SECTION II.

THE HIERARCHY OF SCOTLAND

From the Extinction of the Hierarchy in 1603 till its Restoration in 1878.

1. The ancient Hierarchy ended with James Betoun, Abp. of Glasgow, who died at Paris on the 25th April, 1603, aged 79. After being subjected to the jurisdiction of the Archpriests and first Vicar-Apostolic of England till 1623, and afterwards to local Prefects of the Mission, the Clergy were incorporated into a missionary body by decree of Propaganda, 1653, and governed by the following Prefects-Apostolic: William Ballantyne (or Bellenden), 1653-61; Alexander Dunbar (or Winster), 1662-68, 1672-94; and John Walker (or Ross), 1668-71. In May, 1694, a Scottish Vicariate-Apostolic was established. This was divided into two Districts, the Lowland and the Highland, in February, 1731; and these two into three, the Eastern, Western and Northern, by Papal Rescript of 13th February, 1827. This last arrangement remained in force till the re-establishment of the Hierarchy by the Apostolic Letter, Ex Supremo Apostolatus Apice, 4th March, 1878.

BAUCHI PROVINCE, NORTHERN NIGERIA.

This Province was officially adopted by the Archdiocese in 1964. It is part of the Diocese of Jos. The population is about two and a quarter million of whom about a million are Mohammedans. There are at present about three thousand Catholics and at least a million pagans who are the immediate potential for conversion to Catholicism. The Archdiocese is now responsible for the staffing and financing of the Church in this area. It is as big, if not a little bigger than the whole of Scotland. At present, there are four parishes.

DIOCESE OF ARGYLL AND THE ISLES

Comprising Counties of Argyll and Inverness (south of a line drawn from the northern extremity of Loch Luing to the junction of the Counties of Inverness, Aberdeen and Banff); the Islands of Bute and Arran and the Hebrides.

The See of Argyll was founded about 1200, being disjoined from the Diocese of Dunkeld; and was vacant for more than three centuries. James Hamilton was appointed to the See on 14th July, 1553, but was probably never consecrated.

The See of the Isles (Insularum or Sodorensis) is said to have been founded about 447 by St. Patrick, who consecrated Germanus, its first Bishop; it was united to Man till the end of the 14th century; and was vacant for 325 years, from the death of Roderick Maclean in 1553 till the Restoration of the Hierarchy in 1878.

SECTION III.

OBITUARIES — 1964-1965

Rev. Patrick Wycherley — 31st December, 1964

Rev. Patrick Wycherley was born in Rosscarbery, Co. Cork, and after his early education in Ireland, proceeded to St. Mary's College, Blairs, and thence to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in preparation for the priesthood. He was ordained priest by Archbishop Mackintosh in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow, on 29th June, 1929.

His first appointment was to Our Lady and St. Margaret's, Kinning Park. He was later transferred to St. Aloysius', Springburn, and then to St. Columba's, Glasgow. In each of these parishes he won deep admiration and affection from the people for his personal holiness, his devotion to the daily tasks of the priesthood, the administration of the Sacraments, the preaching of the word of God, instruction of the children in the schools, his constant visitation of the people in their homes, and his care for the sick at home and in hospital. After eighteen years of pastoral work he was called to the specialised duties of preparing students for the priesthood, and for eight years he taught philosophy with distinction in St. Peter's College, Darleith. His teaching was not only in the lecture hall. It was even more in the example of his daily life, his regularity, his life of prayer, his wisdom and his shrewd judgment. A measure of the esteem in which he was held may be seen in the fact that many priests returned to him after ordination for advice and help in their priestly work.

In 1955, he was appointed parish priest of St. Anthony's, Govan, and he found great joy in being again engaged in the direct pastoral life of a priest, just as the people of Govan found great consolation in his ministrations. In 1960, he was appointed to succeed a great and holy priest, Bishop Graham, as parish priest of Holy Cross, Glasgow, a task not lightly to be undertaken. He accepted the honour and the burden with modesty. He perpetuated the memory of his great predecessor in the beautiful sanctuary of the church, continued the great traditions of the parish in the liturgy and life of the church, and had the consolation of having the church consecrated during his pastorate. His care for the youth and for the social aspect of the church's work was shown in the building of the new parochial hall.

In the wider field of diocesan administration his superiors found in him a wise counsellor. He was a member of the Archdiocesan Finance Board, a trustee of the archdiocese, and vice-officialis of the Archdiocesan Matrimonial Tribunal. In the educational sphere his cares extended beyond the schools in the parish, in which he took great interest and pride, to the welfare of the unfortunate, and his work for the Approved Schools and for St. Charles' Hospital, Carstairs, showed him to be wise and sympathetic and full of charity for the young.

In his latter years he suffered considerably from a heart condition, which at times caused him great pain. This was patiently borne and often hidden from his friends. He died suddenly on 31st December, 1964, to the great sorrow of his parishioners and his fellow-priests. His obsequies in Holy Cross Church were attended by a vast concourse of prelates, priests and people. Solemn Pontifical Mass was celebrated by His Grace Archbishop Scanlan of Glasgow. Bishop Black of Paisley was present in the sanctuary, and Bishop Ward, V.G. preached the panegyric in which he outlined the work of Father Wycherley and stressed the deep virtue which was the inspiration of all his zeal for souls. The Requiem Mass over, the long cortege proceeded through lines of sorrowful children of Holy Cross and Holyrood Schools to St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth, where Father Wycherley was buried. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Thomas McGhie — 13th January, 1965

The death of Father Thomas McGhie on 13th January, 1965, came as no surprise to his many friends who had watched with sadness the steady deterioration in his health over a period of several months. We mourned the end of a dedicated life and the loss of a companion who had given himself so unreservedly to the work of the priesthood.

Father McGhie was born in Hamilton on 10th January, 1904. After his early schooling in St. Mary's, he proceeded to St. Mungo's Academy, then to St. Mary's, Blairs, and finally to St. Peter's College, Bearsden. He was ordained priest on 24th June, 1930, by the Most Rev. Donald Mackintosh, Archbishop of Glasgow.

His first appointment was to St. Martin's, Renton. There he set the pattern of his life which was to be repeated in the parishes of the Immaculate Conception, Maryhill, and St. Columbkille's, Rutherglen. Always he showed mature judgment and a quiet effectiveness which became still more apparent in the final years of his life.

In 1950 it was decided to open a new parish in the Townhead district of Coatbridge. Father McGhie was the priest chosen for the task and he wasted no time and spared none of his impatient energy to provide his newly-housed people with a centre for Catholic worship. It was typical of him that, in spite of building restrictions, he was able to open the present church only three years after his appointment to St. Bartholomew's.

Most priests who had met and overcome such a challenge would have been happy to leave any further development to a more distant future. Father McGhie, however, was a man of strong convictions and he was convinced that the parish was incomplete without a parochial hall. He lived long enough to see his plan realised. To-day, a fine suite of halls besides a pleasing and devotional church are monuments to his zeal.

There was nothing very complex about the character of Father McGhie and yet he was in many ways unique. He possessed a store of courage and determination which was not easily matched. When it was obvious to all that he was a dying man, he was still busying himself with the affairs of the parish. For many years he had been a religious inspector of schools: he continued as such almost to the end.

A man of action and a man of deep faith. Often in the silence of the night, when he thought himself unobserved, he would retire to the darkened church to speak with the Master whom he served so loyally. We who lived with him and we who worked with him will remember him as a deeply committed priest of God. His vigorous commonsense was always at the service of others.

At the Solemn Requiem Mass celebrated by Archbishop Scanlan, the good people of St. Bartholomew's heard their devoted pastor described as "a man without guile" and as such we feel, he appeared before the throne of the God whom he loved and served. May he rest in peace.

Rev. John Hamill — 13th January, 1965

Father John Hamill died in his fifty-fourth year, in semi-retirement in the south of England. Though his active life in the archdiocese was brief, his work is still remembered after a quarter of a century by the old parishioners of St. Saviour's, Govan.

John Hamill was born in Ayrshire in 1912. After completing his secondary education at St. Mungo's Academy, Townhead, he went to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in 1931. He was ordained priest in St. Andrew's Cathedral, on 29th June, 1938, by Archbishop Mackintosh.

His first appointment was to St. Saviour's, Govan, but his work there was cut short, after three years, by ill health. Short appointments to St. Joseph's, Glenboig, and St. John's, Barrhead, followed but in each case, he was forced to relinquish his duties after a short time.

He retired to the south of England, and thenceforth his priestly work, when his health allowed, was the less strenuous work of a convent chaplaincy. He died on Wednesday, 13th January, 1965. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Anthony Kelly—13th February, 1965

In these more spacious days of rising standards, when what once were luxuries are now considered necessities—even by the clergy—it is sometimes forgotten that our heritage of the Faith owes much to the sacrifice of our forbears, both clergy and layfolk. Father Anthony Kelly was one of that group of strong, manly priests who struggled in one-priest missions to preserve the Faith and keep a church as worthy as possible for Mass. It seems a far cry now (and strange to modern ears, tuned to the doctrine of the welfare state) to the days of his first parish at Innerleithen, when each year some of his fellow priests met to help him with his essential bills and give him something for a holiday. To some priests it is given to build churches and presbyteries. Father Kelly's life task was to patch and mend and make do. After ordination on the 14th June, 1930, he spent three years as curate to Monsignor Miley at St. Ninian's, Restalrig, before going to Innerleithen, his first parish, in December, 1933. In 1934, he was posted to Larbert; in December, 1942, to Rosewell, and in December, 1952, to Dalkeith. His natural sensibility for what is becoming in a church of God is evidenced in his maintenance, particularly of Rosewell and Dalkeith churches. His chief concern was, as it must be in a priest, with people.

