days of our life.

All glory to the Heart of Jesus our King and our Father.

8. PRAYERS AFTER LOW MASS.

Pope Pius XI. has ordered that these prayers be said for Russia. A Partial Indulgence of ten years is attached to their recitation in addition to the Indulgence of seven years granted for the triple invocation of the Sacred Heart. (A.A.S., 1934, p. 312).

To be said kneeling. Hail Mary, three times.

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy; Hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To Thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to Thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, Thine eyes of mercy towards us; and after this our exile, show unto us the Blessed Fruit of Thy womb, Jesus; O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

1. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

2. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

LET US PRAY.

O God, our refuge and our strength, look with favour on Thy people who cry to Thee; and through the intercession of the Glorious and Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and St. Joseph her Spouse, of Thy Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and of all the Saints, mercifully and graciously hear the prayers which we pour forth for the conversion of sinners, and for the freedom and exaltation of our Holy Mother the Church. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel defend us in the day of battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil:—“the Lord command him,” we humbly pray;—and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other wicked spirits who go about the world for the destruction of souls. Amen.

To the above prayers may be added the following invocation said three times:—

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

(Indulgence of seven years).

URNUIGH AN DEIDH NA H-AIFRINNE.

Am Beannachadh Moire tri uairean.

Fàilte dhut a Bhan-rìgh, etc.

R. Guidh air ar son a Mhàthair naomh Dhé.

F. Los gu'n toill sinn gealladh Chrìosda.

DEANAMAID URNUIGH.

A Dhia, ar dìon agus ar neart, seall, le bàigh air an t-sluagh a tha cur suas an achanaich riut; agus le eadarghuidhe na h-Oighe Glormhor gun smal, Moire, Màthair Dhé, agus a Céile beannaichte Eoseiph agus nan Ostal beannaichte Peader agus Pòl agus nan Naomh uile, 'èisd gu tròcaireach agus gu gràsmhor ris na h-urnuighean a tha sinn a' cur suas air son ath-thilleadh nam peacach agus air son saorsainn agus àrdachadh ar Màthar naomhe, an Eaglais. Troimh Chrìosda ar Tighearna. Amen.

A naomh Michael, Ardaingeal, dìon sinn's a chath; bi na d'chul-taice dhuinn an aghaidh eucoir agus innleachdan an aibhistir. “Gu'n smachdaicheadh Dia e,” tha sinn gu h'iriosal ag achanaich; agus thusa, 'Cheannaird air Feachd Fhlathanais, leis a' neart a tha agad o Dhia, tilg sìos do dh'ifrinn Sàtan, agus gach spiorad eucorach eile a tha 'siubhal an t-saoghail gu sgrios anmannan. Amen.

A Chridhe uilenaomh Iosa dean tròcair oirn. (tri uairean).

9. THE ANGELUS.

In Catholic countries, and in many places at home, the Angelus Bell is rung in the morning, at noon, and in the evening at sunset to honour the Mystery of the Incarnation. To gain the indulgences attached to this Devotion, the Angelus must be said kneeling, except on Saturday evening, and Sunday, when it is said standing. In Paschal Time, that is, from Holy Saturday at noon till the Saturday before Trinity Sunday at noon, inclusively, the Regina Coeli is said instead of the Angelus. This prayer is always said standing. Those who do not know the Regina Coeli may gain the indulgences by saying the Angelus; but it must be said standing during Paschal Time. For the convenience of the Faithful is appended a translation of the Regina Coeli taken from the Raccolta.

Queen of Heaven, rejoice. Alleluia.

For He whom thou wast made worthy to bear.
Alleluia.

Hath risen as He said. Alleluia.

Pray for us to God. Alleluia.

✠. Rejoice and be glad, O virgin Mary. Alleluia.

℣. For the Lord hath risen indeed. Alleluia.

LET US PRAY.

O God, Who through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, has vouchsafed to give joy to the whole world, grant us, we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

10. PONTIFICAL WORK FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

The Work assists by prayers and alms the Catholic Missionaries in heathen and non-Catholic countries.

Conditions of Membership.—(1) The daily recitation of Our Father and one Hail Mary, with the invocation: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us, and (2) the annual contribution of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly; (3) Special members contribute one guinea, or more, yearly; (4) Life membership subscription, £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Collector. The Collector receives the contributions of his group, circulates among them the Annals of the Work, and pays over his collection to the local Treasurer. A return of the sums received, and of their appropriation is inserted annually in the "Annals of the Propagation of the Faith." One copy of each issue of the Annals is supplied to every ten members.

Spiritual Favours.—An exceptionally large number of spiritual privileges, including Plenary and Partial Indulgences, is granted to Members. Extensive Faculties are also given to priests who direct local centres or become special members. A complete list of these privileges may be obtained from the Secretary of the Scottish Council, St. Andrew's Cathedral, Dundee, or from any of the Diocesan Officials (vid. Part v.).

11. CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

The following Indulgences were granted to the Catholic Truth Society in perpetuity by a Decree of the S. Cong. de Prop. Fide, 6th October, 1896:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence (applicable to the Souls in Purgatory) to all present and future members of the Society on the day of their joining the Society, and also on the Feasts of St. Andrew, the Apostle; St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; St. Patrick, St. Columba and St. Ninian, or on any day within the Octave of these Feasts, on condition that they visit an Oratory of the Society, or their own Parish Church, and, after confessing their sins with sincere repentance and receiving Holy Communion, pray for the Propagation of the Holy Faith and for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff.

(2) A Partial Indulgence of one hundred days every time they succeed in persuading a new member to join the Society, and every time they attend a General or Local Meeting of the Society.