The life that Father Kelly set out for himself is only possible if two things are present. One, a deep love of Our Lord. Two, no friends except priest friends. The two intermingled in his life.

As far as his parishioners were concerned, he was obviously conscious of being a Father. This was sensed at Mass, in the confessional, and perhaps most of all in the pulpit. Few priests delivered such little gems of instruction and homilies. They were the result of long thought and preparation, founded in wide reading, especially of French spiritual writers, for he had studied his theology with the Sulpicians at Coutances. Monday saw the start of next Sunday's sermon. It was always a cause of disappointment to his fellow priests that he could not be persuaded to preach anywhere except in his own church. He was so genuinely humble that he really thought his words could have no value worth bothering about. If he left no new monument of bricks and mortar, his influence is fixed in the hearts of those over whom he took such care and pains.

Being human, a priest needs companionship. And he loved company—just to sit by humbly and see that everyone was happy. But much as he loved company, he never fully relaxed except in the company of his fellow priests and his own immediate family. To be a success a priest must be prepared to accept this measure of loneliness—a Father to all parishioners and the intimate of none. Father Kelly deliberately trained himself to this from the beginning.

He had a quiet dignity, quite free from affectation. In his own life he was exact almost to the point of scrupulosity. With a wide experience of life and of people, he was yet simple and generous in dealing with people.

These qualities were a tremendous asset when appointed as church representative on Midlothian Education Committee, where his counsel was heeded by all. The great educational task he set himself was to raise St. David's School to the status of a full senior secondary, and to house the whole in a new modern building. He achieved the former and managed to transfer the pupils into more commodious premises, but did not live to see the modern new building. Once again, as so often was his lot in life, he painfully but generously did the spade-work for others to reap the harvest. May his great heart have found its rest in the embrace of his Master.

Rev. Anthony Redmond Gallagher—17th February, 1965

Father Anthony R. Gallagher, who had been ill for some time, died on Wednesday, 17th February, 1965, at Newton-Stewart, Co. Tyrone, where he was born fifty-five years ago.

Born on 30th January, 1910, Anthony Gallagher studied for the priesthood at St. Columba's, Derry, and at All Hallows, Dublin. He was ordained priest on 25th June, 1933, and came, that year, to Scotland to take up pastoral work in the Archdiocese of St. Andrews and Edinburgh. A temporary appointment at St. Margaret's, Dunfermline, was followed by three years as curate in St. Agatha's, Methil, and, in 1936, he was appointed parish priest of St. Bride's, Cowdenbeath. Three years later, in 1939, he was given the task of establishing the new parish of St. Margaret Mary's, Granton. That task accomplished, he became, in 1943, parish priest of St. Patrick's, Lochgelly, and during his pastoral charge there, he was responsible for the building of the new church, which was opened in 1953, one of the first post-war churches to be opened in the Archdiocese of St. Andrews and Edinburgh and a splendid memorial to Father Gallagher's work in that parish. In 1959, he moved to St. Matthew's, Rosewell. For some time, Father Gallagher's health had been a source of worry to his friends, and it was typical of his filial devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes and his love for the welfare of God's church that when it became apparent that his last illness was upon him, he travelled yet once more to Our Lady's Shrine at Lourdes to offer his sufferings for the spread of Christ's Kingdom on earth.

The Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Eugene's Church, Glenock, Newton-Stewart, Co. Tyrone, on Friday, 19th February, 1965, by the dead priest's brother, Father James Gallagher, parish priest of Bonnyrigg, Midlothian. The deacon and subdeacon of the Mass were Father William McLaughlin of St. Columba's, Edinburgh, and Father Patrick Lynch of St. Mark's, Edinburgh. A group of some twenty priests, including Monsignor James Monaghan, V.G., travelled from Edinburgh for the obsequies and, from the Diocese of Derry, were many priests, including the Vicar General, Monsignor O'Doherty, and His Lordship the Bishop of Derry, Dr. Farren, who presided at the Mass and delivered the panegyric.

Rev. James Walsh — 5th March, 1965

On Friday evening, 5th March, 1965, the news came to St. Cuthbert's Parish, Burnbank, Hamilton, of the death of Father Walsh in Dublin. It was not unexpected news because for some weeks past his health was rapidly deteriorating.

It was on 2nd January, 1964, that Father James took seriously ill in his parish. He was taken to Lanark Hospital, where he remained for some weeks.

He was later removed to Bon Secours Hospital and, in May, was transferred to Our Lady's Hospice, Harold's Cross, Dublin. For many years, one can say, he did not enjoy the best of health but, during the fifteen months prior to his death, he suffered gravely indeed.

On the 27th September, 1898, James Walsh was born in Kilkelly, Co. Mayo. After preliminary schooling, he studied in St. Nathy's College, Ballaghaderreen.

On being accepted for his own diocese of Achonry, he went to St. Patrick's College, Maynooth and was ordained there in June, 1924. His own bishop then sent him "on loan" to the Archdiocese of Glasgow where, on arrival, he was appointed as curate to St. Anne's, where he laboured in the vineyard for thirteen years.

During this time he was offered the choice of returning to his own native diocese or of staying in Glasgow. He chose the latter. In 1937, he was transferred to St. Luke's and, four years later, he became parish priest of St. Conval's, Linwood. Finally in January 1946 he took charge of the major parish of St. Cuthbert's, Burnbank, Hamilton.

Father Walsh's colleagues throughout the years are high in their praise of him as a man of God, having a great sense of duty. He was a constant visitor to the homes of his people. He had the reputation of being a preacher of renown. His sense of humour and quick turn of phrase, to which many of his fellow priests will testify, were outstanding. Charity was a virtue which he practised in no small degree.

The remains of Father James were removed from Dublin to his native Glan, Co. Mayo, on Sunday, 7th March, and, on Tuesday, a Solemn Requiem Mass was offered by Rev. D. Power, his curate. The deacon was Rev. A. Kilcoyne, a life-long friend. Father Dunleavy, a priest of Achonry, was sub-deacon.

After the Mass, Very Rev. John C. Canon Battel, representing the Bishop of Motherwell, addressed a packed church of laity and some thirty priests of Achonry. "At this time" he said, "the late pastor's flock, his fellow diocesan priests together with priests and laity from the other two dioceses of Glasgow and Paisley, are celebrating around our new Bishops, a Pontifical Mass of Requiem for his noble soul. The Holy Mass will have been at the same altar in the church of St. Cuthbert where, for seventeen years, he ministered to his flock's spiritual needs and indeed celebrated his last Mass upon this earth. Those who knew Father James always recognised what a stalwart champion he was of true christian standards of living and life. He had not merely an abiding love for those immediately entrusted to his care, he struck out in search of the careless, the neglected and those who had strayed away from the fold. Who of the Hamilton Blantyre district will ever forget the big man from Burnbank who was known by all to saunter out each evening to a Home for Prodigals and Strays, men rejected and unwanted? To them he brought loving interest, friendship and welcome salvation. He placed them in the hands of his Heavenly Mother Mary. He recited the Rosary with them every night with the help of his beloved Legionaries of Mary, and many of them came back safely to God."

"When ever" the Canon continued, "he spoke of Mary he seemed rapt in contemplation of her goodness, her immaculate purity and her loving kindness to sinners."

Father Walsh's funeral then proceeded from Glan Church to Culmore Cemetery, where the burial took place. Canon James Hunt, parish priest of Kilkelly, officiated at the graveside.

In the meantime, on the same day, His Lordship, Bishop Thomson celebrated a Solemn Pontifical Mass of Requiem in Father Walsh's own parish of St. Cuthbert. The deacon and subdeacon were Father White and Father McGurk, former curates of Burnbank. The Right Rev. Mgr. Conroy preached the panegyric to Father Walsh's parishioners and almost one hundred priests. In his address, Monsignor Conroy spoke in glowing terms about Father Walsh's care of his people, especially of the old and destitute and about his extraordinary devotion to the Mother of God.

So for Father James, his days of priestly toil are over. He has gone to the heaven of his dreams, with his hosts of spiritual children who will greet him. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Patrick Flood, D.D. — 10th March, 1965

The Rev. Patrick Flood, D.D., died in his eighty-first year, in Brisbane, Australia, on Saturday, 10th March, 1965, the feast of Blessed John Ogilvie. For many years he had followed a fruitful apostolate as editor of the catholic newspaper of the Brisbane diocese, his new home land whence he had emigrated from Glasgow in 1951. Though Father Flood was unknown to many of the younger priests in the West of Scotland, his work here is well-remembered by the priests and many of the laity of the older generation.

Patrick Flood was born at Coatbridge in 1885, and after studying at Blairs, he entered the Scots College, Rome, in 1905. A keen and exceptionally intelligent student, he gained his doctorate in Theology, and was ordained priest on All Saints' Day, 1909. After ordination, he pursued advanced studies at the Biblical Institute in Rome for three years.