By decree of the Sacred Penitentiary, 7th November, 1935, the following Indulgences were also granted to the members of the Box-Tenders' Association:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained by members on the usual conditions: (a) on any day they choose after joining the Association; (b) on the Feast of St. Francis de Sales; (c) once a month on condition that they have faithfully and regularly carried out their duty of looking after the book-case.

(2) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained at the hour of death by members who, after Confession and Holy Communion, or at least after an act of contrition, piously utter the Holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if they can do so, or at least in their hearts, and patiently accept death from the hands of God as a penalty for sin.

(3) A Partial Indulgence of three hundred days may be gained by members each and every time they arrange the pamphlets in good order and afterwards make an act of contrition, at least with a contrite heart, before the Blessed Sacrament.

12. SHORT FORM OF PROFESSION OF FAITH

To be used by permission in the Reception of Converts

I ....., holding in my hand God's holy gospels and enlightened by divine grace, publicly declare that I accept the Faith which is taught by the Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church. I believe that Church to be the one true Church which Jesus Christ set up here on earth; to which I make my submission with all my heart.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

I believe that seven sacraments were instituted by Jesus Christ for the salvation of mankind: Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Holy Order and Matrimony.

I believe that the Bishop of Rome is the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth, that he is the supreme visible Head of the whole Church, and that he teaches infallibly what we must believe and do for salvation.

I also believe everything which the Holy Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church defines and declares that we must believe. To her I give my whole allegiance and I reject every error and schism which she condemns.

So help me God, and these His holy gospels which I touch with my hand.

Catholic Family Newspaper

- ★ More and more Scots Catholics are discovering the usefulness of the "Scottish Universe and Catholic Times."
- * The rise in sales in all parts of Scotland is striking.
- * 'The Universe and Catholic Times' made history last year when it inaugurated the new printing process known as web-offset, which provided a clearer type, more sharply defined pictures and a high-class quality of colour.

Make a point of ordering your copy of the "Scottish Universe and Catholic Times." Should you have any difficulty, drop a postcard to the Circulation Manager.

ST. FRANCIS LEPER GUILD

DIRECTOR: THE VERY REV. FATHER PROVINCIAL, O.F.M.

PRESIDENT: SIR HAROLD HOOD, Bt.

HON. TREASURER - G. H. WINDSOR, Esq.

LEPROSY CAN BE CURED

Founded in 1895, the St. Francis Leper Guild has as its aim to collect alms for the assistance of Missionary priests and nuns in their work for lepers throughout the world.

After the first General Meeting in 1897, a sum of £60 was divided among four leper colonies. Since then £241,900 has been sent to assist lepers, regardless of nationality or creed, throughout the world. In 1963, £30,660 12s. 8d. was collected and distributed among 95 leper colonies representing 31 countries.

WILL YOU HELP IN THIS GREAT WORK?

BY BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE GUILD—Annual Subscription not less than 5/-.

BY DONATIONS—LEPER PENNY CARDS—LEPER PENNY BOXES.

BY AN ANNUAL LEPER PENNY COLLECTION made in the SCHOOLS in honour of "FATHER DAMIEN'S DAY" (May 11th).

BY DEED OF COVENANT.

BY REMEMBERING the St. Francis Leper Guild IN YOUR WILL.

Donations and Subscriptions will be gratefully received by the Hon. Secretary, St. Francis Leper Guild, THE REVEREND MOTHER, 20 The Boltons, London, S.W.10.

SMYLLUM PARK SCHOOL LANARK

Smyllum Park School is intended for orphans and destitute children, sent by Welfare Committees from all parts of Scotland.

Children are admitted from the age of two till the school leaving age of fifteen.

The School, situated in beautiful grounds, is divided into two sections—for boys and girls, both managed by the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul. The Primary School is under the Education Committee of the County of Lanark, and a Post Primary Course is completed at St. Mary's J.S. School, Lanark.

For pension and particulars, apply to the Sister Superior.

N.B. Owing to the impossibility of carrying on the work of the School with the funds at their disposal, the Sisters will be most grateful for help of any kind—gifts of money or clothing will be most acceptable.

MARY SHALL REIGN - - - - 7s 6d

By FRANK DUFF

Revised and enlarged edition.

“ . . . Few, if any, present-day writers have succeeded in communicating their devotion to the Mother of God as Frank Duff has done. It is himself, his life, his very being. It is firmly doctrinal, impressively informed, perfectly comprehensible and tenderly human.”

—Fr. Ripley's Foreword.

WALKING WITH MARY - - - - 7s 6d

By FRANK DUFF

*Revised and enlarged edition.*Previously titled, The Spirit of the Legion of Mary.

Now enlarged, revised and improved, and issued with a new four-colour dust jacket.

“ I regard the publication of these chapters as one of the most important contributions to the Catholic literature of the century . . . It would have been a tragedy if these articles had been allowed to perish . . . They are living, vital documents, brimful of zeal and confidence, treasuries of practical wisdom and great experience.”

What's different about the NEW BENDIX ?

It's the only washing machine
you've ever really wanted

The new Bendix is for people who want the finest washing machine money can buy. It is not a cheap machine; it has no gimmicks. But it combines the outstanding features of modern washing and drying machine development with precision engineering and intelligent design.

THE NEW BENDIX DOES THE WHOLE WASH—ALL ON ITS OWN!

Push-Button Versatility. It works to any programme you choose.

It's Fully Mobile—no bolting down.

Plumbing Optional—can work off the taps.

Water Rationer means you wash anything from a single shirt to a full load—economically.

AUTOMATICALLY . . .

It Washes. 1. Fills with water. 2. Heats to temperature you choose. 3. Soaks. 4. Washes.

It Rinses. Four good rinses in clean, warm water.

It Spins after each rinse.

It Spins Dry at the end of each wash programme and switches off.

It Tumble-Dries ironing dry or fully dry, as you wish; then tumble-cools and switches off.