Returning to Scotland, his first appointment was to St. Joseph's, Glenboig, where he served as a curate for three years. After a temporary appointment to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, where he taught Sacred Scripture and Church History for a few months in 1916, he went as a curate to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Bridgeton.

When his former Rector, Mgr. Donald Mackintosh became Archbishop of Glasgow, he called on Father Flood to organise Catholic social studies and action throughout the Archdiocese. Father Flood set to his new work with great energy, and soon became one of the best known of the priests in Glasgow because of his frequent appearances as a public lecturer. To further his work he founded the Sacred Heart printing press, and with the assistance of the other members of the Catholic Institute of Glasgow, he was instrumental in the foundation of the ambitious, though unfortunately short-lived Catholic Institute of Higher Studies.

In 1929, it was felt that his health was being overtaxed by trying to carry out the duties of a curate in a busy city mission in addition to his work for the Archdiocese, and he was transferred to the Chaplaincy of Dalbeth. However, after three years, the sought-for improvement of health had not taken place, and he was transferred to the Abbey of Fort Augustus, where he combined teaching in the Abbey School with a continuous output of articles for the Catholic Press. In particular, he contributed a column to the Glasgow Observer under the name of 'Hieronymus.'

After acting for some time as chaplain to the Eric Gill community during the Second World War, he decided to join other members of his family who had emigrated to Australia, which henceforth was to be the scene of his apostolate of the Catholic press, an apostolate which he continued into a ripe old age, until compelled to relinquish it only a few months before his death. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Norman Baird — 19th March, 1965

Robert Norman Anthony Baird was born at Dunfermline on 2nd September, 1925. The religious background of both sides of his family were in sharp contrast to each other. His father's family were strong Presbyterians who had long been settled in the country around the Ochil Hills, where his grandfather had been born in Alva and his grandmother at Menstrie, but his maternal great grandfather was a Frenchman called Normand. On his mother's side (her home town was Stirling) he was both second and third generation Irish Catholic with roots in Leitrim, Donegal and Antrim, but his Antrim great grandmother was an Ulster Presbyterian.

His early life was spent in England. When he was two years old, his family moved from Dunfermline to Basingstoke in Hampshire, where they lived for six years before returning to Scotland where, after a short period in Stirling, they settled in Milngavie, where Norman attended his first Catholic school, St. Joseph's. However, in 1935, he won a scholarship to the Abbey School at Fort Augustus, where he spent the next eight years, and where he was Captain of the School before he left in 1943. He did his national service, from 1944 to 1947 as a navigator with the Royal Air Force, based on stations in Lincolnshire and Northern Ireland.

In 1940, his family had moved to Glasgow and, on his return from national service in 1947, Norman offered himself as a candidate for the priesthood in the archdiocese of Glasgow. He went to St. Peter's College, Cardross, in 1948, where he studied philosophy for two years, then he was sent to the Scots College, Rome, for his theological studies, where he remained for the next four years until his return to Scotland in 1954.

In Rome Father Baird became deeply interested in the excavations which had been made under the Vatican Basilica and this led to the publication in 1953, before his ordination, of his account of The Tomb of St. Peter. He was ordained priest on 5th July, 1953, and returned in the summer of 1954 to Scotland, where he was appointed curate to the parish of Holy Cross, Glasgow. The years in Rome he remembered with great affection and, at his death, he left his considerable library to the Scots College.

Father Baird succeeded in making his many talents and varied background serve his priesthood. They gave to him what was perhaps the most attractive quality of his priesthood—a deep instinctive sympathy with people of all types and classes. In conversation he was not by nature effusive or articulate, but his gift of sympathetic kindness did not need words in which to express itself. Nothing was ever too much trouble for him, especially when there was a question of helping people. Even in the last days of his illness, when his strength was sapping away, he was punctilious in answering cards and letters from his well-wishers.

He had an academic bent, was unusually well read in theology, but never forgot that the priest's first task is always with people. His sermons bore witness to his wide reading, although because of a persistent shyness, preaching was not his strong point. Few could excel him, however, in the rare gift of communicating with children.

As a student Father Baird was wiry and strong, but even in his early years as a priest, it became evident that he was working well above his strength. He was never seriously ill, although he often gave the impression of fighting against some chronic debility. His friends, therefore, though dismayed were not completely taken by surprise when, in January, 1965, the doctors diagnosed a serious illness. In the early stages of this illness he was impatient and restless, imagining that too much fuss was being made of him. His resignation to God's will, when told that the sickness was unto death, was a magnificent index to his deep spirituality.

The progress of his illness was swift. In the early morning of 19th March Father Baird, after receiving Holy Viaticum, died. He was thirty-nine years of age. His body was brought to Holy Cross Church on Sunday, 21st March. On Monday, 22nd March, the Most Reverend James Donald Scanlan, D.C.L., B.L., Archbishop of Glasgow, assisted by Rev. Michael Mooney and Rev. Daniel McEwan, celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass, and preached the panegyric. In the crowded congregation were Father Baird's parents, his brother and his sister, and his many friends of both clergy and laity. His parish priest, the Right Rev. James Ward, Bishop of Sita, accompanied the body to St. Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth, where Father Baird was buried beside two of the parish priests under whom he served. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Bartholomew Butler—22nd March, 1965

The joy which was universal in the Diocese of Dunkeld at the elevation of the popular Vicar General of the Diocese to the See of Aberdeen was marred by the tragic news that Father Bartholomew Butler, who for two years had been parish priest of Crieff, had been fatally injured in a car crash at Gilmerton, near Crieff, on Monday, 22nd March, 1965.

Father Butler was born at Classafree, Bandon, Co. Cork, on 8th April, 1918. He pursued his ecclesiastical studies at St. Finbar's College, Cork, and at St. Peter's College, Wexford. He was ordained on 24th June, 1943, and when he came to the Diocese of Dunkeld in that year, he was appointed curate at St. Patrick's, Dundee. He remained at St. Patrick's until the year 1945, when he was transferred to the Immaculate Conception parish, Lochee. The eleven years he spent in this parish were, as elsewhere, years of fruitful pastoral work, during which Father Butler's kindly disposition and devotion to his priestly duties won him the love of the parishioners.

In 1956 he was assigned the task of founding the new church and parish of St. James in Kinross, the first Catholic church to be established in Kinross-shire since the Reformation. From Kinross, he went, in 1963, as parish priest of St. Fillan's, Crieff, the oldest centre of post-Reformation Catholicism in the Diocese of Dunkeld; here his contagious enthusiasm infused new vitality into this traditional centre of Catholic life. It was in the course of parochial visitation that the tragic accident occurred. While still trapped in the car, Father Butler received the Last Sacraments from Father Anthony McCarthy of St. John's, Perth, and he died before he could be released from the crashed vehicle.

The obsequies of Father Butler took place on Friday, 26th March, 1965, at St. John's Church, Perth. His Lordship Bishop Hart of Dunkeld celebrated the Solemn Pontifical Requiem: the deacon of the Mass was Father Patrick Crean of Paisley, a cousin, and the sub-deacon of the Mass was Father Richard Butler of Bandon, Co. Cork, a brother of the deceased priest. The congregation included parishioners of Crieff, Kinross and Lochee, and there were priests present from almost every diocese in Scotland. In offering to the relatives of Father Butler the sympathy of the priests and people of Dunkeld, Bishop Hart said that Father Butler was loved everywhere for his happy disposition. His one desire had been to work for the glory of God and for the salvation of souls and his whole life had been devoted to this priestly ambition.

The interment took place on Monday, 29th March, 1965, at Father Butler's native parish, Bandon, Co. Cork. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Joseph A. Power — 13th April, 1965

The news of the sudden death, from a heart attack, of Father Joseph Power came as a great shock and caused much sorrow throughout the Archdiocese. Greater still was the shock to his mother, brothers and sisters; his brother-priests and friends sympathise with them in their sad bereavement. He had seemed to be in good health and had been fully active in his priestly duties in St. Robert's parish until the hour of his death. Preparations were being made for the celebration of the Silver Jubilee of his ordination, and it was confidently anticipated that he would soon be called upon, by His Grace the Archbishop, to take charge of a parish.

Father Power was born in Abington, Murroe, Co. Limerick, on 23rd March, 1917. He received his secondary education at the Christian Brothers' Schools in Limerick and Doon, and entered St. Patrick's College, Thurles, Co. Tipperary, in September, 1934, to begin his studies for the priesthood. Being of a most sociable disposition, he made hosts of friends while he was in College. Indeed, he enjoyed all his student days and never tired of relating humorous reminiscences of his life in St. Patrick's. He was ordained to the priesthood in the Cathedral, Thurles, on 9th June, 1940, by Most Rev. Jeremiah Kinane, D.D., D.C.L., Bishop of Waterford.

Coming to Glasgow, a few weeks later, he spent a short time supplying in St. Andrew's Cathedral and in Holy Cross, Crosshill, before receiving a permanent appointment as curate at St. Michael's, Parkhead. Here he stayed for twelve years, knew all the parishioners thoroughly and gained their complete confidence so that he was able to help them in their daily trials and lead them to a greater love and service of Almighty God. Father Power loved Parkhead and its people, and they, in turn, loved him. How well they revered him was evidenced by the large congregation that packed the Church at the Solemn Requiem Mass which was offered in St. Michael's for the repose of his soul almost thirteen years after he had left the parish.

In October, 1952, Father Power was transferred to St. Robert's, Househillwood, a large new housing estate on the south-west of the city. Here, too, he soon settled down and his zeal in visiting the homes of the parishioners, his care of the many sick, aged and infirm, his never-failing charm and charity won for him the respect and reverence of all. He was privileged to witness the erection of the magnificent new church and presbytery and to help in the fund-raising for this major work.

As a comforter of those in trouble or distress he was rather unique. Those unfortunate wayfarers—men of no work and no fixed abode—never found him impatient or reluctant to help. He never failed to listen to their tales of woe, and they invariably left him with alms in their hands and consolation in their hearts. Not that he was easily deluded by every sad story. In his good nature he often gave ere charity began.

Father Power had often expressed a wish to be buried in his own native parish and this was also the desire of his aged mother. With the gracious consent of His Grace the Archbishop, his body was taken by plane from Renfrew to Dublin on Holy Saturday and, thereafter, to the church in Murroe, Co. Limerick. On Easter Sunday, 18th April, in the presence of a large assembly of friends and neighbours, he was laid to rest in the family burial ground at Abington, within a few yards of the home where he was born. His brother, Father Denis Power of St. Monica's, Coatbridge, officiated at the interment.

On Easter Monday, Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass was offered in St. Robert's Church by His Grace, Most Rev. James D. Scanlan, D.C.L., B.L., Archbishop of Glasgow. The Right Rev. James Ward, V.G., Bishop of Sita, the Right Rev. Mgr. Gutauskas and Very Rev. Mgr. Kilpatrick were present in the sanctuary.

In his panegyric, His Grace the Archbishop, spoke of the sense of shock which he and all the priests had experienced on learning of Father Power's death. It was particularly tragic because Father Power, a good and valuable priest, was preparing to celebrate the Silver Jubilee of his priesthood when Almighty God called him.

His Grace offered his respectful sympathy to Father Power's mother and family and assured them of his prayers. "I have been moved this morning," he added, "by the sight of my good children of St. Robert Bellarmine flocking to the altar rails in such large numbers. That speaks for itself of your devotion both to the Blessed Sacrament and to your priests."

Venerable Archdeacon Francis Ryan, P.P., Tipperary, presided at the Solemn Office and High Mass in Murroe on 21st April. Father Denis Power was celebrant; Very Rev. Edward Ryan, S.C.A., was deacon and Rev. James Hallinan, St. Thomas', Wishaw, subdeacon. Father Burns, parish priest of St. Robert's, travelled from Glasgow, and priests and people who knew and esteemed him came from far and near to join in offering the Holy Sacrifice for the repose of his soul. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Dominic Hart—22nd April, 1965

The Reverend Dominic Hart was born at Denny on 1st September, 1882. He studied for the priesthood at St. Mary's College, Blairs, and at the Scots College, Rome. He was ordained priest by Cardinal Respighi on Holy Saturday, 22nd April, 1905, in the Lateran Basilica at Rome.

Coming home in May, 1906, he was appointed curate at St. Francis Xavier's, Falkirk, where he remained for two years, being transferred in 1908 to Kirkcaldy, where he assisted the late Canon Patrick Birnie until 1912. In that year he received his first independent parochial charge, being appointed to St. Mary's, Slamannan. This appointment lasted only a few months and after that, Father Hart had charge of missions in various districts of the Archdiocese: the Immaculate Conception, Jedburgh, 1913-1917; St. Margaret's, Loanhead, 1917-1923; the joint mission of Inverkeithing and Rosyth, 1923-1930; at Rosyth he built the parochial house and the church of St. John and St. Columba. Between 1931 and 1938, he was parish priest of St. Mary's, Hawick, where parishioners still remember him with affection and gratitude. In 1938, he went to St. Patrick's, Lochgelly, and here, in 1943, after almost forty years' work for the welfare of souls in the Archdiocese, he retired from parochial duties.

For twenty years Father Hart lived in retirement at St. Anne's, Musselburgh. A man of deep culture and erudition, Father Hart spent much of his time with his books in these years of retirement; he was an excellent classical scholar, a profound student of Shakespeare and his knowledge of the Summa Theologica was remarkable.

Increasing infirmity made it necessary for him to enter St. Raphael's Hospital in May, 1963, and he remained there until his death, which took place on Thursday, 22nd April, 1965, the sixtieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood: he was 83 years of age.

Some thirty priests of the Archdiocese were present, on Saturday, 24th April, 1965, when the Requiem Mass was celebrated in the convent chapel at St. Anne's, Musselburgh, in the presence of His Grace Archbishop Gordon Joseph Gray, by Father William McLaughlin, parish priest of St. Columba's, Edinburgh.

Rev. Michael O'Riordan — 26th April, 1965

Father Michael O'Riordan was born at Kilcullen, Co. Cork, in 1900. After his early education at St. Colman's College, Fermoy, he entered St. Columban's College, for he believed his vocation was to the Foreign Missions. However, towards the end of his course, his health began to give cause for anxiety, and his superiors feared that he would not be strong enough for the rigours of foreign missionary work. Accordingly, he was transferred to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in 1924, and the following year he was raised to the priesthood by Archbishop Mackintosh, on 6th June, in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow.

He was appointed to St. Mary's, Paisley, but after three years, he had to enter a sanatorium, and when he had recovered sufficiently, it was realized that the climate of the West of Scotland would quickly prove fatal to one in his state of health, and that a mild climate was essential. The change to the climate of the South of England was so beneficial that, after a period of convalescence, he was able to take up active work, first in the diocese of Plymouth and later in the diocese of Portsmouth.

He died at Shanklin in the Isle of Wight, where he had been parish priest, on the 26th April, 1965. May he rest in peace.

Rev. Hugh Sheridan—16th May, 1965

It is always difficult to write of a friend who is recently dead. It is more difficult now when we have had time to appreciate our loss and to realise that one whom we remember with gratitude and pride is gone forever.

Father Hugh Sheridan was only forty-seven years old when he died. He had been spending his annual holiday at Bunclody, Co. Wexford, at his brother's home. That morning (it was a Sunday) he had said Mass. Later that day he was rushed to St. Vincent's Nursing Home, Dublin, where he bade a cheery farewell to his brother and sister; half-an-hour later he was dead. It was the 16th May, the fourth Sunday after Easter, when Our Lord speaks in the Gospel of "going back to him who sent me." It was a sudden death, so unexpected that all of us who later heard the news were stunned and shocked. But it was not an unprovided death. His Mass that morning was only one link in a long chain that bound him to God.

Father Sheridan was born at Bunclody and educated at the National School there. He wanted to be a priest and was accepted by the Camillians. He was sent to Tournai in Belgium and then to Lille in France, but the Second World War forced him to return to his native country where he finished his studies at the Novitiate of the Holy Ghost Fathers at Kimmage, Dublin. He was raised to the priesthood in the Cathedral at Mullingar by the Right Rev. Dr. D'Alton, Bishop of Meath and later Cardinal Archbishop of Armagh, on the 20th June, 1943.

He was a member of the Order of St. Camillus, a nursing order, and soon won the confidence of his superiors, being appointed, first, Novice Master, and then Superior of the House at Killucan. Later he was sent on a mission to the United States, which was crowned with success and where he laid the foundations of a flourishing organisation.

But ill-health supervened and he was constrained to leave the Order and to seek for lighter work on the mission, first in England, and then in the Diocese of Aberdeen, to which he came twelve years ago—a priest of wide experience and mature judgment. He spent his first years in the Diocese with the then bishop, Bishop Francis Walsh, at Fetternear, and his first appointment was as curate to Canon Alexander MacWilliam at St. Peter's, Justice Street, Aberdeen. He loved the people and that love was reciprocated. Even to-day his name is held in benediction up and down the tenement stairs round George Street and King Street, where he put the good people of St. Peter's at their ease by joining them in innumerable cups of tea and entering in upon all their hopes and fears, their joys and sorrows. One never found him in his room; and, if he was not out visiting, he was in the church on his knees before the Blessed Sacrament or making the Stations of the Cross. He professed to be a poor preacher; but no Mission Father could have held his audience so entranced. He was forthright and uncompromising when the occasion demanded, but even in reproof his lively Irish humour softened the blow while his turn of phrase was a constant delight.

In 1959 he left St. Peter's for his first charge, the lonely Highland parish of Stratherrick by Loch Ness. He who loved human kind settled down to this new kind of life among a scanty and scattered flock with zest. In 1962 he was transferred to Tombac in Banffshire, and it was during his annual holiday, spent at Bunclody, that he became suddenly ill and died in St. Vincent's Nursing Home, Dublin, on Sunday, 16th May.

The remains were brought to St. Mary's, Bunclody, on Monday evening and the funeral took place to the priests' plot in Bunclody new cemetery after Requiem Office and High Mass, which was attended by the Right Rev. Donal J. Herlihy, Bishop of Ferns, and over fifty priests. The Mass was sung by his cousin, An t'Ath Seamus S. de Bhúl, St. Peter's College, Wexford, and the committal prayers at the graveside were said by the Very Rev. J. Wadding, P.P. The Rev. J. Gordon Robson represented the Diocese of Aberdeen.

Father Hugh Sheridan was a man whose heart was wide open to the world. He had all the joy and gaiety of the earth. That, and his indomitable Irishry, was the source of the wit and humour that never failed, even in the illness that dogged him through the greater part of his priestly life; the source, too, of his almost Franciscan detachment from the things of this life. May his great soul rest in peace.

With the death of Monsignor Richard Provost Delaney at St. Margaret's Presbytery, Dunfermline, on 31st July, 1965, the Archdiocese of St. Andrews and Edinburgh lost one of her most esteemed priests, and the Church in Scotland one of the best known of her clergy.

Born in Edinburgh in August, 1887, Monsignor Delaney received his early education from the Sisters of Mercy in St. Patrick's School. He entered Blairs College in 1902, and four years later, 1906, went to the Scots College, Rome. He was ordained priest on the 10th August, 1912. He returned to the archdiocese in the following year, 1913, and was appointed assistant priest at St. Mary's, Bathgate, where he laboured for three years, loved and respected by all the people.

His first appointment as parish priest was to St. Mary's, Slamannan; then to St. Michael's, Linlithgow, and later to St. Martin's, Tranent. In all these parishes he did great work for souls, took an active part in the life of the community and was highly respected as a priest and a gentleman.

In September, 1936, Monsignor Delaney was appointed parish priest of St. Margaret's, Dunfermline, and there for twenty-nine years his greatest work, as a priest and administrator, was accomplished. The beautiful and impressive sanctuary of the church was completed; new seating, heating and lighting installed and the whole interior of the church tastefully decorated. Monsignor was justifiably proud of St. Margaret's Church, as a worthy shrine to Scotland's queen and patroness. Not only in Dunfermline, but far beyond, he will be especially remembered for his love for St. Margaret. His great work in promoting devotion to Scotland's saintly queen made him a familiar figure, not only to the thousands who came to Dunfermline for the annual pilgrimage he did so much to establish, but to hosts of pilgrims from other lands, who will remember him for his warm interest and unflinching courtesy.

Monsignor Delaney's activities extended far beyond the limits of his parochial work. For thirty-five years he was a member of the Archdiocesan Council of the Catholic Truth Society, and for many years its chairman, an office he filled with such distinction and success, that on his resignation in 1964, he was appointed an honorary president and an honorary life member of the society.

When the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund of the Archdiocese was founded in 1933, Monsignor was the first secretary, and since 1947 was chairman. He was actively interested in all the clergy societies, and his election to office in so many of them was indeed a tribute to the esteem in which he was held by his brother priests. For many years he was entrusted with the care of the convents of the archdiocese, and to these he was always readily available with his sound advice and encouragement.

He always took a keen interest in public life in the various parishes in which he served, as a member of local committees, and, during his time in Tranent, as the church representative on East Lothian Education Authority. In all these committees he was held in high respect for his sound advice and his friendly approach to his fellow members.

Monsignor Delaney was a Canon of the Metropolitan Chapter since 1942 and was appointed Provost in 1959. In 1956 he was appointed a Domestic Prelate, to the great joy of his parishioners and his many friends in Scotland.

Failing health in latter years did not prevent him fulfilling every duty of his priestly office within his parish and outside it. His one fear was lest advancing years and ill-health might prevent his offering of daily Mass, which was the centre of his priestly life. His great devotion to Our Blessed Lady was, after his Mass, the great love of his life. He loved Lourdes and went there regularly as a pilgrim, even when his health was failing.

In his last weeks of illness he offered his Holy Mass every day, up to Friday. On Saturday, 31st July, he was very weak and was prevailed upon to rest, and that evening, fortified by the Sacraments of the Church, he quietly passed away.

The Solemn Pontifical Mass of Requiem was celebrated in St. Margaret's Church on Tuesday, 3rd August, by His Grace the Most Rev. Gordon Joseph Gray, who was assisted by Canon Bernard O'Hanlon as Assistant Priest, Canon William Maccabe as Deacon and Canon Joseph Byrne as Subdeacon. The Most Rev. James Donald Scanlan, Archbishop of Glasgow, and President of the Catholic Truth Society of Scotland, was present in the sanctuary, along with Canons of the Metropolitan Chapter, Monsignors and Clergy of the Archdiocese and other Dioceses of Scotland. The interment took place in Mount Vernon Cemetery, Edinburgh, where Monsignor was laid to rest in the priests' plot, in the presence of His Grace Archbishop Gray, priests of the archdiocese, and parishioners of St. Margaret's, Dunfermline. Canon O'Hanlon recited the prayers at the graveside.

One could sum up the late Monsignor Delaney as a great priest, esteemed by everybody who knew him—his people in the various parishes where he served; his fellow priests, young and old; his superiors, who trusted in his judgment and prudence. He was above all a priest who loved his fellow priests, and who was always happy in their company. May he rest in peace.

29th September, 1965

The Right Rev. Mgr. David Paterson, who for many years had been Vicar General of Aberdeen Diocese and Administrator of St. Mary's Cathedral, Aberdeen, died on Wednesday, 29th September, 1965, after a long and painful illness.

The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Cathedral on Saturday, 2nd October, 1965; the celebrant of the Mass being the Very Rev. Thomas Provost McLaughlin, D.D., assisted by the Very Rev. Alexander S. Canon MacWilliam and the Very Rev. Kenneth Canon MacKenzie. Following the Mass, the funeral took place to St. Ninian's Cemetery in the Enzie.

Delivering the panegyric, during the Solemn Requiem, the Very Rev. Joseph Canon Lamont of Keith spoke of the lifetime of devoted service that Monsignor Paterson had given to the Diocese of Aberdeen and of the well-merited affection and respect which the priests and people of the diocese felt towards him.

"He served this diocese as no other priest has served it. Except for being its bishop—an honour he richly merited but never desired—he served the diocese of his birth in every capacity that a priest could: as a curate in his early days, as a parish priest and administrator of the cathedral later, as Vicar General of the diocese under three bishops, Bishop Bennett, Bishop Matheson and Bishop Walsh, as Vicar Capitular twice when the see was vacant, as a canon and finally as provost of the cathedral chapter. His desire was always to serve, never to rule, and he was perfectly happy in that service.

"David Paterson was born at Whitebridge, Inverness-shire, on 10th April, 1895. He started his training for the priesthood when he went to Blairs College in August, 1909. After completing his secondary studies there, he went to St. Peter's College, Bearsden, in October, 1914, for one year. In October of 1915, he was transferred to the Scots College, Rome, where he remained until his ordination. He had a fine clear mind and, at the Gregorian University, he drank deep of Roman culture and gained his doctorate in both philosophy and theology. That Roman training remained with him all his life and brought verve and sparkle to all his actions.

"He was ordained on 24th April, 1921; his preparation was over, he had now to serve his Master. Returning to Aberdeen in 1921, he was a curate at this cathedral for a few months and was then recalled to the Scots College, Rome, to help in the training of other priests. He remained there until 1930, latterly as vice-rector of the college, and during that time, he gained a great knowledge of the workings of the Roman Curia and of Canon Law, a knowledge that was of great value to the diocese in subsequent years.

"In 1930, he returned to Aberdeen as assistant to the then administrator, Monsignor Meany and, on his retiral in 1937, Monsignor Paterson was appointed administrator. Until 1953, his tall, spare, dignified figure could be seen daily in the cathedral, sometimes bustling about as if something had to be done in a hurry; cool, calm and serene when the big occasion demanded it. For the clergy who called on him—and he loved them to do so—the quick, warm smile and the light in his eyes was proof of his affection for them.

“Bishop Bennett appointed him Vicar General of the diocese, a post he was to hold under the next two bishops, Bishop Matheson and Bishop Walsh, until bad health forced him to resign from it about 1957.

“He resigned from the cathedral in 1953 in order to devote more time to the work of the diocese. He went to Banff as its parish priest but bad health forced him to resign from there in 1959. He came back to Aberdeen for his retirement. His struggle against bad health continued for another six years. He died on Wednesday of this week and we are here to honour him, to pray for him and to conduct his body to its last resting place in the cemetery of St. Ninian's at Tynet to lie there beside his fellow priests until the resurrection of the body. He loved them in life, he wanted to be with them in death. May he rest in peace.”

Rev. John G. Carter — 15th November, 1965

In the early hours of the morning of the 15th November, 1965, Father John Carter died suddenly in St. Joseph's Presbytery, Helensburgh, where he had been parish priest for eight years.

He was born in the parish of St. Aloysius', Springburn, on the 11th July, 1911, and attended the local school there and also St. Aloysius' College before going to Blairs. His studies for the priesthood were completed at the Scots College in Rome, where he was ordained on the 19th December, 1936.

Shortly after his return to Scotland, he was sent to St. Catherine's College, Oxford, to take a course in economics and sociology. In due course, he was appointed Director of Social Action in the Archdiocese, organising educational courses and classes for Catholic workers. He encouraged the members of the various study groups by his wise counsel and co-operated in tackling various social problems with Catholics in local government.

For varying periods he served as a curate in a number of parishes, St. Charles', Paisley, from which he left to serve as a Chaplain in the R.A.F.; St. Joseph's, North Woodside Road, St. Roch's, Glasgow, St. Martin's, Renton, and Our Lady and St. Margaret's, Kinning Park, before being appointed, in 1957, as parish priest of St. Joseph's, Helensburgh.

In this parish, he acquired a beautiful church and he set about beautifying it still more. His crowning joy came when in April, 1965, His Grace Archbishop Scanlan solemnly consecrated St. Joseph's Church. On this joyful day, he was surrounded by his parishioners, dignitaries of the Burgh of Helensburgh and many of his fellow priests. Now, only a few months afterwards, all were shocked to hear of his sudden death. So well known and liked by all in Helensburgh was he that, as a tribute, the flag on the municipal building was flown at half mast.

Father Carter's remains were brought to the Church of St. Joseph on the evening of Tuesday, 16th November, when a Solemn Dirge was sung by his fellow priests, led by His Lordship Bishop Ward, the Vicar General of the Archdiocese. On Wednesday morning, His Lordship celebrated the Solemn Funeral Mass, after which the interment took place at the cemetery of St. Kentigern, Lambhill. May he rest in peace.

Very Rev. John Canon Boyle—5th December, 1965

Canon John Boyle died in the Bon Secours Nursing Home on Sunday, 5th December, 1965. He had seen his eighty-third birthday, and was in the fifty-sixth year of his priesthood. He was born in the Motherwell district, and educated at Blairs and the French college of St. Sulpice, where he was ordained in 1909. His first and only curacy was at St. Peter's, Partick. Father Boyle began his missionary life at a time when, as Monsignor Michael Ward said in his panegyric, "the Catholics of Glasgow were living with serious problems and under considerable stress." This was a mild statement of fact. Neither Canon Boyle nor any of his contemporaries could have envisaged what would emerge in the fifty years that lay before them. The stress has been raised; many of the problems have disappeared. The blind alleys that faced our people at the beginning of the century have gone, because of the progress they have made in every avenue of life, civic, business and professional. These have been wonderful years to have lived in, especially for a priest. Canon Boyle lived through them with intense interest and satisfaction. Every new church, each new parish, every step forward in culture and education, brought him an added joy and happiness. His whole life was identified with the spiritual and material well-being of those under his care, and indeed of the brethren throughout the archdiocese. He stands high amongst those priests whose images are stamped on the story of our era.

After eighteen years in Hyndland Street, he became a parish priest, first in Harthill, in Lanarkshire, and afterwards in the missions of Cleland and Stepps. In 1936, he came to Royston Road, or, as it was known then, to St. Roch's in the Garngad. For twenty-nine years, the people of that large industrial area have seen his priestly zeal, his solicitude for their welfare and his wise administration. Their appreciation and gratitude, their sorrow at his death, their prayers for his eternal welfare, all were real and edifying, while his mortal remains were amongst them, in the church at the Dirge, and in that thronged congregation at his Requiem Mass.

Canon Boyle (he was installed in the Cathedral Chapter in 1948), will possibly be best remembered amongst his fellow priests as a Religious Examiner. His genial presence, his sense of familiarity, his happy, hearty laughter came like a breath of Spring to many a presbytery. That annual visit was looked forward to, and remembered.

Canon Boyle read deeply and extensively. One could always find in his room the latest books on the thought-provoking studies, history, philosophy and theology. His sermons and his talks to his flock were solid instruction, and full of enlightenment. If one could find a fault in his life, it would be that a natural shyness and diffidence prevented him from giving, in print or in lecture, the fruits of his exhaustive studies.

For the last three years, Canon Boyle was confined to his room. Walking had become for him a sore and sustained impediment. Otherwise, God was good to him; his mental powers remained unimpaired to the end. His cheerfulness remained, his interest and concern for the archdiocese and his fellow priests did not abate. He loved their visits, and although he and they knew that his active days were gone, there were no complaints, no depression; just a joyful resignation to the Will of God. You saw it; you did not speak about it; you just went away understanding that God had given a most precious grace. May he rest in peace.

Rev. John Cusick—7th December, 1965

On Tuesday, 7th December, 1965, Father John Cusick, parish priest of St. Isidore's, Biggar, died suddenly in Law Hospital, Carlisle, after a short illness. He was sixty-five years of age.

Father Cusick was born at Motherwell on 21st March, 1900, and began his studies for the priesthood under the care of the White Fathers at Bishop's Waltham, in England, and at their philosophical seminary at Kerlois, in Brittany. Later, in 1924, he entered St. Peter's College, Bearsden, and was ordained priest on 24th June, 1930, for the Archdiocese of Glasgow.

For fifteen years. Father Cusick laboured in various curacies, at St. John's, Barrhead; at Immaculate Conception, Lochee, Dundee; at St. Lawrence's, Greenock; and at St. John's, Stevenston, Ayrshire. In 1945, ill-health, which earlier had caused him to give up the idea of missionary work in foreign lands, returned in such severe form that he had to retire from active work for a time. Three years' convalescence restored him sufficiently to allow him to take up pastoral work again, now in the new Diocese of Motherwell. He was chaplain to the Convent of Mercy at Baillieston, in 1948, and later to the Holy Souls' Convent at Newmains and the Franciscan Convent, Elmwood, Bothwell. For the last six years of his life, Father Cusick was parish priest of St. Isidore's at Biggar, a small congregation scattered over a geographically wide district. Here, as in his earlier appointments, Father Cusick busied himself with the spiritual and temporal welfare of his people and, here also, his kindly manner and unaffected friendliness made him a much loved priest.

The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated in the Cathedral at Motherwell, on Friday, 10th December, by the Right Rev. Monsignor John Conroy, Vicar General of the Diocese of Motherwell. The congregation, which included many priests, canons and prelates from the three dioceses of the Province of Glasgow, heard Monsignor Conroy speak of the humble, unostentatious and devoted service which Father Cusick had given to the Church, very often in appointments that entailed more loneliness than is usual, even in a priest's life, and this devoted service was all the more meritorious in that it was achieved in the face of continual ill-health. After the Requiem Mass, the interment took place at St. Patrick's Cemetery, New Stevenston. May he rest in peace.

APPENDIX I.

ECCLESIASTICAL LAWS AND OBSERVANCES.

1. EASTER DUTIES AND INDULGENCES.

The Faithful of Scotland are authorised to satisfy the obligation of the Paschal Communion and to gain the Plenary Indulgence on any day from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday. (S.C.C.: 11th Oct., 1946).

2. FAST AND ABSTINENCE DAYS.

The Code of Canon Law made changes in the general laws of fasting and abstinence but the Indult, granted in perpetuity to Scotland by the Holy See on 27th January, 1911, still continues in force. Recently further changes have been made in these laws. The law, as it applies to Scotland, is here summarised.

A. LAWS OF FASTING.

The law of fasting is binding on all between their 21st and 59th birthdays, unless they are excused by reason of health or the nature of their employment.

In case of doubt a confessor should be consulted.

On fast days only one full meal, which may be taken either at midday or in the evening, is allowed.

In addition, two light collations according to approved local custom are permitted.

On fast days, which are not also days of abstinence, flesh meat and soup made from meat may be taken only at the full meal by those bound to fast. The old law, forbidding the use of fish and flesh at the same meal, is abolished.

B. LAWS OF ABSTINENCE.

The use of flesh meat, or of soup made from meat, is forbidden on abstinence days to all who have completed their 7th year. The use of eggs, butter, margarine, as well as of dripping, lard, suet or other condiments made from animal fat, is allowed on all days of the year without exception.

Except in Lent, a Holyday of Obligation is never a day of abstinence.

C. DAYS OF FASTING AND ABSTINENCE.

An indult, issued by the Holy See on 28th January, 1949, reduced the number of days on which the law of fasting and abstinence must be observed in the following manner: "Until provision is made otherwise, abstinence should be observed every Friday, the law of abstinence together with fast on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the Vigils of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ."

The indult also adds a concession in the quality of food permitted: "that on days of abstinence together with fast it will everywhere be permissible to take eggs and milk products even in the morning and the evening."

A later indult, 25th July, 1957, transferred the obligation of fast and abstinence from 14th August to 7th December, the day before the feast of Our Lady's Immaculate Conception.

A further indult, 3rd December, 1959, permitted the faithful to fast and abstain on either 23rd or 24th December at their own choice.

3. NEW REGULATIONS ABOUT THE EUCHARISTIC FAST.

The law of eucharistic fast was changed by the Apostolic Constitution "Christus Dominus," 6th January, 1953, and further modified by the Motu Proprio "Sacram Communionem," 19th March, 1957.

On 21st November, 1964, a new law was made: "Having considered the difficulties of many regions about the eucharistic fast, the Supreme Pontiff, graciously acceding to the request of bishops, grants that the fast from solid food for priests and faithful shall be reduced to one hour before the reception of Holy Communion. This concession refers also to the moderate use of alcoholic liquids."

From the Motu Proprio of 1957, the sick, even though not confined to bed, may take non-alcoholic liquids or genuine medicine, liquid or solid, at any time before celebrating Mass or receiving Holy Communion.

4. MARRIAGES.

Before a marriage is celebrated, it must be certain that nothing stands in the way of its valid and licit celebration. (Code of Canon Law, Canon 1019, par. 1.)

The parish priest whose right it is to assist at the marriage must, at a suitable time beforehand, carefully investigate whether there is any obstacle to the celebration of the marriage. (Canon 1020, par. 1.)

The rules to be followed by the parish priest in making this investigation, given in an instruction of the Sacred Congregation of the Sacraments, 29th June, 1941, and modified for Scotland by a rescript of the same Congregation, 24th November, 1947, must be carefully observed in every case.

Celebration of Marriage with Mass. The marriage is celebrated after the homily which follows the gospel. This homily is obligatory. As a homily the address on pp. 19-21 of Messrs. Gill's pamphlet may be read. The nuptial blessing is always to be given, even in the closed seasons, and even if either or both spouses has received it in a previous marriage. The Nuptial Mass is to be said in English, using the Burns Oates altar missal, but according to circumstances, the nuptial blessing may be read in Latin.

Celebration of Marriage of Catholics without Mass. The order for this is now: A brief admonition or explanation, epistle, hymn if desired, gospel, homily (for which the address mentioned above may be used), prayer of the faithful, if desired, celebration of marriage, nuptial blessing.

Celebration of Mixed Marriages. Note that, in Scotland, chapter XV, not chapter XVI, of the Irish Collectio Rituum is to be used. There is to be no singing and no nuptial blessing, and of course no celebration of Mass, but otherwise everything should be done as at marriages where both parties are Catholics.

APPENDIX II.

INDULGENCES AND DEVOTIONS

1. INDULGENCES.

EXPLANATION OF INDULGENCES.

An indulgence is a remission of the whole, or part, of the temporal punishment that often remains to be suffered for sins which, as to their guilt and eternal punishment, have been already remitted. For the effect and validity of an Indulgence it is not only necessary that there be a competent authority in him who grants it, and a just cause or motive for the grant, but it is also necessary, on the part of him who obtains it, that he renounce and be sincerely sorry for all his sins, that he be in the state of grace, and that he duly perform the conditions prescribed. Of Indulgences, some are called plenary, which, when fully obtained, remit the whole of the temporal punishment that remained due on account of past sins; others are for a certain number of years or days, which when fully obtained, remit as much of the temporal punishment as would have been discharged by the performance of so many years or days of Canonical Penance. Thus, by a quarantine Indulgence was meant the remission of so much of the future penalty (poena) of sin as is the equivalent of keeping a Lent according to the strict discipline of the Church. Quarantines are no longer mentioned in the official collection of indulgenced prayers (Vatican Press, 1938).

Indulgences attached to sacred objects, such as rosaries, etc., are available to any person using these objects, and the Indulgences cease only when the thing is destroyed or sold.

The conditions for most Plenary Indulgences include Confession, Communion, Visit to a Church and prayers for the Pope's intentions. For an Indulgence granted for any particular day, Confessions made eight days before will suffice; Communion may be made the day before, and both Confession and Communion any day within the Octave. For Triduums, Novenas and suchlike, Confession and Communion may be made any day within the Octave after the conclusion of the exercises. For daily communicants, or for those who confess regularly twice a month, no special confession is necessary. The visit may be made to any church or oratory and may be made from noon of the preceding day to midnight of the last day of the time appointed. Prayer for the Pope's intentions should be recited vocally and not merely mentally. Jubilee Indulgences, as well as some others, have their own special conditions.

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO SCOTLAND.

1. From the Feast of St. Thomas, Apostle, 21st December, to the first Sunday after the Epiphany, inclusively.
2. From Ash-Wednesday to the second Sunday of Lent, inclusively.

3. During the time appointed in each Diocese for complying with Easter duties.
4. From Pentecost Sunday to Sunday after Corpus Christi.
5. From Sunday before the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul to the Octave Day.
6. From Sunday before the Feast of the Assumption to the Octave Day.
7. From Sunday before the Feast of All Saints to the Octave Day.
8. On the Feast of St. Andrew, and during the Octave.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING THESE INDULGENCES.

1. That within the time prescribed the faithful approach the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist.

When Confession is required as a condition for gaining an indulgence, it may be made eight days before or eight days after. The Holy Communion prescribed may be made the day before or within the eight days after. One Confession and Communion will suffice for the gaining of several Plenary Indulgences on the same day. Canon 931.

2. That on the day of their Communion they offer up some prayers to God for the happy state of the whole Church of Christ, for its Supreme Pastor the Bishop of Rome, for peace and concord between all Christian Princes; for the exaltation and propagation of the Holy Catholic Faith, especially in our own country, and for the eternal salvation of all Christians.

3. That if they have an opportunity, they visit within the limited time some church or oratory, and pray to God as has been mentioned before.

4. That, if their circumstances enable them, they perform some works of mercy.

To gain any number of times a Plenary Indulgence granted toties quoties the necessary and sufficient prayers to be said for the Pope's intention at each visit to a church are six Our Fathers, six Hail Marys, and six Glorias. (A.A.S., 1930, 363).

PLENARY INDULGENCES GRANTED TO ALL THE FAITHFUL.

THE INDULGENCES OF THE STATIONS.

The nature and number of the indulgences attached to the Stations of the Cross by the Holy See in the course of the centuries had become uncertain in consequence of the loss of authentic documents. The Holy See therefore has abolished all indulgences hitherto conceded and grants to all the faithful who with contrite heart make the Stations of the Cross the following indulgences:—

1. A Plenary Indulgence as often as the Stations of the Cross are made.

2. Another Plenary Indulgence if they go to Holy Communion on the same day on which they make the Stations; or if, having made the Stations ten times they go to Holy Communion within a month.

3. A Partial Indulgence of ten years for each Station they have made, if after beginning the Stations they are unable, for some reasonable cause, to complete them.

The sick, who are unable to recite a suitable ejaculation, may still gain a Plenary Indulgence by merely kissing or looking upon the crucifix specially blessed.

The sick, those travelling, and any others legitimately impeded gain the Indulgence, if while holding in their hands the crucifix specially blessed, they say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria twenty times, that is fourteen times for the fourteen Stations, five in memory of the Sacred Wounds, and once for the Pope's intention. If some reasonable cause prevents the completion of this exercise, these persons may gain a Partial Indulgence of ten years for each time they have recited an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Gloria.

PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of August all may gain a Plenary Indulgence as often as they visit a Franciscan Church or any Church enjoying the privilege of the Portiuncula, and say six Paters, six Aves, and six Glorias for the Pope's intention. The usual condition of Confession and Holy Communion is enjoined.

COMMEMORATION OF THE HOLY SOULS.

From noon of the 1st till midnight of the 2nd of November or on the following Sunday all may gain a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, as often as they visit a Church or public or semi-public oratory and say the prayers for the Pope's intention.

VISITING A CATHOLIC CEMETERY.

During the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls a Plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, may be gained by the faithful who visit a Catholic Cemetery on the usual conditions (31st October, 1934).

THE CATECHISM INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence on any two days of each month may be gained by all who either teach or learn the catechism for the space of at least twenty minutes twice in the month. The usual conditions of Confession, Communion, visit to a church and prayer for the Pope's intention are prescribed. For every such period devoted to teaching or learning the catechism a partial indulgence of 100 days may be gained by the contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1930, 343.)

ROSARY INDULGENCE.

A Plenary Indulgence, under the usual conditions of Confession and Communion, may be gained by anyone of the faithful who devoutly recites five decades of the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament exposed for public veneration, or reserved in the tabernacle. (A.A.S., Sept., 1927.)

THE HOLY HOUR.

All who perform the pious exercise of the Holy Hour in any church, public oratory, or semi public oratory to which they have legitimate access may gain (1) a Plenary Indulgence, provided they confess their sins and receive Holy Communion and recite the usual prayers for the Pope's intentions; (2) a Partial Indulgence of ten years, if they are at least contrite of heart. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 171.)

THE FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION.

Whether the form of exposition is strictly Clementine or modified by the Bishop's authority, a Plenary Indulgence, once on each day, may be gained by all who visit the Blessed Sacrament during Quarant Ore and recite a Pater, Ave and Gloria five times, and one Pater, Ave and Gloria for the Pope's intention. Confession and Communion are enjoined. Alternatively, a Partial Indulgence of fifteen years is granted to the contrite of heart each time they visit a church during the Forty Hours Devotion and recite the same prayers. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 381.)

PROCESSIONS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained by all those who assist at Processions of the Blessed Sacrament, whether the processions are within or without a sacred building. Confession, Communion and prayer for the Pope's intention are enjoined. (A.A.S., 1933, p.478.)

SPIRITUAL VISITS TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Those who are legitimately prevented from making a visit in person may now gain a Partial Indulgence of five years by making a spiritual visit to the Blessed Sacrament and reciting the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and once for the Pope's intention, provided they are contrite of heart.

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained once a week if, through the same impediment, the spiritual visit is made daily. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 169.)

VISITING THE ALTAR OF REPOSE.

The contrite of heart who visit the "Altar of Repose" on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday and recite the Pater, Ave and Gloria five times and once for the Pope's intention may gain a toties quoties indulgence of fifteen years. A Plenary Indulgence may be gained on each of these days if the further conditions of Confession and Communion are fulfilled. (A.A.S., 1935, p. 277.)

MORNING OFFERING AND OFFERING OF SUFFERINGS.

A plenary indulgence may be obtained by all who, in any form of words they choose, make a morning offering of their work, mental or manual, to God. An indulgence of five hundred days is granted to all who, by any pious invocation and with at least internal sorrow for their sins, make an offering of any work they are doing at the moment.

To increase spiritual benefits deriving from human sufferings humbly accepted, a plenary indulgence, on the usual conditions, is gained by those who, in any form of words, make a morning offering to God of their sufferings, bodily or mental. Those who with a contrite heart offer a particular suffering by any pious invocation gain a partial indulgence of five hundred days.

PARTIAL INDULGENCES: THE LITANY OF THE B. VIRGIN.

On 6th May, 1879, His Holiness granted the Apostolic Benediction, and an Indulgence of seven years on each Saturday, and on the Feasts of the Blessed Virgin, to the Faithful of England and Scotland who shall recite or sing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin in any church in either country. This Indulgence is now extended to all the faithful and may be gained each time the Litany is recited or sung (Preces et Pia opera, Vatican Press, 1938).

VISITING A CHURCH AND PRAYER FOR THE POPE'S INTENTION.

The phrase "visiting a church," means going to a church with the intention of honouring God, either in Himself or in His saints and, if no set prayer is enjoined, offering mental or vocal prayer according to each one's piety and devotion. When no other prayers are specified, the condition "prayer for the Pope's intention" is satisfied by reciting one Pater, one Ave and one Gloria. (A.A.S., 1933, p. 478.)

2. THE PENTECOST NOVENA.

For the Pentecost Novena, prescribed by Encyclical Letters of 5th May, 1895, and 9th May, 1897, the following Indulgences have been granted to those taking part in it:—(1) Ten years for each day; (2) a Plenary Indulgence on any one day of Novena, or on Pentecost, or on any day of the subsequent Octave, on the usual conditions of Confession and Communion and prayers for the Pope's intention, attendance on at least five days being necessary. (These Indulgences are attainable by those also who are legitimately impeded from attending the Public Devotions, provided the Novena be done in private and the other conditions fulfilled; the Partial Indulgence in this case is seven years.) Moreover, those who again, during the Octave of Pentecost, inclusive of Trinity Sunday, privately recite every day, according to their devotion, some prayers to the Holy Ghost, may gain a Partial Indulgence of seven years for each day. All these Indulgences are applicable to the souls in Purgatory.

3. THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

Instructions for the Forty Hours Prayer may be found in the Calendar for the Recitation of the Divine Office and the Celebration of Holy Mass according to the Scottish Proper.

4. PONTIFICAL WORK FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

The Work assists by prayers and alms the Catholic Missionaries in heathen and non-Catholic countries.

Conditions of Membership.—(1) The daily recitation of Our Father and one Hail Mary, with the invocation: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us, and (2) the annual contribution of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly; (3) Special members contribute one guinea, or more, yearly; (4) Life membership subscription, £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Collector. The Collector receives the contributions of his group, circulates among them the Annals of the Work, and pays over his collection to the local Treasurer. A return of the sums received, and of their appropriation is inserted annually in the Annals of the Propagation of the Faith. One copy of each issue of the Annals is supplied to every ten members.

Spiritual Favours.—An exceptionally large number of spiritual privileges, including Plenary and Partial Indulgences, is granted to Members. Extensive Faculties are also given to priests who direct local centres or become special members. A complete list of these privileges may be obtained from the Secretary of the Scottish Council, St. Andrew's Cathedral, Dundee, or from any of the Diocesan Officials (vid. Part v.).

5. CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

The following Indulgences were granted to the Catholic Truth Society in perpetuity by a Decree of the S. Cong. de Prop. Fide, 6th October, 1896:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence (applicable to the Souls in Purgatory) to all present and future members of the Society on the day of their joining the Society, and also on the Feasts of St. Andrew, the Apostle; St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; St. Patrick, St. Columba and St. Ninian, or on any day within the Octave of these Feasts, on condition that they visit an Oratory of the Society, or their own Parish Church, and, after confessing their sins with sincere repentance and receiving Holy Communion, pray for the Propagation of the Holy Faith and for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff.

(2) A Partial Indulgence of one hundred days every time they succeed in persuading a new member to join the Society, and every time they attend a General or Local Meeting of the Society.

By decree of the Sacred Penitentiary, 7th November, 1935, the following Indulgences were also granted to the members of the Box-Tenders' Association:—

(1) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained by members on the usual conditions: (a) on any day they choose after joining the Association; (b) on the Feast of St. Francis de Sales; (c) once a month on condition that they have faithfully and regularly carried out their duty of looking after the book-case.

(2) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained at the hour of death by members who, after Confession and Holy Communion, or at least after an act of contrition, piously utter the Holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if they can do so, or at least in their hearts, and patiently accept death from the hands of God as a penalty for sin.

(3) A Partial Indulgence of three hundred days may be gained by members each and every time they arrange the pamphlets in good order and afterwards make an act of contrition, at least with a contrite heart, before the Blessed Sacrament.

The
St. Andrew Hymnal

Authorized by the Archbishops and Bishops of Scotland for use in the Scottish Dioceses

The St. Andrew Hymnal contains a wide selection of hymns suitable for the liturgical seasons and special occasions and affords the faithful an excellent opportunity to share in the liturgical life of the Church. Where suitable hymns could not be found, new hymns have been commissioned and it is noteworthy that many of the hymns are original and appear in their present form for the first time.

ST. FRANCIS LEPER GUILD

DIRECTOR: THE VERY REV. FATHER PROVINCIAL, O.F.M.
PRESIDENT: SIR HAROLD HOOD, Bt.
HON. TREASURER - G. H. WINDSOR, Esq.

LEPROSY CAN BE CURED

Founded in 1895, the St. Francis Leper Guild has as its aim to collect alms for the assistance of Missionary priests and nuns in their work for lepers throughout the world.

After the first General Meeting in 1897, a sum of £60 was divided among four leper colonies. Since then £264,734 has been sent to assist lepers, regardless of nationality or creed, throughout the world. In 1964, £22,833 16s. 4d. was collected and distributed among 99 leper colonies representing 31 countries.

WILL YOU HELP IN THIS GREAT WORK?

BY BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE GUILD—Annual Subscription not less than 5/-.

BY DONATIONS—LEPER PENNY CARDS—LEPER PENNY BOXES.

BY AN ANNUAL LEPER PENNY COLLECTION made in the SCHOOLS in honour of "FATHER DAMIEN'S DAY" (May 11th).

BY DEED OF COVENANT.

BY REMEMBERING the St. Francis Leper Guild IN YOUR WILL.

Donations and Subscriptions will be gratefully received by the Hon. Secretary, St. Francis Leper Guild, THE REVEREND MOTHER, 20 The Boltons, London, S.W.10.

SMYLLUM PARK SCHOOL

LANARK

Smyllum Park School is intended for Catholic children deprived of normal home life, sent in by Welfare Committees from all parts of Scotland. It is run by the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, who have now divided it up into family group units where families can be brought up together. This adaptation has involved great expense, and the Sisters will be most grateful for any help received — no matter how small.

THE UNIVERSE AND CATHOLIC TIMES

Catholic Family Newspaper

- ★ More and more Scots Catholics are discovering the usefulness of the "Scottish Universe and Catholic Times."
- * The rise in sales in all parts of Scotland is striking.
- * 'The Universe and Catholic Times' made history last year when it inaugurated the new printing process known as web-offset, which provided a clearer type, more sharply defined pictures and a high-class quality of colour.

Make a point of ordering your copy of the "Scottish Universe and Catholic Times." Should you have any difficulty, drop a postcard to the Circulation Manager.

Pontifical Society for the Propagation of the Faith

with its headquarters in Rome, under the direction of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda, is an organisation of the Faithful of every nation, not only to further the evangelisation of the heathen world by united prayer, but also to support the Missionaries in their toil by the collection of alms, and distribution to the Missions of the money offered by the faithful.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

- (1) The daily recitation of Our Father and Hail Mary, with the invocations: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us! St. Teresa, pray for us! and
- (2) The annual subscription of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly.
- (3) Special Members contribute one guinea or more yearly.
- (4) Life Members contribute a sum of not less than £8.

Organisation.—The usual method of collection is by the Formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Promoter. The Promoter receives the contributions of the Group.

Cards of Membership may be obtained from the local clergy.

His Holiness Pope Pius X said: "How dear to Us is this Blessed Association for the Propagation of the Faith, the most fruitful of all Catholic good works, it is not necessary to say, its object being to assist the Church in carrying out the command received from its Divine Author: 'Go and teach all nations.'"

President :

Bishop of Argyll and the Isles.

National Secretary :

Rev. John Boles,
St. Anne's, 21 Whitevale Street, Glasgow, E.1.

National Treasurer :

Very Rev. Mgr. Ronald Hendry, Mulroy, Roy Bridge,
Inverness-shire.

Contributions should be given to Circle Promoters or direct to Parish Priest.

What's different about the NEW BENDIX ?

It's the only washing machine
you've ever really wanted

The new Bendix is for people who want the finest washing machine money can buy. It is not a cheap machine; it has no gimmicks. But it combines the outstanding features of modern washing and drying machine development with precision engineering and intelligent design.

THE NEW BENDIX DOES THE WHOLE WASH—ALL ON ITS OWN!

Push-Button Versatility. It works to any programme you choose.

It's Fully Mobile—no bolting down.

Plumbing Optional—can work off the taps.

Water Rationer means you wash anything from a single shirt to a full load—economically.

AUTOMATICALLY . . .

It Washes. 1. Fills with water. 2. Heats to temperature you choose. 3. Soaks. 4. Washes.

It Rinses. Four good rinses in clean, warm water.

It Spins after each rinse.

It Spins Dry at the end of each wash programme and switches off.

It Tumble-Dries ironing dry or fully dry, as you wish; then tumble-cools and switches off.
